Jim Ward Voted ‘Athlete of Year’

Junior Athlete Earns Top Honor
For Outstanding Mat Performances;
Undefeated in Eleven Dual Meets

by Dick Myers, Sports Editor

JIM WARD, the only wrestler in the history of Wilkes College to complete an undefeated season, was named by the Sports staff of the Beacon the 1958-59 Athlete of the Year. It is impossible to estimate Jim’s true value to his team, for he was in all ways a steady, aggressive, dependable performer. Wrestling in the 130-pound class, Jim turned in a total of eleven wins for the Colonels, three of these by fall. His total of points scored for the season was 41, an all-time high here at Wilkes.

It was his consistent winning in the earlier bouts of every match that helped to fire up the spirits of the rest of the squad. The value of such a morale-building factor is undeniable and is in a large part responsible for the undefeated season turned in by Jim and his teammates.

The honors bestowed upon Jim’s shoulders this year are numerous. He is one of the co-captains of next year’s mot team, dan, Bob Yokovounus, Al Maloiaski, Don Reynolds, Walt Gloc.

CINDERELLA TO BE CROWNED TONIGHT

WHO WILL BE CINDERELLA?

Winner to be Revealed as Clock Strikes Twelve at Spring Ball; Lee Vincent’s Orchestra Plays

by Marion J. Klawonn

The fairy tale of Cinderella will come true for one of eleven lovely co-eds as she steps from her beautiful coach to be crowned Cinderella at the eleventh annual Cinderella Ball tonight in the gymnasium. The Student Council is sponsoring the affair.

The backdrop will be divided into three sections. The first part will depict a pumpkin through which the Cinderella candidates will appear. Walking across the stage, the eleven girls will enter a gold coach. After the coach’s name is announced, she will step down from the coach to receive the traditional glass slipper from Council President Don Reynolds.

Pink and blue decorations will grace the walls and ceiling of the gym, spring colors for a spring dance.

Lee Vincent will provide the music from nine to one. Two local radio stations will cover the crowning of Cinderella during the intermission.

Although the dance is advertised as a formal, semi-formal affair will be acceptable.

Cinderella will be chosen by secret ballots from the student body. One of these eleven nomiates will be selected Cinderella: Senior, Nancy Schooley; junior, Jackie Oliver, Janie Schuster, Mary West, Carolyn Geitinger, Virginia Brehm; sophomore, Rose Weinistein; freshmen, Lynn Boyle, Mary Thomas, Linda Passarelli, and Mary Homan.

Lee Weiler, general chairman of the affair, has been aided by the following committees: decorations; Mary Homan and Don Reynolds; nominations, Lee Weiler; tickets, Ed Kotta; gifts, Nancy Morris; programs, invitations, Virginia Brehm; programs and radio coverage, Mary Homan; publicity, Lynn Boyle and Mary Matsey; refreshments, Rose Weinistein, favors, Ron Trimaym.

The price for finding out first billion Cinderella will be just two dollars per couple. Couples may be obtained at low group rates through the bookstore.

 Theta Delta Rho will hold its annual Junior-Senior Ball next Tuesday evening in the Center.

The buffet is an event at the which the money will be raised.
RETAILING CONFERENCE TODAY

Letter to the Editor...

Saturday, May 4, 1967

The second Blood Donor Day of the school year will be held on May 14, at the Red Cross Blood Center, South Franklin St. John Reese, chairman of the student donor program, hopes the response will be even greater than that of the drive of December 7, when ninety-eight pints were collected.

Any donor may later obtain blood for himself or his family, if a need for blood should arise. Thus, this program is a type of insurance for the donor.

Parental permission slips are required for all students, and one who wish to donate blood can be obtained from Mr. Reese.

Let's all try to make this drive a success, the most successful to date.

M. Jones Named C'n'C President in Tuesday Ballot

Merri Jones will be installed as C'n'C president on Tuesday night in the organization's annual Recognition ceremony. Merri was elected to this position in the group in last Tuesday's election.

