IDC Homecoming Party at College Cafeteria Will Honor Royal Trio by Cliff Brothers

The second annual inter-dormitory-sponsored Homecoming Party will be held in the cafeteria after the football game tomorrow. The party will begin immediately after the game and continue until six-thirty.

Jim Moser, president of the council, announced that the new Homecoming queen will be there to greet the students, alumni and faculty. The IDC initiated the Homecoming Party in the cafeteria last year and this year the affair is considered one of the major campus events.

A large attendance is expected and preparations are completed to accommodate all who attend. The committee in charge of the affair is headed by Earl Hall of Warner Hall, a sophomore, Judy O'Connell, a junior from McClintock Hall; and Bill Duffy, a senior from Weckesser Hall, are the other two members of the committee.

The upline section of the cafeteria will be decorated for the occasion. In addition, the IDC is supplying free coke, pretzels and potato chips for refreshments. Space and records will be prepared for dancing, and card tables will be set aside for bridge and pinhole fans.

The IDC wants to emphasize the point that all students, faculty, and alumni are cordially invited and encouraged to attend.

STUDENT COUNCIL DISCUSS BUDGET

The Student Council met Tuesday night in Harding Hall to consider the budgets received from campus organizations. President Don Reynolds referred all proposals to a special committee for further study.

Due to a decrease in funds allocated for student activities, the committee will be forced to seek more funds from the Administration. The committee has appealed the unfavorable activities fund allotment and was scheduled to meet with the Administration later this week.

Flood, Thomas Featured In Campaign Discussion On WC Assembly Stage

The Honorable Daniel J. Flood and the chairmen of the Assembly are expected to discuss today's political issues at the next Tuesday's Assembly program.

Both the incumbent Mr. Flood and his opponents, who have been carrying on a vigorous campaign, have been involved in the discussion by not only discussing national problems but also political issues.

The IRC, which is sponsoring the debate, will also take a straw poll of the student body to determine the presidential candidates for the next year. The candidates will be the same as those included in the faculty program.

The debate will be moderated by Bill Ternay, who will provide all the students an opportunity to ask the candidates the questions and answer period which will conclude the program.

WILKES TO SUPPORT UNITED FUND DRIVE

The United Fund drive will begin Monday, October 13, and will continue until Monday, October 20. The purpose of the project is to amalgamate all of the college's charity functions into one. The funds collected will be distributed among fifty-nine agencies. The college's total donations will be over three thousand dollars for the students. The college will also have a booth set up at Chase Lawn to indicate their scale progress.

Brass band at Gym

Brass band will be set up by the main entrance at tomorrow's game. The individual players will select their Letterman on campus. The holder of the first prize winning ticket will receive a new letterman coat. The contest will be announced by transportation included. The second prize winner will receive a new ticket to the Browns-Eagles game, and the other three winners will each win a letterman coat and a letterman jacket. The Lettermen have a rocket set up at Chase Lawn to indicate their scale progress.

Lettermen's Raffle

Two of the biggest social events of the school year, the Christmas Formal and the April Showers Ball, are sponsored by the Lettermen's Club. The Lettermen finance these affairs to benefit the student body, not the club itself, for they lose money on both of these dances.

The only money-making project of the campus athletes is their annual raffle which they completely depend for the year's funds. They need your support now.

Gene Marchetti and the "Seven Sinners," sponsored by the college for the first two hours of dancing, and Bill Figart and his group will provide the music for the last two hours.

Marchetti and his group played nightly this past summer at the famed Glenwood resort in the Pocono Mountains. The musical scene also provided the music for the "Fall Festival" two weeks ago.

Figart and his band played at many of the dances on campus last year, and have always been very popular with the students.

Joe Soostak, general chairman of the event, said that Jack Nicoll and Marilyn Carl as co-chairmen of the dance committee and Joe Rineau as chairman of tickets, and Rose Weinstein as chairman of chaperons.

Real Kentucky Colonel For Wilkes

Frosh Stickler Adds Color, Pep To School Spirit

Meet the new Wilkes Colonel. Gene Stickler, freshman, has the distinction of being a real "Kentucky Colonel," since he hails from the Commonwealth of Kentucky and now is the official "Wilkes Colonel" for the year.

Gene began his duties last week in the role of "the Colonel" as announced by the student council.

The Wilkes Colonel, a real “Kentucky Colonel” at that, leads the cheerleaders in the school song. The new Colonel, Gene Stickler, hails from Louisville, Kentucky.

The Colonel will be on the sidelines with the pep crew at all the Wilkes games, helping to inspire the team.

Male Chorus to Appear on Color TV Program; Rehearsals are Doubled, New Songs are Added

by Richard J. Myers

The Male Chorus will appear in their first performance of the season on late next week. They will have a potential audience in the thousands. Sam Lowe, director of the group, announced on Tuesday that the Collegians have been asked to participate in a television demonstration. The event is the inauguration of Station WBRE-TV’s local “live” color transmission.

