

ICG Attends State Convention; Presidential Nominations Held

by Ralph Price

Early Wednesday morning a delegation left for Harrisburg where they have been representing Wilkes at the ICG State Convention in that city. The convention started yesterday and will end tomorrow. Delegates from almost all Pennsylvania schools are expected to number approximately 500-600. The Wilkes delegation is staying at the Penn-Harris Hotel with the club's advisor, Mr. Arthur Hoover.

The convention began with an executive meeting at which Betsy Hoeschele and Mike Bianco represented Wilkes. Part of the convention was devoted to mock Presidential nominations. Each delegate has a plank or platform which he submits to various committees for discussion. The bulk of the convention will be taken up in debating and voting on these planks.

Mike Bianco, who is a candidate for Parliamentarian of the State Convention, is on the Civil Rights Committee. Members of other committees are the following: Art Evans, Taxation and Finance; Rose Neuser, National Defense; Pat Shovlin, Labor and Industry; Charles Billings, Education, Health, and Welfare; Betsy Hoeschele, Agriculture and Natural Resources; and Carol Tangorra, Foreign Affairs. At the close of the convention the Northeastern Pennsylvania District will present an award to the school which has made the greatest contribution to the convention.

In addition to attending the convention the ICG is also selling Easter candy. Orders for this candy may be placed with any ICG member. The candy will be delivered next Tuesday, the last day of classes before Easter vacation.

Queen of Showers to Be Chosen At Annual Semi-Formal Ball

by Patsy Rossi

On Friday evening, April 22, the gym will take on a beautiful air of April showers against a green and white background. The occasion is, of course, the Lettermen's Club's annual April Showers Ball, one of the outstanding events of the Spring social season on campus. The highlight of this semi-formal affair will be the selection of an April Showers Queen who will be awarded a beautiful wristwatch.

Herbie Green and his orchestra will supply the musical background from nine to twelve. The tickets are $3.00 per couple and can be purchased from any member of the Lettermen's Club. Favors are in the form of orchids and will be presented to each young lady attending the dance. Therefore, no corsages are necessary.

Co-chairmen of the dance are Bernie Radecki and Marv Antinnes. They are being assisted with the preparations by: Rick Rees and Ira Himmel, decorations; Pat Shovlin, refreshments; Carl Havira, program; Ralph Hendershot, tickets; Paul Bleifer, chaperones; George Gacha, music; Paul Aquilino, publicity.

"Birth of A Nation" Is Final Manuscript Film

by Cynthia Hagley

Tonight's performance of Birth of a Nation will mark the end of this season's Manuscript Film Society presentations. The film will begin promptly at 7 p.m. in Stark 116. All proceeds from this evening will go to the Development Fund of the college.

The film itself is a monument in the motion picture industry. On a recent Mitch Miller radio show, "Sardi's East," four well-known movie critics discussed Birth of a Nation. These men were: Justin Gilbert of the N.Y. Mirror; Jesse Sonser, Arthur Winston of the N.Y. Post; and Bosley Crowther of the N.Y. Times. They elaborated on the importance of the picture to the industry and traded anecdotes about its production and distribution in the states.

The Manuscript Film Society decided to contribute any profits realized from this evening's performance to the Development Fund because all previous film showings have covered all expenses of the Film Society.

Debate Squad Ties For First Spot at CCNY; Negative Undefeated

by Mary Frances Barone

Last weekend Wilkes College debate team participated in the fifth annual CCNY debate tournament. Twenty colleges and universities entered teams in the contest. Wilkes tied with four other schools for first place: Seton Hall, Fordham University, Manhattan College, and Scranton University. Seton Hall was declared the winner on team points.

The affirmative team upheld the question: "Resolved: that Congress should have the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court." Jerome Krassa and Roberta Feinstein defeated two teams and lost two matches.

Brent O'Connell and Frank Rioski, the negative team, won four of their contests and lost none. They defeated Baruch School of Business, Manhattan College, La Salle College, and Ursinus College.

The final event for the season for the debate team is the Good Neighbor Tournament on April 21-23. The tournament is held at Bucknell University. The record for Wilkes is twenty-seven wins and twenty-one losses.

NIGHT OF THEATER

Final performance of the Cue 'n' Curtain presentation called "Night of Theater" will be given in Chase Theater this evening.

This is an experimental-type workshop production of scenes representing great moments in the theater. Each of the scenes is about love — innocent, idealistic, spiritual, and passionate.

Playbill for the evening will include scenes from "Winterset" by Maxwell Anderson, "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder, "The Changelings" by Thomas Middleton, and "St. Joan" by Shaw.

No admission is being charged.

