The Delta Delta Rho annual St. Patrick's Day Tea will be held this evening in McClintock Hall from 3 to 5.

Invitations have been sent to all the girls, representing a tradition that is never expected from each. The annual affair, co-sponsored with the Washington's Birthday Tea, is held to acquaint high school girls with the Wilkes College campus and sorority members.

Mrs. Gertrude Denen, Dean of Student Life, and Miss Barone, one of the Delta Delta Rho sorority sisters, will attend the tea. The entertainment will be provided by Mrs. A. E. L. Denen, head of the entertainment department.

The theme of the tea will be "Leprechaun Leap" and "Frosch Affair Begins." The festivities will be held in the Wilkes College dining hall, with refreshments and music provided.

The tea will feature a special assortment of Irish cuisine, including shepherd's pie, boxty, and shamrock-shaped cookies. A selection of Irish music will also be played, including traditional songs such as "The Wearing of the Green" and "Danny O'Reilly.'

The evening will conclude with a costume contest, where participants will be judged on their creativity and adherence to the theme. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, and refreshments will be served.

The tea is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend. Please join us for a night of fun, celebration, and Irish culture!

Don't Kill the Goose

Back around the middle of October the City was kind enough to renew its agreement with regard to the special treatment of student parking in the College area, particularly on South River Street. The City has said nothing since, fortunately, but the other day four of our officers pointed out that it might be well justified in so doing.

What annoyed the people who spoke to us was the inconsideration of some groups who act in such manner as to fill not only their own space, but that of another as well.

And it is not too unusual, either, they claim, to find other autos boxed in beyond all hope of moving until one of the machines on either end has left.

And though, as some would say, the tendency for money to park in restricted zones, or, even worse, next to City fire plugs.

Now when the City granted students parking privileges, it was with the understanding that they were responsible to their fellow students and to the College. Privilege is not, despite what some of the College's less admirable citizens might think it, something which can be removed, and if abuses continue, drivers who continue to demonstrate their irresponsibility may just discover one day that it has been.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To: Mr. David Vann

Dean, Dave

You are the Student Council's big joke and a big laugh — Well, I say that after hearing about your latest jokes, and a bigger laugh. For an intelligent boy, (and I know you are) why do you have to create such a silly scene. This, Dave, is illogical.

The logical and proper course of action regarding the Student Council and its members would have been the Council's representation of your views. You couldn't do this because it didn't give you the chance of knocking the Council. Had you taken the trouble to look up you would have found the record of the Student Council unbenthal by failure in gaining representation for you.

For example, let us consider the Student Council meeting of last year, in the Council in September of 1955. The whole matter was handled so amicably that it is sad to think that many students could not understand what had taken place in the past. The Council members, in working toward their goal of representation, were, as you would be, responsible for the efficiency, and their services to you.

I suggest you consider this year's Winter Carnival, I know that I am backed by a majority of those who attended when I say that it was one of the best we have had. Another Council Success. Space does not permit me to speak of the others. The record stands for itself. But, if you ever, Dave, you wouldn't look at the rec- ord, I wonder if it would do your purpose.

Baseball Coach John Reese, interviewed Wednesday, was optimistic about the chances for this year's diamond crew. The team as a whole is young, with plenty of experienced pitching.

Cagers Close Year
With 11-15 Record,
Beat Philly Five
by Cliff Keobland
The Wilkes College cagers closed out their basketball season last Saturday night, losing to East Stroudsburg on the victor's court, 73-71. The Colonels had 11 victories against 15 defeats.

Inability to win on the road was the key factor in the Colonels' fair showing this year. They were 2 and 13 on the road for the year, but at home they were almost unbeatable. They wrapped up 9 wins on the local court to only two setbacks.

In the last home game of the season, last Friday night, the Blue and Gold had an easy time with an outstanding performance by the squad. The Colonels scored 177, 87-54. The game was even closer after the first two minutes. Wilkes piled up a quick two-point lead on Carl Van Dyke's lay-up just three seconds from the opening whistle.

The Colonels continued to increase their margin and lead comfortably at half-time, 55-26. In the second half, Blue and Gold coach Eddie Davis gave his starters a rest and the Pharmacy five began to come from behind. But they never could really catch fire and the Wilkes subs kept pouring it in till the final gun.

George Morgan, top scorer for the Colonels this year, was high in the game with 22. Bob Sokol had 12 and Joe Jablonski had 11. Carl Van Dyke, Elmer Snider and Jim Ferris had ten.

A TIP OF THE FALK HAT
Well, both teams made it through the season in one piece. Maybe, the grapplers could have even waded through a few more opponents the way they were coming on with a rush at the end of the year, but we doubt if the cagers could ever have taken the floor for another game. The hoop season was just too darn long.

Starting back somewhere around the beginning of December, the basketball team sloshed through 27 tilts with 15 of them coming on the road. It was just too much for some of them. Remember, there were a few vacuums spilled into the hoop season, and the long schedule complete with layoffs did more harm than good.

They were tired at the end of the season - yet they were dead game. We don't think Wilkes will ever have a game bunch of guys on the court at one time than it had this year in the likes of Jimmi Ferris, Joe Jablonski, Carl Van Dyke, Bob Sokol, Shawn Breenahan, George Morgan — and all the crew who were ready when needed.

Perhaps few people realize that this team, even though it had a losing season, racked up as many wins as another Wilkes court team. AND THEY WON ONLY TWO TILTS ON THE ROAD ALL YEAR!

Not enough can be said about the wrestling team. The one blot in its record is nothing to be ashamed of. Let's face it! Bloom probably has more to hide about that match than we do. And speaking of gamesmanship, don't ever forget! Neil Dudarick continually wrestling out of his class with nary a complaint; Sam Shugar's almost amazing come-back; Bob Mason losing 50 pounds to make 177 a few times; or any of the guys who kept going despite injuries and hunger problems. It's been swell knowing them; watching them; and writing about them.
