WILKES MUSICAL OPENS WEDNESDAY AT TEMPLE

UP Quota Not Reached; Students Collect Only $611 of Expected Goal by M. J. Kluver

The annual United Fund drive ended at the college and in the community on Wednesday evening. The school drive netted only 66% of the quota set.

Dr. Charles Reif, head of the Wilkes drive, announced that the total amount including faculty, maintenance crew and students fell $600 short of the quota.

Last year the drive collected $765.84 compared to the $611.90 contributed this year by the students.

The seniors class again headed the list in amount contributed. They collected 78% of their quota while the sophomore class was second with 67%.

The musical written by Lerner and Loewe of Brigadoon and My Fair Lady fame is set in the mining town of Rumson during the gold rush era. Marilyn Carl as Jennifer Myers, the daughter of the town’s founder, and Wayne Walters as a Mexican, share in the romantic leads. Jerry Luft as Al Kurowski, the town’s founder, plays the other chief role. All three have had previous experience in musicals, appearing in Bloomington last year, and the last musical presented at the college.

The theme of the play centers around the town’s short history in Rumson. The ratio is now up to one hundred and fifty men to one woman. A great deal of humor results in the town’s founder, Jennifer, being the only female in the town. This idea adds to the confusion and comedy of the musical.

A variety of characters have been developed to represent the Rumson’s try to look at mining. Among these are Edgar Crocker, an Englishman portrayed by Peter Gale; Sandy Twefit, a Scotman, whose accent adds a humorous element to the musical, portrayed by Gene Stickler; and Mike Mooney, an Irishman, portrayed by Dick Meyers. Included in the musical’s important roles are Stan Yturkow, a dashing young crook, played by John Pescak; Fred Malkemes as Salem, the storekeeper; Steve Polish as Pete Billings; and Carroll Davenport as Ruby Sneze, whose nervousness of his surroundings requires a Garcia court to be held.

Sam Lowe as Jake, the owner of the town casino, falls in love with Nicki Rosenbaum, the leader of the Fandango, a group of gypsies from Paris. The other dance hall girls are Jolene Carell, Gale Galvin, Arlene Martin, George Richards plays Merman’s sister, and Bob Miesz, who is always in trouble. The song and dance centers around the love story. Sam Lowe and Jake, owner of the town’s saloon.

What Happened?

This year the college fell $500 short of its total established United Fund quota of $3,118. This figure was down from last year's total of $3,618 as compared to $705.54 contributed last year. This contrast seems ridiculous since the enrollment has increased largely this year.

However, the senior class as in the past, was the outstanding group to donate to the fund since 75% of the class contributed $466.62 of the $500 total. The seniors were led by Miss Elizabeth Johnson. We tip our hat to Ron Tremayne and members of the class.

Another fine example of class unity was displayed by the sophomore class which had 67.7% participation in the drive. This shows fine cooperation on the part of John Mulholl and his class council.

Even the freshmen did fairly well. What happened to the juniors?

What's in a Letter

The other day a member of the senior class submitted an article to us severely criticizing the community's Philharmonic orchestra. The senior who gave us the article was representing another organization on campus, the author, who requested to remain anonymous.

When the publication refused to print the article, the senior told us to sign his name and print it as a Letter To The Editor. However, when we refused this request, the person became indignant and felt we did not treat him fairly.

To clear up a few points, we could like to give our con- cept of responsibility and anonymity. It is known that a letter consists of three parts. First of all, it must be ad- dressed to a person or group of persons. Secondly, it must have a body; and thirdly, it must be signed by the person or group of persons who compose the letter.

We do not feel that we have discriminated against this person, since we refused to print his article. He could have submitted it to us in proper letter form. Patience is a virtue, and if certain individuals would stop to listen to reason, we might be able to understand each other much better than in the past. —Jen

by Fred Roberts

One thing is sure, 5, Pennsylvania voters will be expected to express not only their political preferences, but also to decide if the state constitution is to be amended to permit the state legislature to grant Korean veterans their accrued bonus.

It is important that the average voter give more than his usual attention to this issue. In order to vote intelligently, he should seri- ously consider these questions: First, does the Korean veteran merit the bonus? Secondly, If so, is it to the best interests of the general public to grant it? Although both major parties support the grant, and recognizing that some Korean veterans will make personal sacrifices for the common good, perhaps those who do so by choice, such as teachers, social workers, ministers and civil servants could be excused.

