Today is the last opportunity for the men of Wilkes to enter the Beacon's "Guys' Greatest Game Contest". Yes, you heard right! Today between 12:00 and 1:15 is the last time that Dan Gwiazda will be available to those eager males who wish to enter this contest to end all contests. The place will be Chase Theater.

What campus organization is the most collegiate-the most spirited? Which organization contains the best selection of male legs? Are the student the facetiously older (you're just as old as you feel, you know)?

These are some of the pertinent questions which the Beacon will answer shortly.

In the meantime, it's all legs - legs - legs of every size, shape, and color, as the men of Wilkes battle it out to the finish. Pictures of these legs will appear in the next issue of the Beacon, and the winners of the contest will appear in the issues of the Beacon immediately after Christmas. Judges for the contest, Theta Delta Rho members, are noted for their courage, and despite the keen competition, which is being manifested, we are sure, decide in the manner of a Solomon who gives the honest, fairest, and most crooked.

FLYING SAUCER DANCE AT GYM.
MORAN'S IVY LEAGUERS HIRED

by M. L. Ousler

The Flying Saucer has landed on Wilkes Campus. Most of the students have noticed the strange objects from outer space hovering in the sky above the lawn between Chase Hall, Kirby Hall and the cafeteria during the past week.

A Beacon reporter was able to get an exclusive interview from one of our interplanetary neighbors aboard one of the ships. He said that the spaceship had come on a special mission-to announce the Flying Saucer Dance tomorrow night.

The Press and History Clubs, sponsors of the dance, have chosen the flying saucer idea for the theme because of the seemingly rising interest in the circulation of stories about visits of people and vehicles from outer space.

Decorations will center about a spaceship (painted for the purpose by the interviewed spaceman). The recent records of cosmic visits and travelers will be played during intermission. They have been bor- rowed from "Mayor" Jim Ward and station WBB.

Bob Moran and the Ivy Leaguers will supply dance music from 9 to 12 with special emphasis on modern dance styles.

Patsy Davis and Don Jailes, presidents of the Press and History Clubs, are serving as co- chairman of the dance.

Sam Hears Speaker on Cost Management

Commerce and Finance students attended the monthly meeting of the Student Finance and Management (SAM), Monday evening at the Scranton Club in Scranton. Speaker for the evening was Mr. Joseph F. Rocero, senior vice president of the Scranton Company, Consulting Accountants and Management Consultants.

Mr. Rocero spoke on "Management Cost Controls." Mr. Rocero reviewed some reports that management needed for controlling costs in manufacturing. He pointed out that management cost controls concern many parts: Finances, Propose, Management for Marketing and Sales, Operating reports, and Control.

Further discussion included various ideas and descriptions of what a good managerial report should contain. A group discussion period followed the speaker. Those in attendance were also asked to participate in the discussion.

Mr. Rocero is also a Director in many well-known organizations: Professional Accountants Council Company, the Third National Bank & Trust Company, and the Colladine Mutual. He is the author of many books that have been recognized nationally in Who's Who.

The monthly meetings of SAM have always been very interesting for those who have come. They have not only heard a speech concerning important business matters, but also, they have the opportunity to see and hear how business is conducted in industry.

Leonard Mulkey, president of the college's senior chapter of Kappa Delta, extended an invitation to all Commerce and Finance students to attend the next meeting. The knowledge gained will be of immeasurable value to all who wish to become better understanding of the functions of business.

GEORGE MORGAN’S SCORING PUNCH ANNEXES ATHLETE OF WEEK HONOR

ASHER LEADS KEGLERS
BY DEFEATING SHAMROCKS

by Barry Miller

The Ashley Aces took over undisputed first place in the National League with a win against Shamrocks last week. The win was necessary for the survival of the Aces. They were two teams were tied for the league leadership.

After being badly beaten in the first game, the Aces bounced back to take the next two. Ashley in each game, in which they rolled up a tremendous team score of 880, virtually gave them the match. The men of the Ashley were led by Paul Schecter’s 225-108. Marie Reimüller’s 333, high for the ladies, was joined by Charlie Whittley who hit 105.

