FIRST JAZZ CONCERT FEATURES LEE VINCENT

Best at Charleston, 'Valley Elvis Presley' To Be Awarded Prizes

by M. L. Ommer

JAZZ! JAZZ! JAZZ! Tonight the International Relations Club in answer to the requests of many students, is sponsoring the first Jazz concert to be held at Wilkes. Lee Vincent and his combo will provide a program of modern and classical jazz from 9 to 12 in the gymnasium. The program will be varied from the usual Friday night dances.

Although jazz concerts are new here, they have been extremely popular at many other colleges. Jazz concerts are usually informal and an opportunity for a social get-together.

Jazz enthusiasts will be able to hear the best of its type and others can learn to appreciate jazz.

The bandstand will be placed in the center of the gym, and the audience will be seated on the floor. The audience will be seated on the floor.

Better Legs?

BEACON Contest Seeks to Prove Males Superior

The males on the Wilkes campus have been busy proving to the girls that they are a group of fun-loving, collegiate, high-spirited young men after all, and incidentally, the superior sex.

The enthusiastic response which the Beacon's "Guys' Greatest Game Contest" has received seems to prove that the Wilkes men are not the stuffy, dull, unimaginative guys that the girls have often accused them of being, but are exactly the opposite.

Wagers are being made as to whether or not one of the men will cop the title of nicest legs. Some eyes have been turned toward members of the faculty, and the Beacon has been informed that it's going to be quite a battle for the title.

The struggle for the fairest legs and loveliest knees title will also be a close one, with many campus organizations vying for the honor.

Dan Gawlas, the official photographer for the contest, has an- nounced that pictures may be taken today in Chase Theatre from 12:45 to 1:15. Anything that that's necessary to enter is to report to Dan during these hours with your pants pulled up. The Beacon will print these pictures as soon as possible.

A committee of Theta Delta Rho members headed by Paty Reese, Janice Schuster, and Norma Davis, will select winners from photographs submitted to the Beacon. The committee is kept secret, but so far have divulged that trophies will be presented.

The closing date of the contest has not yet been announced and will depend upon the response of the men. If the present enthusiasm continues, Editor Skyes hopes to announce the winners in Letters and Lamps a few weeks from now.

So, hurry and enter men, for the Hub Advertising Contest will be closed December 6.

SECOND HUB CONTEST TO CLOSE DECEMBER 6

The news is out.

Information for the second Hub Advertising Contest is now posted.

Where? The second floor, 100 S. College Ave., will house the contest.

This time, the item being advertised is a student's winter coat. It's the man's greatest, man, and to top it off, anyone can win it with a name (such as "The Colonel Coat").

Making of the ad is really quite simple. All you have to do is make your ad, submit the original, and arrange the ad.

You said you have to be an artist, huh. Well, you have only to make your ad, write the copy and arrange the ad.

One Act Plays Begin Monday Night

SEEDS OF SUSPICION, LEPRECHAUN, HOW TO PROPOSE TO BE PRESENTED

In Series from December 3 to 5

Rehearsals are now going into full swing for "Cue n' Cur-in's three one-act plays. Sunday afternoon has been chosen for dress rehearsals, the plays will be performed Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights at 8:00 P.M. in Chase Theater.

"Seeds of Suspicion," directed by Larry Amund, is the first play to go on. Playing the role of Harold Mumsey, the suspicious husband in the play will be Fred Whipple, freshman; his wife, Ethel, will be played by capable Daisie Gebhardt, sophomore.

Lucy and Edward Brooks are to be portrayed by Pat Yost and Robertie Stevens, Marsha Mason and George Schall will be filling the roles of snobbish Carolyn Wallace and her son, Arthur, respectively.

"How to Propose," a one-act play, will be directed by Pullman, one of the best-equipped plays ever seen. As the play opens, the audience is met by a mysterious, touch of humor is added to the characters of Dickinson, a slow-spoken chemist played by Andy Evans.

Ballet Gild-Gives Assembly Program

by John Pianoneschi

Scranton Ballet Guild, under the direction of John Pianoneschi and Alexi Ramov, presented a program of Ballet at assembled in the gymnasium. The dance, composed by Ferdinand Liva, high-

Mr. Detroy opened the program by introducing Mr. Ramov, choreoger of the school, who spoke briefly about the origin and history of ballet. It explained that it encompassed not only dancing but also music and drama, and that ballet and music are part of our heritage.

