

Two Choruses Combine In Welsh Eisteddfod At Edwardsville Church

The Girls' Chorus and the Collegians will join forces tomorrow evening when they enter the 71st "Cynonfardd" Eisteddfod competition at Dr. Edwards Memorial Congregation Church, Edwardsville.

The Eisteddfod, traditional Welsh talent festival, features all-day competition in music and recitation. The final event, the choral competition, is the highlight of the day's activity.

Last year the two choruses combined to sing the prize song, "The Heavens Are Telling." Their performance was widely acclaimed by the spectators and the adjudicators of the competition awarded the Wilkes group the first prize of $250.

The choruses will be conducted in competition by Bill Peters, Collegians' director. Janet Cornell will accompany the group at the piano.

This year the song for choruses will be "And The Glory of the Lord," from Handel's Messiah. The choruses entered all sing the same number, then the judges comment on each performance before announcing the winners. The prize awarded depends upon the number of groups entered. If one chorus enters, the prize is $150, two choruses boost the value to $200, and three or more, $250.

Seniors Try Again, Dinner-Dance Slated For Legion Home Tonite

by Steve Cooney

The Senior Class will try again to have a dinner-dance this evening at the American Legion Home in Wilkes-Barre.

Last Friday's scheduled affair was cancelled by the huge snow-storm that covered the valley making travelling conditions to the city almost impossible.

John Mulhall, president of the class, announced that anyone who

Louie Day Wednesday; Jazz Concert Tickets In Stores and on Campus

by Fred Jacoby

Wednesday is the kickoff day of the Louis Armstrong campaign. At this time all tickets will have been given out to all Valley and neighboring colleges. Tickets are also being placed in various stores and agencies in Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, and all surrounding towns. Students are requested to purchase their tickets early, because a limited number will be sold on campus. The tickets will sell for $2.00 each and can be purchased in Chase Theater, or from a member of the Junior Class.

The campus publicity committee headed by Vince Capo has planned some surprise publicity for the campus to make this publicity day a success.

All persons who signed up to sell tickets and any other interested persons can pick up their tickets Tuesday or Wednesday in Chase Theater between 11 and 2 o'clock.

NOTICE 'BEACON' REPORTERS

The Assignment Sheet for next week's issue is now posted. All reporters are asked to start their assignments promptly so that stories may be edited and processed as soon as possible Tuesday. The assignments will be posted Wednesdays for the rest of the year, allowing more time for better research and better writing.

purchased a ticket to the affair and can not attend this evening will have his money refunded. He also mentioned that no tickets will be sold at the door.

Other details of the dinner-dance will remain the same. Dinner will be at seven with dancing until midnight to the music of the Statesmen. Dr. Riley will speak on love and marriage, and the campus comedy team of Nork and Cardone will entertain. In the event of postponement the turkeys and lobsters will again be put back into the freezer.

"ALL-EAST" HONORS

ECAC Names Radecki as Member Of 1960 All-Star Basketball Team

Bernie Radecki, senior co-captain of the basketball team and three-time winner of the Beacon Athlete of the Week award this year, has been named to the Eastern College Athletic Conference's All-East small college team for 1960.

The final selection of the ten-man squad was made by the ECAC Service Bureau after weekly nominations throughout the season.

"Ducky" Potter of Moravian was the lone repeater from last year's team and was the leader in weekly balloting along with Bob Brandes of Upsala. Both men were nominated six times.

Radecki has been an outstanding performer on the Wilkes basketball team for the past four years, tallying over 1,000 points in his career and was named the outstanding player on the squad during last season's campaign.

Radecki scored 340 points this year and finished with a 16.2 average to place second in team scoring to George Gacha. He was chosen as a member of the ECAC All-Star team once during the season and was nominated for his team's play on two other occasions.

Engineers Salute Irish At 'Sham-Rock' Tonight; Schedule Field Trip

by Gloria Zaludek

"Sure and bring your shillelagh to the St. Swithin's Day dance tonight. Faith and if the gym won't be decked out in its finery, ready for the wearin' o' the green. The Rhythm Aces will bid a top o' the evening to the lands and lassies by furnishing the dance music for 'The Sham-Rock'!"

