'Ven C. Rehearsals Set for Musical; Cast Announced

The Vex 'N C. Club is busy preparing sets and rehearsing for their first production of the fall semester, "Annie Get Your Gun."

Irving Berlin wrote the score for "Annie," which enjoyed a long run on Broadway with Ethel Merman and Ray Milland in the leading roles. This will be one of the biggest productions that the club has ever undertaken, and it will require a lot of work on the part of the cast and the back stage crew.

Bill Peters, a junior music major, has been named to direct the chorus for the show. Peters is a director of the male chorus. This will be the first time that a student of the college has ever been named chorus director for a musical production.

Curtains' Head Alfred S. Grob will direct the show, and Mr. John Detroy will handle the musical direction.

Last week Miss Janie Krumpak, due to reasons of health, bowed out of the cast and Miss Barbara Cusick, a newcomer to 'Curtains,' took over the part of Annie Oakley. Her leading man will be Wayne Walters playing the role of Frank Butler, the sharpshooter in a Wild West Show. Fred Malkemes will play Charlie, the show fast-talker and trouble maker.

Buffalo Bill will be played by Steve Comer, and Ruby Truett will be Frank Butler's "charming assistant," Dolly Tate.

"Annie Get Your Gun" will be staged at the Irem Temple on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, December 4, 5, and 6, and under the sponsorship of the Wilkes-Barre Kiwanis. Students may obtain tickets at the Irem Temple.

BEAT LYMINGO!
THE Mighty Dollar

Even though the following is not the opinion shared by the whole country, we feel that it cannot be thrust aside without comment. We propose that the current reserve be scheduled to end next Wednesday with little more than fifty per cent of the student total of $1200 reached.

It has been pointed out to us that without the aid of various clubs and the proceeds from the United Fund Dance the student total would be even more insignificant.

What's wrong?? Is one dollar too huge a sum to part with? Are we a bunch of puny ones, or are we just plain stupid? We realize that many students contribute to the United Fund through a place of employment; yet, $378 is hardly representa tive of college students. Certainly, we want to be able to participate would participate, the showing would be better.

If you haven't been contacted by canvassers, just don't sit back! Give! There is a chance that you may want to meet it. Fortunately, our faculty does not find giving to a worthy cause such an ordeal.

WILKES Fund is the One Drive per year on campus. Let's help our neighbors of Wyoming Valley and obtain the faces we should be wearing for such a poor reason.

Can't Compete

The decorations are down, and the trophy is solemnly locked away in the confines of Gone Hall — where it belongs. The men of Gone, with the women's organizations on campus are expected to compete with such idle wonders of engineering. Not many of the girls can hook up a rock band with lights and moving speakers. We don't expect they can be expected to construct a moving football supporting the figure of a Colonel. Girls just don't have that much engineering.

We humbly suggest that two trophies be purchased for Homecoming next year — one for the displays put up by the predominantly male organizations and the other for the women's organizations.

We have checked back into our nifty files of Beacons and have been unable to come up with one fact that mentions the fact that a girls' dorm or organization won the trophy or even an honorable mention in the annual display contest. We hereby encourage the eager beery of girls who troop to the roof each year with hopes high.

We hope the Athletic Association will consider this suggestion and act before the women lose interest and do not bother to put up displays again.

Strike Up the Band!

No doubt about it, the 1958 Homecoming was a small one. The decorations were not up to much, the carnival was small, the vintage band was not up to par, the intramurals were not much up to much, the only people we can think of having fun were the band members and the parties something to be remembered for some time to come.

One of the best examples of the overall enthusiasm concerning the two-day celebration was shown by the band. This fine group, always ready and willing to boost any event, outdid itself last week. Without any great deal of practice time, they gathered at the field at 10:00 a.m. and by game-time had worked out a marching routine worthy of "Big Ten" bands. Their rendition of the popular "Tulane Troubadours" was flawlessly executed.

Bob Moran and his stalwarts will, we hope, take the hint offered by the appreciative applause and repeat this performance at a future game.

Additonal praise is due Russ Pictor for his chairmanship of the whole affair as well as to Bob Morris, student chairman for the drum assembly which was executed by these two, our heartfelt thanks for a job superlatively done.

eic Club, spoke in behalf of his organization at the first meeting of the week. He spoke briefly of the purpose of the club and its desire to make various field trips throughout the year to further the interests of their respective fields. Desire has been expressed by the various state college organizations for partial reim deration. Therefore, the club has decided to seek funds for expenses incurred on these trips. This subject was tabled un til the next meeting for further discussion on the subject.

