Ed Club Dance Tonight; Pullos, Wagner, Ludgate Committee Co-chairmen

Edcapade to Feature Moran's Ivy Leaguers From Nine to Twelve by Carol Breznya

The Education Club is beginning the Wilkes social activities this semester by sponsoring an event this evening. The dance, the Edcapade, is the only one sponsored by this club.

Bob Moran and the Ivy Leaguers, one of the very popular bands in the Friday night dances, will provide the entertainment. John Barber and Recorded music will continue the dancing throughout intermission.

Charles J. Pullos, John M. Wagner, and Joseph Ludgate are the co-chairmen of this affair. A Kings and Norma Davis are handlers; ticket sales; Deposit; decorations; Lena Mission and Marilyn Williams, refreshments; Ruth Younger, Jacqueline Altstein, and Mary Anne Lavenoski, publicity; John Marianski, entertainment; Al Kielin, Bob McGurgan, Grace Bannier, Bill Kiechel, Tom Buckman and Ed Millozzi, clean-up.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugo V. Mailey and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Callahan will chaperone. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 and the admission price is 50 cents per couple for a dance of such high caliber.

The Education Club has had many successful dances in the pas- sionate and interesting phases of educa- tion at that college. Nancy Morris, president, has announced that new officers will be elected at the meeting scheduled for another at the last meeting of the semester. All members should be present.

DEBATE TEAM INVITATIONAL TO ATTEND TOURNAMENT by Carol Breznya

The Wilkes College debate team is attending the eighth annual John Hopkins Invitational Debate Tournament being held at Balti- more this weekend, February 1st and 2nd, in order to compete at the tournament, in which one team of two will alternate debate sides of both affirma- tive and negative. "That the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries".

Representing Wilkes are two re- search assistants, Lee J. Banks and Jesse Choper. Prospects of a first place finish are high for the team this year. At last year's tourna- ment the Wilkes team came within a point of winning, with "That the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries".

The year before, in 1955, the Wilkes team of James Nevers and John J. Healy participated and finished third in the com- petition, defeating Princeton in the final round. The record of the past two years, coupled with the record of the team this year, is an excellent one. Thomas and Nevers took third place, has given Wilkes the best team for the past two years; no other team in the tournament. The Wilkes record is sixteen wins and three losses, just slightly better than the Princeton record.

The debate team combination have been undefeated in three of their last four tournaments.

C'N'C PLAYERS TO GIVE DRAMA by Mary L. Oulmer

Coe 'n' Curtain will present a melodrama, entitled "The Drunkard" on December 26. Although Marion Laine, Coe 'n' Curtain president, promises that the pre- sentation will be interesting and original, Miss Laine has not decided the manner in which the play will be given.

Joe Oliver, production director, has announced that time for cast- ing should be ready on the fall board in front of Chase Theater. Oliver has announced that he is needed and all interested persons should notify him immediately.

The dramatic group is presently planning to convert Chase into a studio the following Monday after the examinations.

IN MEMORIAM

On behalf of the faculty, adminis- tration, and students of Wilkes, the BEACON takes this occasion to extend its profound condolences to the parents and family of Joseph Orchard, who was killed in a serious automobile accident one week ago from last night.

by Mary L. Oulmer

Perhaps Dave Kistler can now be called the hairiest man on campus, or maybe, the winningest. This freshman, who was named earlier in the month the "hairyest" lega in a contest sponsored by the Beacon, also competed first prize in the second annual Beard contest for the Most artistic and moustache combination.

Choper received an electric Sunbeam shaver for his efforts. From the sight of Dave's clean shaven face, the prize can be considered to have been put to good use. He was also presented with a trophy on which his name will be inscribed under that of Bill Stewart last year's first prize winner.

Men's jewelry was presented to the second, third, and fourth place winners. Don Henry, who sported a wavy moustache similar to that of Congressman Dan Flood, won first prize in that division.

Sam Puce was judged to have the most artistic beard. It is interesting to recall that in last year's contest Sam received honorable mention in the peach fuzz divi- sion. Ed Kotula, who won the peach fuzz award last year had honorable mention in this year's best beard group. And so grow the beards. Freshman Fred Whipple won the peach fuzz prize this year.

The judges, bandelder Frank Stolarick and George Elliot, con- sidered the competition very close. The artistic beards of Dick Myer and Dave Yann were voted.

Sam Lowe, master of ceremonies, presented the gifts for the Junior class.

