

United Fund Appeals To Students

Fulbright Aid for Graduate Study; Seniors Must Meet Nov. 1 Deadline

Only two months remain to apply for some 900 Fulbright scholarships for study or research in 28 countries, the Institute of International Education reminded prospective applicants today. Applications are being accepted until November 1.

Inter-American Cultural Convention awards for study in 17 Latin American countries have the same filing deadline.

Recipients of Fulbright awards for study in Europe, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific area will receive tuition, maintenance and round-trip travel. IACC scholarships cover transportation, tuition, and partial maintenance costs. IIE administers both of these student programs for the U. S. Department of State.

General eligibility requirements for both categories of awards are: 1) U. S. citizenship at time of application; 2) a bachelor's degree or its equivalent by 1960; 3) knowledge of the language of the host country; and 4) good health. A demonstrated capacity for independent study and a good academic record are also necessary. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age who have not previously lived or studied abroad.

Applicants will be required to submit a plan of proposed study that can be carried out profitably within the year abroad. Successful candidates are required to be affiliated with approved institutions of higher learning abroad.

Information concerning the Fulbright scholarship may be obtained in Mr. Chwalek's office in the new placement building which is the former McClintock law office next to McClintock Hall. Students may also write to the Information and Counseling Division, Institute of International Education, 1 East 67th Street, New York 21, N.Y.

Competitions for the 1960-61 academic year close November 1, 1959. Requests for application forms must be postmarked before October 15. Completed applications must be submitted by November 1.

Danforth Fellow Applications Available at Placement Office

by Robert Bearley

Applications are now being taken by Mr. Chwalek for fellowships from the Danforth Graduate Foundation. The three major qualifications are: outstanding academic ability; personality contributing to a constructive, creative effort in the classroom; and a sound character. All candidates must be less than thirty years of age.

Seniors planning on military service before their graduate study are invited to apply. If appointed, they may become a Danforth Fellow in military service until they are ready for graduate work.

Candidates are urged to take the Graduate Records Examinations on November 21, 1959, or January 16, 1960. The Advisory Council of Danforth Fellowships normally requires the scores of these exams for all men appointed Danforth Fellows.

The Danforth Foundation, Inc., is located in St. Louis, Mo.; it was founded in 1927 by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Danforth. This fellowship may be held concurrently with other scholarships such as Rhodes, Woodrow Wilson, Fulbright or others, with the exception of the Southern and Kent Fellowships.

The following was quoted from the bulletin: Danforth Graduate Fellowships: Some Questions and Answers: "This appointment may or may not carry the promise of financial aid, according to the need of the applicant. The word 'fellowship' is capable of two meanings: a financial stipend, and a mutuality of interest. This program does not exclude the former; it endeavors, however, to establish a 'relationship of encouragement' which shall help those who receive the appointment to become the most competent teachers they have it within them to be."

All applications must be made through the Liaison officer, Mr. Chwalek.

C'n'C Drama Schedule Reveals Three-Phases

Theater Group Seeks To Create Cultural Center. Work with Local Artists

by Marilyn Krackenfels

This year the dramatic society, Cue 'n' Curtain, plans to present three phases of theater: the Elizabethan, the Contemporary, and the Experimental. One of these presentations will be staged at Mansfield State Teachers College as part of an exchange program with that college. This will take place on November 3rd.

Local productions this season will be on a smaller scale than last, and will be strictly on campus. The first is scheduled for the middle of November, approximately.

An attempt is being made to make Cue 'n' Curtain and Chase Theater the cultural center of the college. The club plans to solicit aid from such organizations as the Wilkes-Barre Ballet, Little Theater, and the Wilkes Art and Music Departments in order to achieve this end. These groups will put on various cultural displays and exhibits.

Officers of the club are: Robert S. Evans, president; Gene Stieckler, vice-president; and Virginia Lyons, treasurer. The vacant positions of secretary and historian will be filled by election.

