Winter Sports Featured At Traditional Affair
To Be Held at P. M. I.

by T. I. Myers

Plans are complete for the Winter Carnival Chairman Bob Morris has announced that the program committee has hired a band, set up contests and activities, as well as some interesting entertainment.

Dick Salau, chairman of the program committee, is planning a ping pong contest, skating races, billiards tournament, song fest, dance contests, basketball games, and other card games, as well as a "Smash" contest.

Dick announced that these events are open to all students, but separate men's and women's divisions in some cases. Prizes will be awarded for all of the activities.

The management of Pocono Mountain Inn (PMI) has arranged for a buffet-type meal to be served on the main floor from 11:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. in the evening in the event guests may also pack their own picnic lunches.

The Council has hired Glenn Johnson and his "All-Stars" to provide the music for the event. The band will play from 8:00 to 11:00 P.M. activities include exhibition dance, jitterbug, spot and pick-up dances.

The carnival will begin at noon on January 23 and continue until late in the evening. The activities of the guests will have many activities to engage in.

Liberty facilities include a Jukebox, ping pong and pool tables, darts, pool, basketball, shuffleboard, floor games, checkers, chess and dancing. Outside facilities include ice skating (bring your own skates), skiing, sledding, and flying saucers. There is no rental for any of this equipment.

The Inn also has a basketball court, football field, volleyball court, horseshoe pits, tennis courts, and other outdoor facilities.

Students using any of the equipment provided by the Inn are requested to return it to the place where they get it or to one of the members of the program committee.

Bob Morris also announced that signs will be posted along the route to the Carnival site, to avoid the difficulty encountered by some people on their way to last year's event. The signs will be posted at strategic points along the route, beginning at Blakeslee intersection, the junction of routes 115 and 490.

Maps will also be posted on the bulletin board at the entrance of the gym. Any one who does not know the way.

Chaperones will be members of the Commerce and Finance Department: Mr. Arthur H. Hoover, Ken Blakeslee and Bob Morris.
Parting Praise

"Jim's Parting Shots" appears for the last time in this issue in the name of Jim Myers, who will graduate at the end of the semester. We feel that the Beacon is losing its greatest asset in Tom because as Business Manager, post editor, and columnist, we are sure this publication in the past two years we believed we could expect from any individual.

And his assistants have built up the Business and Circulation departments efficiently, through the past several years by performing their duties promptly. Besides managing the Beacon's financial responsibility, writing his weekly column and working on the side, he has gone out of his way to help us with the mechanical make-up of the paper every Thursday and Friday at Schmidt's Printery.

We could not possibly find the space to list all of the ways Tom has assisted us during the past two years, and we could not possibly express our true feelings of gratitude to him. We are happy for Tom that he will receive his degree and be able to pursue his career, but we have to see him leave Wilkes College and the Beacon.

The LAST LAP

We hope that you have everything — don't forget to get that essay together while you have time. And get started reading the exam.

Settled? Good. After fifteen minutes, break gently from bending over the book, from the bell. Take a moment to stretch over your right one to set the board at a good angle. You say your leg's cramped; squeeze your right one over the left and try to relax.

Everything should be fine now, unless you happen to get a twitch in the middle of your back. If this happens, the best remedy is to get up and stretch the muscles, followed by a restful half way stretched gym floor a few minutes ago (it's time you phone a nax question, any way). If you are the lucky ogue you may have the misfortune to feel another muscle or, slip to the floor in a couple of minutes. If this happens, you were capping and mooring because you had loomed all semester. Don't try to stand up straight, just hobble, bent over from the waist, out of the gym. We hope you do not collapse standing up; you don't have a lay when you stand.

Letter to the Editor...

To the Student Body:

Your Winter Carnival will be held on campus, Thursday, January 23, 1968 from 11:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

This affair has been held annually between semesters to give the students the chance to relax and to enjoy the Pocono Mountains.