The shenanigans of Nork and Cardone will highlight the intermission entertainment for this Engineering Club-sponsored dance, which will last from nine to twelve.

Members of the club are planning a field trip to Williamsport, where they will tour Piper Aircraft and the Sylvania Corporation during the Easter vacation. The club, which has acquired a charter from the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, is also making arrangements for its annual end-of-the-year-outing.

Jaycees List Luncheon To Honor Bob Clarke; Begin Membership Drive

by Jean Shofranko

The College Division of the Jaycees will hold their annual campus membership drive next week. All prospective members are invited to attend the Tuesday meeting or to see any Jaycee member for membership applications.

John Mulhall, chairman of the drive, has announced that in order to facilitate membership procedure a table will be set up in the Commons and present members will be present to recruit prospects. On March 21 applicants will introduce themselves to the present membership. The only requirements for eligibility are that the applicant be a full-time day student and possess 46 credit hours.

The purpose of the organization is to make available to the young men of the college a medium for training in leadership, citizenship, and civic betterment; to promote the cultural, industrial and educational activities of the community and the college; to foster good will and mutual understanding among its members and among people in Wyoming Valley.

Future plans for the Jaycees include "Bob Clarke Day", to be held March 28 at the Hotel Sterling. Activities will include a luncheon at which Bob Clarke, national Jaycee president, will be introduced to Jaycees from Northeastern Pennsylvania. Dignitaries present at the affair will be Harry Light, State president of the Jaycees, and Hugh Carr, State director.

Frank Steck, campus chairman of the affair, reported that the college chapter is sponsoring the luncheon.

Campaign Ends On Monday

Students to Cooperate In Final Phase of Drive

by Mary Frances Barone

John Matthey and Steve Robertson, co-chairmen of the student participation in the building fund drive, have announced that committees have been appointed to contact the individual students.

Three years ago, in the last building fund drive, students contributed over $6,000 to put the drive over the top. Members of the community as well as alumni members have contributed to this worthy cause. It is felt that students should also contribute as it will be to their immediate benefit.

The money will be collected in two ways: cash donation or a monthly pledge spread over a 13-month period. No pressure will be applied. This will be entirely a free-will donation. If a student is not contacted and he wishes to make a contribution, his pledges of payments will be taken in the Development Office in Chase Hall. The deadline for pledges and donations will be 5 o'clock, Monday, March 14.

On Wednesday, a luncheon report meeting was held at the Hotel Sterling. As of this meeting, the three-phase Development Fund has reached the total of $180,019.

Mr. Russell Picton, Secretary of the Alumni Development, stated that the committee was very optimistic about obtaining the goal of $270,000. There will be an extended effort made on the part of the three hundred people involved in the drive.

The drive will conclude at the final report meeting on March 14. At this meeting each class total and the amount of participation of the students will be announced.

Antinnes, Stauffer Champions Again

Morgan, Yeager Place Second

Making it look almost easy, Wilkes walked off the Lebanon Valley campus last weekend winners of their fourth straight Middle Atlantic Conference wrestling championship. Scoring 60 points to Bucknell's 42, the locals had four men in the running for first place, came out with two champions, Marv Antinnes at 177 pounds and Dick Stauffer at 130.

For each man it was a repeat win, but in different weight classes. Stauffer was the 1959 123-lb. champion, Antinnes was 167-lb. champ. Each moved up one weight this year.

Captain Joe Morgan finished second in the 137-pound division, losing a good bout to Lycoming's Harry Romig. For his performance, Romig was named the tourney's Outstanding Wrestler for the second straight year. Freshman Brooke Yeager finished second in the 123-pound class, losing a 6-1 decision to Hofstra's Don Hannon.

Voting for the Outstanding Wrestler, the officials and coaches honored Wilkes with ten votes, but were undecided whether Stauffer or Antinnes should be the winner. Each man received five votes. With the balloting thus split, Romig's six votes enabled him to take home the coveted award.