Jan Cornell Director Of Girls' Choral Group

Rehearsing for Holiday Schedule of Concerts; Invite New Members

by Lee Baiera

This year's Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Jan Cornell, is comprised of forty-five members. This is the largest enrollment that the club has had since it was organized four years ago.

Miss Cornell, a senior Music Education major, has an extensive background in music. She was accompanist for "Bob Moran and his Ivy Leaguers," for two Little Theater productions, "Kiss Me Kate" and "Pajama Game," and for "Annie Get Your Gun," a Wilkes musical production. She also plays French horn in the Wilkes Band. Assisting Miss Cornell is Miss Nancy Payne, accompanist for the group.

Miss Cornell has planned several programs for the holidays. The girls are rehearsing selections from "My Fair Lady," a contemporary work, "Clouds," and "Adoramus Te," by Palestrina.

The Girls' Chorus is managed and directed by students and has acquired a large repertoire. Rehearsals are held on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday at Noon in Gies Hall.

Everyone is invited to participate in this fast-growing organization which entertains at teas, assembly programs, and community affairs.

Jaycees Plan Dinner - Meeting

Fifth Year Celebration To Laud Past Presidents; Dr. Mailey Guest Speaker

by Jean Shofranko

Paul Klein, rotating chairman, has announced that Dr. Hugo V. Mailey, chairman of the Political Science Department, will be guest speaker. Dr. Mailey will discuss the results of a consolidation opinion survey conducted on campus last May by the Jaycees, under the direction of the Institute of Municipal Government.

An official Wilkes Jaycee flag to be used at all affairs will be installed at this meeting as part of the anniversary celebration.

Honored guests will be past presidents Reese Jones, 1956 graduate and founder of the first Jaycee division at Wilkes; Eugene Roth, 1957 graduate; Daniel Falkowitz, 1958 graduate; Myron Suseck, 1959 graduate; George Russet, president of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce; and William Strey, past president of the Wilkes-Barre Jaycees.

The following are heads of the dinner committees: Mike Evanko, dinner; George Reynolds, awards; John Matthey, publicity; Fred Pello, menu and tickets; Al Jones, chaplain; Richard Salus and Paul Klein, guests.

The Wilkes Division of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Jaycees is the only collegiate division in the United States. It is recognized nationally and internationally.

Bill Davis, Student Leader, Urges Co-operation; Dr. Reif Estimates '59 Goal at $1500

by Lou Bierly

The time has come once more for the United Fund to appeal to area citizens for funds. The money collected will be used to sustain 52 health and welfare organizations in Wyoming Valley. All college students are urged to contribute.

William Davis

For the fifth consecutive year, Dr. Charles Reif, head of the Wilkes Biology Department, has been chosen to lead the Wilkes College campaign.

Dr. Reif emphasizes that this year's campaign is a most critical one. Because of the failure of some subscribers to live up to their promises, the United Fund budget had to be decreased by 10 per cent last year. The differences must be made up this year.

Gordon E. Roberts, present head of Student Government, was the student campus leader in the Wilkes United Fund campaign last year. Dr. Reif wants everyone to know that Roberts did a fine job.

However, King's College has bettered our efforts for the last two years with their especially fine response to the Fund appeal. Undoubtedly William Davis, this year's student campaign leader, will call upon all to at least equal our neighbor's efforts.

Theta Delta Rho Calendar Features Many Events Highlighted by Bake Sale

by Cynthia Hagley

The first meeting of Theta Delta Rho was held on Monday night at 7:30 in McClintock Hall. Beverly Butler, president, presided. She was assisted by Martha Menegus, vice-president, Moncey Miller, treasurer, and Carol Thomas, secretary.

The prospective plans for this year were discussed at this meeting. The new agenda includes a bake sale at the Penna. Power and Light Company in the near future. Chairman of this charity fund-raising project is Jane Neddoff.

It was also announced that the T.D.R. stationery, which sold for $1.25 last year, will be sold at $1.00 now. Theta Delta Rho has plans to obtain a table in the cafeteria to put this stationery on exhibition.

Starting Monday, the girls of T.D.R. can order their sweatshirts and pins from Carol Thomas. All orders must have a minimum of $1.00 deposit included.

