BUDGET REVIEWED

Administration's Veto
Aired by Government;
Carnival Site Approved

by Lee Baisa

At the regular meeting of the Wilkes-Barre City Council, one of the most important discussions centered around the rejection of the city's annual activities budget by the Administrative Council. The action taken by the Administrative Council was the first of its kind in recent years.

The Administrative Council approved the budget with the exception of the $100 contingency fund. This fund, which is left aside as a buffer in case of emergencies, The Administrative Council suggested that this fund should be raised to $200 by decreasing the original $100 Manuscript budget by $100.

George Black, editor of the Manuscript, was present at the meeting, and at the date of the suggestion by emmyincating the policies of the city, it was stated that the increase in the Manuscript's budget has been gradual. Although the council was known to be opposed the $100 cut, he did state that the $200 request of the Manuscript's budget would cut its capacity to publish an adequate literary magazine. Emphasis was also placed on the fact that other colleges, smaller than Wilkes, published a larger magazine.

Winter Carnival

Another important topic of discussion at the City Council meeting on Tuesday, December 1, was also discussed. The general theme of the Winter Carnival, which will be held on January 23, is "The Winter Dance," which will continue throughout January, February, and March. A few events are planned for the entire time. All students wishing to wear outdoor clothing should provide their own equipment. Refreshments and entertainment will be provided. Transportation will be provided by buses.

All College Dance

The forthcoming All College Dance will be held on Saturday, December 5, at the Center of Wilkes-Barre. Contests will be divided into categories. The center of the activities will be a "Best Dressed" contest. Charles Sorber, a member of the committee, was recognized as a new member of the Student Government.

Since this is Bob Morris' last year as student adviser, Barbara Fedor has resigned from the Student Government because of illness. For the past two years, she has been the center of the Student Government. For her position, her experience, and her knowledge, the Student Government and the entire college will miss her greatly.
LOCAL GOVERNMENT DISCUSSED TUESDAY

by Phyllis Immonno

At the December second Wilkes College assembly, Dr. Hugo Malley addressed the student body. The topic he chose to speak on was "Local Government."

The program was opened with a hymn and a reading from the Bible. Dr. Parley read a few announcements and Dr. Malley introduced the speaker who then delivered the address.

Dr. Malley stated that political philosophies may differ among professionals because they would not have the people at heart but would be more interested in financial gain.

He also stated that definite trends are being shown toward planning and that unplanned communities are living in. Planning is done on a larger scale today than it was before as zoning and housing programs.

Local officials are putting more emphasis on planning and giving the present system of government use system to the advantage of the cities. There are 41 of the cities of Pennsylvania that have a mayor and 46 of the cities use the manager system. The manager system is moving up at the rate of 2 and 3% a year.

THETA DELTA RHO TO HOLD OLD PEOPLE'S YULE PARTY

by Marilyn Krackenber

The first event on the Christmas agenda of TDR sorority is the annual "Old People's Party," which is scheduled for two hours of two and four. The affair, fast becoming a TDR tradition, has been held annually for the past several years.

The party will be held with the purpose of bringing a little Christ- mas cheer into the lives of elderly residents of the various homes in the McClintock Hall, site of this year's affair, will be "decked out" in appropriate decorations which will include a beautifully decor- ated Christmas tree.

One of the novelties which TDR has planned is the appearance of Santa Claus, in the person of Don Murray, who will distribute small gifts to each of the guests of honor. Men of Gref Hall are aiding in this affair by acting as the chauffeurs.

The decorations will be coming from the Sutton House for Men and the Old Ladies' Home.

The Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Jean Pyatt, will pro- vide entertainment. In addition to this, both the honored guests and TDR members will participate in group singing of various Christ- mas favorites.

Mary Louise Spinelli, general chairman of the party, is being as-isted by the following committees:

head: refreshments, Mary Rose Sidler; favors, Pat Fishel; inviti- tions, Elizabath Schwartz; entertain- ment, Dayle Jacobson; publicity, Marilyn Klaxon; house ar- rangements, Maryann Lavelle; clean-up, Betsy Roschele.

The party is open to all mem- bers of TDR, and it is hoped that all who can, will attend. There will be no charge.

Dr. Rosenberg Honored For Many Local Services

by Jean Shofranko

Dr. A. Rosenberg, Professor of Economics and Head of the Commerce and Finance Department, is being honored by outstanding work in both college and community affairs.