Bob Herman, wrestling in the unlimited weight class, finished fourth. Last year's 157-pound champion, Ted Toluba, was beaten in a close match, 7-6, in the quarter finals by Hofstra's Dick Muller, who went on to take second place in that weight. Toluba went into the consolation rounds and lost to Dick Bedics of Moravian, who finished fourth.

Champions

Besides Stauffer and Antinnes, the other tournament champions were: 123 - Hannon, Hofstra; 137 - Romig, Lycoming; 147 - Dick Dean, Ursinus; 157 - Bob Davis, West Chester; 167 - Dick Schaeffer, Moravian; and heavyweight - Ken Longenecker, Lebanon Valley.

Standings

In order of finish, the 20 teams entered were: Wilkes 60, Bucknell 42, Moravian 38, West Chester 37, Lycoming 33, Hofstra 27, Temple 23, Lafayette 19, Lebanon Valley 18, and Ursinus 14.

Also: Delaware U. 12, Drexel Tech 8, Dickinson and Muhlenberg 7, Gettysburg and Penna. Military College 6, Swarthmore 4, Elizabethtown 3, Albright 1, and Juniata 0.

Top Scorer

Antinnes was the tourney's top point scorer with 15, an unofficial title, since the MAC provides no trophy for this honor. In scoring team points, a wrestler gets one point for each advancement to the finals, and an additional point for each win by fall, forfeit or default. A champion earns ten points, second place nets seven, third place four and fourth place two.

Antinnes also rang up the fastest fall of the tournament when he pinned by Dudley of Gettysburg.

Development Fund -- Help Wanted

With student participation in the current fund drive for the College's expansion, we see an excellent chance that the campaign will be reported over the top in next week's final report meeting.

Several students have given the usual reaction — snorts and snide comments, but we feel certain that the students on the whole will cooperate in this drive. We feel this way because we have faith in the sense of fair play Wilkes students have always exhibited. As we see it, the serious and thinking student realizes that the good citizens of this community have been asked to help the development of their community college many times in past years.

In almost every instance, these citizens have come through generously and the campaigns have always succeeded. The last one, three years ago, was a resounding success. Without the splendid cooperation of the students, that campaign would have been short of its goal. We remember that campaign and the looks of pleasure on the faces of local citizens when the final report meeting showed that student contribution provided the margin of success.

We feel that such help by the students makes a solid impression on the people who have supported this institution for over a quarter of a century. Once more the students are asked to lend a helping hand. No member of the campaign committee expects that hard-pressed students will cough up the whole $270,000. They would be pleased, however, to see that the beneficiaries of their efforts have an interest in their success.

We are, in effect, asking these citizens to tour the Valley and ask other citizens to contribute to the College. While these people do this, we can hardly sit back and watch the coins roll in. If we can't show interest in a drive to improve our own facilities, how can we expect others to have any luck soliciting donations?

Trite, but true is the old chestnut — it's not the gift that counts in this instance, but the thought behind it. If the entire student body contributed a total of only a few dollars, the local citizenry would be impressed by its effort to pull itself up by its own bootstraps. We feel that a cash contribution, no matter how small, would make a tremendous impression greater even than a higher amount pledged over a long period. We do not suggest that the latter method of helping out be forgotten, but we do sincerely suggest that every student think carefully and decide which way suits his financial situation.

Congratulations, Vol. IV

Once more we have the pleasant duty of extending congratulations to coach John Reese and his wrestling team, four-time winners of the Middle Atlantic Conference championship. This is getting to be a habit, and one we would hate to break.

We here at Wilkes have more to be proud of than we realize. For instance, we overheard several of the coaches and officials commenting on the sportsmanship and manners of the Wilkesmen. Always polite and soft-spoken, every man made a good appearance, was neat and orderly. Even other wrestlers mentioned the fact that the Colonels were a "bunch of nice guys." This is the highest compliment, since wrestlers as a class are perhaps the best-natured competitors off the field of battle in any sport.

