Applications Available For Government Loans

Applications for loans under the Federal Aid to Students program are available in the Finance Office. The loans are designed to assist the students who need financial aid in order to complete college.

National Defense Student Loan Plan was devised by the U.S. Government to aid students who otherwise would either have to suspend their educations or drop out of college because of financial need.

Applicants must obtain the forms as soon as possible and submit their requests by February 20. Submission of the forms, however, does not guarantee in any way that the applicant will receive the grant. Of the request for $2,836,435 made by colleges in the State of Pennsylvania for $4,343,92 was granted, about one-tenth of the total. Of that amount, $7,847 has been allotted to Wilkes, far below the amount requested.

The primary factor in determining who shall get a loan will be need. In addition to being needy, a student must be attending college full time and be in good standing.

Certain preference will be given to those planning to be teachers, as well as to those majoring in such fields as science, mathematics, and engineering.

Repayment plans for borrowers under this program are designed to give future teachers a reduction depending upon the number of years they teach. Others have the advantage of taking up to five years to repay the loans in the federal government’s plan to make a college education more readily available to those who now cannot afford it.

VALENTINE'S SEMI-FORMAL IS FIRST BIG SPRING AFFAIR

"Holiday of Hearts" Tonight Sponsored by T.D.R.; Lucky Girl Will Receive Prize

by Jean Shoferko

The first big spring社交 event of the spring semester, Theta Delta Rho’s Valentine semi-formal, "Holiday of Hearts," will be held tonight at the gymnasium in the traditional St. Valentine’s Day theme. Undoubtedly, all will be putting the finishing touches on what promises to be a memorable evening of dancing and entertainment.

Judy Richardson, general chairman of the affair, has announced that Herbie Green and his orchestra will provide music for dancing from 9 to 12. A reeling line composed of Dr. and Mrs. Deane, Dr. and Mrs. Symmons, Mary Homan, Judy Richardson, and their dates will go on to the dance.

According to inside sources the theme will be one of a fairyland of hearts, flowers, doves, and cupids. Although decorations are still a secret, save for the theme of the dance, "Holiday of Hearts," the T.D.R. girls who co-ordinate the theme and arrangement will add an abstract touch by using American classical designs, setting off each station with a particular color, and lavendar in all decorations. The ceiling will be adorned with multi-colored flowers. The "backdrop" committee it is "undescribably delicious.

The strong center theme is that each individual decorations will feature centerpieces of cascading hearts and flowers. Each boy will receive one of the special favors chosen by the committee for each girl;

Small valentine hearts decorated with couples’ names will be posted on the walls. Each girl will serve the dual purpose of acting as decorations and souvenirs which may be taken at the end of the evening.

Each couple will have the opportunity of searching for their own valentine.

Intermission activities will feature the waving of a Mrs. Wilkes, the Queen and the appearance of the "Creekswells," popular campus quin who has achieved fame locally and on the East Coast. The lucky T.D.R. member whose ticket stub is drawn will receive various gifts from the sorority in honor of her valentine.

Members of Theta Delta Rho who have been responsible for assuring the success of tonight’s gala affair are: Janice Reynolds and Helen Johnson, Co-presidents; Fred Zepeda and Lou Kozik, vice-president; Ginny Wilkes, secretary; Carol O’Dell, and Nancy Payne, foresses; Monsey Miller, reporter, and Sandy Einick and Barones; Betty Lou Kezial, programs; Judy Geer, valentine; and Jean Shoferko, public relations.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibber

A few years ago a certain freshman, wishing to be of service to his editor, offered to do a humor column every other week.

For the first attempt, he finished the column just that, heading his efforts with the title and by-line appearing above.

The same man is guilty.

For new readers of this column, let it be known that the only claim for originality made by the author is that he incurs pains which may or may not come from his own fertile, trenching brain, adapts them to the theme of his column, and strings them in a semblance of humorous comments on a general topic of interest.

Needless to say, a great deal of "borrowing" is necessary in such an enterprise.

Punsters are a floundish lot. They play their trade with grief, measuring their successes not by the number of laughs, but by the number of pained expressions and groans which greet their efforts, and go to great lengths to create a situation for which a pun is appropriate.

Bennet Cerf, one of the modern collectors of this form of humor — said by most to be the lowest form — cites this example of the contrived pun:

"It seems a certain young fellow was taken to the circus by his uncle Alfred. When the long- waited day arrived his uncle told the boy's mother that he was going to take him home, and he was heard to say, "Oh yes, we definitely will, but I'm afraid we won't hear Alfred loud tennis, son."

The play on words needn't be so obvious, but it helps make the punner feel more accomplished if he must to tout his lengths to score his point. It is truly said: for a pun to be good, it must be hard.

