The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation last week announced the opening of competition for its fellowships for the academic year 1959-60. The chief purpose of the fellowship program is to attract the critical mass of qualified college teachers by encouraging college seniors of outstanding ability to consider college teaching careers.

To this end the Wilson Foundation annually awards 1000 fellowships for first-year graduate study at any university of the recipient's choice in the United States or Canada. Woodrow Wilson Fellowships carry a stipend of $1500, plus full tuition and fees, and, in the case of married Fellows, a dependency allowance for wives and children.

The program is open to college graduates in the natural and social sciences and in the humanities. Both men and women are eligible, and there is no limit on the age of the candidate or the number of years he may have been out of college. Those who receive awards are not asked to commit themselves to college teaching, but merely to "seriously consider" it as a possible career.

The Woodrow Wilson Foundation does not accept applications directly from students. Candidates for the fellowship must be nominating faculty members. Nominated students are invited to declare themselves as active candidates for the award by completing the necessary application forms.

Winners of the award are selected through screenings of the applications and personal interviews by regional selection committees, made up of eminent members from the regions' universities and colleges.

The closing date for nominations for the academic year 1959-60 is October 1, 1959. Nominations should be sent to the Chairman of the selection committee for the region in which the prospective candidate is now located.

Career College Teachers Encouraged by 1,000 Woodrow Wilson Fellowships

Bennett, Philadelphia, associate professor of English; and Professor Kenneth M. Williamson, Middletown, Conn., Visiting Professor of the John Hoy Whitney Foundation, economics.

The Season is running a weekly series of sketches on campus life.
Money, money, money awaits and no takes. Sounds unlikely, but true. The Student Government has available for any student four (count 'em, 4) scholarships each worth $162.50.

That comes to about enough money to pay for a hall semester. So far there has been negligible response to the ultra-simple requirements for consideration. Any one wishing to investigate this windfall should write his name, address, and reasons why he feels he is worthy of this scholarship to the member of Student Government. This constitutes formal application.

Applicants will be reviewed by the Deans and the four grants will be given to the persons named by that review. The deadline for submission has been extended until next Friday.

Help Those Who Help Us

We welcome back to our pages many of our old friends whose advertisements pay for your newspaper. Added to these friends are several new merchants and business men, to whom we wish to extend our greetings and wish for a long and mutually beneficial relationship.

Further, we urge our readers to take especial notice of their messements which follow this column, for we feel, that in return for their tangible contributions to the success of our publication, our readers ought to extend equal support by patronizing these good men.

The "Right" to Patronize

It isn't that a certain portion of our advertisers don't want or appreciate complete student patronage, but in some cases they don't and there is a good reason for the following words of caution.

Laws in the State of Pennsylvania are more often honored in the breach than in the observance, but concerning liquor licenses such is not the case. It is a bitter pill to grind, but we feel that in return for their tangible contributions to the success of our publication, our readers ought to extend equal support by patronizing these good men.

We are not to argue the "rightness" of the arbitrarily set age of 21 as the dividing line between adult and minor. The law has evolved and that and has provided for punishments in cases of violation. "Right" or "wrong," the law is the law. What we are driving at now, is the fact that certain of our students and young people in general are far better able to appreciate the meaning of these laws and are served it considered "frequenting." The owner who permits that "frequenting" is considered to be contributing to the delinquency of minors, a deed punishable by law. Be governed accordingly.

Bookkeeper's Nightmare

A final word concerning local merchants, whether or not advertising in your paper, a book bilking, soliciting, paying, and billing for goods is considered a naughty deed. Many are punished for this offense. Unknowingly or not, these merchants are being defrauded in this way.

Simply, this is accomplished by obtaining the desired merchandise and a bill for it. The bill is taken to the advertiser or other authority for approval, then paid through the Finance Office. The bookkeeper then has a hard time because the organization for the quantity by mail. Often these bills are very small, but must be carried out on the merchant's books. Sometimes as much means a smaller percentage trying to collect the bill as the value of the merchandise.

The whole sappy, wasteful mess can be avoided so simply. A few word to all advertisers!” A common sense and co-operation can erase repetition of this nuisance.

Foundation Aids Polish Program

The first full-scale exchange program with Eastern Europe since World War II will be under the sponsorship of the Polish Foundation for Education. The Foundation sponsors a program to send 150 American high school students to Poland as consultants, lecturers and special assistants.

The Polish visitors, most of whom are self-taught in English, have been hosted by over 50 American universities and over 200 U. S. industries and businesses.

The grant is the fourth in which IIE has received from Ford in an exchange program with the Polish Exchange Program.

Mr. Roebuck is secretary of the Polish Exchange Program.

The program will be administered in the United States by the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. The Polish visitors, most of whom are self-taught in English, will participate in study, special research projects and special assistance roles.

Campus Projects Aired at SG Meeting; Court of Appeals Positions Complete by Jim Jackiewicz

On October 6, 8:06 p.m., the regular meeting of the Student Government was called to order by President Gordon Roberts. Following the minutes of previous meetings were received and approved.

