IDC SPONSORS "HOBO HOP" TONIGHT

Worst-Dressed Male and Female Will Receive Prizes at Dance; Ivy Leaguers to Provide Music

by Marion J. Klawonn

The Inter-Dormitory Council will hold the first annual Hobo Hop tonight from 9 to 12 in the gym. As advertised, the dance will feature prizes and special dances to add to the fun of the informal affair.

Bob Moran and his Ivy Leaguers will provide the music for dancing while Mrs. Gertrude Doane, Dean of Women, and Mr. George Elliot, of the Economics Department, will keep an eye out to find the best worst boy and the best worst girl. Each of the best worst-dressed will receive tickets to the May 9 Cinderella Ball.

Allyn Jones, general chairman, has announced that informality is the keynote of the affair. Everything from formal attire to rags will be welcomed. The informality of the dance was decided upon because of the rush of formals that has hit campus. Students who attended the April Showers Ball last week, and expect to attend the Cindy next week, will welcome the chance to dress down to dance. On the other hand, students who are not planning to attend the Cindy, will get a chance to dress up.

Tickets for this unique affair are selling for only 50 cents and can be obtained from any IDC member or at the dance tonight.

Since activity passes to the Cue 'n' Curtain play can be used Saturday, nobody has to miss any of the campus activities planned for the weekend. Everybody can go to the dance on Friday and then see "Holiday" Saturday night.

Chairman of the Hobo Hop Allyn Jones has appointed the following committee chairmen to assist him: tickets, Dave Roebuck; decorations, Rose Neuser; refreshments, Mim Thomson; band, Art Richards; publicity, Marion Klawonn.

NOTICE!

The final assembly of the college year, May 13, will be held in First Presbyterian Church, 97 S. Franklin St.

Students who are planning to apply for Amnicola and Beacon positions for next year are reminded of the deadline for letters of application. Amnicola letters must be received before May 7, Beacon applications must be in by May 5.

Laines, Luft Star in 'Holiday'; Activity Passes Good Tonight And Saturday for Barry Play

by Jim Eidam

Kiwanis-Wilkes College production of Philip Barry's "Holiday" opened last night at Irem Temple before a large audience of regional high school and college students and faculty members. The play will be presented again tonight and Saturday, with curtain time at 8:30.

Wilkes students will be admitted with activity passes both tonight and tomorrow. Additional tickets, selling at one dollar, are available at the college bookstore. Season tickets will also be honored.

"Holiday" is a sparkling romantic comedy of manners. Philip Barry, noted author of the play, is considered one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century and a master of the romantic comedy. Mr. Al Groh, director of the play, and other Cue 'n' Curtain members have attempted to recreate the glowing spirit of the play which captivated thousands of theatre-goers on Broadway.

Cast in the lead roles are Marian

ELEVEN 'CINDY' NOMINEES CHOSEN

by Toni Scureman

Pictured below are the eleven candidates chosen by the students for the title of "Cinderella". One of the candidates, who are all seniors, will be selected by student vote on ballots sent to the homes, and she will be named Queen at the annual Cinderella Ball on May 9.

The crowning of the Queen will be covered by a local television station, and the young lady will receive several gift certificates from various local merchants, a portable radio and a diamond dinner ring from Kay Jewelers. Each of the candidates will receive a gift.

Jack Melton's orchestra will play for the dancing which will continue from 9 to 1. Tuxedos are available for the students at a group price at John B. Stetx for the formal affair and corsages may be obtained at the bookstore. Tickets are $2.00 per couple.

Marian Laines

Laines and Jerry Luft, both of whom have appeared in several previous college productions. They portray the two young lovers, Julia and Johnny. Other prominent roles are played by Phyllis Judge, Stan Yurkowski, Fred Malkemes, Robbie Stevens, and Neshama Rosenbaum, with the following supporting cast: Carroll Davenport, Sandra Schaffer, Judith Geer, Frank Pinola, Jr., and Peter Gale.

Art instructors Mr. Cathal O'Toole and Mr. Bernard Zawisa, along with Marianne Levenoskie and the staging committee, headed by Paul Abrams, have spent much time in designing and painting the sets for the play, and their efforts have been most successful.