The T.D.R. display at Homecoming will be set up in front of the Bookstore. Chairman for the Homecoming committee for Theta Delta Rho this year is Ruth Borum. She will be assisted by Nancy Tinklepaugh and Andrea Crease. Any other members of T.D.R. who wish to aid in the Homecoming projects can see these girls. Shakers and chrysanthemums will be sold at the game.

At Monday's meeting, Miss Zoolkoski, the new women's gym instructor, explained the plans for the flash card section to Theta Delta Rho members. The cards will be completed at the next T.D.R. meeting.

Also on the agenda for the next meeting is initiation. All registered members of the sorority are asked to be present at this ceremony.

The United Fund campaign kickoff on campus this year will be initiated by a dance to be organized by the Freshman Class and staged at the Wilkes gymnasium on Friday, October 9.

Dr. Reif estimates that the Wilkes student body goal this year will be approximately $1500. He suggests that this goal may easily be achieved if each student will spare $1.00 for the fund and help by supporting the United Fund Dance and voting for club contributions.

The United Fund is an efficient method of collecting and distributing money for the many health and welfare organizations it represents. Only one campaign is necessary for all 52 organizations. The organizations represented may be classified in four groups:

Health Agencies: such as our hospitals, associations for the deaf and blind, Visiting Nurses Associations and others.

Family and Child Agencies: such as the Salvation Army, Family Service Associations, Catholic Charities, Jewish Welfare Agency, Legal Aid Society, etc.

National and State Agencies: such as the local Red Cross, Pennsylvania United Fund, Pennsylvania Mental Health, Inc., Pennsylvania Welfare Forum, U.S.O., etc.

Youth and Recreation activities: such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Catholic Youth Center, Jewish Youth Center, YMCA, YWCA, etc.

All the United Fund organizations do whatever they can to help themselves. They are not entirely dependent upon United Fund contributions. For instance, the Girl Scouts sell cookies, the hospitals charge those who are able to pay room rent, and so forth. However, many of the services that one might require are made less expensive because of United Fund support, and United Fund money helps to make up the deficits.

EDITORIALS —

Happy Birthday!

Looks like the little birdie who keeps us up to date on campus doings failed to leave his nest last week. We overlooked the birthday of our President, Dr. Eugene S. Farley.

The birthday was Tuesday and our "birdie" dropped the nugget of information that evening while the Beacon staff was in the process of preparing this week's issue. Let us hasten to correct this unintentional oversight; permit us to extend our heartiest best wishes to the "Great White Father."

For over two decades, Dr. Farley has been the guiding hand of the College in its progress from a rented-office junior college to its present position of one of the most highly regarded small Liberal Arts colleges in the country.

The entire Beacon staff joins the students, faculty and administration in the sincere hope for many more happy, fruitful and productive years for a devoted community leader.

Stop, Look, Listen

On the same day we discovered the above intelligence, we were disturbed to notice that an old problem has reared its ugly head once more. After Tuesday's superb assembly program, the hungry crowd surged into South Franklin Street with careless abandon, nearly upended a somewhat non-plussed traffic policeman, and, blithely risking life and limb, blocked cars and pedestrians, ignored red lights, in general made the area a somewhat dangerous place to be found.

Anyone not wishing to walk the sidewalks in the general direction of the Commons was hard put to make his way against the stampede.

We realize fully that there was no deliberate malice motivating that mob scene, but feel strongly that a little common sense and common courtesy can make the lot of our neighbors a somewhat happier one.

Besides the obvious discourtesy this behavior reveals, there is a factor of safety to be considered. As motorists, most of us have been in situations where pedestrians have interfered with our right of way. Then, with annoyance and chagrin, we have stewed and fretted while allowing the obstruction to run its course.

There is little doubt that the motorists on Franklin Street Tuesday morning experienced the same frustration. Students, particularly those who drive, would do well to remember that when they leave their cars they become pedestrians themselves and should extend to drivers the same considerations they expect when driving.