Among the reports of standing committees, the most interesting was that of Jim Stephens, Spirit Committee Chairman. Jim reported to the group the newly revived school spirit movement on campus, and the success of the upcoming Homecoming soccer game, and basketball games are being ordered and will be sold by committees. The Homecoming soccer game, along with the football game, will be held on October 28.

Bill Davis reported on the United Fund campaign. With a hundred dollar profit is expected from the United Fund Dance, to be held Thursday, November 9.

In his report on the proposed honor court for the student body, Armstrong announced that the committee will meet today at 3 p.m. in Student Council office, second floor of the Library. Preparations are being made to start the honor court with a thorough air of this controversial measure.

Foreign Orientation chairman Bob Washburn announced that the second annual Foreign Orientation for new students will be held Tuesday, October 24. Another important issue discussed was the changeover to a more constructive program for the duration of housing.

On the athletic front on the first floor of Parrish Hall where new cigarette, milk, and soft drink vending machine have been installed, ash trays will be provided for convenience.

A short discussion concerning the Student Leader Conference was held. Members of the student group, the Common, Wednesday, October 25, were informed as to the project of the conference.

New business discussed consisted of the dissolution of the Homecoming Disconnect Committee. The Dissolve Committee consists of activities that the group will attempt to do with the spirit of the homecoming spirit. The Dissolve Committee was dissolved due to the importance of the new business committee to be formed. A vote of the election of persons to fill positions in the Student Government Court of Appeals was held. The candidates for the board were: Michael Bianco, Bianco, John, and Alfred Giaritta. Professor J. D. Elliott and Dr. Stanko Vujica were appointed to the faculty posts, and the Board of Appeals was selected as an administrative member of the Court of Appeals.

WILKES DEBATERS
Go to Lehigh U.

Club Orators Will Speak On UN for Kiwanis Club by Gloria Zaluszek

Dr. Krug, debate club advisor at Wilkes, will be featured speaker at a debate at Lehigh University, Saturday, October 24.

The Debate Club of Wilkes College plans to attend the Workshop to study debating topics and technique. At this Workshop, Dr. Krug, debate club advisor, will make an address on his topic of "Developing debate defensive defenses." He is also planning to attend a convention of the Debate Association of America and to visit with the Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia, Pa. ForPre-Par, and will be able to gain an experience with the debate club.

The Wilkes debate club orators, divided into two panels with Mike Bianco, Murray, and Allegro, will deliver speeches on the Political, Social, and Economic aspects of the United Nations.

The first panel, with Michael Bianco, Aaron Hastie, Barry O'Connell, and Lillian Chirlin, will speak on: the second panel, Prittson Kiwanis Club, Claret Club, and the First Presbyterian Church, Nov. 14.

The second panel, featuring Donald Murray, Evelyn Godfrey, and Allen Laster, will speak on: The Kiwanis Club, Oct. 20; and the Wilkes-Quota Club, Oct. 26; and the Wilkes-Quota Club, Oct. 29.

The club's active debaters, Roberta Feinstein and Michael Bianco, co-managers, and Aaron Hastie, Lillian Chirlin, and Brent O'Connell, have begun to discuss the nationwide debate upon this year's topic, "Resolved, that the United States should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court," and the nationwide debate upon this year's topic, "Resolved, that the United States should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court," and the nationwide debate upon this year's topic, "Resolved, that the United States should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court," and the nationwide debate upon this year's topic, "Resolved, that the United States should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court," and the nationwide debate upon this year's topic, "Resolved, that the United States should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court." There will be no definite dates for these debates.

It was also proposed to take the names of the campus organizations who are interested in participating in the flash card section, and there will be a meeting in the gym November 14. A committee consisting of Gene Stecker, Claire Hundl, Georgiana Rios, Betty Bailey, and Carole Giairita, was organized to plan the flash card section, and the idea was suggested that printed flash cards be handed out to students.

The meeting concluded with the election of the active debaters, Bob Jones, and the presentation of the Executive Council of the club.

Flash Cards Planned by Spirit Committee, Open to All Students by Lynne Deme

The proposed flash cards for the Wilkes-Lycoming Homecoming game, which will be a part of the Homecoming spirit at the last School Spirit Committee meeting, suggestions were made to have approximately seventy people represent each of the four classes.

The plans to Do 'Something Unspoken' In Exchange Program with Mansfield

Bob Evans, president of Cune 'n' Curtin, has announced that the group will have an exchange program with Mansfield State Teachers College on November 5. Members of Cune 'n' Curtin will come here November 6, and Mansfield students will come November 9.

The play to be presented is "Something Unspoken" by Tennessee Williams, starring Mary Frances Swigert and Virginia Lyons.

The first play to be performed at Chase Theater will be presented possibly the third week in November. That the play will be a two-act play entitled "The Man With the Golden Arm." Will be played by Annette France. They also plan to do a one-act play which probably will be "Post to be Held," written by Jean Giraudoux and translated by Helen Ziegler.

Notice concerning the casting of the two plays will be posted on the door board next week during the week. Mr. Alfred S. Grob, the advisor of Cune 'n' Curtin, will be in charge of the casting and the directing of the productions.