For your enjoyment this year, extensive program has been arranged by the Student Council, everyone should participate in the planned program. With your co-operation, we can make this the most successful ever held by our Student Council.

Individual integrity can often be lost in a crowd. The Council, therefore, urges all students to have the courage of their convictions and to refrain from any action which we sincerely appreciate (and with our gratitude we send the hope that we can adhere to our wisdom).

We express our thanks to those of the Administration who have given us many boosts along the way: Mrs. Edna Steven, Diane Dehers. To the faculty, we are grateful for your help.

And to the "Biggest Man On Campus" — Dr. Farley — goes the biggest "Thank You" of all. It is largely his efforts which have made it possible for us, the students of Wilkes, to be enjoying the most fruitful years of our lives.

Thanks also to all of you — students and instructors of Wilkes — my friends.

The Business of Hand

Now getting to work. First, a report on New Year's Eve. We spent a quiet New Year's Eve, ourselves — perhaps a little too quiet. It came as a result of testing some of those new cocktails. For instance, there's the G一群人cocktail... drink one and you find you've run pell mell up to the Orient highb. A whole lot of people make you feel like a new madonna. Or the Strike-Proof cocktail ... one drink and you're leaving your body.

Other Good News

The Wilkes wrestling expressive roared onto its 18th win with a 20-18 decision over Delware's Flying Dutchmen by 33-3 score. The Dutchmen from downtown had to wait until "Tiny" Ken Longenecker took to the mat in the last bout of the evening before scoring their first point of the night.

Longenecker, weighing 154 pounds, scored 7-0 points against Bob Sheldon in the unlimited weight class and hauled his way to an 8-1 decision. He displayed his tremendous improvement and staying power against his toughest opponent to date.

The rest of the night was the exclusive property of Wilkes, as the same Johnnie Reese, Bob Cablitz, and Deliberative Dutchmen rolled up four falls, a decision, and a default, in addition to a forfeit in the 180-pound class.

Bobby Morgan pulled a fast one in the first period of the 125-pound round, as freshman Barry Kinard, then rode him for the considerable 1-0 lead. Longenecker took the top position at the start of the second period and stayed there for only seven seconds, as the Dutchman, with seconds to go, turned in a fall.

The 130-pound bout was finished before it started when Valley's Don Baldwin, had no choice but to admit defeat. The two wrestled anyhow, and Keith Williams pinned him in 42 seconds of the second period.

The official record shows a win by forfeit.

Jim Ward kept his perfect record by winning his fourth of the year and 18th consecutive pin in dual competition when he pinned Bob Cablitz in the 145-pound round. He had been leading, 2-0, at the time of the fall. So far this season, Ward has been able to register a single point against his opponents.

Doug Kitter in 177, in the first varsity start of his collegiate career, was not able to pull a fast one, and was pinned by his fellow 177-pounder.

The time of the fall was 1:56.

Many Antelines took on Valley's varsity grapplers and were unable to show great strides in improvement and is not a cloak for his 8-0 win.

Walter Głogowski, responding to the word, "Start," charged in on a take down and then got his man. Tony Walsh, coming in on a great charge, pulled a rib cartilage, forcing him to withdraw from the mat. The time of the fall was 1:56.

The HEADING COMPUTER

Last Saturday afternoon, the grapplers were at the Long College at Hofstra College. They took a hard-fought 14-11 victory from their hosts.

Bobby Morgan, at 126 pounds, started off his season by using his considerable power to win a 1-0 decision over 5-4 Robert Backus in the 177-pound class.

Głogowski had his man in trouble in class of the 145-pounder and pinned him in 1:59 of the first period.

The SMASHING BLOW of "The Blue and White Wrestling" was the result of plenty of hard work turned in by volunteer men numerous volunteers who were headed by Cambridge's executive committee; John Reese, John Whitley, Russ Picton, John Charlock, Frank Walp, Cromwell Thomas, "Pink" Pinkowski, and the Wilkes Letterman.

