LETTERMEN’S TURKEY RAFFLE SCHEDULED FOR NEXT WEEK

by Marion J. Klawon

Huge rock landing on Chase Lawn! Dr. Wostrow’s raccoon finally landed after a trip to outer space.

Details of Wilkes students rushed to the scene of the landings to gaze in astonishment at the sight. One drover Wilkens ventured to the door of the first floor, while more than likely the drover Wilkens in small groups around the strange object.

The door opened slowly and a broad-shouldered man wearing a Wilkes sweater and hat-a-crowd waited breathlessly for the first words of the 'man from Mars’. His first words were, “Would anyone like to buy a Lettermen’s Turkey raffle ticket?”

The ship, which was blown from its orbit by a heavy wind, was being used by the Lettermen’s Club as a “thermometer” on raffle sales. Tenders for the ticket failed to purchase the rocket but the spirit of the Lettermen was not wasted away. They are still enthusiastically selling tickets to one and all on campus.

The raffle is the only raising campaign carried on by the Lettermen during the year. The club does not receive any grant of money from the Student Council.

One raffle chance costs a dime but to save you money, the club is also selling a first class ticket which will grab a whole book of twelve for a dollar. First prize, an aluminum ice box, and second prize, a two tickets to the Cleveland Browns Eagles game. Third, fourth, and fifth prizes are twenty-round turkey tickets and one each at the Wilkes-Pennsylvania will be drawn.

Every student is urged to buy tickets to support the Lettermen’s Club, so you can win a turkey for a dime!

Male Chorus Presents First Program of Year On Color TV Circuit by Richard J. Myers

The Collegians, under the direction of Prof. Louis L. Laws, are scheduled to present their annual appearance last Friday. In the spring, the Collegians were first in a color TV presentation at Pennsylvania State University show over a closed circuit. Later in the day, they appeared before a fine crowd at Freshman-Sophomore United Fund Dance. The program was well received at both performances. Tomorrow evening at 6:30 P.M., the men will assemble at the House Grove for their annual fall outing. There will be food and drinks, with Carroll Law link providing a few hours of taped recording dance music.

At their Monday night rehearsal, the group heard President Jerry Lent express a proposal for the organization. Members will be asked in the next few weeks to offer any helpful suggestions for the final resolution of this project. The group also expressed low interest that punctuality and regularity of attendance are vital to the success of the chorus. He repeated his statement that any member who misses three consecutive rehearsals or is absent too frequently without a name will be dropped.

DEBATE TEAM CHOSEN FOR N.Y.U. TOURNAMENT

Wilkes will take part in the fall at Yale University, Harvard, New York University, on November 30 and December 7 in two of the past the debaters were in the Tournament.

Students Urged to Aid United Fund Appeal; Student Goal not Met

A meeting of the United Fund Committee on Monday night was held Wednesday to determine the success of the drive on the Wilkes College campus. Ed Kethula, chairman, announced that the students were slow in contributing their share to the Fund.

Kethula stated that Wilkes students have reached only thirty percent of their goal. However, $173.00 can be credited to the fund this week from the efforts of the freshmen and sophomore classes who sponsored a dance last week. In addition to this contribution, both groups are adipiscing the remainder of their classes.

Kethula urged students who have pledged to the Fund to make contributions as soon as possible. If they are still enthusiastically selling tickets to one and all on campus.

The drive is the only raising campaign carried on by the Lettermen during the year. The club does not receive any grant of money from the Student Council.

The Lettermen's Raffle

The Lettermen's raffle is sponsored on Tuesday, due to the long-overdue rains, but the order of the athletes has not dimmed. They are still all going out to sell their raffle tickets.

The last little time before this will be held next week at the Pennsylvania Military College contest, and this drive is one that benefits the Lettermen. The benefit is indirect, since the men use the proceeds to finance the formal and the Cinderella Ball. The organization gets no money from the extra-curricular activities fund.

The Lettermen hold one of the lucky stubs. Five lucky persons will be the recipients of prizes, so take a chance... Help the Lettermen's Club.

On the Bulletin Boards

We noticed that the Student Council took prompt action to see that all election campaign signs were removed from around the campus. A good move.

On Wednesday, notices placed on the bulletin boards of the campus and forgotten long after their value is current. We know that on one occasion a notice printed as the evening view from early March until late in the summer.

The Student Council should take action on this matter, although it really shouldn't be necessary. If the persons responsible for putting them up see that they are removed when the term has ended, the situation will take care of itself. The publicity chairmen of each office could be made responsible for taking down the notices, as well as putting up new ones.

THE KERNEL'S KORN

One party wanted to run a dairy store business as his office, but they decided he didn't have a milk. They replaced him with a chimney sweep, but the voters take this with a grain of salt.

One powerful party machine was once thrown out of office because it was accused of giving a lot of money to a darling of the hunters, but it never recovered its old influence until it got a contract for state work. It was then said that there was a "slew" of that kind in the state, and it was also said that there were "slew" of tins in the city.

Dr. VuJic (after reading the quotes from a recent exam): "If anyone wishes to give me 20 marks, he may keep me in my office."

"What was your reaction to the fact that we can have a tea party.""

"Mr. Mui (during a discussion of "Wuthering Heights"): "It's really a pity that I don't understand it in the English!"

"Why?"

"Because it's the first time I've ever seen a Yankee dollar. At the minimum, it won't break anyone and it will help someone. So, let's all dig in when approached and give this. This will be the first time we've seen a Yankee dollar, since the actual expense is considerably less than it would otherwise be.

Soccer Home For Fifth Game; Away Next Week

With only one win for the first half of the Wilkes College Football Schedule, the Gold booters are in for a very busy and an important tour of duty this coming week. The soccer contingent will be joined by a row of two in their first straight game home and then the Wilkes kickers take to the road next week to battle Lafayette on Tuesday and set Stroodburg on Saturday.

These three games are crucial ones for the booters as they stretch a winning season. The team record now stands at one victory, three losses, and one tie. Two of the defeats handed the soccermen came in overtime tussles with Temple and Rider. A clean sweep of the three foregoing tilts would almost insure Coach Rease's squad their fourth consecutive winning year.

The Wilkes backfield has been bright, but the line has had some trouble in scoring although they have continually launched scoring threats. Rease has been experimenting with forwards trying to find a clicking combination and he has come up with Suchan as his key man. Suchan is not listed as a starter, but his tricky play has been utilized both on the right wing, or inside right, where otherwise the offense shows signs of dragging.

The Wilkes booters are in a very important tour of duty this coming week. The game, between Wilkes and Lafayette Saturday, is the last game of a three-game round robin series, which the Wilkes booters started against Gettysburg last Saturday, and tied the Wilkes-Muhan stripes. Six goals, and Wilkes recorded the first score. The last game of series, Wilkes will try to put on a good performance and return the favor. Wilkes will try to play the role of the homecoming, two weeks back, Ur- sinus dumped the Blue and Gold before its own alumni.

Wilkes will be in top physical shape for the contest. Although the team will be small in numbers, the boys really want this one. As a matter of fact, the Wilkes booters will have a hard time picking the winners. The game will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, October 27.