Student Council Lists Carnival Expenditures And Approves Payment

Last Tuesday the Student Coun- cil met to discuss and vote on cur- rent campus and club activities. The first issue on the agenda was settlement of monetary requests from clubs and presentation of the Carnival expenditures.

The total amount listed for ex- penditures for the Winter Carnival was listed at $139.38. The following three carnival leaders, Lou Vincelli, Mary Walsh, and Mary Myers; were each granted $500 for the Biology and Chem- istry Clubs, respectively, to attend Conferences in Washington, D.C. and the American Chemical Society.

The Student Council also voted to cut direct action and to approach the administration to acquire appropri- ation for a bus for all athletic af- fairs. It was suggested that a poll be taken at Assembly concerning clubs' standing of terminal students. President Dick Raybon named the committees for the Cinderella Ball. Council members were asked to consider very carefully on which committee they wished to work.

Chemistry Deposit Refunds are now available for distribution at the chemistry department.

THETA DELTA RHO SORORITY PLANNING VALENTINE DANCE

Theta Delta Rho's first and only semi-formal, the Valentine Dance, is just around the corner, February 15th. Tickets are $2.50, and seventy mem- bers are hard at work with prepara- tions and invitations.

This "sweetheart" dance is one of the few girl-boy affair on campus and offers a privilege for which few smart girls will refuse. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 in the gym to the music of Jack Melton and his orchestra.

The annual feature of the dance is the coronation of a King and Queen of Hearts by TDR president Pat Rose and bandelder Jack Stolarick. This year, the coronation will center around the St. Valen- tine legend. Following the cer- emony, the royal couple will be presented with gifts by the sorority, and then will work around the floor in the strains of the "Sweetheart Waltz".

Tickets for the dance will go on sale this Monday in the cafeteria, and will be $2.00 per couple. Gaye Stevens, general chairman of the affair, has appointed the fol- lowing committee chairman: chair- man, Dick的速度, co-chairman, Bill Reynolds. Room to Grow

The recent acquisition of the two buildings in the first block of South River Street has again pointed up the College’s expansion program. Wilkes has risen rapidly in the past 23 years and looks toward a bright future as the generous gifts of the friends of the College show their faith in the future of the institution and hence in Wyoming Valley’s future.

Although still young, shows promise of being equal or perhaps better than 1938, the year in which the college began its development program.

The expansion of facilities is vital to the College and to the community, since the number of students graduating from local high schools is increasing. New accounting of full capacity, expansion is the only way in which Wilkes can live up to its notion of community service.

Allergy Study Findings

Pointing out the work of the College’s biology research laboratory which will be held in Los Angeles. Dr. Sheldon Cohen, director of the project, will make a report to this body on the study made over the past month.

The project was concerned with the effect of a common booster on rabbits. The study made provides a clue to possible causes of allergies in humans.

The Beacon quotes Dr. Cohen and his associate, Dr. Frances I. Micheloni, and their research assistant, Don Deury and Vince Drojewski.

LIBRARY NEWS

Interested in Scholarships, Graduate Study, etc.? There are many opportunities for you. Check the bulletin board in the front hall of the Library.

Many new books are available for your Leisure Reading — see the new bulletin in the first floor of the Library.

Library Hours for the Spring semester:

Monday through Thursday: 9:30 a.m. — 5:00 p.m.
Friday: 9:30 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.
Saturday: 1:00 p.m. — 4:00 p.m.

A few of the new books available for pleasure reading are:

THE RUSSIAN MARXISTS AND THE ORIGINS OF BOLSHEVIKISM by Joseph Bellamy

In this book, the author reconstructs the world of a Russian intellectual by examining the young ideas which were to revolutionize the future of the world.

THE PORTABLE JAMES JOYCE

This volume contains one complete book, a play, short stories and selected passages from his two novels, Ulysses and Finnegans Wake.

MAN IN SEARCH OF AN ANCESTOR

Is there anyone who has never asked the exculling question: where do we come from?

Andre Senet begins his book at the last evolutionary stage and gradually takes you back through paleontological history to the dawn of time. Along the way, he gives us a stimulating picture of the exciting clues that have thrown new light on our history. Here is an exciting story of man's search for his ancestors in all parts of the world.

TRYOUTS LISTED FOR MALE CHORUS

Sam Louis Fremerre announced that the men's chorus of the college, the Chorale Choir, is looking for singers at the start of these semesters. He said that the college is looking for interested men to try out for the chorus.

The College has two first tenors, two baritone, at least one tenor and one bass. Most of the singers lost by the chorus were lead men and were asked for men who can read music by sight, have had experience in group singing and are willing to spend time at rehearsals.