Other Cue 'n' Curtain members who have contributed toward making the production a success are: Joe Oliver, production director; Stephen Cooney, publicity director; and Howard Allen, lighting director.

BRUCE WARSHAL, AL ULLMAN ARE ACCEPTED TO STUDY LAW IN PENNSYLVANIA SCHOOLS

Two seniors, Bruce Warshal and Al Ullman, have been notified of their acceptance to law schools in Pennsylvania. Both will receive their degrees in commerce and finance this June; Warshal with an economics major, Ullman with a business administration major.

Warshal, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Warshal of 23 Swallow Street, Pittston, will enter the University of Pennsylvania Law School in the fall. A graduate of West Pittston High School, he has been active in the I.R.C. and varsity debating during his four years at Wilkes.

He won the first place speaker's trophies in the state contest at Grove City, the Good Neighbor Tournament at Bucknell and the first place extemporaneous speaking trophy at the state contest. He won second place in the Harvard and Boston University contests as well as at the District 2 meet held at King's College.

Ullman, a graduate of Coughlin High School, will enter Villanova University Law School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ullman of 31 N. Welles St., Wilkes-Barre.

While at Wilkes he served on the Amnicola and Beacon staffs and was active in the retailing organization. He was business manager for the Amnicola this year. Ullman was also public address announcer for home basketball games. Before entering Wilkes, he attended the University of Michigan.

Upon completion of law school, he will serve his clerkship in the law offices of Schiffman, Gill, Hubbard, and Wruble in Wilkes-Barre.

- PERSONALS -

Pat Fushek, sophomore elementary education major, and Judy Richardson, sophomore business administration major, visited friends at Bloomsburg State Teachers College over the weekend.

Audrey Bartlett, junior music major, visited New York April 26. While there she saw Clerembard and afterwards talked with the star, Claude Dauphin. She spent the evening with his mother-in-law in Elberon, New Jersey.

Several additional seniors who have accepted positions are: Mim Thompson, who will teach chemistry in M. S. Hershey High School, Hershey, Pa.; Rita Matiskella, who will teach science in Plainfield, N.J.; Alison Rubury will teach elementary school in Reading, Pa.; and Ronnie Rescigno, social studies in Central Islip, Long Island. Mary Matthey, chemistry major, will work for the Callery Chemical Company, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Nada Vujica and Mrs. Alice Schappert, librarians, will attend a conference for college and reference librarians of central Pennsylvania, May 3, at Bucknell University.

Letter to the Editor . . .

President Eugene S. Farley
Wilkes College
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania
Dear President Farley:

I believe I mentioned upon parting that it was a great pleasure to me to participate in the Eastern Colleges Science Conference last week. The luncheon with you and members of the faculty was particularly pleasant. Never have I attended a conference that was so well organized as this one. Our every possible wish was anticipated by the students. They took wonderful care of us.

There is a small matter that I wish you would take care of for me. I should like to make a small gift to Wilkes College toward some worthy project of your selection related to science (the recent Conference would, of course, not be excluded). I am sure you will handle this matter in such a way that our gracious hosts among the students will not have any questions raised in their minds about our appreciation of their hospitality. We did appreciate it very much but simply wish to reciprocate in some suitable way.

Cordially yours,
Glenn W. Giddings
Manager, Research Personnel
General Electric Company

P.S.—A few persons expressed a wish to have a copy of my talk. We have a small number of copies available and should be glad to send them to anyone who may wish to have them.

The 'Beat' Generation

"Do you belong to the 'beat' generation?"

According to national magazines from Time to Esquire, which have recently carried articles on this subject, the Beat Generation man is not looking for adventure beyond the horizon. Rather, he wants security in the form of pension plans and group hospitalization. He does not go in for any of the '20's behavior, such as gold fish swallowing, flag pole sitting, or noble causes.

In the '20's, Mama was a flapper and Papa was a shiek . . . but what is junior today? According to many of his elders he is just plain Beat!

Recently the sons and daughters of the Lost Generation, who are now between the ages of 18 and 28, have been accused of lacking the get-up-and-go which characterized their parents in their heyday.