Jaycees Elect Officers; Parade of Progress Among Spring Projects

by Gloria Zaludek

The Jaycees on campus are selling chances for a 16mm camera to be chanced off during the Parade of Progress at the Kingston Army camp April 27-30.

Every two years regional businessmen display their merchandise at the show sponsored by the Greater Wilkes-Barre Junior Chamber of Commerce, enabling prospective buyers to compare the quality of the merchandise available in this area. A new feature in this year's show will be an autorama — a display of the new look in automobiles for 1960.

Paul Klein, chairman for the sale of chances, will be assisted by Dick Salus, John Matthey, John Mulhall, Allyn Jones, and Frank Steck. Proceeds for these chances will be given to the campus Jaycees for use in their numerous civic activities.

During the week elections were held to select new officers for the organization. Those elected were: Skip Gladstone, president; Gil Davis, treasurer; Fred Pello, secretary.

NOTICE

Tomorrow is the date for the Misericordia Press Conference. All members of the BEACON staff who have signed for the trip, please meet in front of the BEACON building at noon.

Mixed Chorus
The Wilkes College Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Richard Chapline, will perform the Missa Brevis of Palestrina, one of the greatest composers of church music. This selection is often called the short form of the Mass.

Girls' Chorus
The Women's Chorus, under the direction of Janet Cornell, will present a group of works including "O Rest In The Lord," by Mendelssohn, and "Verdant Meadows," by Handel. A noteworthy presentation by the chorus will be "The Snow," by Elgar. This composition was arranged for a women's chorus, a piano accompaniment and two violins. The violin duet will be performed by Mr. Martin Friedman and Mary Ann Kachmar.

Collegians
The third part of the program will consist of selections by the Collegians, under the direction of Bill Peters. The men's group will perform a group of folk songs; "The Last Words of David", by Thompson; and a medley of numbers from Oklahoma by Rodgers and Hammerstein. The choruses will be accompanied by Tom Hrynkiw and Nan Thomas.

This concert will be the last one on campus for Miss Cornell and Mr. Peters. Both have devoted much time and energy to the choruses and their efforts have been favorably received.

Will Raffle Radio Set

by Frances Olack

The Economics Club has decided, under its Stock Investment Plan, to keep its $500 worth of General Motors stock because the market is low. The club plans, however, to purchase $100 of additional stock before the year is out. The money for this new stock will be obtained from the club's stock investment reserve plus the amount of money made from the raffle which the club is sponsoring now.

Nominations for officers for next year were held yesterday. The election will be held April 21 and the disclosure of the incoming officers plus their subsequent installation will be made at the annual awards banquet on April 23. Also, the senior club members who are graduating will receive their awards.

The club plans an outing at Rummage's Grove on May 1. Chairman for the event is Bob Jones. Also scheduled for some Thursday in May is a field trip to the Red Cross building.

Assembly Disturbances Unnecessary

An old complaint, registered many times in the past, has appeared again with reference to unmannerly conduct at assembly programs. It seems that every so often college students must revert back to the good old days of third or fourth grade and they become fidgety, nervous, and quite upset when the hands of the clock approach quitting time.

This situation cropped up again last week at the Band's fine assembly concert with a certain group determined to make as much noise as if it were its own brass band. It is true enough that those attending assembly should expect to be free at 11:50, but certainly common courtesy dictates that a program running several minutes overtime be at least tolerated. Furthermore, when the performance is one of good quality and of great interest to the majority in attendance, the few extra minutes required for uninterrupted completion will not cause any great hardship.

We often wonder where people expect to go in such a rush after assembly. It seems that the digestion must suffer terribly if one has to rush out and race up the street to sit in the cafeteria using those precious minutes in wolfing down a lunch.

The next assembly speaker is Mr. Frank Burnside, member of the Board of Trustees, whose message will be of interest and importance to every student. A similar reception to his appearance will make a fine impression on the Board.

Meeting of Minds

The Beacon staff extends a cordial invitation to all interested students to its open meeting on Tuesday, April 19. The meeting will be held on the third floor of 159 S. Franklin Street from 6-8 p.m. Publicity directors and organizational leaders are cordially invited to attend and air their views on how we on the newspaper can serve the College better. The staff members are requested to be prompt so that several matters of interest to them can be settled quickly and more general matters taken up.

The meeting will be of particular importance to all who intend to apply for editorial positions on next year's staff.