Paul Abrams was elected to the Area Businessmen Included in Program; Darrow Chief Speaker

Edward M. Darrow, general merchant, will be the featured speaker at the Retailing Conference being held today on campus. Mr. Darrow has been in the retailing field since 1932.

Before reaching his present position, he was with the executive training and study program of Theodore C. Whittemore Co., New York.

The speaker will highlight those points which he feels are most important in understanding of retailing as a career.

The conference will open at 8:30 A.M. with a coffee and doughnut reception in the college's home economics cafeteria. Afterwards, the students are invited to the Osterhout Library, where they will be welcomed by Joseph Lebman, retailing junior, Dr. Eugene S. Farley, college president, and Mr. Darrow will address the students. A question and answer period will follow.

The morning session will end with a luncheon given by the Retailers' "Dynamic Career For You!" following the film, the retailing students will be given an opportunity to contact the speakers. Merchants Association, will address the students. Immediately following, there will be a panel discussion featuring former graduates of the college, who are now working in the retailing field. They will relate some of their experiences of their careers.

The panel will consist of: Nancy Baker, Evergreen Furniture, Lakehurst; Mr. William Morrison, President, Darrow Bros., and Mr. Alfred Eisenberg, Assistant Manager of Pomeroy's, who recently completed his term as assistant executive position in the New York office of the firm.

On Friday night, May 18, Mr. Jose Rosar, evening retail student who has varied experiences within this field will speak to the students in New York City.

Charles Stein, Wilkes junior, will be moderator for the discussion. To complete the conference, Wilkes students will escort the high school students to the various retailing establishments in Wilkes-Barre, and to the Wilkes Book store, and Fowler, Dick, and Walker, The Boston Store.

The Retailing Group extends a cordial invitation to Wilkes students and alumni to attend the conference and also the tours.

CRIMINOLOGY FIELD TRIP

The Criminology and Social Problems classes made a trip to Lewistown Federal Penitentiary in Pennsylvania, with an "insider's" in the officers' dining halls, a cafeteria, and a shop made by Mr. Eckerne and Mr. Metcalfe.

The students were shown the cafeteria, dining rooms, laundry, dormitories, and the parole office. The class, which was attended by Mr. McCullough, was a routine one in the department.

The seminar, question, answer period was held in one of the classrooms, and the students were given a review of the field.

The students made the trip in private cars, and were accompanied by Mr. McCullough, Professor of Sociology.

STEVENS T.D.R. REA:

Results of Theta Delta Chi's re-election for the rector position were announced. Peggy Stevenson, 44 votes
Mary West, 41 votes
Nananne Kurfitt, 43 votes

The officers will be installed at the Installation and Reunion Dinner on Tuesday evening in the Union.

MEMORIES

With the naming of Jim Ward as this year's outstanding athlete comes a flood of memories of a most memorable year in sports. Enlivened in these thoughts are several names which seem suited to make the headlines, never made 'Athlete of the Week,' never even seemed to draw the cheers of the spectators.

Even though these men weren't normally honored, we feel that the sports pages cannot close for the year without some mention of the unsung heroes. Of course, we could begin the simplest way by naming every man on every roster of every team, but please bear in mind that these are just the personal observations of an individual spectator.

This spectator cannot forget the fleet-footed dashes of little Bob Bascigo, his gameness, the daring fake punts, lightning-quick spot passes, yet his deeds went with only superficial mention.

Nor can we forget three-letterman Bob Sokol and his valiant efforts in the unaccustomed role of soccer goalie; his fine, steady, heads-up blocking; and his sturdy hitting ability on the baseball diamond.

There are, of course, many more. Ahmed Kazmi, Seth Amach, Red Walsh, Frank Moliakans, Elmer Snyder, Dave Thomas, Dick Weiss, Bob Turley, Joe Parsnik, John Harvey, Bob McGurrin and countless others. To all these men who received no honors, no individual awards, our heartfelt thanks for many thrills.

