IDC SPONSORS “HOBO HOP” TONIGHT

Worst-Dressed Male and Female Will Receive Prizes at Dance;
Ivy Leaguers to Provide Music
by Marion J. Klawonn

The Inter-Dormitory Council will hold the annual Hobo Hop tonight from 9 to 12 in the gym. As advertised, the dance will feature prizes and special dances to add to the fun of the informal affair.

Bob Moran and his Ivy Leaguers will provide the music for dancing while Mrs. Gertrude Doane, Dean of Women, and Mr. George Elliott of the Economics Department, will keep an eye on to find the best dressed boy and the best dressed girl. Each of the best-dressed will receive tickets to the May 9 Cinderella Ball.

Allyn Jones, general chairman, has announced that informality is the keynote of the affair. Everything from formal attire to hair will be informal. The informality of the dance was decided upon because of the rank of forms that has hit campus. Students who attended the April Shovener Ball last week, and expect to attend the Cindy next week, will welcome the chance to dress down to dance. On the other hand, students who are not planning to attend the Cindy, will get a chance to dress up.

Tickets for this unique affair are selling for only 50 cents for men and can be obtained from any IDC member or at the dance tonight.

Since activity passes to the Club 'n' Curtain play can be used Saturday, nobody has to miss any of the campus activities planned for the weekend. Everybody can get to the dance on Friday and then see “Holiday” Saturday night.

Chairman of the Hobo Hop Allyn Jones has appointed the following committee chairmen to assist in the tickets: Dave Bebich; decorations, Rose Neuner; refreshments, Miss Patricia Bond; publicity, Miss Lydia Brown; operations, Miss Patricia Bond; publicity, Miss Lydia Brown.

ELEVEN 'CINDY' NOMINEES CHOSEN
by Tony Scorceeman

Pictures below are the eleven candidates chosen by the students for the title of "Cinderella". One of the candidates, who are all seniors, will be selected by student vote on ballots sent to the homes, and she will be named Queen at the annual Cinderella Ball on May 9.

The crowning of the Queen will be covered by a local television station, and the young lady will receive several gifts certificates from various local merchants, a portable radio and a diamond dinner ring from Kay Jewelers. Each of the candidates will receive a gift.

Jack Meiler's orchestra will play for the dancing which will continue from 9 to 1. Tickets are available for the students at a group price at John S. Stett for the formal affair and cougars may be obtained at the bookstore. Tickets are $2.00 per couple.

Mary West, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry West, 107 Hartford street, is majoring in Business Education. She is secretary of the senior class, secretary of the CCUN, secretary of the Education Club, and social chair of TDR.

Miss West was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, was named to the Dean's List for four semesters, and received the Wilkes-Barre Business and Professional Women's Club award in October. She was also a candidate for Cinderella last year.

Theresa Mazarella

Miss Mazarella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mazarello of 1324 S. Franklin st., was a candidate for the girls' basketball team for two years.

Marilyn Carl

Miss Carl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Carl, 68 Bedford st., Party Port, is majoring in Music Education. She is secretary of the Band, director of the Girls' Chorus, and a member of TDR and the Education Club.

Miss Carl was elected Homecoming Queen in her junior year and was a candidate for the Best-Dressed girl. She was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and is active in TDR.

Virginia Leonardi

Miss Leonardi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Leonardi, 225 South Main st, Pittston, is majoring in Business Administration and Music. She is now teaching music courses on campus. Miss Leonardi is active in the Chemistry Club and TDR, and has been named to the Dean's List for four years. She is a member of the National Honor Society.

Laines, Luft Star in 'Holiday'; Activity Passes Good Tonight
And Saturday for Barry Play
by Jim Eidam

Kwani-Wilkes College production of Philip Barry's "Hobby" opened last night at Irem Temple before a large audience of regional high school and college students and faculty members. The play will be presented again tonight and Saturday, with curtain time at 8:20.

Wilkes students will be admitted with activity passes both tonight and tomorrow. Additional tickets, selling at one dollar, are available at the college bookstore. Season tickets will also be honored.

"Holiday" is a sparkling romantic comedy of manners. Philip Barry, noted author of the play, is considered one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century and a master of the romantic comedy. Mr. Al Gros, director of the play, and other "C'n'C" Curtain members have attempted to recreate the glowing spirit of the play which captivated thousands of theatre-goers on Broadway.

