Cherry Tree Chop Next Friday Night
by Ralph Price

Next Friday night the Letter's Club will sponsor the Cherry Tree Chop, which will need no introduction to the members. The fair is fifty cents, and the dancing will be enjoyed. The program will be issued by Mrs. Milton will be supplied by records.

One of the many interesting features will be the student dancing contest. In this contest the judges will defend their title against two students. Two years ago Dr. Falvey and Dean Rall won the contest. They did not compete last year, but they still considered the winners.

Another faculty member, Dr. Michelin, will confide his championship in the cherry pie-eating contest. This contest holds particular interest for Dr. Michelin who has never been defeated in this event.

This dance, as you may have guessed, is being held in commemoration of the birthday of George Wash-ington, who as you know was a personal friend of our own Dean Ralston.

Each of the students at Wilkes and Hampton have exchange visits. This year the fine inaugu-ration Dean Hawkins made upon Wilkes students during this annual visit will be extended to our assembly. The public is invited to attend.

Debaters at King's Four-Man Team Entered In Garvey Tournament
by Jay Olesy

For the second year in a row, a debate team consisting of Barry O'Connell, Brent Kulesa and Jerry Kulkea is slated to represent Wilkes in this year's Garvey Invitational Tournament. Recently, King's College of Western Pennsylvania won the tournament sponsored by King's College.

This is the fourth consecutive year that the King's tournay is being held, and a total of 70 teams from the eastern U.S. will participate in the two day event ending tomorrow evening.

The tournament was recently named in honor of Vincent Garvey, Jr., former King's debater from Forty Fort, who was killed in an air crash while serving in the U.S. Navy. Garvey was also president of the 70th annual meeting of the King's.

The King's debaters will be after their second consecutive victory this year after having taken first place in last week's John Hopkins Tournament while serving in the U.S. Navy. Garvey was also president of the 70th annual meeting of the King's.

The King's debaters will be after their second consecutive victory this year after having taken first place in last week's Hopkins Tournament.

At the Johns Hopkins Tourna-ment, the Wilkes team of Frank Rofikof and Roberts Reisnig were defeated by George Armstrong and John Fish, four losses and four victories. They defeated the Johns Hopkins and the University of Maryland in the first round and the Air Force Academy in the second round.

Letter to the Editor

Subject: Court of Appeals

From: Michael Bianco, Chairman

To: Student Body

This open letter has been written to inform you that the Court of Appeals will be considering the Court of Appeals and that the matter has been lowered in appealing or questioning a decision of the Student Government now or at any future time.

The procedure to be used is: the appeal shall file with the Chairman of the Court a written summary containing the argumention that they desire the Court of Appeals to consider. The Court of will consider the argument and after reviewing the decision of the Government may call before the Court.

The Court's decision in all cases shall be rendered by a majority of the Court. The Court may consider the matter in the same case, including the minutes of the Student Government, or answer the question and the reasons for its decision.

The Court of Appeals will then examine both summaries and decisions, and if in the opinion of the Court an argumentation is deemed necessary, the Court will render a decision on the report submitted. If further investigation is necessary, the appeal shall be referred to the Court of Appeals. If the matter is not found ready for consideration, the Court may call before the Court. The Court's decision in all cases shall be rendered by a majority of the Court. The Court may consider the matter in the same case, including the minutes of the Student Government, or answer the question and the reasons for its decision.

The Court of Appeals will then examine both summaries and decisions, and if in the opinion of the Court an argumentation is deemed necessary, the Court will render a decision on the report submitted. If further investigation is necessary, the appeal shall be referred to the Court of Appeals. If the matter is not found ready for consideration, the Court may call before the Court. The Court's decision in all cases shall be rendered by a majority of the Court. The Court may consider the matter in the same case, including the minutes of the Student Government, or answer the question and the reasons for its decision.