The Aces won’t be falling for his team.

Two-point deficit in the second game was all that separated the Winning team from a shutout over the Shamrocks. Coach John Reene was the key figure in the contest.

The superlative bowling of George Gacha gave the Unconcerned their first successful evening. Their victim was the Super-Chargers. George had a 324 series, second highest of the current season. Dave Pway gave it the old college try for the losers, but the Chargers couldn’t get that spark.

The winning team was the American League as they would rewrite their history. The schedule has the Ghost Riders rolling against the Sextests on 3 and 4, and the Flying Jets in 5 and 6. The Aristocrats will try to stop the lossless record of the winning team, but the pips weren’t falling for the Shamrocks.

Winning team ran up their first win of the season against the winning team.

The win was by a score of 30-18. The winning team was the American League with a score of 14-10. The winning team was the American League with a score of 14-10.

HOOPLERS WIN GAME
AT DICKINSON, 83 - 58

The cagers downed the Dickinson College five in a row last week. The biggest win of the season at Carlisle, in the first athletic en- countering between the two institutions. Six men were in double sixgures as the Colonels pounded on the house with two points in the home club, 63-58. The winning team was the Dickinson College

coed, 42-20. Led by George Morgan, with six men and six foul sixes, the Wilkesmen rang up their first win of the season.

Freshmen George Gacha and Bob Turley had big games to the cause. Eddie Birnhauer contributed 14, Bob Shol 12, and Elmer Zupke had 10, as all four varsity lettermen had double figures.

Winning team was the American League with a score of 14-10.

Playing in their initial home game of the season Monday evening, the cagers made it two losses in a row for the East Stroudsburg five, 85-80. The Colonels got the extra board strength and good offensive play as they broke through their opponent’s zone defense for most of the game.

However, winning pressure playing on the part of the Stroud quintet, in the last moments of the regular season, which ended in a 76-76 deadlock, and good shooting in the overtime period proved to be the difference.

George Morgan led the Wilkes attack with 30 points, as he gave

MATMEN HOME
7:30 P.M. WED.

The amazing College matmen will return to the home grounds after coming up short at Swarthmore College on the mat. The wrestlers, minus three of their regulars, swept to a 14-10 win over East Stroudsburg State Teachers College in the opening mat Wednesday afternoon. An even more amazing feat in that fact that four of the Colonels had to move up in their weight class and were able to score points.

Winning team was the American League with a score of 14-10.

Mat Coach John Reene commenting on the unexpected result, said, “The boys just wrestled their best and won on weight classes. We were in good form. Of course, Neil Dadurka, who had just come out for practice a week ago, pinned his man and that gave us the victory. But on the whole, the team was very good.”

Mostlikely, the Colonels will again have to forgo five points in the style of weight class.

But on the whole, the team was very good.

Debaters Take Seventh Place

Varsity Team Wins Six While Losing Only Two In Initial Tournament

The students of Wilkes can be justly proud of their debating team. According to John Bucholtz, chairman of the N.Y.U. Hall of Fame Tournament, Wilkes ranked second among ten top debate teams in the country. Four of these are Ivy League schools, five are Eastern schools, and one is Wilkes. The teams, in order of standing, are: 1. Georgetown; 2. Fordham; 3. Princeton; 4. St. Peter’s; 5. St. John’s University; 6. St. John’s College; 7. St. John’s College; 8. Harvard; 9. Dartmouth, 10. Penn.

In a field of forty-six, reading like a who’s who in American colleges, and by far the largest number ever to attend the N.Y.U. Tourney, the Wilkes team was officially seventh among ten school standings and tied for second in the total number of points scored for each team. Georgetown, the winner of the tournament, with the only unblemished record, Fordham, in second with a 7-1 record, and Wilkes were the only three teams to receive over 700 points. Georgetown had 734, Wilkes and Fordham had 709 each.

The Wilkes affirmative team of Fred Roberts and Bruce Warshal won 2 and lost one. The negative team of John Bucholtz and Jesse Choper also won three and lost one. The single loss of the negative team is their first in eighteen debates.