Dr. Rosenberg, a familiar figure on campus, is especially well known to Commerce and Finance students who have battled their way through Economical Statistics. In addition to his duties as an Instructor, Dr. Rosenberg is Assistant in Student Placement.

Numerous editorials have hon-ored Dr. Rosenberg in local newspa- pers. The Times-Leader, Reading News, September 6, has said, "Pennsylvania is fortunate a man of such high calibre is available."

The many professional organiza- tions with which Dr. Rosenberg is affiliated include the American Economic Association, Economic History Association, The Technical Society of America, National Educational Association, Beta Alpha Psi, Honorary Accounting Fraternity, Eastern Commercial Teachers Association, and the Southeastern Cooperative League.

Dr. Rosenberg's non-professional affiliations include Chairman of the Idea Committee of the Wyoming Valley Chamb er of Commerce, Chairman of the Labor Management Conference, membership in the Regional Planning Board, and membership in the Board of Trustees of Phi Kappa Psi, the National Honor Society and the Organized Internship Program for Accountants.

DEAR SENIORS:

I feel that the Senior Class do not fully realize the excellent representation Miss Federer has given us during the past two years. For example, last year in addition to performing her regular duties, she was Secretary to the Student Government. During the present year, she was Corresponding Secretary; Chairman of the Freshman Advisory Committee; the Policies Committee; the Entertainment Committee of the Come and Meet Us Dance; and a member of the Planning Committee for Homecoming. The above are only titles, they really do not give a true picture of all she has done.

In addition to giving freely of time and energy to the above duties, Barbara was always ready and willing to assist in any other matters brought before the Student Government.

I would like to publicly thank Barbara for, without her, much of what has been accomplished during the past two years would have gone undone.

Barbara, this brings us to another matter. Tuesday evening the Student Government decided that the Senior Class shall hold nominations to fill TWO positions on the Student Government at the regular class meeting Thursday, December 11 at 11:00 in Room 505, Picking Hall. Elections will then be held on January 8 in Chase Theater. More details will be explained at the meeting on Thursday. Please make it a point to be present.

Bob Morris, President, Student Government

Letter to the Editor ...

DEAR SENIORS:

It is with sincere regret that the Student Government accepts the resignation of Barbara Federer, senior representative to the Student Government. Her letter of resignation follows:

"I wish to submit to the Student Government my resignation as the representative of the Senior Class, I regret that matters of health necessitate this action."

I feel that many of us in the Senior Class do not fully realize the excellent representation Miss Federer has given us during the past two years. BUFFET-STYLE SUPPER FOR TDR ON TUESDAY; YULE PROGRAM PLANNED

 Theta Delta Rho's Buffet will be held next Tuesday evening in the Commons at 6 p.m. The traditional party-supper will feature home-cooked food donated by sorority members.

Mary Ellen Zweibel, chairman of the food committee, has announced that sorority members may leave refreshments in the kitchen of the Commons any time Tuesday. Such things as cold meat, baked beans, salad, cookies and cake will be donated by sorority members.

Entertainment during the evening will include group card singing and a reading of the Christmas story.

Traditional Christmas decorations will grace the walls of the Commons and each table will also be gaily attired in Christmas regalia.

Committees in charge of the affair are: Mary Ellen Zweibel, food; Jean Shiffranko, house, Money Miller and Marcia Senderovitz, entertainment; Marion Klawonn, publicity; Judy Ruggere, decorations; Cynthia Hagley, clean-up.

PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNOUNCES POLICY

The Osterhout Library of Wilkes-Barre has announced that effective January 1, 1956, free borrowing privileges will be available only to residents of the city of Wilkes-Barre. Non-residents will be charged an annual nominal fee.

Persons residing outside the city can get a borrower's card at the following rates: adults, $3.00; students (including dorm residents and commuters), $2.00; family, $4.00.

In making this announcement, the Board of Directors of the Library added that it regretted the necessity of this step, but increased operational costs make the fees necessary.

The fees do not apply to areas in the library where a borrower's card is not necessary, as in the use of reference books and periodicals in the library building.

JAYCEE XMAS PARTY

Members of the Wilkes Jaycees will hold a special Christmas party next Friday at the dining commons. Guests at the party will be some deserving children of the area who will be provided with gifts.