Wilkes College’s acquisition of two new South River Street buildings has boosted the number of campus facilities to a total of thirty-four. The transaction, which is part of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Expansion Program, is another step forward in the growth of the college.

The properties of the late W. F. Dobson and Durrell Reynolds, respectively, are adjacent to one another and face the River Common. The W. F. Dobson home at the coner of South River and West Northampton Streets was given to the college by Dr. Allen Weiss who purchased it as a gift to the school. It is understood that the home will bear the Weiss family name.

Mr. Weiss, a very prominent businessman and founder of the Triangle Shoe Company in this city, is a member of the college’s board of trustees. According to available records, the Dobson home was built in the early 1890’s. Mr. Epperson S. Farley has stated that the Dobson property will continue to be used as a residence and for offices for at least another year. Presently, it houses the offices of Charles R. Rockey accounting firm.

The late Mr. Dobson, who presented the W. F. Dobson Accounting Award to the outstanding accounting major, had always hoped that his home would someday be part of Wilkes College. Mr. Weiss’ beneficence has made the college’s hope a reality.

The Freshman class will hold a “cool” hayride at the Pocono Dude Ranch on Saturday, February 6. All freshmen and their dates will be welcome to enjoy the “crayz” fun. (No squares allowed.)

All you “daddy-o’s” can get in on the fun for the price of only five dollars per couple. Dancing, ice skating, hayride, all the hot dogs you can eat, and transportation to and from the ranch are included in this price.

Tickets can be purchased from Ira Himels, Elaine Stein, and Bob Evans. But move, “man”, move because the money has to be handed in by February 1.

2 More Homes Acquired

In Expansion Program

The latest additions to rapidly expanding Wilkes College are the Dobson home (top) and the Reynolds home (bottom). These homes were acquired in the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Expansion Program which is now in progress. The Dobson home was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Weiss, the former being a member of the board of trustees of the college.

The Reynolds building is in an excellent location since it is one of the oldest structures in the basin. It was built in the early 1890’s about the same time as was the McClintock house, a short distance north of it. The McClintock dormitory was given to the college by the chairman of the board of trustees, Gilbert F. McClintock. Mr. Farley also revealed that another recent acquisition, the former Ethel Washburn’s house, across from the gymnasium, will be converted into a men’s dormitory next fall.

In accordance with the college expansion program, the Admiral Stark Science Hall is presently being constructed and will be ready for classes next semester. Future plans for college growth include the building of a new arts center and auditorium.

Five Wilkes Graduates Recently Commissions As U. S. Navy Ensigns

Five Wilkes graduates have recently been commissioned as ensigns at the U. S. Navy's Officer Cadet School at Newport, R.I. They were Thomas R. Adams, J. Jarrel Cashmere, Andrew Barovich, Chester Miller, and James Benson. All but Adams were members of last year's graduating class.

Adams, who received his A.B. in Mathematics in 1964, is a graduate of Nanticoke High School. He has also attended Temple University Law School.

Cashmere graduated from Coughlin High School and was active in varsity football and basketball at Wilkes. He also played intramural baseball and was a member of the Lettermen's Club.

Benson, who also received an A.B. in Math, attended Meyers High. He was a member at Wilkes on the Student Council and was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. He also represented the college as Herald-Tribune delegate.

Barovich, a Coughlin High graduate, was a member of the Commerce and Finance Department. He belonged to the SAM and the Economics Club.

Miller, a Meyers graduate and Commerce and Finance student, was a member of the Student Council of the Economics Club. He was also on the staff of the Anninela. He participated in intramural basketball and softball, and varsity soccer. He was active in the SAM and the Lettermen's Club. He was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

When Mary Louise Onur entered the Beacon office covered with coke, she was asked the usual question: "Is it raining out?"

She retorted: "No, it's coking!"

Five Wilkes Graduates Recently Commissioned As U. S. Navy Ensigns

by John Finsneschi

Mr. Arthur Webb of the London Daily Herald talked about the situation existing in the Middle East in Tuesday's assembly.

Mr. Webb, in politics, fifteen years, said that there will always be a difference of opinion, and that the recent invasion of the Suez Canal by France, Great Britain, and Israel was brought about Russian influence in Egypt.

He stated that President Eisenhower's recent Middle East Doctrine was welcomed in England and France by popular belief, that the British are not anti-American. Mr. Webb also stated that the trouble in the Middle East started with the creation of Israel. Because thousands of people flocked to the new state, the Israelis were forced to expand. Since there are over 600,000 Arabs in the world today, they cannot be taken lightly.