NOW, CONGRATULATIONS

It also goes without saying that to the man of the hour, Jim Ward, we extend our sincerest congratulations. The choice was sound, the honor well-deserved. We just thought that we'd show some of the ultras that their efforts have not gone completely unheralded or unnoticed.

GOLFERS SEEK FIRST WIN IN BETHLEHEM MATCH

Tuesday at 2:00 P.M. The final match of the season has been tentatively set for Saturday, May 18, at the home course. Shown above are: kneeling: Pete Pereg and Frank Steck. Standing: Bernie Danbeck, Dave Polley, Art Belles, and Coach John Curtis.

TEEN TEAM GETS 4-2 WIN AT SCRANTON IN THE OPENING CONTETN OF THE SEASON

The Wilkes tennis team made a splendid recovery from last Friday afternoon's 4-2 loss at Scranton to win the opening game of this season by a 6-2 score.

The Colonels went down in the first two matches but came back in the third, fourth, and fifth to win.

Ted Bellew and Bill Himmel scored wins in the third and fourth sets and Maurice Leon scored in the fifth.

In the opening singles the Colonels led but lost in the second set.

Charles Dejana beat John St. George in the third set.

The second set saw the Colonels win one out of the three matches.

WIN NON-LEAGUE GAME

On Saturday afternoon, the team took the measure of Stroudsburg Teachers, 4-2, on Eddie Buckhout's brilliant three-setter. The win was Eddie's third in a row.

With regular catcher John Harvey down with a virus, Coaches Beaver and Monk shifted Bob Sokol from third to catcher.

Smoky Gacha was the losing pitcher; his record now stands at two wins and two losses.

LUB 20's 4-0 RECORD LEADS NATIONAL LEAGUE

Club 20 took over the leadership of the National League intramural (4)0) league with their 20-7 victory over the Spanish Flyers at Kirkwood. Michaels was a winning pitcher, Bankir suffered a defeat. It was Club 20's fourth straight win.

In the other Monday afternoon game, John Wasicka defeated the 1-0 Indians in the second game of the season, allowing the Eagles only two runs on three hits. Bernie Stofet led the 1-0 Indians with three hits.

Last week, Club 20 defeated the Indians by a score of 1-0. Again, Stofet was the winning pitcher, one run in the game was hit by Ward and Shaver.

The Spanish Flyers, behind the发的 pitching of Elmer Snyder, rallied a 5-2 win over the Phonies. This was in a round-tripper that game.

In the American League, the big news last week was the 14-9 win turned in by the Crusaders over previously undefeated Mar-teen's Monsters. Winning pitcher, Perkowski combined a hummer fast ball, a tricky curve, and a good change-of-pace ball to pull off the winning. Home runs in the game were hit by Ward and Shaver.

An extra-inning contest took place last Saturday afternoon at the Dutch Batless Lowdown Bombers beat the Econ Club with a run in the ninth, 8-7. Muford was the winning pitcher, taking the win in relief.

In American League action on Tuesday, May 7, the Hombres threw the circuit into a three-way tie for the first spot with a 7-6 win over the hapless Butler Bombers. Stock and Elkin were the battery for the Hombres. The Bombers, who have yet to win a game in the league, put up a good fight, but despite the fine hurling of Ed Vail, were unable to push enough tallies over the plate to get into the winning column. Freddie Lubanschut was the catcher for the Bombers.

The Colonels will return to the field tomorrow afternoon at 3 P.M. to pick up the three previously suspended Middle Atlantic Conference games against Ithaca, Otsego, and Hurley.

They will be seeking revenge at Ithaca this afternoon at three o'clock in a non-conference game. In the last meeting between the Bombers, Wilkes lost a squeaker, 6-5. With the Colonels showing stronger pitching and hitting, chances for a reversal of the last contest seem fairly good.

On Thursday night, Wilkes will meet Ursinus in the only game scheduled between the two teams this season.

