Council Refuses To Pay Hazing Tribunal Debts

The Student Council held its regular bi-monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon in the Student Council room, with President Bob Lynch presiding. The meeting was well attended, with the exception of Virginia Biondi and Anne Miller who had excused absences.

Among the major topics discussed during the meeting were the newly organized Press Club, and the splitting of the sophomore class and the Council on the hazing matter.

Council Votes Not to Pay

At the Student Council meeting, one of the sophomore representatives reported that through the interview of Thursday night and on that worn by a freshman at the MacMillan Ball was being damaged and the sophs claimed that since they were acting as a committee of the Student Council, it was the responsibility of the Council to take care of the damaged property. At that meeting the Council voted not to pay.

David Vann, President of the Sophomore Class, attended Wednesday night’s meeting to question the council concerning its policy on resolutions and committees. In answer to Vann, it was

The feeling of the Council that its policy had been expressed in its recent action was quite clear in this case, where it seemed apparent that the actions of the committee were unreasonable and totally negat...

WISDOM AND WILKES

By GEORGE ELLIOTT, Acting Dean of Men

ON BOWLING SCORES AND ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Sunday evening the intra-mural bowling league commenced its operations at WGN Community Center. Since bowling is one of the most popular campus activities, it is worthy of comment by the Dean of Men that an activity which is enjoyed by so many students should be conducted with such things as student discipline, academic probation, dismissal, from school, etc. The above fact is strictly incidental information and is only intended to pad out this week's column.

Mr. Fusar and I have been encouraged to notice that most of the players have their right arms due to writing on blackboards and/or other activities, which is a reasonable assumption that we can still believe bowlers have tried picking up a ball at the same time. We both agree that it is pure fun and we have never seen our glassy, We expect a great season!

We do hope that the allies will be a little straighter and less warped than they were last year. We have always suspected that the allies are a little off-center last year. We expect a great season!

In the past week I have tried to convince Welton that a strike is not necessarily a labor dispute, I have told him that in bowling the word, spartry, doesn't mean he is supposed to show undue mercy for the seven or eight pins still remaining after his first strike. I have told him that our conception of the game is an essential part of our bowling culture. It has shocked me to notice the number of students on the bowling roster who could well be on academic probation. I believe it is a fair assumption that the students who have been bowling too long have obviously been practicing too much teaching and studying too little. Men, remember you are in college! What does a bowling score really amount to five years after failing out of college? In conclusion, Welton and I expect a great season for the 1956 season.

Allen A. Jeter

HONORS

By JONNI FALK

Allen A. Jeter, a 1955 Wilkes graduate, recently saw the sporting goods section of the New Jersey Courier for less than a year for a Wilkes basketball player winning an all-state in a wide competition of New Jersey basketball schools. Jeter, who turned to journalism late in his college days began writing for the Courier during the junior year of his junior year. He showed natural ability in reporting sports and was appointed as managing editor of the Beacon in his senior year. His ability in the Courier's general news editor, in addition to work as the college sports editor, was recognized with the first annual award in 1954, and several journalism courses followed him for the past three years. Jeter is expected to enter Central New Jersey Union County Technical College in 1957.

As is the case in many small newspapers, Jeter was assigned to cover both sports and general news. The sports section was his "baby" but he has done much work in both departments. Jeter has also been working as a "baby"

Bloomburg and Rider Down Colonels after Win As Defense Falters; At Yeshiva Saturday Night: Ferris, Morgan, Bresnahan Spark Speedy Offense

By JONNI FALK

The Colonel cagers wound up a disappointing first week of activity by dropping their second tilt of the young campaign 65-83 at Rider Wednesday night. Previously, the hoopers had topped Ithaca, 77-62, and lost to Bloomburg, 83-90 on successive nights.

Eddie Davis', five will attempt to get back to winning ways tomorrow. Newcomers against Yeshiva. The Colonels dumped Yeshiva at home last week and will be out to make it a two in a row over Bernie Sarachok's Washington Heights squad.

Reading the list of veterans playing for Yeshiva this year is Irwin Blumenreich, 6'4" forward who set the Milte's all-time scoring record last year with 553 points. Davis will probably delegate George Morgan to the problem of stopping him.