Exhibits of the different types of ballet dancing were given by the dancers. Also included in the program was Striplina, a dance in the modern jazz mood.

The final Spanish character dance was shown by Joanie Mabe, who performed a dance in the flamenco style. The dancers also included Albana, and Stick, who performed a number of the dance tunes of the country.

The exciting Dance of Blue sky and Sea was presented by Sevilla, as an original dance of her creation.

FIRST MEET FOR COLONEL MATMEN WEDNESDAY AT E. STROUDSBURG

Coach Reese Seeking Heavyweight Candidate To Complete Varsity

Wrestling season opens next week, and Coach John Reese’s understrength, but undaunted grapplers, are looking forward to this first match. The Colonel matmen will travel to East Stroudsburg Wednesday afternoon to take on the Teachers’ squad.

Reese’s team is young and inexperienced on the whole, with only three lettermen returning from last year’s team. The 1956-57 group turned in a 9-wins, one-loss record, the best in the College’s mat history.

The three veterans are Jim Ward, who moves up from 150-lb. to the 177-lb. class; Terry Smith, last year’s 157-pounder, going up to 187 this year; and Walt Glogowski, jumping from 187 to 197. The latter two must give away weight in their new classes, in order to balance the team.

One spot giving Coach Reese trouble is the heavyweight division. So far, the berth is wide open and anyone who can handle the chore will be received with open arms, or should we say grappling hooks?

There are some bright prospects among the new faces, such as Basil Smith and Dick Weiss at 125, Al Lamereaux and Tony Puma at 150, Bob Kosher at 187 and Walt Zorcoe at 197.

The mat schedule for the 1956-57 season:

December:
1. St. Stroudsburg – away, 5:15 P.M.
2. Swarthmore – home, 7:30 P.M.
3. Brooklyn Poly – away, 5:30 P.M.

WILKES LOSSES, 45-13, TO MORAVIAN ELEVEN

by Cliff Kehl, Sports Editor

Substitute tailback Dick Wozniak’s one-man show fell short as the Wilkes football team closed their 1956 season losing to Moravian College, 45-13, at Bethlehem on November 17.

Dick scored both Colonel touchdowns and put on a fine defensive show, but the strong running backs of the Greyhounds found the path to the end zone an easy one and scored seven times.

Paul Sultta, Moravian halfback, started the scoring early by running back the opening kickoff 90 yards for the TD.

Wilkes, led by Wozniak, came right back to tie the score with the flashy tailback going over from the 2. Dick then kicked the extra point to give the Blue and Gold a short-lived 7-6 lead.

Following another Moravian score in the third quarter to give the home team a 22-7 lead, Wozniak ran back the ensuing kickoff 86 yards for his second score.

Ronnie Racine, the starting tailback, was sidelined with the flu.

Wozniak, who hadn’t scored a TD till the final game, finished second to Racine in the scoring department with two touchdowns and two extra points for a total of 14 points. Ron had 31.

The loss was the Colonels’ eighth against a lone victory. The Greyhounds won their fifth against three setbacks.

Dave Has Inexperienced Club Compared to Veteran Bombers; First Home Till Monday Night

by Neil Turtlet

Coach Eddie Davis and his cagers will take to the road tomorrow evening to encounter the Ithaca College Bombers in the opening tilt of the 1956-57 season.

Wilkes will be out to avenge a defeat given to them last year on the same court. This will not be easy, as the Bombers will present an all-veteran lineup.

Monday evening, local fans will get an opportunity to watch the cagers at work as they oppose the East Stroudsburg lads on the home court.

There will be no shortage of drills, for the Ithaca game starts a string of six games in ten days.

With only four returning lettermen on the squad, to improve last year’s 11-15 record seems difficult. However, Coach Davis is very heartened by the play of three untried freshmen.

In recent practices, Bernie Kedlacz, Bob Turley, and George Gach have shown. If they live up to the expectations of the coach, the Colonels may have a successful year.