To quote a well-worn phrase, "Safety costs nothing; use it freely."

What Is a Newspaper?

Somewhere around the beginning of the school year, it would be advisable for an organization such as this paper to make a general statement of its intentions and its policy.

Perhaps our aims can be summed up best by answering the question: What is a newspaper?

We have borrowed the answer from some now-forgotten source, not our own original writing, but adequate for our purposes:

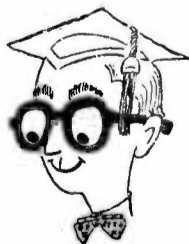

A newspaper is a disseminator of happenings, an advertising medium for businesses. It is both of these, plus a number of things; but above all it is a free voice.

People may disagree as to what a paper should do, but most will agree that a paper must be free. No one denies that freedom can be abused; nevertheless, freedom must be qualified, when necessary, by truth, decency and high ideals.

In the pursuit of noble goals we are not infallible. When commenting editorially we believe we are right. And because we are free to voice our opinions, this same freedom which applies also to our readers, who are always free to arrive at their own opinions.

Journalistic freedom on the campus means a newspaper with an opinion, a living newspaper. Not a tool for a few, but a mirror for all; an independent voice reaching out to everyone. When we fail to achieve these goals, it is the right and duty of our readers to tell us so. We expect no praise and welcome criticism. We know no other way to improve ourselves.

Literary Competition
Set by Poetry Assoc.

The National Poetry Association recently announced the closing date for submissions to its annual competition as November 5.

The Anthology will print the works of any college student. No limitation is listed for form or theme, but short works are preferred by the Board of Judges because of space limitations.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet and must bear the name and the home address of the student, as well as the name of the college attended.

Teachers' Anthology

The Association also publishes an anthology of verse submitted by college teachers and librarians. The closing date for judging of this material is January 1, 1960.

There are no fees or charges for acceptance or submission of manuscripts to either anthology. All work will be judged on merit alone.

Manuscripts should be sent to:

NEXT ASSEMBLY

by Cynthia Hagley

Next Tuesday, the assembly program will be directed by the Wilkes Cheerleaders.

Included in this program will be a short comedy skit presented by a group of freshmen. They will typify some members of the PMC football team and cheering section.

A new project among the student fans this year is a flash card section. Most of the work on this novelty was done by cheerleaders with the help of Theta Delta Rho. It is hoped that the flash card section will be ready for an exhibition at this assembly program.

The band will back up the cheerleaders as they lead the assembled students in some college cheers. Mr. Pinkowski will be there to say a few words to the students about the forthcoming game and the rest of this year's football season.

The Campus Observer

Last week, dormitory students, the campus, and the college in general were aroused from sleep when an automobile going down South River Street collided with two student-owned vehicles parked on that thoroughfare. Extensive damage was caused to all three of the vehicles. Students flocked to the scene, which was directly across from Butler Hall.

A telephone call was made to the police, who dispatched a cruiser to investigate. At the time of its arrival, a crowd had formed on both sides of the street. Traffic flow was maintained by students armed with flashlights.

The task was well handled, with one exception. Crowds formed at the scene of the accident might have led to causing multiple accidents. Although none occurred, there were several "close calls." Let us be more sensible and thoughtful in the future.

INITIATION VS. HAZING

Freshman Initiation is an old and purposeful custom. It brings the freshman into the group, giving him a greater sense of belonging. Hazing is an entirely different situation. Hazing is banned, and is strictly against all rules.

Banned, illegal, sometimes brutal, it continues. It is a ridiculous, unreasonable practice. For example, how would you like to have your head shaved into the shape of a "W"? Funny? Not very.

This does not show college intelligence; it shows the lack of intelligence at all. The wearing of lipstick and earrings by male freshmen is another of these foolish and idiotic attempts at humor. Disciplinary measures should be taken to curb these infantile displays.