In an effort to bring the chorus up to concert condition, Lowe has increased the number of rehearsal hours. For two sessions, formerly held three days each week, are now held every day. In addition, as announced last week, the men put in from three to four hours of hard work every Monday night at St. Stephen’s Church on South Franklin St.

Lowe has given the Beacons a list of the songs which will probably be sung by the organization in their portion of the program. They are "Dry Bones," My Grandfather’s Clock, and for a little touch of Wilkes College, the campus favorite, Down in Pennsylvania.

While it is true that the part of the chorus in the program is a small one, the members are justly proud to have been chosen to represent Wilkes in this latest innovation in the local television history.

Details of the broadcasts have not yet been made public and at the time the Beacon went to press, the whole project was in the planning stages. It is known that the programs will be aired from Young’s department store.

With this new development and the increased activity in their musical choirs, the chorus has had to temporarily postpone their outing, planned for next Friday evening. All members are again urged to submit new ideas or enlarge former plans for the affair and present these at the Monday night practice session.

The KERNEL’S KORN

by Dick Myers

Three summer romances are over and the gals are now looking for "fall guys." Some of the girls seem to think that a Bachelor of Arts is someone acquired by artful means. The degree most of them seek is MRS.

A few of the co-eds got married before they graduated, which is putting the heart before the course. Seems like all they want in life is to sit at the status of a single man.

They are warned, however, to watch out for wolves in Sheepskin. They should also avoid the guys with smooth lines because there’s no truth in what they say.

Many a guy who knows all the angels in a girl’s eyes, few curves. Some fellows give a girl a ring, only to wind up being led by it through the nose. They give a girl an inch and she thinks she’s a ruler. A guy who is studying to be a meteorologist and he claims he can look into a girl’s eyes and tell "whether." He’s so levissick, he signed up for all the Romance languages.

The most of the students use the local drive-in theaters as rearing ground, and, as a result, there are a lot of girls in education. They get their dates from a book, all right — the telephone book.

One lad neglects his studies so much he thinks "Chaucer" is what you use with a cup. He asked a girl if she knew how to dance and she slapped his face. He was dancing with her at the time.

Dancing has been described as a naval engagement on dry land. Others say it is an expression of the sole. Some of the dances seen at local dances would be outlawed even in the boxing ring.

MIKE DYDO AND NICK GIORDANO TIE FOR 'ATHLETE OF THE WEEK' AWARD

Top Performers Lead Football, Soccer Lines

In Initial Victories

by Cliff Kobland

Two great performers and competitors are tied this week for the Athlete of the Week award.

Mike Dydo, Wilkes football tackle, who led a hard-charging Colonel line in dumping Ithaca, 12-0 last week; and Nick Giordano, top-flight soccer lineman, who scored one goal and set up another in the Wilkes victory over Hofstra last Saturday, are the two men deadlocked in the tightest vote in some while.

Mike, in his second year with the Colonels, was the leader of a hard-charging line which opened up holes offensively and dropped the Ithaca backs in their own backfield defensively.

The 6-foot, 200-pound ex-serviceman tackled so hard that he twice caused the Ithaca backs to fumble, one of which he himself recovered.

Big number 74 spent most of the evening in the Ithaca backfield stripping the up-setters from New York before they could get started.

Dydo, also a star ball perforformer, is the regular first back, on the diamond nine.

Nick, into this year's 2-0-0 ball-handler and probably the best shot on the soccer team, broke into the starting lineup last year as a freshman and ended the season tied for top scoring honors although he did not register a goal until midway during the campaign.

This year Nick is starting out on the right foot. He scored one goal on a terrific head shot and picked up an assist for the other goal scored.

Both men being offensive threats, the native of Italy and now a resident of Kingston, was the leading ballator against Hofstra bringing the team to its feet every time it began to drag.

The Way the Ball Bounces

by Ed McCafferty, Sports Editor

DOWN IN PENNSYLVANIA

Autumn...scarlet whirlpools of falling leaves...early sunsets...souvenirs of college days...homecoming...pilgrimage back to the old school...lucky afternoon...football.

Tomorrow is the ninth annual Wilkes College Alumni Homecoming. The first homecoming took place back in November, 1948, the year after the South River Street institution's football team was first called the Wilkes Colonels. This initial homecoming welcomed back graduates of both Bucknell University Junior College and of Wilkes College, which was in its second year was a four-year school.

For this first homecoming game was a small college located elsewhere in this valley. Although this was not the first meeting between the two schools it was the start of a home-

Soccer and Football Teams To Perform Before Alumni; Both Seeking Second Win

The Wilkes College soccer team will be seeking their second straight triumph in as many games when they tangle with Rider College in this afternoon's game.

The Colonel booters will definitely be on the up for tomorrow's contest. Not only will they be trying to record their second consecutive victory in their quest for a fourth straight winning season, but they will be anxious to avenge last year's 3-2 setback handed them by the Rider netmen. Year after year, Rider has been a team which always gives Wilkes a tough time.

Tomorrow's home opener is an important one for Coach John Reese's charges as this will mark the first time that the Blue and Golders Win Ist.