Congratulations

We were pleased to see the honors heaped on junior Marv Antinnes in recognition of his splendid year of accomplishment in athletics. We were further delighted to see the editorial page of the Wilkes-Barre Record devote a half column editorial to his exploits. The article appeared in Wednesday's edition and recounted all his honors, so well known by all here at Wilkes. We wish to extend our own congratulations and a hearty, "well done," to the year's outstanding athlete, sportsman, and student leader.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Sir:

I am in complete agreement with the recent decision of the Court of Appeals as concerns the Student Government-I.C.G. controversy. It was pointed out to me by a prominent legal counsel that it is not within our power to restrict funds in the manner we attempted. This I accept.

The legal thing to do and in my mind the fair thing to do, recognizing the fact that all other campus organizations had been compelled to conform to policies, was to cancel all I.C.G. activities for the remainder of the year. This the Student Government had the power to do.

I do not accept the obvious display of spinelessness and lack of intestinal fortitude on the part of several Student Government members, as well as the inability to look to the future consequences as result of the decision by the Student Government in permitting the ICG to participate in further scheduled events in the current school year.

Sincerely,
 Robert D. Washburn

Dear Sir:

The last edition of the Beacon referred to the Court of Review decision in the headline and story which followed.

I would qualify this misnomer by saying that the Court of Appeals made the decision referred to in this instance. The Court of Review had no say in this case since it is confined to ruling on dormitory violations. The Court of Appeals wrote the decision for the case involving the Intercollegiate Conference on Government and the Student Government because it has the power to act upon appeal of any decision of the Student Government.

In closing I extend my gratitude to William Raub, who assumed the chair of the Court in my absence; Allyn Jones, temporary member, and the remaining members of the Court of Appeals for their endeavor in this initial case.

Yours sincerely,
 Michael Bianco
 Chairman,
 Court of Appeals

Dear Sir:

My deepest sympathy to the editor of this somewhat incoherent paper. The world appreciates the fact that this paper must be published each week during the school year, but why must space be wasted to present attacks upon much needed school spirit.

- PERSONALS -

Miss Maryanne Lavelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavelle, 91 East Bennett Street, Kingston, recently became engaged to Kenneth Bolten, 22 Center Street, Forty Fort. Maryanne is a sophomore retailing major, and Kenneth is serving in the U.S. Navy. No date has been set for the wedding.

This week Mrs. Preston Sturdevant, head resident of Weiss Hall, underwent surgery in the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Presently she is recuperating nicely, and plans to return to Wilkes late in April. Mrs. Patton of Allentown is head resident in her absence.

Four dormitory students of Catlin Hall plan to spend their Easter vacation in Florida. Peggy Churchill, Shirley Hitchner, Nancy Rosenfeld, and Jane Rescorla will leave today for Fort Lauderdale to return April 18.

Anyone who wants a personal item included in this column may notify Betty Edwards, Wilkes Hall,

The editorial "Excessive Decoration" appeared on April 1, and it was very appropriate to "April Fools' Day." It certainly was your day Ed; I hope you enjoyed it as you lurked about our fair city. The Wilkes campus lacks many things in the way of school spirit, so let's not kill the little we have. Several weeks ago, the wrestling and basketball double-headers were fine examples of the spirit that should prevail, but is seldom shown.

If the banners on the dorms were an eye-sore to anyone but you, it has not been heard at present. To most of us, the banners gave River Street a "campus" look and were a sight for sore eyes.

Dear Editor:

The editorial in the Beacon April 1, 1960, has created considerable conversation throughout the past week. This, I presume, was one of its purposes and in that respect it might be considered a successful editorial. I do, however, disagree with many of the statements and opinions presented in the editorial, and I am making these disagreements the subject of this letter.

Throughout the editorial, the advertising placed on the front of the dormitories during the previous week was referred to as displays. I would like to point out that the purpose of these advertisements was not to provide displays, but was simply to promote two events sponsored by the dormitories that weekend. As advertisements I believe they performed their purpose and were not in the least "overdone."

The editorial also stated that college "affairs are already adequately advertised and usually well attended." As for attendance, I think it wise that the editor check some of the Friday night activities sponsored by the college organizations during the past semester. I think he would find that most of these activities were not "well attended." This, I believe, is due largely to the publicity given to these activities. The advertising placed on the dormitories was a new idea in promotion for the campus, and created considerable interest in both of the affairs that were advertised. Also, I would like to interject that both of these affairs were successful, and were very well attended.

The editorial also elaborated upon our annual Homecoming displays, and suggested that such advertisements during the Spring semester might detract from the interest given to these displays in the Fall. Being chairman of the Homecoming displays for the past two years, I feel well qualified to discuss the subject. These advertisements were not intended to resemble or compete with the Homecoming displays, and it is my opinion they will not detract from our Homecoming festivities in any way.