For the record, the Colonels went to Lebanon Valley with a string of sixteen straight meets without a loss — there was one tie with Hofstra. Now they have added their fourth straight Conference championship, an unprecedented record. Further, since a highly disputed loss to Bloomsburg in 1955, the team has chalked up 36 wins, two ties, and one defeat. During that time, the other tie, with Millersville, was the only blot on a 23-meet unbeaten skein. The same Millersville team stopped Wilkes on the next-to-last meet of the 1957-58 season. The current 16-meet streak without defeat goes back to the last meet of that season, an easy win over Fairleigh-Dickinson.

Spring Weekend,
Prom, Parties
On Committee Agenda

by Wayne Thomas

Plans for Spring Weekend, which will be held on May 13, 14, and 15, were the major topic of discussion at the School Spirit Committee meeting on Tuesday night. The Cinderella Ball will be held on Friday, May 13, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., in the gymnasium. The dance will be a formal affair.

The committee voted to conduct two dormitory parties on Saturday night, May 14. An orchestra will be provided at each dormitory for dancing. The particular dormitories to be used have not been decided upon as yet.

Jim Stephens, co-chairman of the committee, announced that an attempt will be made to have the baseball game and tennis match scheduled to be played at Albright on May 14 moved to Wilkes on that date.

The group also discussed a possible outing and the use of decorations similar to the Homecoming displays. The proposed plans for decorations will be submitted to the individual organizations at their next meetings. Each individual organization will thereby have an opportunity to express its views on the decorations proposal.

Representation Lacking

The view was also expressed that many organizations are not sending representatives to the meetings and that these groups are being deprived of their representation on the committee. It was also emphasized that due to the coming of Spring Weekend many more participants will be needed if the committee is to make a success of the spring affair. Presidents of the various campus organizations will be contacted and asked to check on their respective representatives.

The School Spirit Committee is continuing its campaign for Amnicola patrons and boosters. Anyone wishing to have his name appear in the yearbook as a patron or a booster should contact a member of the committee.

The recent Beacon editorial dealing with school spirit was discussed and the committee as yet has taken no action on it. The next meeting of the School Spirit Committee will be held on Tuesday, March 22, on the second floor of the Bookstore.

WINS ANOTHER TROPHY

John Reese

John Reese, Director of Athletics and wrestling coach, added another trophy to his growing collection Wednesday when he was high point man in the faculty-student Donkey Basketball Game.

The Faculty Flashes won the laugh-filled contest, 18-16, in a sudden death overtime period. The Flashes also won the game last year, proving that the faculty athletes know their oats. Jim McCarthy, the game's public address announcer, attributed the win to the fact that the faculty deals with

Campus Observer

Two alumni of the college have received national recognition recently, both in the profession of law.

Attorney J. Harold Flannery, Jr., the son of Judge Flannery, was one of the three members of the Justice Department counsel who prepared a brief and helped the Solicitor General present the case of 1,377 Negro voters who had been dropped from the voting rolls in Louisiana's Washington Parish (county). The case was presented to the Supreme Court; on February 29 the Supreme Court ordered that the 1,377 Negroes be restored to Louisiana's voting rolls. The decision by the Supreme Court was unanimous.

Previous to coming to Wilkes, Flannery attended Wyoming Seminary and Lafayette College. He transferred here from Lafayette in February of 1953. While he was here, Flannery was a member of the Cue 'n' Curtain, the Manuscript, and the Debating Society. He graduated in 1955 with an A.B. degree in History.

Jesse Choper has been chosen by Chief Justice Earl Warren to be his clerk for the coming year. Choper is currently a senior in the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

This is not the first time Choper has had national recognition. While a student here he won national acclaim as a debator, ranking third individually in the United States in 1957. That same year he won the Harvard Invitational Debating Tournament.

After graduating summa cum laude from Wilkes, with the highest academic average ever achieved by a Wilkes student, Choper received a scholarship to the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Standing second in his class, he was elected to the Law Review in 1958 and this year served as its research editor.

Prior to his appointment by Chief Justice Warren, Choper had accepted a teaching position at the University of Minnesota Law School, which has now granted him a leave of absence so that he may fulfill his new duties in Washington.

Have you observed the mimeographed "flyers" that have been in circulation this week? "COMING March 26" is all that is on them. Other circulars referred merely to "IT!" Whatever "IT!" is will probably soon be known, but The Observer admits that "IT!" is stirring up curiosity.