Big Dave Shakes, the 6’9” center from Westmoreland, has been moving very well, especially on defense. Aside from “Big Dave”, the team has a real height problem, with only George Morgun, one of the small-college scoring leaders last year, supplying the needed backboard strength.

The cagers have two very capable ball handlers and back court men, Eddie Birtbaum and Bob Sobot. As a result, the Wilkes team should utilize its fast break effectiveness if the Colonels expect to have a successful year, they will have to win on the road. Last year, the Colonels posted a very fine 7-2 record on their home court, but had a dismal 4-13 record away from home.

THE KERNEL'S KORN

An advertisement in a national magazine informs the world that Scotch, bourbon- and rye-flavored tootpas can now be bought. We personally feel that if we are going to brush our teeth and then be accused of imbibing, we might as well be hanged for a sheep as for a lamb; therefore we have just re-stocked the shelves of the old "medicine chest" with several bottles of joy-juice.

INTER-DORM COUNCIL TO HOLD YULE PARTY
by Jerome Stein

I.D.C. held its weekly meeting in the cafeteria. At the meeting, of primo importance at the meeting was the discussion concerning the I.D.C. annual Christmas Party which will be held December 18th.

It was unanimously agreed that the party will be held at a very appropriate place. The faculty has agreed not to go on exams on the following day, December 19th. This book will be available for those students who would not be desiring to go to the party.

Coordinating, party chairman, announced that in addition to the usual xmas songs and dances, there will be selections by the Male Chorus at intermission.

Cardinal invitations will be sent to faculty members as well as to the student body.

CHORUS PREPARES FOR MANY PROGRAMS

College male chorus, has announced an extra hour of rehearsal in preparation for the Colleges' biggest moment to date.

Ordinarily in the past, the chorus will sing at the party to be given by the other colleges. This year the party is the annual Christmas party given by the dormitory sta-data. For this reason, the group will have several full-scale concerts in local high schools.

First of these schools to be visited will be Plains High School.

Men who have sung before the college recently in two well-received performances. Last Friday evening an unknown group of 1,000 people at the All Ensemble.

Earlier last week, the group sang several numbers at the Faculty Tea given for Mr. and Mrs. George Ralston.

Letterman Complete Formal Arrangements
by Richard J. Myers

Letterman's Club announced on December 1, that its Christmas Formal, The Gay Blade Glove, have been completed.

The dance will be held on December 14 at the Wilkes Gym. Music will be furnished by the band and由 his orchestra with dancing from nine to twelve.

Cost of the dance will be $4.00 per couple and tickets can be ob-ained from any of the Letterman's Club.

Al Mahurri, general chairman of the dance, is assisted by the following: Tony Bianco and Mel Newman, decorations; Bob Polley, tickets; Bob Sokol, favors; Bill Farish, programs; Dave Polley, refreshments; and Leo Barber is handling publicity for the affair.

Mrs. Helen Brubek will officially join the Basketball Coach, the gym instructor and coach for the girls' basketball team, "Colonel." The new coach will receive her appointment and take charge January 1st. As Mrs. Brubek was working on her final class at the Colllege, he held this position at Wilkes from 1956 to 1958. Before that time she was a basketball captain at Stroudsburg State

High School. Last year she returned to the Wilkes faculty for driver-training. Being known for her fine job of coaching, she has done a countable amount of refereeing of basketball games in the area.

Brubek has enthusiastically embarked upon the task of getting the girls' basketball team into shape. Although few and enough to make up a first-rate team, Mrs.

Brubek, director of the girls' team, said that the last year's "caution Colossolists" are unable to attend the drill ses-sessions Monday, December 2, and Thursday, December 4, at 11:00.

A rough draft of the report, compiled from the results of the survey, was presented to the committee members at a mid-year meeting by Rose Weinstein. After discussion and approval of the survey, the results were submitted to the Administering Council at its Tuesday afternoon meeting and to the Student Council on Tuesday evening.

PLEACMENT INTERVIEWS

A representative from Three Bridges, New Jersey will meet with students December 3 to interview employer.

The meeting will be held at 11:00 A.M. Assignments should be made through Mr. Chwalski.

The Hagan Corporation will send a representative to interview students December 4 to interview any interested seniors.