Last, there was considerable discussion as to the impression such advertisements give the residents of this area. I fully appreciate the editor's interest in maintaining the goodwill of the people of Wyoming Valley, but I hardly think these people expect such a noteworthy institution as Wilkes College to cater to them in every activity the students of the college sponsor. Nearly every John Q. Public has an elementary knowledge of the activities of college students, and I certainly believe that an activity as harmless and innocent as these advertisements are included in such a knowledge.

Sincerely,
 Allyn Jones

There Is An Answer

by Michael Bianco and Gordon Roberts

Eighty-six million copies of the MRA handbook Ideology and Coexistence in 24 languages have been distributed throughout the world to date. The Honorable Ben F. Jensen, Congressman from Iowa, referred to this handbook while addressing the members of the House of Representatives on March 14. Congressman Jensen stated:

"In the years since World War II, Adenauer has stood out as a dauntless fighter for freedom and an architect of the unity of the West. Better than most he understands the nature of the ideological struggle we are in right now. For he and his country are on the very front line of that struggle.

He and his family were among a group of 150 picked leaders of Western Germany, who, at the end of the war, came to the Moral Re-Armament Assembly at Caux, Switzerland. There began the close friendship of the Chancellor with Dr. Frank Buchman, the initiator of Moral Re-Armament, an association which has grown and deepened over the years, and which has had a profound effect on the history of Western Europe.

It is by a most happy combination of events that at this time a new weapon in this ideological struggle is being put into our hands. It is this handbook, Ideology and Co-Existence, prepared by Moral Re-Armament. It has been published as a weapon to put America and the free world on the offensive in this war of ideologies. It sets forth in pungent sentences the true nature of communism and presents the one effective universal answer.

The strength of the statements in this handbook and the ideology which it represents is proved by the violence of the attacks which Tass, the Soviet News Agency; Pravda, Izvestia, Trud, Life and Literature, and the Moscow, Tashkent, and Peiping radios have launched against it, noting that this handbook is a powerful weapon to the ideological softening up of the free world."

To my knowledge this handbook is receiving one of the most massive simultaneous distributions in the history of the world. A copy has gone to every home in the Scandinavian countries, including Greenland and Iceland, to every home in Holland, and in Switzerland where it was given a foreword by General Guisan, the famous commander-in-chief of the Swiss armies in World War II. Last week it went to every one of the 4½ million homes in Canada. At this very moment it is being distributed to every family in Britain, France, Germany, Italy, and Australia, and before the end of this month it will reach every home in this nation's capitol.

It is fitting that at this time of Chancellor Adenauer's stay in this country means such as these are available to strengthen the fundamental beliefs and qualities of the American people and restore to new life and power the precious heritage of our forefathers and the great destiny of our land."

Eleven of Congressman Jensen's colleagues from the Democratic and Republican Parties concurred with his feeling when they called Dr. Adenauer and asked to have the Moral Re-Armament play, Hoffnung, in Washington this Spring. The bi-partisan signatories are: Senator Everett Dirksen, Minority Leader, and the Senators Francis Case, John Sherman Cooper, Hubert Humphrey, Estes Kefauver, Oren Long, Russell Long, Eugene McCarthy, John McClellan, George S. Patton, and Alexander Wiley.

Marv Antinnes Named Top Athlete

Colonels Host Upsala, Twinbill Tomorrow; Gacha Wins Opener, 9-4

by Tom Evans

The baseball team makes another try at their home opener as they meet the Upsala Vikings at Artillery Park. Game time is 3:30 p.m.

Wilkes will be out to avenge last year's 4-2 defeat at the hands of the Vikings. The starting assignment for the Blue and Gold will go to veteran pitcher George Gacha. For George the game will be important in that he was the losing pitcher in last year's tight contest.

Saturday the diamond team will take on a strong Western Maryland outfit in a double-header. First game gets underway at 11:00 a.m.

Gene Matthews, one of Coach Pinkowski's returning pitchers, will handle the opener. The Colonels hope to get plenty of long-ball power from centerfielder Ralph Hendershot and thirdsacker Bobby Ontko to back up their pitching.

Monday Wilkes will take on the Scranton Royals at Schantz Field in Scranton. The colonels will be out to try and trim a Scranton team that trounced them twice last year. Scranton has their ace pitcher, Bob Meckwood, to lead a veteran team. Wilkes will counter with Gene Matthews who is expected to come back with two days rest.

Wednesday's Results

Veteran pitcher George Gacha threw seven-hit ball at Muhlenberg College as Wilkes won its opening game of the 1960 season, 9-4. The game was played in 30 degree weather.