A special holiday was observed one week ago today: Wilkes College, for the first time in the memory of many students, was closed for the day because of the large amount of snow. It was a welcome relief from classes. At the announcement Thursday night, many of the dorms had impromptu parties, and numerous snow-men were erected.

Assembly Organization Explained;
Committee Members Listed

by Lynne Dente

Every Thursday morning at eleven o'clock, the majority of students direct their footsteps toward the gym for the weekly assembly program. Yet few of these students know the background of "assembly": how it is organized, the purposes, or its powers. The organization behind the weekly program is the Assembly Committee.

The purpose of the Wilkes College Student Assembly Committee is to help the administration prepare the assembly schedule, proctor the planning of assemblies by campus groups, and to select the yearly winner of the "Best Student Assembly Award."

The membership of the Committee consists of six to twelve members, and new members are elected by the current members. The members of the Committee for this school year include Robert Amey, Pat Belardinella, Mike Bianco, Barry Gintel, Betsy Hoeschele, Jocelyn King, Al Kishel, Money Miller (Chairman), George Reynolds, Dick Salus, Nancy Tinklepaugh, and Sandy Ungar.

The advisor is selected by the Administration, and the chairman of the Committee is selected in the spring for the following school year by the current members.

Meetings are called by the chairman or the advisor. This year's meetings have been held at Miss Cole's residence on Sunday evenings.

The budget is approximately $1,000 per year, and is contributed by the Administration for the use in faculty assemblies.

Student assemblies are presented by the campus clubs, which take full responsibility for the program. The clubs fill in application forms which indicate the desired date for the program, the chairman of the program, the president of the organization, the faculty advisor, the type of program, the number of participants, the necessary props, and the expenses involved.

Class Meetings

Alternating with the assembly programs are the class meetings. Previous to placing class meetings on the Tuesday calendar there was not enough time for class officers to work with the members of the class. In order to promote greater student activity, the class sponsors requested that certain assembly dates be set aside for class meetings, since the assembly time was the most convenient time for the meetings.

This program has been in effect only for the past two years. It is hoped that after graduation the various classes will continue to show an interest in the college and participate in their class memorial plans.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Antinnes Takes Second MAC Crown; Aids Team Victory with 15 Points

by George Tensa

This week's laurels for the "Athlete Award" go to Marv Antinnes. Marv captured the 177-lb. crown in the recent MAC tournament to cap an undefeated season.

The road to victory was not an easy one for the good-looking grappler but in his usual style he overcame the difficult obstacles to help bring back the MAC championship to Colonelsville. Marv's first match of the tournament was against Ed Callahan of Muhlenberg and the "Colonel Mustang" registered a fall in 4:39 to begin his conquests.

A 57-second pin was the story of Marv's next victory with Gettysburg's Irving Lindley's shoulders finding the mat in short order. The semi-final match was the biggest threat to the crown as Joe Martins of PMC was riding on a 32-meet victory skein and loomed as a co-favorite to win the title. Marv ended his hopes and winning ways by registering a hard-fought 4-0 victory.

The championship bout sent our "Blue and Gold" matmen against Barry Gibson of West Chester State College. The match was one of the best of the season and, as he has made a habit of it, Marv emerged victorious with a 9-4 victory and the coveted 177-lb. crown. Marv led all matmen in scoring in the tournament with 15 points and emerged as runner-up for the outstanding wrestler award.

Winning the MAC championship is nothing new for Marv as last year he wore the 167-lb. MAC crown and his freshman year was runner-up in the tournament. The Wilkes Open Tournament found Marv a runner-up in the 167-lb. class, the furthest a Colonel grappler ever went in the tournament. The mats aren't the only sports area where Marv excels. He led the Colonel gridders in scoring and ball-carrying for the past two seasons, and each time rated as one of the top ball-carriers in the conference.

Antinnes is a junior this year and is majoring in secondary education. He is a graduate of Forty Fort High School where he starred in football, wrestling, and track. He was District wrestling kingpin for two years while starring for the Flyers.