ATHLETIC WEEK

Havira Earns Award on Triple Wins, Shows Ability in Water Sports

Corl "Hummer" Havira receives this week's Athlete award for his outstanding performance in the events that brought him individual medley, 200 yard butterfly, and the 200 yard breaststroke. In the East Stroudsburg meet, Havira placed 1st in the breaststroke, and 2nd in the 200 and 200 medley. At the West Virginia meet, "the Hummer" took home 2nd place in the 200 medley, 200 yard butterfly, and 200 yard breaststroke.

A veteran on the swimming team since the sport was reorganized, Havira was chosen this week's athlete here at Wilkes three years ago. Carl is captain of this year's team. No one doubts Carl's commitment, and Carl performed just as well on his high school team at Gravina College, where he was captain of the squad in his senior year. While at Gravina, he was also on the baseball and soccer teams.

A secondary education major, Carl has been a four-year letterman on the soccer team, of which he was co-captain last year. Although a majority of the soccer and swimming teams' victories came in his final year, Carl was a consistent performer in his activities, being vice-president of the Letterman's Club in his junior year.

EVALUATION TEAM

Judy Miller, chairman of the monitor's few days can be of enduring benefit to all concerned.

It was also stated that the self-evaluation report of Wilkes College has now been completed and will be presented to the faculty.

Since the students are the experts on this, the groundwork for the report was carried out during the first part of the study, attempts will be made through subsequent news stories in the Wilkes News and other devices to pass on all information which is vital and pertinent.

Tuesday at 11, a group of students will meet with the evaluators to assist them in their work. The students will see the report written by their representatives on them.

The Hot Rods racked up their second win of the season by defeating the Eagles, 65-50. Bob Oakes, former Kingston star, led the 100-2 go-ahead with 14 and Jenkins with 10 high for the losers.

Campus Delegates Debate Issues; Represent Ghana at Canadian MGA

The successful chapter of the CCN's recently presented the notion of Ghana at the Canadian and Northern States Model General Assembly in Montreal, Canada. In the General Assembly, Ghana's student delegation, made up of the choice of their body, positions on various issues: the admission of Red China to the U.N. and the peaceful uses of outer space.

Several resolutions were passed on both items. Several other resolutions introduced, but were not debated because of lack of time. The questions were: the nuclear-testing in the States, which was sponsored by the Wilkes chapter; the Algerian question; and the International Court of Justice from.

From the General Assembly, the delegates moved to a model Security Council where they debated the question of a permanent peace force. Then a model Economics and Social Council concluded the resolutions into a permanent food bank for underdeveloped nations.

Two panel debates were held on the subjects of disarmament and reeducation. The discussions were led by a group of experts after which the student delegates presented their views in small workshops.

It was not work during the four days of activities. The delegates attended a reception held by the Montclair Art Museum and a banquet supper. The principal speaker at the banquet supper was a former Canadian ambassador to Lebanon and presently head of the International Negotiations Commission. The climax of the four days was a gala International Dinner which the Wilkes delegates to the United Nations were Evelyn Goldsmith, Grace Dennis, Peggy Churchhill, Gary Delohe, and Buzz Lewis.

WILKES-BLOOMSBURG BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Wilkes and Bloomsburg College will meet in the fourth of a series of intercollegiate match game bowling contests Sunday. The teams will be on allies 7 and 8, Jimmy's Central Lanes, at 1 p.m.

Last Sunday, Wilkes defeated the University of Bloomsburg, 2852 to 2562. Fred Jacoby, 555, and Dan Davis, 218, were the high men. Dick Myers hit 541, Emil Paterso, 530 and Bill Watkins led his team to the locals' second win against one defeat.

ACCREDITING NOTICE

The Accrediting Committee from the Middle Atlantic States Association met at the Four Seasons Hotel in Philadelphia and approved the inclusion of the Wilkes College chapter in the Mid-Atlantic States Association. The chapter will be entitled to receive the benefit of any action of the Association.

The chapter's report will be included in the local conference program.

Women's Bowling

Meet on Sunday as she led the above marked magazines.

The Women's Bowling team, led by Joyce Wilkes, won 65-50. Bob Oakes, former Kingston star, led the 100-2 go-ahead with 14 and Jenkins with 10 high for the losers.