Dick Sales, chairman of the party, has announced that members of the organization will donate home made baked goods and will distribute ice cream and beverages. Gifts will be distributed to the children by Santa himself.

An entertaining program is being planned for the occasion.
BERLIN HIT BASED ON TRUE STORY

Tunes, Sparkling Story
Made Show a Success
Throughout the World

Hailed by critics as Irving Berlin's greatest musical comedy success, "Annie Get Your Gun," Cue 't Curtain's current production, sparkles with music, romance, and guns.

The play, honored by theatre-goers with a 144-week run on Broadway, is based on the real life story of Annie Oakley, America's most famous markswoman who could "shoot the fun off a peach" with her trusty rifle. The play comes off the pens of the famed brother-sister writing team of Herbert and Dorothy Fields, who wrote it specifically as a vehicle for well-known songstress Ethel Merman.

The glamour and excitement of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show during its American and European tours of the late nineteenth century provides the background for the musical. The story relates how sharpshooter Annie proves herself an equal to the show's crack shot, Frank Butler. A romance blossoms between the two, yet, it is almost destroyed because of their professional rivalry until Annie realizes that "You Can't Get a Man With a Gun."

As a composer, Irving Berlin needs little introduction to America's lovers of pop. Since his first big hit back in 1911, "Alexander's Ragtime Band," he has written literally hundreds of songs, including: "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor," "God Bless America," perennial favorites "White Christmas" and "Easter Parade," "Say It With Music," and "This Is the Army." His score for "Annie" treats the public to more of his fine achievements in song.

"Annie Get Your Gun" opened its noteworthy Broadway run on May 16, 1946, with Ethel Merman and Ray Middleton in the principal roles. Widespread praise of the production brought about the formation of a London company (starring Dolores Gray) which continued there for some 500 performances, and a number of touring companies throughout the United States. On the Broadway production closed its doors on February 12, 1949, it had played to approximately 1,500,000 persons for a box office gross of $6,000,000.

The production was also staged and well-received in France, Denmark, Australia, Sweden, and South Africa. Millions of others were able to view the production via Hollywood and the M.G.M. musical of 1950 which starred Betty Hutton and Howard Keel.

The history of this spectacular show is far from ended, as it has been performed many times recently. Mary Martin and John Raitt revived the show during the summer of 1957 on the west coast, and the same two stars were featured in a television 'spectacular' of the show on Thanksgiving Day, 1957.

"Annie" was revived in New York early this year as the first of a series of musicals at City Center. It has also been featured recently in Vienna, where Brenda Lewis, a former Metropolitan Opera singer, played the lead with German dialogue.

All the facts and statistics about the show only underscore the general feeling that it is a "r-e-a-lly big" production with a fabulous record behind it and undoubtedly will continue to amuse and entertain audiences on both local and national stages.

Talented Cast In Cue 'n' Curtain Musical

Malkemes, Stickler and Salva
Play Feature Roles Supporting Barbara Cusick, Wayne Wallers

by Cynthia Hagley

Among the main characters appearing in "Annie Get Your Gun" are three veterans of Cue 'n' Curtain productions, Fred Malkemes, Gene Stickler and John Salva.

Fred Malkemes is now appearing as Charley Davenport in "Annie Get Your Gun", the manager of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Some of the plays he appeared in before included "Showmaker's Holiday" in which he played the Earl of Lincoln, "Paint Your Wagon" in the role of Salem Tremain and in "Holiday" as Ned Seton for which he won an "oscar" for best supporting actor. Fred is president of Cue 'n' Curtain and is also in the Wilkes College Glee Club. His major is English.

Gene Stickler is appearing in "Annie Get Your Gun" as Foster Wilson, the hotel proprietor in Act 1. He has appeared as Sandy in "Paint Your Wagon"; Lane Ralph in "Showmaker's Holiday" for which he won the "oscar" for best supporting actor. Gene is majoring in Philosophy and Religion and is President of his dorm, Barre Hall.

John Salva is portraying Chief Sitting Bull in "Annie", a member of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. He also appeared in "Paint Your Wagon". John is secretary of the Wilkes Collegians. He is a Secondary Education Major.

