Sponsors of the dance have gone “all out” in decorating the gym to have it present as many Wilkes social events as possible. In addition to the attractive decorations, the entertainment will also follow the theme of campus life.

Included in the many decorations are scenes of registration, freshman hazing, homecoming, examinations, the Christmas formal, sports, the Valentine formal, the April Showers Ball, the Cinderella Ball, and graduation activities. These scenes will be composed of miniature layouts with photographs taken at past events featured as the students.

Another unusual feature planned is an “animated” receiving line at the door. Well-dressed charmers will meet and greet each dance-goes as he enters the gym.

At intermission the previous Sorority Meets Monday To Hear Charity Plans, Organize Card Party by Marilyn Krackenfeld

The regular monthly meeting of the T.D.R. will be held Monday, November 19, at 7:30 p.m. There will be a discussion of a card party to be held December 19, and an old people’s party and Christmas buffet for which the dates are still tentative.

The agenda for the meeting will include a detailed report, by Pat Yost, on the sorority’s charity program for the year. All members wishing to volunteer their services for any of these activities will be asked to do so at this time.

Following the business portion of the meeting, the books, games, and songs, which have been donated, will be restored to proper condition for presentation to charity causes in hospitals and other underprivileged children in the area. Mary Homan requests that anyone who has toys to bring to the dormitory before the meeting so that supplies may be purchased for their repair.

T.D.R. stationery will be sold at the meeting for $1.25 a box. This is a money-making project to help finance these charity efforts on the part of the sorority. Also, if any one is looking for a Christmas gift for a sorority alumnus, this T.D.R. stationery may be the answer.

The following members have donated a box for the collection of charity cards: Norma L. Santos, June Danks, John Himmel, and Byron Sevce.

Irra Himmel, John Rentschler, and Byron Sevce.

This drive is the most important project of the Jaycees. Responses last year by Wilkes students made possible this function and the success of this project.

Former Wilkes Debater Publishes Law Article

Published in the November issue of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review, W. B. Choper titled, “Meaning of ‘Control’ in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 Defined and Policy Underlying the ‘Enjoined Act.’”

Choper, a resident of Wilkes-Barre and a graduate of Wilkes College now in his second year at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, was one of the editors of the Law Review as a result of finishing second in the recent annual competition for the ‘Best Law Review’ award.

Also a member of the Wilkes debate team, Choper also holds a full scholarship as well as a teaching fellowship at the University, where he teaches courses in accounting at the Wharton School.

As a collegiate debater, Choper compiled one of the outstanding records in the United States in his first three years under the tutelage of Dr. Arthur Krugger, Wilkes Director of Forensics.

The team of Choper and Bucbholz, now attending Princeton University Graduate School, won the Harvard Invitational Tournament in 1957 and placed ninth in the nation that same year at West Point, with Choper placing third in the nation in the individual rankings. He was also a member of the Wilkes team that won the State Championships in 1957.

In his three-year career as a debater Choper won over one hundred debates for Wilkes, finishing up with a winning percentage of .760. He was also first speaker in many tournaments and placed and defended on the nation’s top ten squires.

VUJICA, HOOVER, AND PICTON NAMED TO COURT OF APPEALS
by Fred Roberts

Now that all the political hubbub is over, it seems relevant to make a few comments on the state campaign since we have a new governor.

Unfortunately neither party nominated its best candidate for governor, but for the Republican the inability to name a dis- tinguished politician, let alone a genuine statesman, was almost an extreme, vociferous, and sincere, Liberal Governor Terry against experienced, intelligent, hard-campaigning Congressman Vujica.

The governor's contest became one of isolated issues and party loyalty, both on an individual and two-party platform. Neither candidate really caught the imagination of the mass of people, and both were, for the most part, more concerned with personalities than policies. This is not to say that Mr. Vujica was an excellent choice, but he was not the答者 given seemed to miss this.

The Republicans found these issues rather unattractive, and they failed to try to vote a short-hand in the present proposal, the Senate passed the House or Senate bills which were reported back to them for second readings. The Republicans were reported back to the Senate for second readings. The Republicans were named to the House and Senate committees.

The Republican performance here on campus, complete with an extremely biased flyer, was dis- couragingly representative of campa- igns by misstatements. I agreed with Mr. Scott on one thing—that Governor M. William Eidam, Jr., or at least somewhere to an- swer these questions. I also agreed with Mr. McGonnigle had come to discuss these issues.

