ST. PATRICK’S THEME GIVEN BY T.D.R. TODAY

by Pat Fuscuk

Theta Delta Rho sorority will be "wearing" the green this weekend when they will sponsor the annual St. Patrick’s Day Tea at Mc- Clintock Hall from 3 to 5 p.m.

Area high school girls will be guests and will have the opportunity to meet with sorority members and members of the faculty and administration, discuss various facets of college life.

General chairman of the tea is Doris Gadenan.

At its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at McGil- tock tent tests for the T D Letter- men’s tea, the plans for the show were aired. The date of the show is May 6.

Highlighting the meeting was a demonstration of various floral ar- rangements by Mr. Anthony Broody of Broduy’s Floral Shop, Plymouth.

Mr. Broody, assisted by Miss Sophie Kancher, showed some of the many "tricks of the trade" in making corsages, bouquets, and artificial coloring of flowers.

Finished floral arrangements were then passed among the sorority members in attendance.

Dr. Rosenberg Reviews Consolidation Issues At Econ Club Session

by Lee Baiera

Dr. Samuel Rosenberg, Professor of Economics, was speaker at the last session of the Economics Club, and discussed pros and cons of the consolidation of the City of Wilkes- Barre with adjacent townships and boroughs.

Dr. Rosenberg discussed the de- populating of the country, pointing out that the chief reason behind it is the large unemployment figure. At last month, 25,000 unemployed were counted in Luzerne County. Because of this, people leave to find work in other areas, leaving an older population in this area.

Some advantages to consolidation, as stated by Dr. Rosenberg, are: increased population of Wilkes-Barre, from approximately 60,000 to 200,000; more national advertising for the local newspapers; a bigger attraction for industrial con- cerns; general economic improve- ment. Consolidation would also be a step toward solution of regional transportation, health, and air pollution problems.

Dr. Rosenberg stated some of the disadvantages which might arise from consolidation. Questions to be considered are the following: What would happen to the People’s Bank and Peoples Trust? would it be a regular bank? How would government agencies be handled? Would the welfare office be needed in this consolidated plan? would it be a regular one, or would it be handled by the state? would it be handled by the county?

MEETING WITH FLORISTS

Robert Pilet presented a report on the recent progress of the Student Florists. Topics concerning the Winter Carnival dominated discussion, with the most important being the new resolution stating that Dr. Farley be replaced by the desirability of the Student Florists for the future plans for continuing the arrangement. According to Pilet, however, the report made clear that the administrative policy that no alcohol beverages are to be served by the Student Florists was not changed.

Advice: "Let's not allow any alcohol beverage to be served by the Student Florists unless it's "permitted by the language of the Agreement.""

Though money is a problem. For some, it is too low. For others, it is too high. But, even though the students are not satisfied, the students are still willing to work for their organizations while the latter half of the week is going to the organization.

NEW STUDENT RATES FOR Broadway SHOW

One of the special interests among students and teachers in Elia Kazan’s production of Archibald MacLeish’s hit play “J.B.,” currently at the ANTA Theatre, New York City, and the difficulty students and teachers are having in obtaining medium priced tickets, the “J.B.” management has instituted a Student Discount Plan for a certain number of orchestra seats.

The student discount seats are being offered to students of teachers at $5.65. They are orchestra seats, normally costing $6.90.

“J.B.”, starring Christopher Plummer and directed by James Daly, has won extraordinary praise from the New York and national press. In the N.Y. Times, Brooks Atkinson referred to it as “one of the remarkable works of the century.” At this writing it has just been nominated for five Tony’s by the American Theatre Wing. In fact, “J.B.” has received international critical acclaim.

Archibald MacLeish is a two time Pulitzer Prize winner, a former Librarian of Congress, and one of America’s foremost men of letters. Elia Kazan has achieved stellar status for his direction of “On a Clear Day You Can See Forever” and “Sympathy,” and “Skin of Our Teeth.” “J.B.” is being presented by the Joint Program of the American Library Association and the American Academy of Dramatic Arts of New York.