Marriage is always a fit subject for attack.

For instance, husbands with better halves are worse off than bachelors with better quarters. Some husbands favor clubs for women — when all else fails.

Dorm Council News

Sport night for dormitory men has been planned for Friday night because of other activities scheduled in the gym. The Inter-Dormitory Council is trying to find another time when both the gym games and other activities can be held.

The individual dorms will be noticated when sport night is rescheduled.

The inter-dormitory Bridge Club would like to have more people come to play bridge on Sunday.

 aftemnoons from 2 to 5. Students do not have to be familiar with the game in order to play. A tournament is planned for this spring, but more players are needed before the season starts.

The I.D.C. is organizing a better fire protection system in the dormity with the help of the local fire department, reviewed, and new alarm systems and other equipment are being installed. The dorm is also forming its own plan for fire drills and will report its progress to the Council.

Hennighan to Serve on Seminary Staff

James Hennighan, who graduated from Wilkes last month, was recently appointed an instructor in English and Physical Education at the Wyoming Seminary, Kingston. He will also assist in directing the intramural activities of the school.

The annual King’s Debating Tournament is being held today and tomorrow with over thirty schools participating. The Wilkes are Cliff Brothers and Gwen Reed with Paul Foust and Fred Roberts消极.

The main competition for the Wilkes team will be the teams from Penn State, St. Peter’s, St. Joseph’s, Dartmouth, Army, and Fordham. Information was obtained in an interview with Dr. Robert Forensen of Wilkes.

Silver Competition Offers Many Awards

During the months of February and March, Reed and Barton, South African, and Smiths, are conducting a “Silver Opinion Competition” in which the names of the ten best dressed students at a few selected colleges are announced.

In addition there will be 100 other awards with winners having the option of using the Bond or a “starter set” of silver, fine china and crystal with a range of $100 to $1000.

In the “Silver Opinion Competition” an entrant is asked to name her favorite china pattern, her favorite crystal, and the sterling silver design she likes the best. She must enter the competition by March 24.

Entry forms are being mailed to the club in the next few days. Entry forms are required to be submitted by the club for the depot.

Gene Stickler, chairman of the assembly planning committee, announced plans for the March 24th program to be presented by Cue ’n’ Curtain.

Dr. Steven Ousky, noted Czechoslovak num- eric, informative talk entitled “The Way of the Free” at Tuesday’s Noon Club meeting.

Since Dr. Ousky just came back from three months stay in Bo- hemia, he has some of his latest experiences with the student body.

Dr. Ousky says that the struggle for domination between the free world and the communist countries was a struggle of right and might but an economic one. He adds that in the free world, sovereignty is economically no longer independent.

Ousky stated that Czecho- slava is looking at the Soviet Union.

Dr. Ousky has a diverse and re- stricted background. In World War II he was the youngest collaborator of President Thomas Masaryk and was one of the founders of the Yugoslav Liberation Army. In 1947 he represented his country at the United Nations. For his exceptional service to Czechoslovakia, this country presented the American citizen with the National Award of the United States.

From January, 1923, until the fall of France, Dr. Ousky served as minister of Czechoslovakia to Belgium and the Netherlands where he remained with the first secretary for Czechoslovakia in London. He be- came minister of foreign affairs in the Czechoslovakian government in exile and of the Legislative State Council which makes Czechoslovak law since the fall of France.

This fall, and for four years Dr. Ousky has been a Visiting Professor of European Civilization and International Law at Princeton University. The work of this great statesman has been to involve him with his party, the Social Democratic Party, in the whole of the country. He has received decorations from France, Poland, Hungary, Rumania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, and Chile.

Next Tuesday featured speaker at the junior’s club will be Dr. Abraham Siegel, Rector of Breslau Temple Israel, South River Street.

Carl Havira Turns In Ironman Stunt, Leads Splashing To Initial Victory

Veteran Performer Takes 3 First Places, Provides Spark to Win by George Tensa

For his superb victories in leading the Colonial swimmers to 59-26 victory over a strong Lycoming swim team, Carl Havira was chosen "Athlete of the Week." The Blue and Gold star swimman turned in "ironman performances" while capturing first-place honors in the 200-yard freestyle, 200-yard butterfly, and the 200-yard breast-stroke.

This is "Hummer's" second season as a member of the young Colonial swimming team. Last year he showed the spark of future-greatness when he finished fourth in the 200-yard butterfly swim in the Mid-Atlantic. His assault on the events thus far this season has made Carl one of the favorites to capture individual honors for the season.

Swimming is not the only sport in which Carl excels, for he is a three-year veteran of the soccer team. Last season, although hampered by an injured ankle, he scored eight goals and was a very prominent reason why Coach Jim Ferris' charges finished with a very respectable 3-3 record.