In the first period, Mr. Bob International Gas and Electric Publicity for Wilkes College, had the pleasure of covering the first, and in the midst of the battle, was a few bemos, missed a few bets, and stepped on a few toes, but thankfully, nobody seemed to be too upset.

What work we did get done would have been impossible without the valuable aid of a group of great guys: Bill Zabrocki, Bob Suttermann, Mike Hark, Russ Yurkowski, and Jim Himann, all of whom did a magnificent job of legwork.

With the finals of the holiday festival just about wrapped up and everyone else ready to go home, we "pencil-pushers" found our work was not yet complete.

From that point, with nerves a bit jangled, this writer recalls being a hero, as they continued to work, not wanting to mind their own business. There was nothing personal meant by it; indeed, we weren't even aware of names of those we might have been writing down. We do win, however, to apologize publicly to Russ Picton as one victim; to any others we have, in our unreasonable and regrettable temperaments, a blanket apology.

NEW BOWLING SEASON

All bowlers were met with an unexpected notice concerning the new bowling season which will commence in two weeks. We will have to be quite ruthless with the deadline date; any teams not entered by January 17th will be out of luck.

a loss, as he broke the individual point-scoring record with 41 points against his eleven consecutive win. He capped the banner season by earning the second-place medal in the Scholastic National Tournament. The event will be held on the weekend of February 28.

E.S.S.T.C. NEXT SATURDAY

The next home meet will be Saturday, January 18 at 8 o'clock against East Stroudsburg. The Meet will be the last for the Wilkes Teachers last year, 10-15, when Neil Darcus started a pin in the heavyweight class.

The recently reorganized Wilkes swimming team takes to the road tomorrow morning for a 12-hour trip to Carlisle, Pa., and a dip in the Dickinson pool. The Colonel men are still rounding into shape and face a team that has undergone for some years now that few of its swimming men have ever gone against.

Coach Clate Miller says that his squad needs experience as a unit and that even the most optimistic of his members are far from realizing the professional world, but seldom seen on competition.

He will swim in the 400-yard medley relay, 50-yard-free style, and the 200-yard medley.

His opponents, will be in five years, are coached by Ray Evenson, a local product. Evenson is Director of Athletics at Dickinson, assistant football coach of the Demons, and was at one time coach and Director of Athletics at Wyoming Seminary.

The team will leave the gym at 9:30 A.M. tomorrow for the automobile trip to Carlisle. Swimming competition begins at 11 a.m. The trip are asked to be on scene at 10 a.m.

The events and probable lineup: 400-yard medley relay - Ken Selody, Don Morgan, Joe Walp, Carl Havira.

Fantasy diving - Dave Polley and Vince Capp. (Football?)

The Colonels were picked to be the best team in the Men's Division, but the Blue and Gold were a surprise. They were just far enough from the Colonels to be a threat; when he on the last leg of the dual against Hofstra's

NADA VUJICA IS SELECTED TO NATIONAL PUBLICATION

Mrs. Nada Vujica, head librarian at the college, has been selected to represent Wilkes in the 1968 National Who's Who in American Education. She is the first faculty member to receive this recognition since 1947 when Dr. Farley was selected.

Mrs. Vujica received her A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of Zagreb where she majored in Slavic languages. She received her degree in library science in 1951 from Marywood College, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Vujica and her husband Stanko, head of the philosophy and social sciences department, came to Wilkes College in 1946. She was then assistant circulation librarian. She was promoted to head librarian in 1962.

Mrs. Vujica is active in the American and Pennsylvania Library Association and served as president of the latter organization from 1966 to 1967. Currently she is a member of the League of Women Voters, The American Association of University Women, and the Croatian Historical Institute.

Previously, she had been appointed a Who's Who in Library Service and Who's Who in the American Library Directory and has been mentioned in three editions of Who's Who in American Literature.