A STEP FURTHER

A system for giving demerits to freshmen has been devised. This system provides that an upperclassman may give a freshman demerits if he refuses to obey the "commands" of the upperclassman. An amendment to this system could include giving merits to freshmen for a "good performance." Every time a freshman does something wrong, he has five upperclassmen on his neck; yet, he never gets a thank-you or even a friendly smile when he does something right. A little appreciation would go a long way toward improving the present situation.

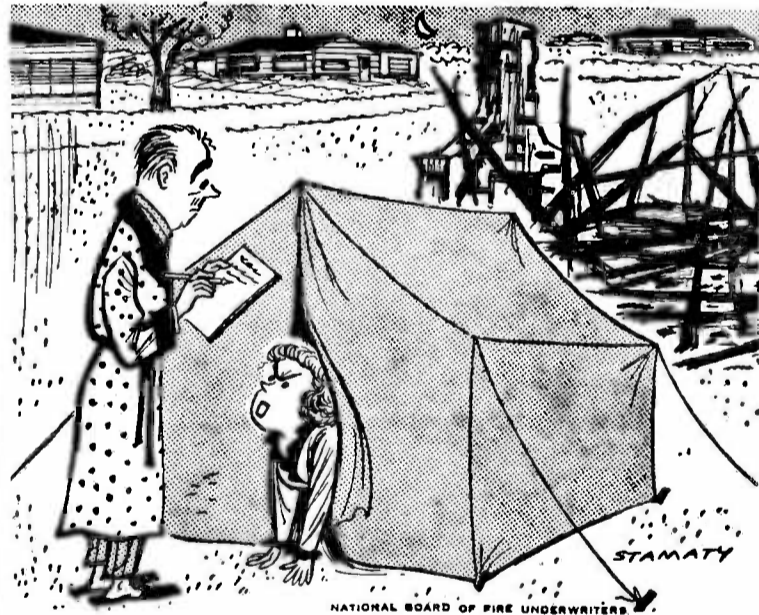

LET'S HONOR THE "W"

Several students have been seen wearing sweaters adorned with letters won at other institutions. This custom is strictly forbidden, and is stated as such on page 45 of the Student Handbook. The situation may be remedied by removing the letter, then wearing the sweater.

This is the first in a series of these columns. Letters pro and con may be addressed to the "Campus Observer," care of the Beacon.

Yours truly,

Moravian Plans Satellite Offense

Lockerroom Chatter

By RAY YANCHUS, Sports Editor

THANK YOU DR. GRIFFITH

Special thanks are in order this week to an unselfish professional man who has entered upon the Wilkes College athletic scene, namely one Dr. B. Franklin Griffith of Kingston. Following the departure of Dr. Doane, who served the athletic teams for the past few years, Dr. Griffith graciously offered his services to the athletic program with no expected rebate in any form. The good doctor will be present at all Wilkes athletic events starting with football and carrying on to the Spring sports. Dr. Griffith will also accompany the football team on its away trips, being ever-present in case his services are needed.

Dr. Griffith presently is on the staff of the Veterans Hospital serving in the capacity of a bone specialist. He previously practiced in Kingston, and now resides on Rutter Avenue in that borough. Each summer Dr. Griffith donates his services to the Boy Scouts at Camp Acahela and also offers himself to other worthy organizations free of charge. The Wilkes College athletes eagerly extend their gratitude for the services already rendered and also for the coming aid that they will be receiving from one who serves so diligently.

STRALKA HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Big Joe Stralka, stalwart of the Colonels' line, escaped with minor injuries this past week when he was involved in an automobile accident. Joe was thrown out of his auto and taken to Nanticoke State Hospital where he was kept for observation and X-rays before being released. Joe will be out of the lineup this week but expects to return to action for the next contest.

Injuries are again hitting the football team this season. Ends Ray Marchakaitus and Ed Gavel were hobbling during the week as a result of ankle injuries received in last Saturday's contest, while freshman quarterback Bill Schutter sustained another ankle injury in scrimmage on Tuesday. The coaches and their teammates are hoping to see all three players in uniform for tomorrow's game.