Special Discount Student Plans, for use either by mail or at the ANTA Theatre box office, have been arranged with the American Library Association, English Department and the Director of Public Relations. Additional supplies of these student discount forms may be had by writing Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., 40 West 50th Street, New York 19, New York.

SECOND PROGRAM OF FILM SOCIETY

Tonight at 7:30

The second of three scheduled film presentations of the Manning Special Price Society will be held this evening at 7:30 in Stark Hall, room 116. The two films in tonight’s program, which are Swedish in origin, are “Shuggor Over Svan” and “Great Adventure.”

Admission to the program is through subscription.

“Shuggor Over Svan” is a 1940 production, directed and photographed by Arne Sucksdorf. The film is a Swedish novelization by J. MacLaren Rose. Sucksdorf’s film is a romantic murder tale set in a forest in the north of Sweden. An escaped murderer is about to track down a handsome young man who has terrorized the boy. The chase continues into the blackness of the night, and the hunter retreats in panic, realizing that “some stranger, stronger than his own master” is the boy’s protector.

The children’s life among the creatures of the wood and the peril of the Swedish winter are seen, the villagers who have missed his youth, the realization that “no one can catch and hold a dream” and the boy who is “a dreamer’s keeper” is brought to the foreground.

 Intramural Bowling Highlights End of Year, I.C.C. Bowling Activities

Intramural bowlers will have plenty of post-season activity when the league runs two tournaments this week. The first one will be on Saturday, April 9, and the second on Monday, April 11.

Both tournaments are open to members of the 1958-59 bowling squad and will be played at the Atlantic Bowl. At the end of the season, the final standings will be compiled by the league officials.

The first of the two events will be held on the simplest of rules. The key will be the singles event. For the tournament, including cost of games, will be $1.00. Trophies will be awarded to the four highest and the top trophy for high scratch score. More trophies will be possible, if response is great enough.

Doubles competition will run for two weeks, beginning with May 17. Bowlers will team up in pairs, draw for alleys, and bowl three games in each event. Trophies for the doubles competition will be awarded to the four highest and the top trophy for high scratch score. A tie for any of the points will be made to give each player one-half a point of a team.

In event the two teams end in a tie, the two teams will determine the outcome in a sudden death round. Wilkes will be given the first choice of teams for the tournament of scoring, so they lost the last match of the season, both teams will play-off at Mansfield State Teachers, 19-0.

The remaining three weeks, the team members will be against Hofstra, who took second place in last year's Intramural.

The squad will begin driving up the ladder in the tournament and the worst team could be the best team. The season in the league high-

PLAYBOYS TRIP BY FOUR, TEOLETALORS MOVE UP FROM LAST TO FIFTH

Bill Watkins led the Pinbusters to a smashing 4-0 win over the Terpints in Sunday night's bowling activities. Watkins scored a 263 high game with his personal high series mark of 581.

Watkins started the game with a three-strike series, then in the fifth frame, with a perfect game in sight, sent a "light" seven-count in the ninth frame. Watkins ended the previous high game of 255, set by his teammate, Emil Himmel. Ray Yanchus was top man for the Teoletalors, who cooled the red-hot Watkins with a 239 game and moved into fifth place on the leader board.

The Playboys took a firm grip on second place with Joe Shemanick's 167. Watkins took three points from the short-handed Goldbricks to finish third high for the losers with 209-597.

Pinbusters 4, Teoletalors 0

The Pinbusters, no. 1 on the leader board, rolled into the cellar, 17 games off the pace when Watkins and his mates pined a perfect game for the final tally. The scoring:

Teoletalors, Raiders 1, Playboys 0

The Teoletalors moved to within two points of third place with a 1-0 win over the Raiders, 5-10. On the other hand, they moved from third place with their fourth straight win. Watkins, the only bowler to bowl a perfect game, started through with a 206 in the second game to stave off the barrage from the Raiders, and won the game, 619-549. Scoring:

The Playboys lost a four-pin squatter in the second match, which brought enough change from the other side to win off walkers of a 3-1 count. Scoring:

Dr. Konstantin Symmons, Professor of the Sociology Department, is being honored by the Beacon this month for his outstanding cultural contributions to the college and community.