Mrs. Vujica, who is known for her literary achievements, began writing for children's magazines at the age of 13. She has three novels on lyrical prose and travel impressions published in Croatian. The diocese of her work also appeared in past editions of the Wilkes Manuscript and the Detroit Courier, a Croatian-American newspaper published in English.

For three successive years, 1949-51, she won the Croatian literary prize for study abroad. This enabled her to take advanced study at the Universities of Rome and Perugia, Italy, and in Poland.

This interest in literature is one of the reasons why Mrs. Vujica desired to become a librarian after she came to the United States.

ENGAGEMENTS

MEMO TO MAESTROS! is your band dawdling instead of tooting? Is it full of feeble flutes and drooping drummers? Well, this musical slowdown may be traceable to lack of Luckies. Better give your band a break—and make it a Lucky one! A Lucky, you see, is a light smoke—the right smoke for everyone. It’s all cigarette—all naturally light, wonderfully good-tasting tobacco. And Luckies’ fine tobacco is blended to taste even better. Now then, what’s a marching band that never gets a Lucky break? Why, it’s a Sore Corpse! (Wasn’t that cynical?)

STUCK FOR DOUGH? START STICKLING! MAKE $25

We’ll pay $25 for every Stickler we print—and for hundreds more that never get printed! So short supply—they’re so easy you can think of dozens in seconds! Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (Don’t do drawings.) Send ‘em all with your name, address, color and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

SCHOLAR DIRECTORY CONTAINS BIOGRAPHY OF D. A. N. KRUGER

_by Bill Zdovaczev_

The third issue of The Directory recently, contains the biography of Wilkes' noted Director of Forensics and the concise Professor of English, Dr. Arthur N. Kruger. Known for his work in the field of debate, Dr. Kruger has led the Wilkes debate teams over a ten-year period to a total of 350 victories in 500 debates. The debaters have given individual honors over the years, as well as bringing many honors to the college and the community. Among the many tournaments won by debaters are: Harvard, Johns Hopkins, Notre Dame, Princeton, Bucknell, District Authority, and the Pennsylvania College.

His honors of debating coach also include the fact that his teams have placed in the last four national seven-state area of District Seven for the National Tournament held annually at West Point. In addition, during 1956, Wilkes placed second in the nation and last year, both team members placed among the top ten. During the same year, Dr. Kruger received his A.B. degree in 1936 from the University of Alabama; and later received his Ph.D. degree, in 1941, at Louisiana State University. Before joining the faculty of Wilkes College, he spent four years in the United States Army, serving as an officer in the Signal Intelligence Service and in the Office of Strategic Services. Prior to his army service he taught at North Carolina State University.

Many articles, written by Dr. Kruger, have been published on such topics as language, logic, and debating. These works have appeared in various journals, including The Pennsylvanian Speech Annual and The Bulletin of the Debating Association of Pennsylvania.

Kampus Keglers Snare Brawling Honors
On Hill Hoffman's 215

The Kampus Keglers, by virtue of a 4-0 shutout over the Oasis, ran off with the 1967 Fallbowl championship in last Sunday night's playful series.

The Keglers, winners of the Campus league crown, defeated the College league titlists handily, in spite of the 54-pin handicap they gave up in each game, by 277 to 199.

The Tatons were in the title game without the services of George Gacha who is suffering from an unknown ailment in basketball.

Jim Hoffman had a "hot hand" in the last game, hitting a 215 and finishing for a 490 total. Len Gon- denlirch, the high series for the Keglers with 181-116, and Chuck Kopecky, shipped in with 138-432. Pete Maholik added 128-332 and Max Greenwald rolled 182-372.

For the losers, Joe Ackerson rolled 146-599, Rose Weinstein had 138-363, Fran Bishop hit 172-385, and Al Ullman knocked down 372 pins, with a high game of 152.