Key members of the play are as follows: Annie Oakley, Barbara Cusick; Frank Butler, Wayne Walters; Buffalo Bill, Steve Conney; Charlie Davenport, Fred Malkemes; Foster Wilson, Gene Stickler; Pawnee Bill, Robert Stevens; Sitting Bull, John Salva; Dolly Tate, Judy Blutman; Mac, Mike Kunen; Sylvia Potter, Jacey King; Annie's sisters, Valentine Williams, Sally Smith, Janny Baird; Little Jake, Johnnie Bonewright; Tommy, Joey Chwalek. These people are aided and abetted by a fine chorus and group of dancers.

This play is under the very capable direction of Mr. Alfred Grab, assistant professor of English and drama coach here at Wilkes. Mr. William Crowder, music teacher at G.A.R. High School and graduate of Wilkes College, is directing the 24-voice chorus in the play. The pit orchestra is under the direction of Mr. William Gasbarro, a member of the Wilkes Music Department. Miss Barbara Weizenberger from the Wilkes-Barre Ballet Guild is choreographer of the show.

Little known to the public is the fact that there are 45 speaking roles in "Annie Get Your Gun", 8 of these are major singing roles. This presents a marvelous opportunity for Cue 'n' Curtain to show off the varied talents of its members.

The show is being performed in Irem Temple four nights this week, the last two nights being Friday and Saturday. Curtain goes up at 8:30 for one of the best evening's entertainment ever to be presented by the Cue 'n' Curtain in conjunction with the Kiwasis Club.

Petrasek Bids for Bowling Honors
With High Single Game, High Series

Bowling during the past two weeks served only to tighten the Pinbusters’ grip on first place as they swept four from the Teetotallers on November 23, then took an automatic four points last week, on their night off.

The races for individual honors were considerably closer, however. Dan Lewis’ league-leading 187 average is being closely shadowed by sophomore Emil Petrasek, whose scoring pace over the past weeks has brought him to within five points of Lewis, on a 182 average.

Petrasek is bidding for the triple scoring crown, as he holds the high marks for single game — a red-hot 251 — and for high three game series — 646. Each of these marks was set on different nights and will stand as a real challenge for marksmen aiming to grab the individual honors themselves.

GAMES NOV. 28

In last Sunday’s action, the Bioc Club took over sole possession of third place in its 4-0 sweep over the Tempiens, who are in fourth. The Playboys won a 3-1 victory over the Raiders. The Goldebrows turn in a similar 3-1 win over the Teetotallers to put the Raiders and Teetallers in a tie for last place.

GAMES NOV. 29

On November 23, the Pinbusters, behind Petrasek’s 224, 232, and 190 shut out the Teetotallers, 4-0. John Sapiose added 213-252 to Petrasek’s 646 for the win. Dick Myers let a man for the lossers with 175-454.

On the same night, the Tempiens, behind John Kubler’s 199-565, took the measure of the Goldnecks. Captain Dan Lewis was high for the losing team with 214-552.

Rounding out the action, the Bio Club and the Playboys fought to a 3-1, as Lewis sparked the Playboys with 200-557 and Ron McKennon was close behind with 187-302.

Bill Hoffman led the Bio Club on 200-460 and Ross Weinstein chipped in with 184-489.

SCORING RACE

The top scorers in the league have come fairly settled, with few changes in position, while their averages generally climb higher each week. Still in first is Dan Lewis with 187. Tied for second are Petrasek and Hill Hoffman at 182, with Petrasek’s higher total pins giving him the edge.

Warren Denman holds the fourth slot on 172. John Sapiose rounds out the top five with a 169 mark.

Joe Shemanski moved from 7th to 6th, hiking his average to 165, displacing John Kubler who holds 7th with 164. Ron Phillips moved from 11th place to tie Kubler for 7th, but trails Kubler in total pins.

Fred Jacoby’s 163 puts him in the 9th position, Pete Mahlik is 10th with 162, and Gil Gregory moved from 13th to 11th as he hit the 100 mark squarely last week.

To Win 2nd Athlete of Week Award

Nick Giordano Leads In Balloting

Margin for 7th Win

Depends on Boot

by Star Center Forward

by George Tenca

Nick Giordano’s aggressive performance against a strong Bucknell team earned him his second “Athlete of the Week” award of the 1959 season. He set the stage for the Colonels’ 7th victory when, midway in the first period, he received a pass from Carl Havis and promptly bashed it past the bewildered Bucknell goalie to give Coach Pollard’s charges an early lead.