The coaches were also very impressed with Carl's soccer skill and elected him to the Mid-Atlantic Conference Honoray Mention team for the past two seasons.

I-M. BASKETBALL

The Intramural basketball loop is now well underway, with last year's champs, the Neki Hokis, the only team in the American League with a perfect record. In the National League the strain of competition is a little more apparent with the Hot Rods and Slickers tied for first place with records of 2 wins and no losses.

The schedule of games to be played in the American League next week is:

Monday, February 16 - 7:00 p.m.

Pinbusters Lose, Tied for Lead; Maholik Rolls 559 for Raiders

Pete Maholik and his Raiders become the gold-killers in last Sunday's intramural bowling, knocking off the Pinbusters, 31, and forcing the league into a tie for first place. The Idle Playboys and the Pinbusters now share the top spot with identical records of 55 wins, 15 losses.

The two teams will meet Sunday night on alleys 3 and 4 of the JCC in what may be the deciding contest of the season.

The Raiders just missed taking all four points when Maholik had a split in the tenth frame of the first game. The Pinbusters took that point by five pins, 780-785. Maholik had his high man in the match with 196-36. John Sapiega was top scorer for the Pinbusters on 201-327.

Goldbricks 4, Ski Club 0

The Goldbricks, spurred by Jerry Chiarick and Dan Lewis, climbed to a 3-pin lead after a shutout over the Ski Club.

Teetotalers 2, Tempes 2

The Teetotalers dropped the first game by 165 pins, then came roaring back to take the next two, thanks to Wayne Walters' 200-543 series. The Tempes held on to enough of their first-game bulge, however, and won the fourth point for total pins by 29. John Mattey led the Tempes with 104-312.

Teetotalers: Walters 553, Dick Myers 186-472, and Lois Tremayne 139-386.

Sunday, February 15

Next Sunday the battle for first place will be on alleys 3 and 4 between the Playboys and the Pin- busters. Bowling will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. All bowlers are advised to make every effort to be on hand within 15 minutes of the starting time in order to be sure of finishing in time for a following league.

On alleys 5 and 6 the Teetotalers will attempt to get out of the cellar when they take on the Ski Club, while the rest of the Raiders will shoot for a third place spot when they test the Tempes on alleys 7.

Grapplers To Oppose Fierce Competition

Mermen Lose, 55-26 After Lycoming Win

The Bucknell Bison trimmed the bucking刚度 of the Mermen by 55-26 score. The powerful Bison failed to top the famed Cassie Cummings, who was kept out of harm's way in the two contests in which he swam.

The Colonels, without the aid of Cleve Miller, forfeited the diving contest and started the meet 6 points behind the Leopards. However, in the first set, Friedman, Zienkowski, Havira, and Stadler scored 38 points to the Colonels' 1 point. The second set was won by a time of 4.233 in the final event to bring in an added seven points for the Colonels.

Tomorrow afternoon the swimming Colonels are scheduled to travel to Scranton and take on the Royals in their home pool. In the last two years the Royals have failed to pool enough athletic talent to fill a fair sized bath tub. Relievers will be added to the Colonels and Scranton will once again forfeit to the swimming men.

The last team served the.relief to the Colonels by winning the first event of the intercollegiate competition. The team is currently ranked in the top 20 win over a tough Lycoming team and laid the groundwork for the Colonels' splendid victories in the future.

They started off the event, the 400 yard medley relay, by building a lead in the first leg. Ken Selody started, gaining a small lead in the first leg. Jim Stadler took up the lead using breaststroke, while Pat Shovlin extended the lead to over 10 seconds, and finally, and Walt Zienkowski brought home the team for their first win of the meet, a full length of the pool.

Curt Havira (see 'Athlete of the Week') started his ironman act in the 1100 yard freestyle swimming home his first five points, while a second place was also scored for his take third place for another point.

In the 50 yard freestyle, Cleve Miller came out of retirement in first place. While between the Colonels and Eckhart was a touch behind to take second. The diving was also excellent and capped off a splendid win by graduate Miller for five more points.

In the 200 yard butterfly the "Ironman" brought home another four points for the Colonels. The Lycoming swimmers was pulled out of the pool after he had collapsed from exhaustion in the grueling event.

The 100 yard freestyle followed with freshman Eckhart turning in an impressive time to cusp a second place and three points.

Pat Shovlin was next to join the five-point band wagon as he churned the waters in the 200 yard breaststroke, which he completed in 2:50.50. Ken Selody added another third place point.

In the longest race of the day, the 400 yard freestyle, Bob Norris of Lycoming came in first with Jake Zienkowski barely edging him out for second in third and second for the Wilkes Colonels.