Cast in the lead roles are Marian Laines and Jerry Luft, both of whom have appeared in several previous college productions. They portray the two young lovers, Julia and Johnny. Other prominent roles are played by Phyllis Judson, Stan Yarber, Fred Mahattie, Robie Stevens, and Neshama Rosenbom, with the following supporting cast: Carrol Davenport, Sandra Schaffer, Judith Geer, Frank Proin, Jr., and Peter Tyler.

Art instructors Mr. Cathal O'Toole and Mr. Bernard Rovina, along with Marianne Lenovske and the staging committee, headed by Paul Abrams, have spent much time in designing and painting the sets for the play, and their efforts have been most successful.

Other "C'n'C" Curtain members who have contributed toward making the production a success are: Joe Oliver, production director; Stephen Conroy, publicity director; and Howard Allyn, lighting direc-

President Eugene S. Farley
Wilkes College
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

Dear President Farley:

I have been interested upon the fact that it was a pleasure to me to participate in the Eastern Convention of Science last week. The luncheon with you and many other of the faculty was partic- ularly pleasant. Never have I attended a conference that was so enjoyable that one could not always wish to return.

There are many small things that I wish you had known. I should like to make a small contribution to your magazine. It is a worthy project of your selection related to science (the recent Conference Sherbino has been referred to). I am sure you will handle this matter in such a way that our gracious hosts among the students will not have any questions raised in their minds about the appreciation of their hospitality. We did appreciate it, and we wish to reciprocate in some suitable way.

The Beat Generation

"Do you belong to the ‘beat’ generation?"

According to national magazines from Time to Esquire, which have published numerous articles on this subject, the Beat Generation man is not looking for adventure beyond the horizon. Rather, he wants security in the form of pension plans and group hospitalization. He does not go out in any of the ’30’s behavior, such as gold fish swallowing, flag pole sitting, or noble courses.

In the 20’s, Mama was a flapper and Papa was a slick... but what is today? According to many of his elders he is just plain Beat!

Recently the sons and daughters of The Lost Generation, who are now between the ages of 18 and 28, have been accused of lacking the get-up-and-go which characterized their parents in their heyday.

A survey on this subject was held at the University of Oklahoma which showed that the majority of students felt the term ‘Beat’ to be applicable. Several students protested the idea. One male senior stated that the young people do not want to do anything on their own, but they also refuse to conform to society.

The best remark to the ‘Beat’ generation idea was given by a coed at the University: “We have to spend the first half of our life slaving to get an education, and the second half slaving to earn a living. We don’t care if we be anything but ‘beat!’”

Not A Chancer

Her dress is royen, her stockings nyleon, her coat is velour, her gloves are nylon, her slip is dacron... nobody is going to pull the wool over her eyes!

The Big Switch...!

Coeds living in Boiler Hall at S.T.C., Geneseo, N.Y., were recently informed they’d have to find other places to live next year. It seems their dorm will be given over to men students!

The girls of Bailey Hall naturally wondered why their dorm was selected instead of one of the other women’s dormitories. The answer they received was that the halls were situated so that the men were put in another dorm, women residents would have been able to peer into the rooms of the male students!

Quite a reversal!

The Picnic... or, The Rains Came

Just a few words about the Senior Class Picnic... both sides:

It was an excellent day for a picnic... if you shied water early. The sun was shining all day... it raised most of the day and night. The entire senior class attended... well, nearly half of them. Many seniors enjoyed playing volleyball... until they were too tired to play more. The men spent much of their time on鞋子 shoes... if they didn’t sink too far into the mud. The baseball game was terrific, numerous home runs... on errors.

The basketball game was an exciting one, the men’s basketball team established a record of 27-5.

The dance was tremendous while “die-hard” Wilkinson continued to shake it.

As the evening neared its end, the seniors left with ease in their automobiles... after getting out of the mud!

By the way, our distinguished four-legged friend “SAM” also attended the picnic.

Actually... in all seriousness, the Senior Class Picnic held Sunday at Bowman Park was attended by the successful and everyone who went seemed to have a wonderful time.
SOFTBALL SEASON IN FULL SWING, HIGH-SCORING GAMES RECORDED

High scoring and plenty of play in the intramural softball season created a buzz this week. The Colonels and Greyhounds played back-to-back games. The Colonels’ Southpaw Howard had two hits and a run scored. He hit a two-out, two-run double in the seventh inning to pull the Colonels closer.