Registels Register 2 Late TD's, 12-0

Playing most of the game in a pouring rain, the Wilkes football squad cracked up their first victory of the year, as they triumphed over Ithaca College, 12-0, this Saturday night at the victors' field.

Wilkes completely out-played the upstarts from New York, but could not push across that all important score until the last quarter.

The first Colonial touchdown was set up when halfback Brian Wade of Ithaca received a bad pass from center while he was trying to punt from his own 12 late in the third period.

The kick went to the 19 where Wilkes end Ron Aikens downed the ball.

In four plays, the Wilkmen brought the ball down to the Bomber one. Then, on the first play of the last quarter, backboner Ron Rescigno raced around left end for the score.

Later in the same period, halfback Al Mandriski intercepted an Ithaca pass on the visitors' 39 and returned the ball back to the Bomber nine before falling down. After an exchange of fumbles, Wilkes again took over on the 17.

On the first play from scrimmage, substitute tailback Ray Yan- chus fired to Mandriski for a 17-yard pass and the Colonels' second score.

Both attempts for the extra point were wide.

This was Wilkes' first win in the three games. Ithaca College has yet to win in their starts, and they also failed to score this season.

Undefeated East Stroudsburg beat the Bombers two weeks ago, 12-0.

GAME RESCHEDULED

The soccer game against Lafayette College which was origi- nally scheduled for October 4 has been rescheduled for October 30.

Rain, which recurs in a moddy geometry, will determine the outcome of this contest which would have been Lafayette's 1956 season opener.

The game will be played at Lafayette commencing at four o'clock.

Intramural Grid Games Scheduled

The Intramural Touch Football program starts rolling this week. Student Bill Morris has scheduled two games this week, on Wednesday night at 8 p.m., and Friday night at 7 p.m. at the gymnasium.

Any team still wishing to enter may do so. Registrants must now turn in their cards to the gym office no later than three o'clock Monday afternoon. The roster should include between six and twelve players.

Soccer Squad Tops Hofstra

by Barry Miller

Last Saturday at Hofstra, the Colonel booters played and won their opening game of the season. The score was 2-0. Although the team had to move to New York was relatively inexperienced, Coach John Reese returned home proud of the showing his boys made.

Goalie Bob Sokol, playing in his first soccer game, held the Hofstra kickers scoreless. Ed Mason, Ahmad Kazimi and Tony Bianco played outstanding games at halfback, and Dave Polley turned in a noteworthy performance at fullback. The Colonels' goals were chalked up by hustling Nick Giordano and by freshman Carl Harville.

Mr. Reese felt that all in all, the team turned in a good solid game and played well together. Of course, there were the usual first game mistakes, but the coach expects to have them corrected before the Homecoming game with Rider tomorrow. He stated that if the boys continue playing the same way, the Wilkes booters will have a fine season.

Five Gifts Raffled by Letterman's Club

by Carol Bremay

Saturday, November 3rd will be a happy day for at least five lucky people. At the Wilkes-Pennsylvania Military College game, the Letterman's Club will draw the names of the winners in their annual raffle. This year's raffle, the only fund-raising project of the group, is expected to be most successful.

First prize is two tickets to the Army-Navy game, Saturday, December 1st. Transportation to this game will be provided by the club. As second prize, the winners will receive two tickets to the Cleveland Browns-Philadelphia Eagles game, Sunday, November 18th, at Philadelphia. The third, fourth, and fifth prize winners will each receive a $100-point flyaway.

The Lettermen plan to have a booth set up near the main entrance at the Homecoming game. All Lettermen have tickets and will gladly arrange of anyone interested in buying them. Progress of the drive can be watched by all, as the indicator rooms up the rocket on the Chase Hall Lawn.

Little Man on Campus

by Dick Alde

"Okay, men, the next play is DX-83. . . Now, Bolivar, when you hear me yell 'Tommie', I'll give you the ball, then you try to get through them men wearing the yellow sweaters and then head for those posts painted purple and white."

Jim Stocker

Gold soccermen will have participated in a Homecoming contest. Many former Wilkes soccer per- formers are expected to be on hand for the game, so the booters are naturally anxious to perform creditably, just before their predecessors.

Previous Homecomings always saw the soccer team play away. Tomorrow's game will be played at the home nets at Kirby Park with gate time scheduled for 11 A.M.

Coach Reese was pleased with his squad's hustle and drive against a much taller Hofstra team. It is expected to field essentially the same starting lineup that defeated the Flying Dutchmen last Saturday.

The line, paced by Nick Giordano, worked well together. Wings Jim Stecker and Bill Lloyd handled the ball neatly from their outside spots while Carl Harville, Bob Sokol, and Timmy Jenkins looked good at their inside positions.

The defense was strong with Ed Mason, Tony Bianco, Ahmad Kazimi, and Dave Polley turning in sparkling performances. After tomorrow's clash, the booters will have a weekend's rest before hosting the mighty Temple team on Tuesday at 2:00. This contest will mark the first appearance of the powerful Owl kickers in this region.