Coach Mock's two staunch hurlers, Bitterman and Gacha, are both working well and beginning to throw hard. Lefty Boyd Hoats has had some bad breaks, and needs a bit more seasoning, but shows definite promise of becoming a good line pitcher.

Centerfielder Ralph Hendershot has developed into a batting regular, having picked up four hits in eight at-bats in last week's games against Ithaca, Otsego, and Hurley.

Wilkie Dyco has also found the range, cashing in with a four-logger in the 4-1 win over the Strouds for his second of the year.

With all kinds of troubles in the form of IL players, juggled lineups, and cold weather, the team still performed as well as last week's contests, showing plenty of scoring punch and the ability to work well together under any condition.

Tomorrow's game will be the last appearance at home for the Colonels until next Saturday, May 18, when they end their season against the Crusaders from Susquehanna University. The game will be played at the Amsterdam burger.

College's Ninth Annual Parents' Day Program
Sunday at Four in Gym
by M. L. Gruber

The ninth annual Parents' Day reception will be held in the college gym Sunday afternoon at four. The event is held each year in conjunction with the college band concert and gives the parents of Wilkes students an opportunity to meet the faculty informally.

Bob Moran, Wilkes music instructor, will direct the band concert for the eighth time, said the program will feature music by American composers. The concert is held during National Music Week which has as its theme, "Music by American Composers."

The program includes: Opening by Rieser-Voy Wagen Water Music Suite by Handel, Mississippi Suite by Grofé, Selections from Navy Lady arranged by Robert Russell Bennett, and a transcription by Wagner.

The program will also include a number of a cappella songs by Billy Farnese, in commemoration of the recent death of this composer of hand music, who is considered by many to rank second to Sousa.

NOVICE DEBATE TEAM
THIRD AT DICKINSON

The novice debate team, entered for the first time this year into the inter-collegiate competition, placed third in the Fourth Annual Dickinson Novice Debate Tournament held over the weekend at Carlisle.

The members of the team were Louis Hofer, a sophomore from Scranton; Christine Winlow, a freshman from Wilkes-Barre; Gwendolyn Evans, a sophomore from Wilkes-Barre; and Armand Camarr, a freshman from Wilkes-Barre.

In addition to the team trophy, Menecus received a plaque for third best negative speaker, bringing to 28 the number of individual and team awards won by Wilkes in forensic contests this year.

Judged on their performance this weekend, the novice team showed promise of filling some gaps which will be left by the graduation of June Leonard, Sales, John Lobo, and Jessee Cates, the third and third best debaters in the nation.

BASEBALL RESULTS

Yesterday's game was a back and forth affair, the Owls winning by a score of two to one. The Owls' win was a result of the team's strong pitching.

The Owls, unbeaten in State Teachers Conference games, had a chance to clinch the first division, but a double play, from Parrish to Good to Dyde, erased the threat.

For the Colonials, it was four runs on eight hits; the Owls had one run and only three hits.

DORM ELECTIONS

Marion Klewowski, Bergendahl, N.J.; McClean, elected Eileen Kemp, Sea Cliff, N.Y., as their new president, and Sue Stroff, Hanover, Pa., is the new social secretary.

The bugs are Mary Rose Sidlars, Hazleton; Pat, Mary Craig, Hazleton; and Pat Yost of Wilkes-Barre.

Today at noon one of the extraordinary events of campus life will take place behind Chase Hall. Dr. Michelin, faculty member, and Art Tambur, Lettermen's Club member, will vie for the championship. Earlier in the year Art won a dunking-out contest. Then at a dance in February, Dr. Michelin was victor in a cherry pie-eating contest. Each is anxious to prove himself the champion; for the Lettermen have staged a watermelon-eating contest for the two.

This is done in conjunction with the money-raising shoe-shining project which has been sponsored by the Lettermen for two days every spring. The Lettermen put on two very nice formats every year, and to continue doing so they need to raise some money. This is one way you can help support the club and get your shoes shined to boot.