The Republican speakers were also kind enough to point out the inconsistency of the tax rate for the next year without the need to raise it. They succeeded, as made evident by the hundreds of students and WILKES COLLEGE BEACON the hating Mike assembly tell little on its face last Tuesday. The usual idea that I couldn't get off the ground. Some of the answers seemed to be little more than beautiful examples of evasion and hedges. The student who was asked to support his statements by any evidence given by saying that he was "not really an expert on this, but...". If these people are not the 'experts' on all campus questions, who are? And are they allowing the office to the darlings on stage where they could answer the honest and well meaning queries asked by an expectant student body?

For the past years, several pertinent questions concerning the finance office were asked, but the comptroller was not at assembly — she had not been asked to be there. As a result of this, Whiby was put under pressure to make some voluble attempt to answer, as best he could, questions concerning the finance office. These questions were evidently directed primarily because of the prominence given to the comptroller's; but we doubt very much that Mr. Whiby makes it a practice to earn a small fraction of the conversations in the course of the program, nor may he be entirely up to date on the plans of that department.

THERE HAS TO BE A SOLUTION

We were utterly amazed at the response given to a perfectly legitimate question concerning the food situation in the cafe- teria. The general attitude of those in 'the know' seems to be one bordering on the 'that's the way the ball bounces' stand. We are reasonably sure that every member of the administra- tion who was on the platform for Tuesday's assembly knew that the question of the dorm students' diet would be raised. Un- fortunately none of these questions seem to fit to prepare a satis- factory answer to the question.

We feel that there is an answer to this problem somewhere, but the administration has attempted to present the answer to the resident students. Perhaps the cost of one meal is an irrelevant fact when it is considered by a person who is not paying for the meal. Perhaps the administration is paying the students who are paying and eating, this is a relevant point.

If the explanation can be given in mathematical figures, these figures should not only be given, but they should be ac- companied by an explanation of how the figures are arrived at. To just state that one meal costs 40 cents is fine — it means nothing. If the administration is attempting to prove this point, they should say how much students say about the price of food when it is bought in quantity, and we have the impression that we are not a minority when we say this. Perhaps the administration are not intend- ent and explain the ins and outs of the budget, it will elimi- nate most of the complaining that has shown all signs of getting out of hand.

To tell a student that it is none of his business where his money is going is the wrong attitude, and unfortunately that is the predominant attitude in this case.

There are two sides to this question, but we have been un- able to get any satisfaction out of the answers we have received from the "other side" of this problem, it stands reason, it should be given — if it isn't, the relations between the dormitory students and the administration will continue to deteriorate. We would hate to see this happen.

The distribution, as accepted by the Administrative Council, was approved Monday, November 24.

Sallie as Assistant General Chairman, was in charge of the discussion at Tuesday's session and pointed out how his committee came to arrive at the figures it did.

The Beacon, in its request, had stated that it wanted some information on necessitated increased costs. The Faculty Council can print fewer copies, and have several four-page issues to lower costs.

Cue 'n' Curian did not receive their request because it included the question number of the workshop which they conducted on campus. As they were not the people who had asked for the study, they did not feel that the student body should not support this project out of its funds, and as the study was not related to the club activities which they felt should be supported by the student government.

The D Debating Society, it was felt, can dispense with one or two members of its scheduled to the rooms to defray its expenses. It was also mentioned that, despite the praise and greatest of the debaters bringing to Wilkes, there is not a very large percentage of the student body affiliated with this organization. Therefore, it was felt that their grant was sufficient.

The Manuscript submitted a larger request this year than in the past because the group plans to expand its annual publication into a yearbook and other popular compositions. It was reported that many issues of the publications had rejected much material simply because there was not enough money to pay for the material at the end.

Various pros and cons of the benefit of the various organizations were discussed by student government members. A complete statement of the expenditures of the Manuscript was presented to the group; the statement denoted the policies and polici- ments, along with reasons for its request.

In the case of the other organizations which received cuts from their original requests, the reasons for the cut were presented and recommendations on how to meet the need, if there is any shortage in funds by the end of the year.
FOUL WEATHER HAMPERS TOUCH FOOTBALL; UNDEFEATED HUMAN BEANS IN FIRST PLACE

Intrasquad football was nearly washed down to frostbite last week, but student director George Goodrich reports that activities have resumed with the cessation of the foggy, foggy dew. In one last week's thriller the Human Beans eked out a close one over the Honeymoons, 8-0. On the first play of the game Professor Gaito's team scored a TD with a pass from Walt Gogolowski to Tom Hurley. The Human Beans then got two points for a safety. It wasn't until the last quarter that the Honeymoons scored with a quick six points.