Mermen Fail to Place In MAC Swim Tourney; Awarded "Protest" Win

by Don Hancock

Last weekend five representatives from the swimming team travelled to Lewisburg to participate in the Middle Atlantic Conference swimming tournament at Bucknell University.

Although they failed to place at all in any event as a team, the Colonels did manage to win the protested meet against Lycoming that had been lost earlier in the season.

The best the tankmen could do in the individual competition were Jerry Mohn's and Carl Havira's seventh place showings in their events. Jerry took seventh in freshman diving and Carl, although he turned in his best times of the season, took seventh in the 200 yard individual medley, butterfly, and breaststroke events.

Also at the tournament, the coaches of the teams discussed the Wilkes protest of the results of the first meet of the season against Lycoming. It had been under protest because after both teams had been disqualified in the final relay, the event was run again, the Warriors won it and submitted the results as their victory. The coaches decided in favor of the Colonels giving them a season record of two wins and three losses.

Rowdies Down Gore Hall In Championship Tilt; Williams, Gavel High

by Thomas Evans

The Rowdies squeaked out a 46-44 overtime victory against Gore Hall last Tuesday to win the inter-league playoff game and emerge as Intramural basketball champions for the 1959-60 season.

First half action saw the Rowdies take an early lead with the score 21-14 at the end of the second quarter. However, a fourth quarter surge by Gore which was paced by Paul Aquilino's steady shooting and the ball-hawking of Lou Davis, brought about a 40-40 deadlock at the end of regulation time.

Fearsome Fred Williams and Ed Gavel shared scoring honors in the overtime period to give the win to the National Leaguers. This pair also took scoring honors for the game with 14 and 13 points.

Last-Place Bowlers Pull Upsets; Standings Remain Unchanged

by John Nork

No one really knows the answer, but why are last place teams such as a menace to the top contenders of the Bowling League? To illustrate, Sunday night saw two top teams slip in their efforts as the bottom two teams added extra strength in battling the league leaders. The last place Flatballs tied the Blitzkriegs, losing the total pinfall by a mere six pins. The fifth place Kingpins swept the Gutterdusters, 3-1. In the other contest, the rising Pinbusters smashed the Smashers, 3-1.

Bernie Shupp 197-549 took over the limelight for the Gutterdusters. Dick Myers assisted with 209-539. Dan Lewis, 194-537, slipped behind Myers in the first and third games, bowing to Myers by a mere 2 pins. Adam Gajewski and — a surprise to bowling readers — Arlene Kuss, led their victorious Kingpins with a 183-501 and 198-489 respectively. Jerry Chisarick was an important factor in the Flatballs' 2-2 tie with the Blitzkriegs as he smashed the pins for a 180-529. John Matthey, the jovial spark of the Senior Class, topped a 173-499. Dave "Gus" Gozdiskowski, 195-515, and Bill Watkins, 190-505, were high men for the Blitzkriegs.

A standard name in this column, Emil Petrsek, came through again with a 189-514, being greatly aided by Bob Barovich, 179-466, as their Pinbusters started their victory trek with a 3-1 defeat of the Smashers. A faulty second game hindered John Sapiego as he settled for a 204-504 for his Smashers. Bernie Radecki, of basketball fame, came through with a 158-456.

Scoring:
Kingpins — Gajewski 183-501, Kuss 198-489, Tom Dyslewski 168-486, Jerry Kulesa 169-432, Joe Drozdowski 147-401.
Gutterdusters — Shupp 202-549, Myers 209-539, Dan Lewis 194-537, John Rentschler 139-261, Lois Myers 144-251, Carl Borr 134-223.

Flatballs — Chisarick 180-529, Matthey 173-499, Tom Evans 190-497, Ann Ligeti 111-301.

Cagers Lose Final Contest to Albright; Gacha High Man with 25

The basketball team journeyed to Reading last Saturday seeking a winning season against Albright College but ran into their old nemesis, first half blues, and lost their 11th game of the year, 91-68, to finish below the .500 mark with a 10-11 record.

The cagers couldn't put the ball in the hoop in the first half and were behind at intermission, 50-21.