JOE MORGAN BECOMES DADDY

It was a girl for Joe Morgan, soccer team co-captain and prominent member of the wrestling squad, and the former Wilkes coed Audrey Huntzinger. The new arrival entered the Morgan household last week and will be named Kimberly Ann. Joe claims she's headed for soccer fame as she kicked three goals past George "Pappy" Gacha in scrimmage on Saturday.

Booters Meet Stevens Away Next Wednesday, Seek to Avenge Defeat

by Don Hancock

Next Wednesday, October 7, the Wilkes soccer team opens its 1959 schedule with a match against Stevens Institute of Technology at Hoboken, New Jersey.

The record of the Wilkes booters against Stevens over only two seasons of play is one tie and one loss. The 2-0 loss was handed the Colonels last year in a contest in which Stevens was outplayed but nevertheless came up with a victory. Another particularly unpleasant thing about this game lies in the fact that Wilkes was the only opponent Stevens managed to defeat on the soccer field, having lost all nine other matches.

Despite the great loss of lettermen to the team through graduation, Coach Jim Ferris has a nucleus of five returning lettermen, a flock of newcomers, both frosh and upperclassmen, and returning upperclassmen with which to build a team. He is pleased with the grand total of twenty-four who have turned out for practice and has expressed an optimistic outlook for the season.

Because of the fact that most of the starting positions have yet to be filled, he was understandably hesitant about listing a starting lineup. However, five of the starting positions are certain as to who will fill them on Wednesday. Co-captains Joe Morgan and Carl Havira, Lou Davis, Bob Chew, and Lou Zweibel are the five returning lettermen who, barring injuries and

Greyhounds Use "Stray Hound" With Space-age Gridiron Attack; Wilkes Prepares for Countdown

The Moravian Greyhounds, sporting a new "satellite offense," come to Kingston Stadium tomorrow to battle the Colonels at 2 p.m.

They call it space-age football and the "stray hound;" but actually its a replica of Army's famed "lonesome end," only sometimes the Greyhounds use an end and other times a halfback at the "B-O" Spot.

other such circumstances, will be in the lineup. The remainder of the positions will be filled by the more promising freshmen and upperclassmen among which are Charles Billings, Chuck Weiss, Jim Neddoff, Chuck Freed, and George Gacha.

The upperclassmen who are trying their hands for the first time at soccer are George Gacha, of basketball renown, and Ted Toluba, who went undefeated and untied on last year's wrestling team. Gacha and Freed are contenders for the position of goalie, which was made vacant by the graduation of Bob Payne, while Toluba is busily learning the ways and means of a fullback.

As soccer is a relatively unknown sport to many at Wilkes, the three home games will prove ample opportunity for all to get to see a match. Wilkes finished second in the Middle Atlantic Conference last season and despite the heavy loss through graduation is most definitely not to be written off as a team not to be reckoned with. The soccer team, as well as the football team and any other campus activity needs your support.

Coach Rocco Calvo will present a squad of 31 men to the Wilkes fans, the smallest turnout the Greyhounds have had in many a year.

Key men in the new attack will probably be last year's leading pass receiver, John Olson, and Bill Hershey, fleet halfback who will spell Olson at the "stray hound" position.

Coach Calvo also looks for great things from sophomore quarterback Russ DeVore, and former Wyoming Seminary athlete John Williams of Bangor, Pa.

The Greyhounds have 12 lettermen on the squad and will depend on aid in the weak spots from eight or nine promising freshmen.

Last year Moravian defeated the Colonels at Bethlehem by the score of 30-8.

Lebanon Valley 13, Wilkes 0
Last Saturday the Blue and Gold of Wilkes met defeat in their home opener at the hands of the Lebanon Valley Flying Dutchmen, 13-0.

Unable to capitalize on two recovered fumbles deep in Lebanon Valley territory, the Wilkesmen in turn fumbled the pigskin back to the Dutchmen.

A short time later another scoring opportunity went by the boards when the Colonels were stopped on the LV 18 by a long penalty that nullified a first-down pass play.

The Wilkes line played a fine defensive game and continually forced the Dutchmen into third down, long yardage situations, only to have the Valley pass play kick and the Dutchmen continue on their way.