The Reverend S. Procter, chairman of the Freshman Advisory Commis tee, presented a report and a discussion as to how to finance a future meeting for the coming year.

The group was presented with tentative arrangements for next year's Nicaragua and other trips to be requested by the state Republican candidates. The committee was asked to assist in the Education Club, made a request for financial reimbursement in addition to the recentlyfor the recent Junior students' conference. Re ded to the committee with a request to "Meet and greet" in addition to the Education Committee.

Gordon Roberts once more made a suggestion of a possible trip to France. The committee responded in the affirmative, and a new student, students' concerns are the immediate concern of the committee, and a trip to France has been returned from a total of forty-five.

"I suppose that you have traveled a great deal in your life!" "Yes, all over the world, I can't remember."

New Instructor In Engineering
by Lee Baier
One of the many new instructors at Wilkes this year is Mr. E. Russell May.

Mr. May is presently teaching freshman engineering lectures and seminars. He previously taught at Penn State Extension and received his Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Purdue University.

Before coming to Wilkes Mr. May was employed at the Dow Chemical Company and was a project engineer for General Electric. He also worked on the Aeronautical Research Project. He is presently working on his own consulting engineer firm, which specializes in heating, air conditioning and process engineering.

Mr. May and his wife, Mrs. Betty May, who is also a new instructor at Wilkes, reside on Old River with their two sons, ages 8 and 12.

Mr. May has clearly expressed his feelings toward Wilkes in saying that the college has a definite future and hope for an early expansion of engineering facilities to a four-year program.

Booters Second in Standing With Knockout of Dutchmen

by Jim Hennigan

The Colonels booters won their second straight soccer match with a 5-0 win over the Flying Dutchmen of Holstein at Long Island. This win even the Wilkes team's record at Sound-2 for this season and gives them a second-place berth in the league standings.

The game was played under a cloudy sky and from the start the Colonels forward wall put the pressure on the Hofstra goal. This was the reverse of the pattern of play that had been bothering the Colonels, for in past games the Blue and Gold had been on defense most of the time.

The inability of the Dutchman goalie and fullbacks to cope with the power of the Colonels was evident throughout the game. Carl Havrda, Len Franckowski, Nick Giordano, Lou Zwiebel and Ivan Pappanicholas started for the Blue and Gold with Havrda, Giordano and Pappanicholas featured in the scoring, with Giordano getting three, one on a penalty shot. In all, the Colonels had 37 shots at the Hofstra goal.

For the first time this season the Wilkes teams were unscathed on defense and the credit goes to goalie Bob Payne, who did a fine job all afternoon. Praise also must be given to the fine defensive work of backs Joe Morgan, Ron Davis, Don Pierre, Pete Perigo, and Bob Chew.

The Dutchmen put on their only goal in the second half, the ball going off the crossbar.

Athlete Award to Nick Giordano for Brilliant Play at Hofstra

Boothers represented in “Athlete” Honors by Star Center Forward Nick Giordano, playing the “big foot” role on Saturday’s game against Hofstra, is selected as the Beacon “Athlete of the Week.” The prolific scoring center forward punctuated the Hofstra goal with three big shots. He scored twice from scrimmage and once with a penalty shot. The first score was made with a head shot. The Flying Dutchmen, always one of the stiffest soccer competitors in the East, have been bumbled by the underdog Colonels for the past five successive years. Four of these years Nick has been one of the short lists that has exposed itself in the face of powerful Hofstra team.

Nick is not new to the “Athlete of the Week” award as this is the sixth time in his four years at Wilkes that he has gained this coveted award. He has also accrued an honorable mention for the All-Middle Atlantic squad in previous years.

He first saw a soccer ball at an age when most American boys are still playing with marbles, for he was born in Italy, while soccer is one of the national pastimes.

Nick attended high school in Naples, but graduated from Kings- ton High School in 1946 where he lettered on the track team.

He is a 21 year old senior majoring in Biology and plans to attend medical school.

Gridders’ First Win Comes on Eller’s TD, Michaels’ Two Points; Two Thousand Fans Witness First Homecoming Victory in 5 Years by Dick Myers

Don Eller’s two-yard smash over the goal line in last Saturday’s Homecoming tilt put the Colonels on the right track as they registered an 8-0 win over the Ursinus Bears. Both teams were winless before the contest and the victory broke a two-year Homecoming jinx each team held over the other.