COACH MORGAN BOWLING QUALITY IN TOURNEY

Participating in their first interscholastic bowling tournament, the Colonels’ pin squad was successful in rolling a spot for the playoffs. The Colonels’ women’s team also qualified for the playoffs, finishing in the top five.

GOLFERS SEE BUSY WEEK AHEAD AGAINST M.S.T.C., WARRIORS; THEN TOURNEY

Coach Welnan G. Farrar and his golfers added a new opponent to their schedule last week, the Mansfield State Teachers College. The meet was held at the Tremont Country Club. Results of the meet were not available at the Beacon press deadline.

Starting for the Colonels in this match were: 1. Ed Miraksys, 2. Bob Januzko, 3. Art Belles, 4. Pete Merv, 5. Joe Hanein. Sixth man was either Pete McLaughlin or Perkoff.

The Colonels’ team will play host to the Colonels in a return match at Mansfield next Thursday afternoon. On the previous day, Wednesday, May 7, the locals will play at Lyme at the Temple Country Club. Results of the meet were not available at the Beacon press deadline.

The Colonels were not able to score a win in their first four matches of the season. They have yet to find their rhythm, but have shown signs of brilliance on the greens.

NET TEAM BLANKED, 9-0, AT MORAVIA

Last Saturday afternoon, the tennis team took an unprofitable trip to Bethelhem, where they met the eighth ranked team from Moravia and went down 9-0.

It was the first outing for the Colonels on a clay court this season and they met a formidable squad. The Colonels were badly outmanned throughout the day, but did show some signs of brilliance.

The Colonels will face another formidable squad, the Temple Team, on Monday at the Temple Country Club. The match will be played on a clay court.

test your personality power

(Taboo or not taboo - that is the question)

1. Do you feel unqualified to judge a campus beauty contest? (For men only)

2. Do you think going to a big party the night before is the best way to overcome pre-exam jitters?

3. Do you find the company of the opposite sex annoying?

4. Do you think fasts and fancy stuff can give you the full tobacco flavor of a real cigarette?

5. Whenever one of your professors makes a grammatical mistake, do you call it to his attention?

6. Do you and your date sit in the back row of the balcony on dates, or are you both a little gifted?

7. Do you think cowboy shows will ever be banned from television?

8. Do you consider ibid. the most quoted Latin author?

If you answered "No" to all questions, you obviously have a critical sense of what is and isn't taboo. Or get 7 "No's" and it really doesn't matter what you smoke. Anything's good enough!

But if you want to enjoy smoking as never before, there's nothing else tastes so rich, smokes so mild. Today more people smoke Camels than any other cigarette. The best tobacco gives you the best smoke. Try Camels and you'll agree!
HAMPTON DELEGATES BEGIN WILKES VISIT

A delegation of male students from Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia, will arrive here today and attend several social affairs of the college during the weekend. This visit will reciprocate the earlier visit of eight Wilkes students to the southern school. The exchange program is designed to promote brotherhood between the two schools.

TDC members, hosts, and the guests will be feted at a special banquet this evening at the Commons, after which they will attend the CDC Robo Hop at the gym. Tomorrow evening the guests will be free to visit the campus, and in the afternoon they will attend a special picnic at Dr. Farley’s farm.

Delegates will be housed at each of the boys’ dorms.

DEBATE TEAM UNSUCCESSFUL IN WEST POINT TOURNAMENT

Encountering stiff opposition all the way, the Wilkes debate team of Fred Robert and Bruce Warshal managed to take only three out of eight decisions in the seeding round of the National Tournament held at West Point this past weekend. Only one District 7 team, Princeton, managed to survive the seeding rounds to enter the round of 16.

In the first two days of the tourney Wilkes defeated San Francisco, Illinois, and Wayne, while losing to Southern California, Washburn, Houston, Oklahoma, and Marquette. A decision over Marquette in the eighth round would have put the Wilkies into the round of 16.

Only team to emerge undefeated in the seeding rounds was Dartmouth, which was eliminated in the round of 16 by Kansas, a team with a 4-4 record. In the quarterfinal round Princeton eliminated Astana, the defending champion.

Princeton ultimately took third place, being eliminated in the semifinal round by Harvard, which in turn dropped a 4-3 decision to Northwestern in the final round.

Northwestern had entered the final round by defeating Southern California, who wound up in fourth place.