Davis will continue to go with his first five of Morgan, John Bresnahan, Joe Jablonski, Jim Ferris and Carl Van Dyke. His big problem will be to get them to play defense in order to make up for the height disadvantages he will face all year.

Secondly, the Colonels were unable to hang on to an eight-point lead they held in the third period. Rider went ahead to stay with two minutes to play. Ferris and Bresnahan fell through in the final moments as John Bresnahan had 12 and Morgan 11.

The Colonels were able to cash in on an 11-7/11 split out of 14 attempts thus digging their own grave in the third period.

George Morgan tossed in 13 straight points in the final minutes against Ithaca to give the Colonels a successful home and season opener.

The Pomona center wound up with 25 for the night while neighbor John Bresnahan had 21. Those two and John Jablonski were outstanding on rebounds in this game.

However, the following night again Bloomburg, theColonels wanted the other way and the down-country Huskies continued their mastery of the Colonels. Actually, Wilkes had a better shooting percentage against Bloomburg than they did against Ithaca, but the Huskies controlled the boards on the smaller Teachers' court.

Jim Ferris was high in the Bloom tilt with 22 while Morgan trailed behind him with 13.

The Colonels play their next home game next Wednesday night with Sunquahanna furnishing the opposition. Preliminary game will start at 7:15 and be followed immediately by the varsity clash.

TWO VOLLEYBALL GAMES SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY

The intramural volleyball tour- nament will get underway Monday night at 7 with two matches scheduled for the gymnasium courts.

Chase Lounge will play the night off on Cage 1 and the Slipstickers will meet the All Year team at Cage 2 for the night.

The tournament will continue until each team has played the others in the circuit twice.

Wrappers Open at Swarthmore; Shugar Finished

The Colonel grapplers received severe blow to their hopes yes- terday when it was learned that Jim Shugar, veteran 125-pound performer, would be unable to com- pete this year due to medical rea- sons.

Sam had held down the light- weight post for the past several years. It was the second se- rious blow suffered by Joe Bresnahan's grapples before the season even started. The other was the loss of Bob Mor- ris, runner-up in the Purl-3 tour- nament last year.

Reese is working with a paper- thin roster in preparations for the "as usual first next Wednesday night at Swarthmore.

The Swarthmore debut will be followed by away contests at Hap- hah, December 14, and January 7, before the Colonels have their home opener January 14 at East Stroudsburg.

The probable lineup for the "as usual first next Wednesday night at Swarthmore is:

135-lb. class — Keith Williams
160-lb. — Jim Ward
175-lb. — Don Reynolds or Bob Koser
184-lb. — Terry Smith or Dennis Kavita
195-lb. — Dave Thomas or Gene Lawry
220-lb. — Walt Glogowski
246-lb. — Stan Abrams

Heavyweight — Bob Mason

THIS IS SECTIONALISM?

Just to add a few words to the name of copy write up from the Georgia Tech mens, we thought this was an interesting item.

We wonder if Governor Griffin of Georgia Tech, former governor of Georgia and Georgia Tech before he issued his now historic report.

It seems that both teams are loaded down with northern boys with many of them coming from Pennsylvania. Now this is all well and good. Some of these boys are getting an opportunity for an edu- cation and others are doing what they can to be best — play football.

But, how many of them agree with Griffin's request? If the Gov- ernor of Georgia wants to main- tain sectionalism in his state, why can't he have his way? If regents to prohibit the recruiting of northern gridironers? Surely, none of the representatives on his teams are not consistent with his "South for South" policy.

Go! Just think — if he would do that maybe we could get a few of our top players to stay within the state.

Anyway, the whole plan is a little oddious. Seems to be a poli- tical football in retaliation for the Superintendent's segregation statement.

Ping Pong Tourney Starts Monday

The Intramural ping pong tour- nament will start Monday, accord- ing to word received from director of Physical Education.

Matches will be played Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights from 6:30 to 9 in the gymnasium. How- ever, they can also be played from 17 to 4 in the afternoon by special arrangement.

Reese said that opponents slated for each other in the bracket can make their own ar- rangements to play if they know each other. Contestants who do not know each other should appear at the gym at the times specified.