A crowd of some 2,000 cheered lustily as they witnessed the first Homecoming win in five years, and the first entry by the Colonels into the winning column since Coach Pinowski took over the reins.

The injury-plagued Wilkesmen pulled the trick with a beautifully balanced attack and a fine exhibition of teamwork play. Bay Yachus, filled in for Jay Kubicki and did yeomanly duty at quarterback; Bill Michaels and Marv Antinnes did the line’s share of the ballcarrying, while Tom Kriuslivec made up for the loss of Tom Kriuslivec.

Michaels carried 21 times for 48 yards as a workhorse and scored the two touchdowns on an off-tackle smash, while Antinnes averaged nearly five yards per carry with 38 yards for 10 first downs. Eller carried four times for eight yards. Following Eller’s TD effort late in the second quarter, the two teams fought to a standstill, ending the game the Grizzlies threatened twice, but a determined Colonel line held brawny once. On the three, then, pushed the Bears back to the ten to thwart another drive.

The Colonels completed four of eight passes, with a total of 66 yards. From Michaelis to Ray Marchakalis, and registered 176 yards total offense, 101 by rushing.

Ferrismen Meet ‘Rough Riders’ In Toughest Test of the Year; Tackle Stroudsburg Wednesday

by Dan Hanock

Tomorrow the Wilkes soccer squad opens a four-game home stand with a match against Rider at 2:30 p.m. in Kirby Park. The Colonels booters now sport on even 2-2 record after downing ‘Holdout last Saturday by a 5-0 score; the men in crimson outscored the team by a 3-2 edge in the series with Wilkes with the Colonels taking their first win over Rider.

The Roughriders have a particular fascination to the ball carrier, facing rather difficult opponents for Wilkes in all sports in which they compete against each other in their respective division. The Colonels, however, are determined this year to even the series with Rider and to forge ahead in the win and loss columns.

The unofficial escort of the Dutchmen of Hofstra is an indication that the Colonel defense is stiffening as the line is playing more cohesive. Tomorrow’s game held the promise of being good, hard fight, so tomorrow afternoon when Wilkes meets Rider at Kirby Park and support the soccer team.

East Stroudsburg

Next week the booters will greet their major nemesis of the season, East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. The team has played the Teachers eight times and lost the other six times. It is easy to see if they can figure out number one on Coach Ferris’ “tick” list. This game will also be played at Kirby Park, but only if the weather permits.

Popularity Increase

To theextension of this area, soccer is a relatively unknown sport; their only contacts with it being through what is published in the newspapers or the few minutes spent watching the professional soccer games on the phone. This year, the Colonels have been the subject of much talk, with most of those enthusiastic who have been talking being organized professional teams and leagues in New York and Philadelphia.

In Europe, the sport is comparison to football, but to the Europeans soccer is somewhat of a passion and a national sport. It is also familiar. It is not uncommon for a large half of the school to turn up for an outdoor event of 100,000 or more and there is a stadium in Moscow capable of holding 100,000 people.

In South America, soccer is followed by baseball and basketball with zealous and vicious interest. Riots are commonplace and gunfire is expected at championships matches. During the international championships this past year, the government offices in Brazil were ordered closed and boarded because the government officials feared the soccer-induced enthusiasm would boil over the government and have its political implications.

The continent of Africa is not without. There, the tribes of an ancient native tribe which plays a crude version of the game using a hollow skull as a ball. Here in the United States soccer is rapidly gaining in popularity. The public schools and high schools are adopting it as a varsity sport.

drive of the afternoon early in the second half but were turned back by some steady defensive work by Davie and Patterson.

In the entire 88-minute contest the Colonels dominated play with only one score seen, a 1-0 victory over the Roughriders.

The winners of the Homecoming events are finally out. The results have brought many smiles and sighs. As for the statistics, they run this way:

First prize for the Homecoming display went to Gore Hall for their production of "The Ursinus Massacre." Those who viewed this display had no doubt that the men of Gore would win.

Second prize in this section went to the Biology Club for their creation, "Bowl Them Over." A lot of hard work on the part of the members of the Biology Club went into this display.

Third prize was awarded to the Junior Class for the scenery they had on display behind the library. This showed a touch of originality and color on the part of the juniors. The prize for the best-decorated car that took part in the car caravan on Saturday, October 18, was presented to Hugh Gladstone, a sophomore. His theme was "Pink Toyland."

The Lettermen also announced the winners of their raffle. The first prize was a choice between two tickets to the "Music Man" in New York, or two tickets to the Army-Navy football game.