The Korean veteran does not deserve an additional recompense over and above what he has already sacrificed. But to me that the answer to the second question should be the determining factor. The bonus should be given to the men in the long run, rather than benefit from this unnecessary largesse.

The state is now barely staggering along under its financial situation; to float an additional $180,000 bond issue would make it much more difficult to raise monies for schools, hospitals, highways and other social needs.

The state, unlike the federal government, has only limited credit.

Finally, opposition can be justified on a purely economic basis. It is unfair and ill-advised to add additional purchasing power in the hands of an already extremely employable group during a period of an expanding economy. That can only add additional pressure to in- flationary tendencies.

We must not again capitulate to groups furthering their own interests or to political organizations fying fraudulently for votes by "with these promises."
BIG BAND BLAST TONIGHT IN GYM

Marchetti’s and Moran’s Groups To Play Continuous Dance Music At Playmakers’ Annual Spectacular

Tonight the band is holding its annual Big Band Blast in the gym. The unique feature of this dance is continuous music from nine to midnight provided by the Wilkes-Barre Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Ferdinand Liva. Also scheduled on the program were the Collegians and the Wilkes-Barre Ballet Guild as well as many community organizations.

The Ivy Leaguers include Bob Moran, Bob Zukowski, Gino Martelli, Koors, C. W. Binford, J. Robert Cornell, and Mrs. Bill Figart, recent graduates of the music department, are travelling from New Jersey in order to play with the Moran outfit. Mrs. Figart is the former Ruth Remley.

Playing in Marchetti’s band are David Larish, Ed Norwid, Ralph Harrison, Bob Webb, Jack Uh, and Joe Infinito. This group played at the Glenwood Hotel in the Pocohoncas during the past two summers. They have also provided music at many of the local high school proms and at various fraternity parties at Penn State, Lafayette, Lehigh, and other colleges.

The type of music will be varied since Moran’s Ivy Leaguers specialize in Dixieland while Marchetti’s music is more on the dreamy side.

Janet Jones, president of the band, is the daughter of the chairman of the affair. The chairman of the various committees are: Marilyn Carli and Mary Lou Johnson, refreshments; Agnorine Primack and Jack Evans, tickets; Sam Lewis, cleanup; and Lynne Boyle, publicity.

The band also played at the dedication of the new building, and each of the football games and included in their roster are concerts at the local high schools.

EDITOR’S LAMENT

Getting out this paper is NO pleasant.

If we print jokes, people say we are silly.

If we don’t, they say we are too serious.

If we stick close to the office all day, we ought to be around hunting material.

If we go out and try to hustle, we do not stick around the office all day.

If we don’t print contributions, we don’t want any.

If we do, the paper is filled with junk.

Now, like as not, some guy will say, “We swiped this from some other paper — WE DID!”

JOE MORGAN IS ATHLETE OF WEEK FOR STRONG SOCCER PERFORMANCE

Sharp Offensive Play With Rugged Defense Responsible for Win

The Beacon Athlete of the Week, Joe Morgan, played a large part in the soccer team's 3-1 homecoming victory over Hofstra last Saturday. The bustling, heads-up play of the Lettermen's right halfback was a main factor in the Colonels domination of the game. Morgan showed great drive and determination in both offensive and defensive play. His steady footwork started many Wilkes offensive moves and his rugged defensive work cut down many building Hobrow balls.

Late in the third period Morgan picked up a tired Colonel defender and led them in dominating the remainder of the game.

Morgan is a graduate of Girard College in Philadelphia, class of 1966. He entered Wilkes the following year.

While at the Philadelphia school he participated in wrestling and track. He won seven letters in the sports with four coming in his favorite sport of wrestling.

Although Girard is known for its soccer team, Joe had participated in this sport only on an intra-school level. But since coming to Wilkes he developed into a first-class soccer player and has been a great help to the Blue and Gold squad this season.

Besides earning a soccer letter here at Wilkes, Joe also lettered in wrestling with Coach John Romes. Middle Atlantic States Conference Champions.

A native of Tunkhannock, Pa., he resides with his mother at 65 Franklin Ave.

In his sophomore year, Joe is working toward the Bachelor of Science degree in Commerce and Finance.

The choice for the award this week was very difficult to make. Morgan won in a close ballot over two other athletes, one from football and the other from soccer.

J. H. WILLIAMS SPEAKS

Mr. J. Harvie Williams, was the main speaker at the Tuesday morning assembly. Mr. Williams is head of the Alexander Hamilton Bicentennial Commission, the headquarters of which is in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Williams' visit was a timely observance of the 250th anniversary of the birth of one of our greatest statesmen, Alexander Hamilton. Mr. Williams stated that through wonder and analysis, one may again realize the bearing Hamilton had on the formation of our Union.