The Honeymoons, with Bernie Radecik, Walt Swank, Joe Parenich and John Harvey are still not out for the count. Real strong contes-

BOB YOKAVONUS SNARES HONORS AS HE BOLSTERS GRIDDERS LINE

Though Running Fever, Sturdy Captain Plays Nearly Entire Game

Four-year veteran of the grid team, Bob Yokavonus is chosen as Beacon Athlete of the Week. Saturday's massacre of the Colonels did not occur without its bright spots.

Bob, a 165-pounder who by usual standards should be too small to play college ball, proved that small packages can contain big surprises. Usually a 60-minute man, "Yok" was called out of last week's game in the fourth quarter when Coach Pinkowski discovered he was playing with a temperature of 101 degrees.

His usual pace in the past few seasons has been that of a full-time man, but Bob proved himself so adept in the line that there is a genuine danger of a real weak spot when he is removed.

Getting an example for the rest of the team, "Yok's" steady aggressive line play made the Jamaica backfield look for other avenues of scoring. After only two of the opposing team's scores came through the line. They were made for the most part on long runs after the runner had avoided the "brick wall."

Co-captain of the team this year, Bob has now survived the coaching of three college coaches. He is presently holding down the right guard position. Previously he did play center, but Coach Pinkowski saw the position that suited his special talents and transferred him to guard.

Bob graduated from Hanover Township High in 1955, where he played football and was on the wrestling squad. In his senior year he was selected as a member of the All-East high school football team.

He is a senior, majoring in secondary education and hopes to remain in the Valley after graduation this June.

A college senior dated a young lady from a nearby girl's school a few times. Some weeks passed and he received a telegram: "Dear Delayed, or Disinterested?" He promptly wired back: "Hunting, Fishing, or Trapping?"

Mary had a little lamp. It was well trained, no doubt. For every time her boyfriend called the little lamp went out.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL PRACTICE BEGINS

By Laurence Gallagher

On Wednesday, October 28, practice began for the girls' basketball team, the Colonettes. Only a few girls ventured onto the floor for the initial practice on Monday, November 5, the ranks were swelled by an influx of aspirants. The freshman and sophomore classes are well represented, and there are many openings for members of the junior and senior classes still going begging.

Membership is open to all girls who have the desire to combine fun with building friendships and the feeling of good sportsmanship through the game.

See also: It's also a good way to get your shape into shape — let's go ladies!

The Wilkes students and faculty would be proud if the girls' team were a good one. The Colonettes can be a winning team if the girls of Wilkes support it by their spirit and interest.

Practice will be held on Mondays at 3 o'clock and Wednesdays at 8 o'clock. All interested girls are urged to attend these practices and try out for the team.

CHEERLEADERS GET NEW UNIFORMS

Thanks to the efforts of the Athletic Director, Mr. Ediston, and the Dean of Women, Mrs. Doane, the Wilkes cheerleaders are getting new uniforms.

The new outfits will consist of blue and gold gabardine skirts and blue vests. The skirts, which are in the gored type with gold inserts, will be longer and fuller than those of the old uniforms. White or gold blouses will complete the outfit. The uniforms are expected to arrive within the next two weeks, so, with luck, our gals may be sporting them on November 15, at the Wilkes-Scranton game.

DOGPATCH SQUEAL

NEXT FRIDAY IN GYM

By Cynthia Hagler

On November 14 at the gym from 7:00 until 9:00 P.M. the sophomores will present their first dance of the season, the Dogpatch Squel.

As you can tell by its moniker, the dance will center its theme around Olde Dogpatch. This was chosen because of the nearest of Sadie Hawkins' Day, an occasion which deserves to be well celebrated around Wilkes.

The intermission entertainments includes a sack race and an egg throwing contest (in traditional Dogpatch style). Also, a mysterious personage who has been bewildering Wilkes students for over a week will be revealed at that time. Some lucky person with the right ticket number will win a door prize.

These are all the vital statistics, now here are some of the details. Dick Kniffin is general chairman of the affair. Working with him are Sandy Unger and Skip Gladstone, co-chairmen of publicity; Peggy Kraus, chairman of decoration; Bill Davis, chairman of ticket sales; Nick Gatto and Jane Fabowski, co-chairmen of refreshments; Elizabeth Colbran, chairman of intermission entertainment and Barry Yocum, chairman of clean-up.

The dress will be sporty, but if any hardy souls want to make up something "Daisy Mae or Little Abner-ish," go right ahead. At least rate at the dance and bring your friends.

In a speech, the professor was very much the mood the knew the difference between the two easily confused words "draught" and "drought."

Said the prof: "A drought is a very dry spell, particularly in a barrel; now what is a drought?"

Answered the class: "No beer!"

"Statistics are like a bikini — the things they conceal are much more interesting than what they reveal." — cab