A survey on this subject was held at the University of Oklahoma which showed that the majority of students felt the term 'Beat' to be appropriate. Several students protested the idea. One male senior stated that the young people do not want to do anything on their own, but they also refuse to conform to society.

The best remark to the 'Beat' generation idea was given by a coed at the University: "We have to spend the first half of our life slaving to get an education, and the second half slaving to earn a living. We don't have time to be anything but 'beat'."

Not A Chance!

. . . Her dress is rayon, her stockings nylon, her coat is orlon, her gloves are dynel, her slip is dacron . . . nobody is going to pull the wool over her eyes!

The Big Switch . . .!

Coeds living in Bailey Hall at S.T.C., Geneseo, N.Y., were recently informed they'd have to find other places to live next year. It seems their dorm will be given over to men students!!

The girls of Bailey Hall naturally wondered why their dorm was selected instead of one of the other women's dormitories.

The answer they received was that the halls were situated that if the men were put in another dorm, women residents would have been able to peer into the rooms of the male students! . . . (Quite a reversal).

The Picnic . . . or, The Rains Came

Just a few words about the Senior Class Picnic . . . both sides:

It was an excellent day for a picnic . . . if you shed water easily. The sun was shining all day . . . it rained most of the day and night. The entire senior class attended . . . well, nearly half of them. Many seniors enjoyed playing volleyball . . . until the ball went into the creek. Wonderful ground for pitching horseshoes . . . if they didn't sink too far into the mud. The baseball game was terrific, numerous home-runs . . . on errors.

The food tasted very good . . . while eating in a smoke-filled pavilion. Bowling was enjoyed by many . . . the alleys seemed crooked though! Rollerskating was the big highlight both in the afternoon and night . . . except for those who were literally on the floor most of the time — right Scally? Dancing was tremendous . . . while "die-hard" Wilkinson continued to skate!

As the evening neared its end, the seniors left with ease in their automobiles . . . after getting it out of the mud!

By the way, our distinguished four-legged friend "SAM" also attended the picnic.

Actually . . . in all seriousness, the Senior Class Picnic held Sunday at Rummage's Grove was quite successful and everyone who went seemed to have a wonderful time.

SOFTBALL SEASON IN FULL SWING, HIGH-SCORING GAMES RECORDED

High scoring and plenty of hits highlighted the first week of play in the intramural softball leagues. Both leagues suffered from rainy weather at the start of this week, but were able to get some games in on Wednesday and yesterday.

The Dirty Rotten Lowdown Hom-bres and the Incinerators, bitter rivals from the start, led the National League in a two-way tie. The Sleepers and Club 20 each had 1-1 records for third place tie, and the Angels and Mau-Maus, both winless in two starts, were tied for fifth.

Monday's Results (April 21): — Club 20 9, Angels 0; Incinerators 22, Sleepers 18; DRLH 11, Mau-Maus 8.

Tuesday, April 22: — American League — The Crew 18, Unlucky 13 7; Biology Club 13, Gore Hall 9; Phonies 9, Collegians 0.

Wednesday, April 23: — National League — Sleepers 9, Angels 0; DRLH 2, Club 20 0; Incinerators 15, Mau-Maus 1.

NET TEAM BLANKED, 9-0, AT MORAVIAN

Last Saturday afternoon, the tennis team took an unprofitable trip to Bethlehem, where they met an experienced squad from Moravian and went down to a 9-0 defeat.

It was the first outing for the Colonels on a clay court this season and they met a Greyhound squad now in the eighth year of intercollegiate play. They were badly outclassed throughout most of the day, but did show some signs of brilliant play.

Ira Himmel and Bill Savitsky, in particular, severely extended the Greyhounds in the first doubles match. Himmel and Savitsky were teamed up against the top men of the Moravian club and took the first set handily. They pushed to the limit in the final two sets before droppino to 4-6 and 6-8 losses. Yesterday, the team journeyed to

NO COLONEL BOWLERS QUALIFY IN TOURNEY

Participating in their first intercollegiate bowling tournament, the Colonel pin squad was unsuccessful in rolling for a spot among the top 15 bowlers in the Eight Annual Eastern Intercollegiate Match Game Championships held last Saturday and Sunday at New York's Bowlor Recreation.