The senior co-captain, Walker, redundant scoring center forward, is no stranger to the “Athlete of the Week” award as this marks his seventh time in the four years at Wilkes that he has won the coveted award.

The goal against Bucknell was number eleven for the season and should be a strong telling point when nominations for the “All-Middle Atlantic” squad are made. For the past two seasons, Nick has won honorable mention on this squad, but through his assertive play and leadership on the soccer field, he should rank high on everyone’s ballot for top laurels this season.

This is Nick’s fourth season on the Colonel soccer team. He broke into the starting lineup in his freshman year alternating between inside left and inside right. The 1956 season found him as the starting center forward, a position he has held ever since.

The scrappy athlete, a native of Naples, Italy, graduated from a Kingston High School, class of ’55, where he lettered in track.

He is a 21 year old senior seeking an A.B. in Biology and hopes to attend medical school. Nick is also very active in the Biology Club where he holds the office of treasurer.

Director of Intramural sports John Reese announces that team rosters will now be accepted for teams that wish to participate in the basketball program.

Also needed before the teams get into any action, is a student director and officials. Both the officials and the student director receive monetary allowances for the services plus valuable experience.

If you are interested in participating in any of the intramural sports, please contact Nick Giordano in Room 226.

Shawnees Champs of Touch Grid Loop

The curtain fell on the Intramural football season last week with the high-flying Shawnees gaining a forfeit victory over the Chem Knights as the Knights were unable to field a team. This victory gave the tail men from Plymouth an unblemished record and the Intramural championship.

Members of the Shawnees squad are Captain Fran Mikolans, Ron Rokul, Tom Pugh, Leon Czerwelinski, Jim Stephens, George Tenca, Richard Foy, Walt Angelkari, Jay Glazy, Frank Balazs, and Tom Evans.

Boothers End Year
In Overtime Win
Over Bucknell U.

Coach Jim Ferris and his booters wrote a successful finish to the 1958 season, taking a thrilling 2-1 overtime victory over the Bucknell Bisons.

The victory was the seventh of the last eight contests and the two goals were the 25th and 26th of the year. The Colonels held the opposition throughout the season and the Colonels were able to make the remainder of the goals, due to a mere total of twelve in ringing up a 7-3 record, best in Wilkes history.

The Bucknell game, played before a fair-sized, chilled home crowd on November 22, ended in a 1-1 tie. The Colonels jumped to a 1-0 lead with a goal by when Carl Havir arched a neat pass to Nick Grodano, who rifled a bullet-shot past the Bisons' goalie.

The Bucknell offense continued to dominate the game throughout the remainder of the first half, keeping the pressure on Sharp, the Bucknell goalie.

The tide turned after the halftime intermission, however. The Colonels put on a sustained drive, but the Colonels managed to stall each scoring threat until the third period and much of the fourth. Late in the final period, however, a shot for the lone goal was turned aside by goalie Bob Payne and bunched in a goal to tie the match.

At the conclusion of the regulation 88-minute game, the score remained knotted at 1-1. In the second overtime period, after several serious threats, Evan Pappanicholas booted a corner shot to Havir, whose head shot won the game.

Coach Eddie Davis and his three co-captains: Rodecki, Gacha, and Mikolchis.

Matmen Open 58-59 Season Wednesday
In Road Meet Against Lebanon Valley

by Richard J. Myers

Wrestling season opens at 4:00 next Wednesday afternoon, when the Colonels, defending Middle Atlantic champion, meet the Lebanon Valley Flying Dutchmen at Annville, Pa.

The afternoon meet will pit the champs against a relatively inexperienced team, in its second year of collegiate wrestling. The Colonels held the day, and the Colonels are expecting an exciting evening of wrestling.

Last year the Colonels had little trouble with coach Ellis McCracken's squad, but the Dutchmen are rapidly improving and the Colonels are expecting to have their hands full.

Three of the four graduated team members were first-place winners in the second straight Wilkes team championship in the Middle Atlantic tournament. They are: Jim Ward, Bobby Morgan, and Dave Thomas. The fourth, Keith Williams, was also a first place performer.

Bernie Radecki, whose head shot won the game, has been inactive for several months due to an arm injury. Bernie Radecki, another junior, has been inactive for several months due to an arm injury.

Despite the loss of these stalwarts, Radecki is ranking heavily on sensation Walt Glesne, captain and speedy 177-pounder; and newcomer Dick Rauscher, Kingston grad and Pennsylvania State champion, last year, to bring the team through the season.