Mr. Webb declared that the Egyptians around here, it is determined to wipe out Israel. This fact, plus the Russian build-up in Egypt, caused Israel to attack Egypt. Great Britain and France came into the clash because it withdrew their troops when the United Nations ordered them.

Plans for a United Europe are being considered by the countries of Italy, England, France, Holland, Belgium, and Luxembourg. Guided missiles will take the place of manpower.

He said West Germany does not favor the plan of a United Europe; however, elections will be held soon and new men favoring the plan may head the government. The West Germans are concerned with uniting their country and may come to an agreement with the Russians or regain East Germany by force.

The free world must work together to combat Communism. This will be pushed by the West and equal more U.N. He referred to the fact that the Security Council, composed of five nations, controlled the U.N.

Mr. Webb remarked that revolutions similar to the recent Hungarian one are not unexpected in all Communist nations.

DON REYNOLDS, MAT CO-CAPTAIN,
EARN WEEK'S TOP AWARD IN POLL

Helps Squad Maintain Winning Streak, Moves
Into 147-Pound Class

In the selection of Don Reynolds as Athlete of the Week, the wrestlers returned this award for the second consecutive week.
Reynolds was selected for his five consecutive wins.

Don, reporting late, did not have enough time to get in shape.
Despite this handicap, he managed to pin his first four opponents.
In his last meet against Ithaca,
Reynolds defeated his man by a score of 11-3. Previously wrestling at 137 pounds, Don gave way close to ten pounds at Ithaca.

Don, who is fast and aggressive, likes to take down his opponents quickly and, as his record shows, efficiently.

Don is known as "The Tiger" not only for his showing on the mat but for his participation in extracurricular activities as well.

Co-captain of the wrestling team and President of the Student Council are but a part of his varied campus activities.

Reynolds, a graduate of Hanover High School, will be graduated in June with a major in Political Science.

INTRAMURAL ROSTERS OF NATIONAL LEAGUE

Bob Pitel, chairman of the Student Committee of Intramural Basketball, announced that the schedules have been distributed to all persons connected with the sport. If anyone has not seen them, they can be found on any of the bulletin boards.

Bowlers Open 2nd Half
With Handicap Tourney
And Doubles Match

The bowling leagues will combine this semester to form a handicap tournament in which all bowlers will start on an equal basis. The handicap is so arranged that the lower the average, the higher the handicap each individual receives.

The first tourney will be between teams of five bowlers. The distribution of males and females on these teams will be left to the team captains.

Following this event, there will be competition for mixed doubles and male doubles.

All events will consist of one round of play. They will be held Sunday evenings at the Jewish Community Center; starting time will be 7:00 p.m.

Rosters for any of all events may be given to Jane Kelbel, Storming Tall, Beaver Sports Editor Dick Myers, or Barry Miller, Ashley Hall.

All rosters must be presented no later than February 22. Any hand ing in after this date cannot be accepted. Roster entries will be given preference.

Colonels, Royals Meet
Tomorrow; Wins Listed
By Lycoming, Juniata

by Sam DiLeo

With finals over and the cage season again in full swing, the Colonels play host tomorrow night to the Scranton U. Royals at the Wilkes College Gym.

The Royals are a hot and cold team with an unimpressive record of four wins and eight losses. Early in the season they romped over King's College and then barely eked out a victory from Yeshiva, a team soundly beaten by King's.

The Flying Dutchmen of Hofst

a, beaten by the Colonels beat Scranton by better than 10 points. If such a comparison can be considered, the Colonels should even up their record at six wins and six losses. Four of the five wins were consecutive.

Lycoming broke the four-game winning streak of the Wilkes cage team at Williamsport, the Warriors on the long end of an 84-77 score. Morgan was high for the Colonels with 22 points.

The hoopsters again missed their sixth win on Tuesday night when Juniata took the measure of the (continued on page 5)

BIOLIGIST TO REPORT

Dr. Sheldon G. Cohen, director of the college's biology research laboratory, will present a paper dealing with the findings of Wilkes' allergy research group to a nationwide group.

The paper, dealing with the experiments of the Wilkes group, will be presented at the 13th annual meeting of the American Academy of Allergy on February 4 in Los Angeles.

Aiding Dr. Cohen in the research project were Drs. Francis J. Scribner, assistant professor of biology, and Dr. Daniel S. Drury and Vincent Driaprov.