There was every indication that Bruce Warshal led the field of 184 debaters in individual scoring, with a total of 155 points. 100 points for four rounds is considered “superior”. Choper’s perfect score of 36 out of 36, Bucholtz’s 25, and Roberts’ 22 were also considered outstanding performances. The Princeton coach later told Dr. Kruger that the Bucholtz-Choper team is one of the best he has ever handled.

Although Wilkes did not win the Tournament, Dr. Kruger, who coached the team to its victory, was highly elated by the showing, particularly the case management of the affirmative team, who actually outscored the western negative team. This in the third-in three trials that Wilkes had held a 6-2 record against Yale, but in the fourth, this record was good enough to give them second place, but the field in other years was only half as large and it was this year, one group of which was the same record of past years put us 7th this year we were chosen as the best 1/4 of the teams (12) won almost 1/4 of all the decisions. These, according to Dr. Kruger, are the reasons we did not place as highly as other years, although in team this was easily outperformed its predecessors of 1902 and 1903.

CHRISTMAS BUFFET TUESDAY AT 6:30

Thota Delta Rho has scheduled its annual Christmas Buffet for next Tuesday at 6:30 in the cafeteria. A very popular event in past years, the Buffet represents an attempt by the sorority to emphasize to each of its members some of the quiet beauty of Christmas apart from many of its hectic aspects.

Chairman of the buffet, Ginny Brehm, has asked sorority members to purchase 20 cent gifts as usual, but instead of the traditional exchange gifts, the gifts will be distributed throughout the Children’s Ward in local hospitals. The presents should be chosen with this in mind.

The entertainment for the evening will feature a Christmas reading and, of course, singing.

The following committees have been selected. Decorations, Marilyn Casi; host, Maryann Powell; clean-up, Miriam Thomas; food, Darie Dzurica and Ann Bates; entertainment, Nancy Morris; publicity, Jackie Oliver; and gifts, Leona Meotani.

SPIRIT COMMITTEE PRESENTS REPORT

A report based on student interests was submitted to the Student Council and administration by the School Spirit Committee. Listed in the report were student suggestions and committee recommendations for improvement at the college. The Student Council has referred the report to a committee for evaluation. The administration has suggested that the Spirit Committee select a group to discuss each proposal separately, with Dr. Farley and other members of the Student Council.

The group will meet five or six times, possibly at Dr. Farley’s request, to consider the possibilities and practicality of endorsing student suggestions.

LIBRARY HOURS

The College library will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. from December 19 to January 2, except on Christmas Day, New Year’s Day, and Saturdays, when the building will be closed. On Christmas Eve and New Year’s Eve, the library will be open from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m.

IDC CHRISTMAS PARTY COMMITTEES CHOSEN

by Jerome Stein

Full scale plans are underway for the Inter-Dormitory Council’s annual Christmas party. This year’s party will be held on the second floor of the cafeteria on December 18th in the evening.

Carolyn Gueringer, party chairman, has appointed a number of committees and has formulated a well-planned program.

The appointed chairmen and their responsibilities are as follows: Service, Mary Hamon, McClintock; decorations, Mary Louise Spindel, Sterling, and John Stahl; Warner; entertainment, Dick Murray, Wescott; clean-up, Ron Resigman, Butcher; refreshments, David Polley, Ashley; and publicity, Larry Granger and Jerome Stein, Warner and Ashley, respectively.

TDR SORORITY HOLDS CHRISTMAS MEETING

Carolyn, a movie, and a reading made Theta Delta Delta’s Christmas meeting Tuesday evening in McClintock Hall one of the most relaxing and enjoyable meetings of the year.

Rose Weinstein, accompanied by Anne Kennedy on the piano opened the program by leading group singing of such traditional favorites as "Silent Night", "Joy to the World", "O Little Town of Bethlehem", and, of course, "Jingle Bells".

A movie, "The Littlest Angel", was featured. The movie was a story presented in cartoon form about the Littlest Angel's gift to the Son of God on the first Christmas—and how this shabby gift was received.

And finally, rounding out the program, Mary West gave a reading, appropriately entitled, The Christmas Story—a story about a far tree and its role in the life of Christ.