A renewed effort at the start of the second half saw the Colonels score 11 straight points to cut down the Albright lead but the Lions continued their initial half scoring pace and kept the lead for the remainder of the contest.

Wilkes outscored Albright in the second half, 47-41, as guard George Gacha, senior co-captain, found the range for 19 points in a great display of jump shooting. Gacha was the top scorer of the tilt as he tallied 25 points.

Wilkes' other senior playing his last game, Bernie Radecki, was off form as he failed to hit double figures and was held to one field goal in the first half. He finished with 9 points.

GOLF NOTICE

Golf practice has started for Coach Welton Farrar's golf team as they prepare to get their swings in shape for the coming season. The team will open next month against Hofstra.

The prospects for the coming season look good according to Coach Farrar as he welcomes six returning lettermen. Returnees include: Pete McLaughlin, Pete Perog, Joe Hiznay, Jay Olexy, Al Stralka, and Bob Januszko.

Until there is a break in the weather the team will practice in the basement of Stark Hall. New equipment, including a practice net with a target and a putting green, is available for the candidates to keep their swings in shape and to sharpen their putting touch.

Any new candidates wishing to try out for the team can report to practice sessions in Stark Hall or contact Mr. Farrar at his office on the second floor of Parrish Hall.

TENNIS NOTICE

Tennis practice is now in full swing. The racqueteers are currently holding daily sessions at the Y.M.C.A., in preparation for the first match against Rutgers on April 9.

The netmen will have a rugged schedule this season with twelve matches, including such top teams as Hofstra and Dickinson.

Six returning lettermen help to make the season outlook hopeful. Returning from last year's squad are: Ira Himmel, team captain and outstanding player, Jim Swaback, Paul Bleifer, Dick Dunlap, Bill Will, and Mark Halperin.

Anyone wishing to seek a berth on the squad should report to the Y.M.C.A. during practice hours, which are 4-6 p.m., daily or contact Mr. Himmel.

NEITHER RAIN, NOR SLEET, ETC.

Winter's Roughest Attack Ineffective As Beacon Staff Delivers On Time

Neither rain nor snow nor sleet nor lack of classes . . . nothing can stop the Beacon. That was shown last Friday when the Beacon made its regular appearance, right on schedule, even though there was hardly a soul around to read the paper.

Beacon boss Dick Myers and his circulation manager, Jerry Chisarick, were seen blithely guiding their snow-chained chariot around the campus, dropping off the newspaper into the deserted buildings.

Several observers noticed that delivery was about 40 minutes behind the usual 11:35 completion time, but nobody offered any complaints. The two delivery men blamed that on the weather, but informed sources attributed the delay to Chisarick's avowed desire to remain in bed on a day when there were no classes.

Roused out of bed at the unearthly hour of 9:15 on a day of no school, Chisarick answered Myers' call with a few bear-like grunts before returning to hibernate until 11.

The whole intent behind the distribution was maintaining the Beacon's years-long standing of prompt delivery. Even when the print shop was replacing its outdated, full-size press earlier in the year, the Beacon staff rallied around the small-job press at the printery and put out the famous "comic book" edition — on time.

Also, last year a mechanical breakdown caused the editorial staff to work with the printer up until midnight in order to make sure that the Beacon got out — on time — the following day.

Friday's delivery, despite a heavy snow and deserted campus, kept perfect a record of at least five year's standing, a record of always having the Beacon in the hands of its readers before Noon on Friday.

MATMEN GAIN

In 57 seconds. He had earlier thrown Ed Callahan of Muhlenberg in 4:39. The two falls were worth four points and his decision over Joe Martins, P.M.C., in the semifinals was worth one. He scored ten points for the championship in his class.

In defeating Barry Gibson of West Chester for the title, Antinnes was taken down for the first time this season. Gibson pulled the trick in just 36 seconds of the bout, but Antinnes escaped in six seconds. Later, Gibson reversed Antinnes, but the Colonel was free again in 26 seconds and won the bout, 9-4.

The Collegians, directed by Bill Peters, will present a program of vocal music at the student assembly next Tuesday. Highlight of the program will be the announcement of the selection of the chorus director for the next two years.