A total of 230 bowlers competed for the 15 spots and Wilkes was able to place only one man close to the magic circle in the qualifying rounds.

Dan Lewis, at the completion of the first block of four games in the eight-match rounds, turned in a 789, well over the total of the tourney's top man. Lewis started the fifth game beautifully, but ran into stubborn pins in the ninth frame and finished without a mark in the ninth and tenth for a 201, his last good effort. When the Colonels completed their games, over half of the qualifying rounds were over. The minimum qualifying score at that time was 1453 total pins. Lewis was 17th then, out of the running, with 1444.

The other squad members, Emil Petrask, Hill Hoffman, Ron Phillips, Pete Maholik, Paul Katz, and Dick Mvers, were only able to finish with their league averages, good enough to place each somewhere among the top fifty bowlers.

Golfers See Busy Week Ahead Against M.S.T.C., Warriors; Then Tourney

Coach Welton G. Farrar and his golfers added a new opponent to their schedule last night, the Mansfield State Teachers College squad. The match was held at the Irem Temple Country Club. Results of the meet were not available at the Beacon press deadline.

Starting for the Colonels in this meet were: 1. Ed Mikolaitis, 2. Bob Januszko, 3. Art Belles, 4. Pete Perog, 5. Joe Hiznay. Sixth man was either Pete McLaughlin or Perkoski.

The Mansfield team will play host to the Colonels in a return match at Mansfield next Thursday afternoon. On the previous day, Wednesday, May 7, the locals will play Lycoming at Irem Temple, then will cap a busy week of activity with an appearance in the annual Middle Atlantic tournament at Mount Union, Pa., May 9 and 10.

Rain washed out the scheduled meet with Scranton on Tuesday. The locals were soundly beaten in their first try at the Royals and hope to get the match rescheduled to get revenge for the earlier 13½-4½ loss.

Allentown seeking the first season's win against another experienced Middle Atlantic squad, the Muhlenberg Mules. The match was scheduled too late for inclusion of the results in this week's Beacon. The match scheduled at Scranton tomorrow has been cancelled.

COLONELS HOLD FIRST PLACE, FOLEK NAMED WEEK'S ATHLETE

Rain called a halt to the Colonels' hot drive for the 1958 Middle Atlantic baseball championship on Tuesday afternoon, as the scheduled contest with the Scranton Royals was postponed.

Last night the Colonels were in Ithaca for the first game of a home-and-home non-league series. The Bombers will invade Artillery Park tomorrow for the return contest. Game time will be 2:00 p.m.

The Colonels currently rule the roost in the conference standings. Although they have lost two games, neither was against conference teams, so their 4-0 record in the Northern Division of the loop keeps them in first place.

The fourth win came last week at the expense of the Albright team at Reading. Southpaw Boyd 'Porky' Hoats got the 6-2 win, he received help in the eighth from George Gacha who came on to retire four men in a row.

Folek Gets Athlete Award

Batting star of the day was Walt Folek. The little (5-6) third baseman turned out to be a big man at the plate, with three hits in three trips and driving in three runs. For his performance, he was voted as the "Athlete of the Week". It is the first year of collegiate baseball for Folek.

Wilkes trailed in the game, 2-1, going into the 6th inning, but then broke into a rash of hits, scoring three runs in the frame. They added another pair of tallies in the top of the ninth to insure the win.

Next week the Colonels resume their Middle Atlantic play when they host the Lebanon Valley nine on Monday, then journey to Williamsport for a game with Lycoming, one which had been rained out earlier in the season.

CREWNECKS PROVE VERY POPULAR

Many Valley Residents Entertained By Wilkes College Singing Men; Group Plans Miller Interview

Have you seen those flashy, bright red crewnecks which a few young men have been sporting around the campus, especially in the cafeteria (one of their favorite haunts)? Or, maybe, you have seen the title, "Crewnecks", featured as entertainment for dances or advertised in the paper to draw crowds.