Marv Antinone, last year's surprise package from the freshman class, will return at 177. If last year's brilliant work by this two-letter Forty Fort whiz-kid is any indication, he should be one of the top men on the team this season.

The lower weights cause Radecki a lot of concern. After he fills the 125-shot, he still has to face the problems of filling the 130, 135, and 141 classes.

Both Joe Morgan and Ron Biekonkie are both hot beds for one of these spots, most likely at 137 and 147. The troublesome weight appears to be 150, where Bill Smith and Mike Armstrong both seem to present the best chances but neither have had a great deal of varsity wrestling.

An outside possibility at 130 is newcomer Jim Breutzer. Breutzer has the strength for the spot and the experience from last year.

Team Travels Monday

by Morgan R. Davis, Sports Editor

The Wilkes cagers walked off the hod on Tuesday in the same manner they left it eight times last season, victorious. Keeping up their home winning streak, the Blue and Gold ran hard, shot well, and fought gamely. Even though a last second goal was registered by Lycoming the final score read Wilkes 79, Lycoming 71.

Led by the amazing jump shot of Fran Miliotis, the home team jumped off to an early lead which they never relinquished. Mikolchis' body corner shot broke the resistance of the Lycoming Bears in the first half, when in a matter of 15 seconds he poured three attempts through the hoop.

George Gacha played his usual fine game, and also contributed 18 points. George displayed excellent ball-handling near the climax of the contest when Lycoming went to an all-court press.

Dick Jocko, ex-Flymouth cager, came through in a banner manner, taking over for the depleted George Morgan and scoring 17 big points.

Two main factors in the opening victory were Bernie Radecki with 10 points and rugged Barry Youn with 7 points.

Tomorrow the Wilkes five takes on a strong Susquehanna team at the oval gym. Susquehanna still has its strong All-State star from last year's squad, Ron Bienkowski, who gives the Wilkes a lot of troubles.

Some of the Davidson men who face this year's stiff competition are returning letterman George Gacha, who was one of last year's top playmakers; Bernie Radecki, another junior holdover; and last year's tremendous squad; and Fran Miliotis, who is expected to show plenty of the rebuilding ability of which he is particularly noted.

The tallest man on the team is Ron Bienkowski at 6'4" and George Kosh at 6'6". They should be in full swing trying to fill the shoes of last year's all-time high scorer George Morgan. Rodecki and Kosh are two sophomores this year with plenty of time for development.

Two more returning juniors from last year's team are Walt Angell and Ralph Henderson. Angell is a six-foot, junior, formerly of Plymouth High School, Niederhaut that will keep some of action at guard, hails from Larksville.

Two "out-of-towners" Barry Yo- cum and Clem Gavenas, 6'3" and 6'4" respectively, will also be out trying to nail down two permanent forward positions on the squad.

John Kuhar, a junior from Fly- mouth, is shooting for a steady position. John Kuhar, a sopho- more from Darlington, who offered steady relief at the forward position, makes up part of the upperclassmen on the team. John Kuhar, a junior from Plymouth, will probably see no action in the few games that are open to John Kuhar, a junior from Plymouth. Wishing to add to the Colonels' depth and talent, he is hoping to make the Plymouth side of the river.

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL PROGRAM TO BE HELD

At 1st Presbyterian

The annual Christmas Assembly will be held at the First Presbyterian Church next Tuesday at 11 o'clock. Featured in the always enjoyable program will be the Mixed Girls' and Men's choruses. The traditional affair will include a brass ensemble in addition to the individual and combined efforts of the three choruses.

Each of the chorals groups will present a sampling of its Christmas music. John Detroy, general conductor of the program, will direct the mixed chorus in several traditional carols.

Jean Pyatt, conductor of the Girls' chorus, and Bill Peters, director of the Collegians, will lead their groups as each sings its portion of the program.

Wayne Walters will sing the baritone oratorio solo and the combined choruses will fill in on "The Heavens are Telling."

The program will present a complete and varied range of choral work. The mixed chorus numbers are arranged for four-part harmonies with two male and two female parts. The girls' chorus will present music written in three part harmony for female voices, while the Collegians' contributions are written for four-part male voices.

The combined choruses will climax the program with the moving and forceful "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah."