Dave Rapina romped home in his third event of the day in a dazzling 2:03.00 in the 200 yard breaststroke. Then to make the day complete, the relay team of Zienkowski, Haven, Harter, and Cox swept the final leg of the contest.

Lycoming lost 55-26 to the Colonels. The Colonels have a win in the bag and next event is at the University of Delaware.

Cagers Roadblock, Losing Streak Halted with 2 Solid Victories

Eddie Davie's Wilkes College cages came to a screeching halt on Tuesday. After missing three basketball contests due to breaking away from the team, they were able to make two solid wins.

That the Warriors have improved, is evident in their score of the last meet. Last Saturday, the Colonels took it to the Lycoming for the second contest in a row. The next day, Lycoming was accomplishing the same feat, posting a 40-0 white wash over the building Juniata squad.

A contingent of Wilkes fans was not disappointed Saturday night and "bought out" Nazareth to attend tomorrow's meet as well as the vital Franklin and Marshall meet coming next week. Interested parties may contact Sports Editor Morgan Davis.

Wilkes' meet at F. M. and W. remained the most serious threat to Wilkes' chances of an un-scaled season. The Lyons continue to do well by Lycoming unseated. F. M. and W. is noted for its excellent wrestling team, and will make its appearance in matches with some of the top wrestling powers of the East.

Last Saturday the grapplers showed off their consistence with an splendid exhibition of skill, turning in their second straight shutdown of a top team.

Ted Toluba at 157 pounds, pulled the fastest trick of the night, taking down his opponent 8-0 in only 3:14 seconds. Toluba was reversed in the final seconds, but before a half-minute had passed, he reversed Harris to regain control and picked up a bit of breathing room half the end of the first period when he had gained trouble and was working for the fall.

He gained two more points on his final offensive effort from the referee's position in the second period, then rode his lead hard throughout the last period, gaining six points on a near-fall in the final seconds of the bout.

Heavyweight Bob Sislian brought the day home with a no mercy pin over Dennis Doyle, co-captain, of the last bout of the meet. Both men were on their feet throughout most of the first two periods; Doyle held the lead, 1-0, by virtue of an escape from the referee's position in the second round. Sislian reversed Doyle in the short time of 16 seconds of the final round, near-falling him into a pin and taking the only 45 seconds left in the bout.

Dick Strauffer started the shutout a bit of the referee's position 'co-captain, Joe Lee, in the 195-pound class. Gerard Senick, at 177 pounds, copped a good right tight to control his opponent and delivered the way and record a 2-0 win.

Joe Morgan, wrestling at 197, dropped the Colonels for the first time this season with a 6-0 win over Dalton Mark, marking beautifully all the way. Bob Mayer, at 185 pounds, dropped the Colonels for the second time in 11 days when he escaped twice from Brandt. In his 17 pound effort, Mayer, at 147-pound took the decision, 5-2.

Walt Glogowski met 177-pound Jeff Weiss of Juniata and outpointed him 13-7. The Leopards forfitted to Marv Antunes in the 167-pound division.

Face Improved Lycoming Matmen, Strong F&M Squad Next Opponent; Leopards Blanked For Second Time

by Richard J. Myers

Tomorrow Coach Reese and his Colonels will be at Lycoming for a 8:30 p.m. meet, first part of a sports doubleheader.

The meet that will take place tomorrow is the second time this year the Leopards have hung a 29-5 panning on the Warriors and shut them out in 1957, by a 38-0 count.

If you're the kind of person who thinks for yourself...you use judgment in your choice of cigarettes, as in every other. Men and women who think for themselves are indeed smart VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know that only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

CAGERS ROADBLOCK

(continued from page 3) 14 tallies to the Wilkes canine, but Saturday in Scranton the Blue and White only broke their away court jinx, but also brought their current losing streak to an end. Wilkes defeated East Stroudsbury by the score of 86-74.

This was a seasonal high scoring march for the cagers and was made possible by four players hitting double figures. Miloshko led the scorers with 24 points, Roski added 21 tallies, and Eddie Kemp in and Bernie Radloch each registered 13 counters. Radecki also showed fine rebounding form in controlling the defensive boards against the taller Stroudsburg cagers.

Dr. John Gaito and M. Lozman give report to E.P.A. group

by John Cook

EPA is a small group of letters which stand for a large group of people, many of them possessing minds unqualified for their current knowledge and perception of psychology. Those letters represent the Eastern Psychological Association. When that indolent group convenes in Atlantic City, New Jersey, during April 3 and 4, a junior student is going to address some prominent professional psychologists and read a report which he wrote in collaboration with a member of the Wilkes faculty.