Elaborated points of the talk were: Hamilton's success in the Revolutionary War, work with the Continental Congress, promoting of national banks, and work at the Philadelphia Convention where his thinking reflected the fundamental framework of our Constitutional policy. Mr. Williams said, "Hamilton's real thinking was the basis for our present day school of thought in government. Some of his accomplishments in Hamilton's time were: his appointment as the first United States Secretary of the Treasury, position as ambassador to France, and his co-authorship of George Washington's farewell address.

BUDDY'S RECRUITS' HOLD PERFECT MARK

With Ray's Recruits still undefeated and unscathed, next week's action in Intramural touch football promises to be exciting. The Recruits will take on the second-place Vets in the game that may well decide the championship.

Wrestling practice has been hectic and the新的一年, since they are now preparing to defend their Mid Atlantic men's crown. The Freshman Six seem to have had difficulty recovering from their first loss, because they have not shown up for any more games.

On Wednesday, the raised-up games of October 17 will be played. The schedule: The Vets vs. Freshman Six, 69ers vs. Govt. Hall.

On Thursday, the raised-up games of October 17 will be made up. The Dirty Rotten Lowdown Bums will play Govt. Hall. Ray's Recruits are slated to take on the 69ers.

All team captains are reminded that they must have six men ready to play before each game.

This is the last week of action. Teams are requested to please finish the season with as much enthusiasm as was seen at the start.

RECKLS Flaunt Power in Home Game As They Whip Mighty Hofstra Squad by Jim Henshaw

The final and only game of the season was played Saturday before a homecoming crowd of students and Alumni, reignited by Queen Marianne Burdo. The Colonels' second victory over a tall and experienced Hofstra team.

The match was delayed forty-five minutes in starting, because of the rains. The match then moved at a rapid pace for the entire playing time.

The aggressive play of halfback Joe Morgan and outside half Carl Havira the Colonels dominated the play for the entire first period and the fourth period.

The flying Dutchmen started their only decisive attack in the third period and through a slip of the Wilkes defense bonged home their only score of the game.

The Colonels opened the scoring in the early moments of the game with seven beautiful ball handled by Carl Havira and center forward Nick Giordano. Giordano bunged home the first goal on a beautiful break from the Hofstra defense.

Late in the first period Havira blocked a free kick by the Hofstra goalie, Patterson, and the pressure was back on the Hofstra defense. Peter Giordano, Freshman outside left, smashed home the second goal of the game with a beautiful finish from his quarterback.

The Colonels dominated the game, outplaying the Blue and Gray and taking an easy 3-1 victory in the last period and the match.

The victory can thus be attributed to the all-around team play and stout defensive work by the Colonels. The booming kicks by Dave Popley, Ed Mason, and Tony Bianco combined with the heads up play of Carl Havira, Lou Davis and especially Joe Morgan kept the ball out of the games on the Hofstra team the entire game.

Davis, making his first appearance in the Wilkes lineup, showed great potential for the future.

It was a great team victory for Coach Jim Ferris' bolters and was enjoyed by the fair sized crowd that did attend.

Contingency: 375

Total Budget: $12,360

With the matter of the budget settled, the council attended to other business at hand. A special committee headed by John Scandale arranged with Dr. Farley to have a large bulletin board placed in back of Cyngham Hall for the convenience of students who spend much of their day at that end of campus. The committee also arranged to have ash trays placed in the lounge of Cyngham.

The council has appointed a committee to work on the new constitution. This committee consists of chairman John Scandale, Bob Morris, Dick Salus, Barbara Federer, and George Reynolds. The committee will consider recommendations given by the Administrative Council on the tentative constitution written last year. This committee hopes to have the constitution ready for student consideration sometime this semester.

NO SORRIER WARRIOR exists than the one without Luckies. What's he missing? A smoke that's as light as they come! End to end, a Lucky is made of superbly light tobacco—golden rich, wonderfully good-tasting tobacco that's toasted to taste even better. That's a lot to miss out on—no wonder our chief has grief! Up North, you'd call him a Blue Sioux; back East, a Bleak Creek. But out in the land of the pueblos, he's just a mighty Mopey Hopi. (Smoke signal to you: Light up a Lucky! You'll agree a light smoke's the right smoke for you!)