Coach Pinkowski lauded the line-play of tackle Jerry Loewen (see Athlete of the Week), as Loewen proved to be a thorn in the side of Lebanon Valley all afternoon. Loewen played most of the game over the giant man of the Dutchmen, 325-pound Ken Longenecker, but this never bothered him as he pushed the big man completely out of the picture.

Another bright spot in the Colonel lineup was freshman Tony Amato, who quick-kicked twice from a running position for tremendous yardage and an average of 42 yards per kick.

The Colonels have been working hard this week ironing out the mistakes that proved costly on Saturday and preparing for the "satellite offense."

Injuries which hampered the Blue and Gold all last season are again taking their toll, but Coach Pinkowski is hoping to field a ready and able crew come Saturday.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Loewen Gains Nod For Bruising Play

by George Tensa

Jerry Loewen's outstanding action in the Lebanon Valley game earns him this week's Beacon Award. Sixty-minute man Loewen combined rugged line play and fine punting to capture this week's honors.

Additional laurels were reaped by Jerry as word was received that he was given honorable mention on the All-East E.C.A.C. squad chosen for last Saturday.

Jerry did most of the punting for the Colonels and continually placed the Flying Dutchmen deep in their own territory with tremendous kicks. His average for the contest added up to a neat 31.4 per boot.

The big tackle, who stands 6 feet, one inch and tips the scales at 220 pounds, proved to be the mainstay of the Colonel line. His aggressive-ness and defensive prowess resulted in Lebanon Valley attempting to run the other side of the Blue and Gold line.

Jerry was also a standout on the line when the Colonels put together their many threats. He also had the hole ready for the backfield to "eat up" yardage and then was found downfield getting rid of the defensive halfback.

A product of Meyers High School, Jerry lettered in football and basketball and earned a berth on the All-East squad for the UNICO game. Now a sophomore, Jerry is working toward a B.S. degree in Economics.

WRESTLING MEETING NOTICE
There will be an organizational meeting of the wrestling team this Monday at 4 p.m. at the gymnasium. Coach Reese would like to meet with all members of last year's squad and anyone interested in participating in wrestling this coming season.
This is an organizational get-together and not a practice session. Practice will start November 1.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL NOTICE
Mr. Reese, Director of Athletics, has issued a final call for team rosters for intramural six-man touch football.
Team captains are requested to get their rosters in early next week so the league schedule can be drawn up.

Chapman and Hollenback Halls Increase Dormitory Facilities

Wilkes has two new dormitories this semester. Hollenback Hall, formerly the college guidance center, has been remodeled into a men's dorm; and Isaac Chapman Hall, a building formerly owned by the Glen Alden Coal Company, is now a women's dormitory.

Hollenback Hall is located on the east side of South Franklin Street, directly across from the Christian Science building. The building is still in the process of being remodeled — showers have yet to be installed — but it is a fine building with a most attractive interior, and the men who live there feel they occupy the finest dormitory on campus.

Mr. Fritz Flower is proctor of the new men's dorm. Mr. Flower is an instructor in the Commerce and Finance department. He did his undergraduate work at Grove City, Pa., and his graduate work in retailing at the University of Pittsburgh. Mr. Flower was employed by Wanamaker's of Philadelphia before coming to Wilkes.

Hollenback Hall houses sixteen men, fifteen of whom are transfer students or freshmen. Kirho Bai, a student from Korea, is the only man in the building who was at Wilkes last term. There are two other foreign students at Hollenback, Rudolph Schoenfeld from Bolivia, and Kambiz Yadegar from Iran.

Kirho Bai is also president of the dormitory. Secretary is Steve Schwartz, and treasurer, Wayne Smith. The inter-dormitory council representatives are Richard Lewin and Dave Gottchald.

Chapman Hall

Chapman Hall is a three-story building located on South River Street, next to Parrish Hall. Before being acquired by Wilkes, the building was a private dwelling. Chapman has been entirely refurbished, with piled carpeting in all downstairs rooms.