Gacha, who struck out eight and walked two, was backed up by the fine hitting of thirdsacker Bobby Ontko, second baseman Walt Folek, and rightfielder Dick Harvey. Each collected two hits, with Folek driving in three runs and Ontko two.

Wilkes jumped off to a two-run lead in the first inning as both runs came across on an error. Muhlenberg came back with one in the second and the Colonels scored again in the third on Paul Aquilino's single. The Mules tallied again in their half of the inning, but Wilkes scored two in the fourth on Folek's hit.

Folek produced another run in the sixth and Muhlenberg finished off their scoring in the bottom half of the frame.

The Colonels iced the game with a three-run outburst in the eighth. Ontko doubled in a pair and Ralph Hendershot sent across the final Antinnes then garnered two wrestling presentations, one for being a member of the championship MAC squad and another as outstanding wrestler of the 1959-60 season.

Antinnes was undefeated in the past campaign and has won his last 26 dual matches. He also provided Wilkes with their first national champion when he won the NAIA title at 177 pounds.

To climax the reception of awards, Antinnes was named as the top performer of the year and presented the Howie W. Davis trophy. As an anti-climax to the numerous awards received, Antinnes was also named wrestling captain for the 1960-61 season.

Captains named for the 1960-61 year were: Antinnes, wrestling; Clem Gavenas and Ron Roski, basketball; and Lou Zwiebel, soccer. Other captains will be named next year.

Golf Team Meets Hofstra In Opening Match of 1960; Januszko in No. One Spot

Coach Welton Farrar's golf team journeys to Long Island today to meet the Hofstra Flying Dutchmen in their opening match of the season.

Bob Januszko, last year's low scorer, figures to be Farrar's top man and will be the leadoff golfer.

Other players in order of position on the team include Pete Perog, Jay Olexy, Al Stralka, Pete McLaughlin, and Joe Hiznay.

Coach Farrar is optimistic about this year's play and was quoted at the athletic banquet with, "We may possibly lose one this year."

Following today's match the team will be idle until April 20th when they meet Scranton at the Fox Hill Country Club.

run with a single.

Wilkes gathered a total of nine hits in the game. Catcher John Matthey was the other Colonel who hit. He collected a single in the second inning. Harvey and Folek each scored three times.

Himmel Leads Tennis Team in Opener At Rutgers Tomorrow

The tennis team opens its third season of competition on the intercollegiate level with a meet against Rutgers University of South Jersey at Camden tomorrow afternoon.

The Colonels have been bolstered by three new men; Owen Francis, Nick Piccareta, and Ronald Bienkowski. Piccareta, formerly a night school student, was on the second team of last year's squad and during last summer practiced extensively and vastly improved his playing ability.

The team has showed a great improvement over last year, particularly in the back men, those playing the later singles. It has moved its practice sessions out of the YMCA and has practiced on the courts at the Colonel Smith Playground behind the Luzerne County Courthouse whenever the weather has permitted.

Tomorrow's meet will be the only meet before the Easter holidays, after which the netmen will first take on Susquehanna University at Selingsgrove in a previously unscheduled contest on April 20.

Gutterdusters Sweep 4th Straight Shutout; Pinbusters Finish 2nd

Sunday night will decide the championship of the 1959-60 Intra-Co-ed Bowling competition when the Pinbusters and Gutterdusters clash on alleys 1 and 2 at the Jewish Community Center. The Pinbusters finished in first place at the end of the first half, five games ahead of the Gutterdusters. Positions were reversed in the second half with the Gutterdusters finishing eight games ahead of the Pinbusters.

Last Sunday, the Gutterdusters swept to their fourth consecutive shutout victory, whipping the Blitzkriegs, 4-0. Dick Myers put on a big push for the high series honors with a 223 opening game, followed by a 224. He lost the range in the third game, however, and settled for a 599 series.

A total of six games over 200 were recorded in that match as Dan Lewis hit 224 and 204, Bill Watkins of the Blitzkriegs hit 214 and his teammate Dave Gozdiskowski had a 206. The Gutterdusters hit their team's seasonal high mark in the second game with an 880 and won the match, 2490-2372.

Gutterdusters: Myers 599, Lewis 595, Lois Myers 141-382, John Rentschler 186 and 161, Bernie Shupp 182 and 132, and Carl Borr 111 and 142.

Colonel Bowlers After Natl. Crown In New York Tourney

The 1960 National Collegiate Match Games Championship this year will hold the Eastern Regional tournament at Stadium Lanes in New York.

Eight Wilkes bowlers, who have represented the College in inter-collegiate matches this year, will compete in this event on Sunday, April 24.

For the first time, the tourney is being run on a nationwide scale, with a similar event sponsored by the Midwest Conference eliminating at Chicago.