Participants will not be allowed to play in street shoes. Either "tops" or "bonnets" will be worn.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT — Jim Ferris (left), the shortest man on the Colonel varsity basketball squad, offers an interesting contrast to 6'9" freshman center Dave Shakes. Ferris, a 5'6" "drainpipe" cager, is expected to furnish a solution to the height problem which has plagued the Colonels for many years. He is seeking action as a reserve center this year.

COLONELLETTES PLAY MISERY IN EXHIBITION MATCH SAT.

It has been announced by the Colonellettes' coach, Toni Shem- maker, that the Wilkes team will meet Missicons in an exhibition game this Saturday at 11 A.M. in the new Conghin High School gym.

The convention of the Northeastern Physical Education Directors has requested this exhibition match in order for the two teams to dem- onstrate the 1955-56 rule changes in the game.
LIVE A WILL CONDUCT LOCAL PHILHARMONIC, DESTROY TO ASSIST

Mr. Ferdinand Luna, instructor at the Wilkes College School of Music, will conduct the Wyoming Valley Philharmonic Orchestra this winter for the fourth year in succession. The nineteen-piece symphony is composed of talented amateurs from the Wyoming Valley area and in its few short years of existence has grown rapidly, attaining a position which brings it the praise of many professional musicians.

Mr. Luna also is the concertmaster of the Scranton Philharmonic. In the summer of 1892 he conducted the orchestra of the renowned San Carlo Opera House in Naples, Italy.

Mr. John Detrey, head of the college school of music, will appear in the direction of the three concerts that have been scheduled by the philharmonic orchestra. The first concert will be given just after the Christmas vacation.

Several Wilkes students will play in the symphony this year and others who are interested in fine music may obtain season tickets from the organization’s ticket committee for a small fee.

Cue ’n’ Curtain Begins “Bloomer Girl” Casting

After a brief rest from last month’s production of “Nothing But the Truth,” the Cue ’n’ Curtain Club is once again at work. The musical on the boards is “Bloomer Girl,” a delightful and refreshing comedy in three acts.

Mr. Al Grob stated that all students are invited to participate on stage and off. Casting will begin this week. Anyone interested in committee work please contact Producer Al Grob.

Tryouts will be held Monday and Tuesday afternoon at 3 o’clock in Gies Hall.

At a meeting last week the club chose committee members and chairman. The committee members are: Al Rosenberg, producer; Anita Clerkes, general publicity; Ray Noonan, Pat Watkins, co-chairmen of posters; Jane Obita, Marian Laine, co-chairmen of furniture; Pat York, production; Fred Heisch, Joe Oliver, co-chairmen of staging; Nancy Brown, Nancy Batchelor, co-chairmen of wardrobe.

Ed Club Entertains High School FTA’s; Jim Jones Featured

Entertainment and refreshments plus a fun-loving crowd tells the story of the Education Club party held last Monday night at the Wilkes cafeterias.

The social gathering, purpose of which was to accept and acquaint high school students with the college, and to facilitate the exchange of ideas in regard to FTA’s, was attended by students from Meyers, Coughlin, Kingston, and West Pittston as well as by Wilkes Education Club members.

Chief entertainment was supplied by ventriloquist Jim Jones and his little companion, Jerry. Jones also led group singing.

Kleine Krieger, president of the West Pittston FTA, spoke and the evening was rounded out with dancing and charades.

The Education Club began its work of initiating Future Teachers of America Clubs in high schools last year, and since that time has entertained members of these clubs at various parties.

Monday’s party, attended by approximately 60, certainly was one of the best.

First Soph Bulletin Appears on Campus

The first issue of the Sophomore Class Bulletin was distributed on campus yesterday. The bulletin, in charge of Mary West and non-class officials, will be published bi-monthly to inform class members of the activities of the officers they chose to represent them.

Included in the bulletin will be announcements of future plans, reports of the class’s four Student Council members, reminders of class and council meetings, and information concerning meetings of the representative council for the class.

The bulletin will be able to be distinguished by its color, which is gold and yellow. It is the hope of Class President Dave Vann that all sophomore class members, in all fields of study, take an interest in the bulletin and submit ideas of improvement to him.

S.A.M. to Visit Stock Exchange

On Tuesday, S.A.M. will make a field trip to the Brooks Building to observe the stock exchange. The party will meet at Pickering Hall and will leave about 3:30. The excursion should be very interesting and enlightening; and all interested, non-members as well as members, are invited to attend.