The women living in the new dormitory enjoy the convenience of a kitchenette, complete with an electric refrigerator and gas range, and the luxury of a 24-inch television set (in lieu of a piano). In spite of all these modern conveniences, the women of Chapman are unhappy. They have no telephone! They will have one in a short time, however, along with a soft drink machine.

Mrs. Margaret Barber is house mother to the women at Chapman Hall. The resident women say that whether they go to her with their problems or just for a little chat, they enjoy talking with their house mother. Mrs. Barber is a native of West Pittston.

There are sixteen women living in Chapman, six upperclassmen and ten freshmen. The freshmen report that the upperclassmen, two of whom are transfer students, are quite fair about hazing — that is, they don't ask the frosh to do too many ridiculous things.

President of the dorm is Doris Gademán; Janice Bronson is vice-president. Pat Lutz and Ginny Lyons are treasurer and social secretary, respectively. Representing Chapman Hall on the inter-dormitory council is Doris Gademán. Jan Bronson and Carol Tangorra serve on the school spirit committee.

The ninth annual Town and Gown Concert Series, sponsored by the Wilkes College Music Department, will commence next Sunday, October 4, at 3:30 in the gymnasium, South Franklin Street. The initial program will consist of a Baroque Sonata Recital.

Stockade Theft! Revolt Flares Up During 1st Week

Tribunal Hits Cooperation, Frosh, Upperclassmen All Lax in Compliance

by Steve Cooney

Freshman hazing got underway officially this week with the advent of daily tribunal meetings in the gym.

Events were running smoothly until several frosh absconded from the front of Gore Hall. Hazing co-chairman Bob Washburn warned the freshmen that hazing would be extended indefinitely if the stockade is not returned this week.

The tribunals are held every day at 12:15 in the gym, and all frosh are required to attend. The tribunal committee has received information that not all freshmen are attending these meetings. Also there are a large number of freshmen who have not been wearing their dinks and regulation ties.

The names of many of these frosh have been turned in to the committee and they will be dealt with severely if they do not begin co-operating with the hazing program.

The tribunal committee is also dismayed at the poor co-operation of the upperclassmen in the hazing program. Most of the frosh, especially the day students, are being permitted to roam about the campus freely with no form of hazing being administered by the upperclassmen.

Solar Devices Explained At Chem Society Meeting; Bastress, Bohning Attend

Two members of the chemistry department and their wives attended a meeting of the Lehigh Valley Section of the American Chemistry Society last Friday. Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Bastress and Mr. and Mrs. James Bohning attended the meeting which was held at Falmerton.

The speaker was Kenneth D. Smith, a member of the technical staff of the Bell Telephone Laboratories. He spoke on the development of silicon p-n junction devices, more popularly known as solar devices, used for direct conversion of solar energy into electricity.

Among other uses, solar energy cells are used in man-made satellites. Present fabrication technology restricts these devices to special applications where cost is not a controlling factor.

Roberts Heads Students' Work

'Beacon' to Operate Poll to Choose Queen; Nominations by Letter by Jean Shofranko

Final plans for the 1959 edition of Alumni Homecoming are well underway, according to Gordon Roberts, student chairman and president of the Student Government. The events of October 23 and 24 are the result of months of planning and arranging by student and alumni committees.

Russell Picton, Executive Secretary, has announced that all clubs and organizations who are planning displays must contact either Allyn Jones or the Alumni Department to make arrangements for sites of displays. Since all displays must be stationary, no pageant scenes will be eligible.

This year four trophies for prize-winning displays will be awarded. The rotating trophy which is awarded for the best display on campus is retired to the organization which wins it three years consecutively. Other awards go to the best display by women's dormitories and Theta Delta Rho, men's dormitories, clubs, and classes, and the best decorated automobile in the car caravan.

The Homecoming Queen and her court will be chosen from a list of nominees submitted to the Beacon by the student body. Nominations will be accepted next week, and details will be furnished in future issues of the Beacon. All senior girls and senior terminal students are eligible.