Well, the two go together. Five sophomores got together early in the school year to sing some of the popular songs because they all enjoyed it and were interested in music, being members of the Male Chorus. They adopted an outfit, red crewneck sweaters, black trousers and white bucks.

The arranger, leader and accompanist, Jerry Pauley, has even written a song for the group entitled, "Crewnecks and Khakis". This song, written in World Lit class, has been recorded by the group to be taken to Mitch Miller of Columbia Records as a part of their interview.

Jerry Pauley, a sophomore majoring in math, not only accompanies the quintet with his avocado green electric guitar, but also does all of the arranging and sings the baritone parts. While in high school, Jerry sang in a similar group called, the "Four Pings and a Pong".

Porky Hoats, the lead, is a sophomore, majoring in business. Besides thrilling girls with his soft voice and expressive eyes, Porky pitches on the Colonels' baseball team.

Bruce Miles, the tenor voice, is a sophomore English major. Bruce's voice, high and lilting, blends well with the background of "shoo-bee-doo's" and "tropicals".

Bob Martin is a sophomore, majoring in biology. He accompanies on the piano in the rock 'n' roll numbers, "At the Hop" and "Rock 'n' Roll is Here to Stay", and sings second tenor.

Larry Choper, a sophomore business major, sings bass and serves as business manager of the group. His specialty is a take-off on the rock 'n' roll idol, Elvis Presley.

SORORITY TEA TODAY; ELECTIONS ON MAY 5

HAMPTON DELEGATES BEGIN WILKES VISIT

A delegation of male students from Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia, will arrive here today and attend several social affairs of the college during the weekend. This visit will reciprocate the earlier visit of eight Wilkes students to the southern school. The exchange program is designed to promote brotherhood between the two schools.

IDC members, hosts, and the guests will be feted at a special banquet this evening at the Commons, after which they will attend the IDC Hobo Hop at the gym. Tomorrow morning the guests will be free to visit the campus, and in the afternoon they will attend a special picnic at Dr. Farley's farm. Tomorrow night, a party will be held at Sterling Hall, and the guests of honor will receive medallions significant to the occasion.

Delegates will be housed at each of the boys' dorms.

DEBATE TEAM UNSUCCESSFUL IN WEST POINT TOURNAMENT

Encountering stiff opposition all the way, the Wilkes debate team of Fred Robert and Bruce Warshal managed to take only three out of eight decisions in the seeding rounds at the National Tournament held at West Point this past weekend. Only one District 7 team, Princeton, managed to survive the seeding rounds to enter the round of 16.

In the first two days of the tournament Wilkes defeated San Francisco, Illinois, and Wayne, while losing to Southern California, Washburn, Houston, Oklahoma, and Marquette. A decision over Marquette in the eighth round would have put the Wilkesmen into the round of 16.

Only team to emerge undefeated in the seeding rounds was Dartmouth, which was eliminated in the round of 16 by Kansas, a team with a 4-4 record. In the quarter final round Princeton eliminated Augustana, the defending champion.

Princeton ultimately took third place, being eliminated in the semi-final round by Harvard, which in turn dropped a 4-3 decision to Northwestern in the final round. Northwestern had entered the final round by defeating Southern California, who wound up in fourth place.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN FISHERMEN RUN OUT OF LUCKIES?
(SEE PARAGRAPH BELOW)

IF SILENCE WERE REALLY GOLDEN, fishermen would be up to their hip boots in cash. They're so noiseless, they won't even wear loud shirts. But when they (Groan!) run out of Luckies, they almost lose control. They rant, rave and blow their stacks—all in sign language, of course! Result? The unusual phenomenon called a Quiet Riot! Lucky's popularity, after all, is no fluke. A Lucky is the best-tasting cigarette you can buy—and for good reason. It's made of naturally light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. So why flounder around? Get Luckies yourself!

WHAT DO DIPLOMATS NEED?

BOB GOLBERG, MANKATO STATE COLL. Pact Tact

We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we print—and for hundreds more that never get used! So start Stickling—they're so easy you can think of dozens in seconds! Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (Don't do drawings.) Send 'em all with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