The Collegians are an all-male chorus, forty members strong. However, the forerunner of this group was a quartet begun in 1950. Preceding directors have been: Bill Crowder, Bob Lynch, and Sam Lowe. The chorus has grown gradually, and now enjoys a prominent spot in the community.

The Collegians perform at high schools, civic groups, church organizations, and college functions. Oftentimes they combine with the Girls' Chorus for programs.

The present officers of the Collegians are: Dick Myers, president; Dick Wileman, vice-president; Harry Owens, secretary; Bob Eike, librarian - historian; and Morey James, treasurer. Accompanists for the group are Walter Umla and Thomas Hrynkiw.

It is interesting to note that every curriculum in the college is represented in the Collegians' ranks. Impending plans include a tour of upper New York state high schools in April and the making of a long-playing record in early spring. This record will include sacred songs, folk songs, and music from Broadway shows.

The program of the assembly will include selections by Mozart, Shaw, and Thompson. The chorus will also sing medleys from "Showboat" and "Oklahoma" as well as The Battle Hymn of the Republic.

Soloists for the program will be Merritt Wheeler, Don Jones, Ray Nutaitis, and David Lear.

Hampton Institute Exchange Program Set for April 9th

The annual exchange program between students of Wilkes and the Hampton Institute, Virginia, will be held this year on April 9. This program is held each year to promote better understanding between students and has always been a memorable experience for those who participate.

This year, at Hampton, the program prompted the students of that institution to declare the weekend "Wilkes Week" and they have planned a full schedule of events. Highlight of the visit will be attendance at a concert performed by the Pittsburgh Philharmonic Orchestra.

Dean Hawkins of Hampton recently spoke here at a student assembly on the occasion of Brotherhood Week. His address was well-received by students attending.

Any member of the Wilkes student body who is interested in participating in this year's exchange is asked to speak to Allyn Jones, Butler Hall. The Wilkes group will be guests of the Hampton men for the entire weekend and will be given a tour of the campus in addition to tours to points of local interest.

Jones emphasized that the weekend visit is open to women as well as to men. Plans are now being formulated for the trip and interested students are requested to indicate their desire to go as soon as possible.

CO-ED LIFE SAVING COURSE

The second Co-Ed Life Saving Course of the year will start at the Central Y.M.C.A., Monday, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. The classes will be held in the Central Y.M.C.A. Pool each Monday and Wednesday evening. The course will require 22 hours of class work as well as a written and a water test for completion. Both men and women over 16 years of age who are able swim the breast, back, side and crawl strokes are eligible for the classes.

The classes will be instructed by Tony Thomas, who holds his Aquatic Instructor Certificate, and Dick Bradshaw, who holds his Leader Examiner Certificate.

Thomas has been instructing swim classes and life saving classes for six years at the Y.M.C.A. In this time he has taught 12 life saving courses and attended three Aquatic Clinics.

Thomas urges those who are seeking summer jobs at pools or resorts to take advantage of this course.

For further information on the course, contact Tony Thomas or Dick Bradshaw at the Central Y.M.C.A. Swimming Pool.

Dr. Chapman Honored

Receives Research Post
At English Conference
by Steve Cooney

Dr. Robert L. Chapman, associate professor in the English department, has recently been appointed to the post of consulting authority (research person) in the workshop of Linguistics in the

Composition and Communication Course at the Conference on College Composition and Communication of the National Council of Teachers of English.

The conference will be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, March 31 to April 2, and Dr. Chapman will serve with other authorities on the subject from Harvard, University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Chapman also has been asked to read a paper in his specialty, medieval literature, at the University of Kentucky Foreign Language Conference in Louisville, Kentucky, April 28 to 30.

This is quite an honor for Dr. Chapman to be recognized in such national circles, and it is also quite an honor for a small liberal arts college such as Wilkes to be included in these recognitions.

Dr. Chapman's doctoral dissertation has been accepted for publication by the Scottish Text Company in Edinburgh, England. Before coming to Wilkes, he was a member of the graduate faculty of Cornell University in Ithaca, New York.