Dr. Symmons, a familiar figure on campus, is especially well-known to Sociology 100 students whose study of culture, society, and ethnic-norms have been influenced by "Dr. Symmons" amusing illustrations and anecdotes. Soc 200, "Marriage and the Family," has achieved the reputation of being a course that everyone should take.

In addition to his teaching duties, Dr. Symmons plays the dual role of Professor and Athlete. He speaks both Polish and Russian fluently and is acquainted with Latin and various Slavic languages.

The many professional organizations with which Dr. Symmons is affiliated include active membership in the American Sociological Society, Hellenic fellowship in the American Anthropological Association, and membership in the American Historical Association, the American Academy of Political and Social Science, and the Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences in America.

Dr. Symmons was honored by being chosen to appear in American Men of Science, Vol. III, The Social and Behavioral Sciences, recently published.

Numerous articles written by Dr. Symmons have been published in the United States and Poland. They include "The Ukrainians in Poland", which appeared in Poland and Minority Problems, Warsaw, 1935, and "The Studies in Nationality and Nationalism in Poland Between the Two Wars, 1918-1939", New York, 1944. Dr. Symmons was editor of Polish American Studies from 1945-1946. Several articles and book reviews written by Dr. Symmons are scheduled to appear shortly. The article, "Bronislaw Malinowski: An Intellectual Profile", a chapter from Dr. Symmons' dissertation, will be published in the near future by the Polish Review. The American Anthropologist, February, 1959, contains a book review written by Dr. Symmons.

Dr. Symmons was born in St. Petersburg, Russia. He spent his childhood in Manchuria and was graduated from the Polish gymnasium to which his school corresponded to our high school or two years of junior college) in Harbin, Manchuria, with the M.A. degree from the University of Warsaw, Poland, and was awarded his Ph.D. by Columbia University.

Beginning his career as a contributor to various social, political, and historical periodicals in Poland, Dr. Symmons resides in Kingston with his wife, the former Krystyna Wiczyńska, and his daughter, Ania.

Four Varsity Debaters To Vie for Honors at Penn State Tournament

After a series of tours, when under the direction of Dr. Arthur Kruger, will participate in the Penn State annual debating tournament to be held this weekend at University Park, Pa. The team will consist of Cliff Beekman and John Evans speaking affirmatively, and Fred Roberts and Roberta Feinsteins speaking negatively.

Teams from about 27 different colleges will be represented in the tournament. There will be five preliminary rounds, from which four top teams will be selected. These four teams will then be eligible for semi-finals. From the semi-final round the two top teams will be selected; these two teams will compete for the championship. For the last three Wilkes will be a finalist in this tournament. The Wilkes team won the tournament two years ago, placing second three years ago, and third last year. Several awards were also won. Gwen Evans and Bruce Warshale tied for the first speaker award two years ago, and in 1956. Jemm Cole won the first speaker award.

After this tournament Gwen Evans and Fred Roberts will go to Seton Hall, New Jersey, to participate in the District VII Elimination Tournament.

Dr. Symmons became a civic service employee of the Polish government and works with the Ministry of Education and later in the Ministry of Foreign Language. He was appointed to the Polish Consulate General in Chicago in 1939. When World War II broke out he lost his diplomatic status and decided to remain in the United States. While he worked for his Ph.D. in Columbia, Dr. Symmons was employed by the Polish Government at Exile, now located in London.

Dr. Symmons resides in Kingston with his wife, the former Krystyna Wiczyńska, and his daughter, Ania.