The following chairs were appointed to various committees at the last meeting held September 8: Ray Litman, stage manager; George Thomas, secretary; Judy Ruggiero, wardrobe mistress; Bill Farina, publicity director; Pat O'Brien, publicity director; John Trude, properties and furniture mistress; William Bird, stage manager; and Steve Cooney and Bill Farina, sound engineer.

Nominations were also held to fill the vacant positions of historian, advisor, and cheerleader. Nominations held on Friday, October 2, were: Larry Wilkins in the historian position and Pat Ide was elected secretary.

The importance of the Saturday Homecoming football game will be the theater here, but they can also gain points by attending which will go towards the gold or silver key for service.

YMCA Life-saving Plan For Skilled Swimmers Will Start October 14 by Sandy Biber

The YMCA's Christian Association, 60 West Northampton Street, will conduct a co-education class in swimming next Monday, October 14, at 7:30 p.m. The class will continue Monday and Wednesday from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. until 11:30 hours of training are completed. The course of the cost for non-members must be 17 years of age and able to swim 50 yards of the side, breast, elementary back, and sidestroke.

The course will consist of learning fundamental swimming strokes and routines and defensive tactics plus different methods of artificial respiration. At the end of the course a water and written test will be held to verify the qualification of the applicants.

A program is sponsored by the American Red Cross but is under the authorization of the PSM and is fully recognized in aquatic circles.

The YMCA's Christian instructor of the V.M.C.A., and his assistant, Dick Bradshaw, will conduct the class. Any questions may be directed to them. Mr. Thomas will direct the class and will take a job as a life guard next summer to take this opportunity to strengthen his qualifications.

Gridders Oppose PMC Squad Away Tomorrow

By RAY YANCHUS, Sports Editor

A car caravan of Wilkes students is being planned for tomorrow's game at Chester, Pa. A number of automobiles have been signed up to make the trip and a large contingent of Colonel roots should be on hand when the team takes the field against PMC.

Anyone interested in becoming part of the caravan, whether you have a car available or are simply trying to get a ride with someone else, is advised to contact Vince Corso at Barre Hall any time today or early in the morning. The Barre Hall phone number is VA 3-9000.

INJURIES MOUNT

The Wilkes football team received another dent this past week when it was learned that Jerry Loewen will be out of action for possibly weeks with a fracture of the leg. Big Joe Stralla will also be sidelined longer than expected and will not be available for duty this Saturday against PMC.

End Ray Marcincus is still hobbling on a weak ankle but is reported as being ready for limited action and should be in the thick of things tomorrow.

During the past week scrimmage also took its toll on the coaching staff. The same day that Loewen was injured, Coach Pinkowski who is always ready when it comes to a little head-hearing (he never wears a helmet) received a knee injury that put him on the sidelines for the rest of that day and maybe for the remainder of the season.

Line coach George Levias, who wasn't taking any chances after getting rapped up in a previous scrimmage, donned pads for the festivities but they were unable to keep him off the banged up list as he received a badly swollen hand for his efforts.

Both coaches quickly beat a path to the hospital the next A.M. for X-rays to determine the extent of the injuries. The old house just aren't what they used to be and sometimes it takes the hard way to find that out.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM IN MAKING

Another first may be accomplished in the near future at Wilkes as the cross country personnel are on the verge of signing one or two top men to operate on an intercollegiate basis. Dr. Gatz, Psychology professor, is acting as advisor to the boys showing interest in taking part in this venture.

Tentative plans include placing the Wilkes distance men in a race or two against big league competition to see how the boys fare and whether the sport can be placed on a college to college basis next year.

This will be a formative season for the marathon men and a lot will depend on the turn out of personnel and the earnestness displayed by the candidates.

Anyone wishing to join the cross county team should report to Dr. Gatz, or one of the following members of the squad: Tom Hurley, John Nork, Frank Marich, Joe Stretas, Greg Lester, Ray Orehonski, and Ralph Pinkney.

Co-ed Bowling League Begins Official Season

by John Nork

The intra-mural bowling league opened Sunday night as Team No. 1 posted four points by forfeit. This automatically put Team No. 1 in first place with a record of 4-0.

Bob Lasa took a 126 high for the team with a 370 series total. The 8-Balls slipped to a last place tie with Team No. 3, as Jerry Chasick of the 8-Balls rolled a series high of 487 with a game high of 177. His efforts were in vain as his team was edged out of the win, losing by a mere 10 pins.

The scoring:

Team No. 1: Tom No. 2: 1. Team No. 1: Two 1. Team No. 1: Two
John Sapigo topped a 402 series with a single high of 179 as he led the Pinbusters over Team No. 1 in victory over Team No. 2. The Pinbusters, series of five Home alone. For the remainder of the game. One Shapp starred for Team No. 3 with his series of 498, which was high series for the night among the teams, and a single game high of 204, which was the single score among the teams. Even with this advantage, along with good support from the rest of the team, Team No. 2 could not overcome the pinpoint registered by the Pinbusters.

Sunday's games: Saturday, October 11, the Pinbusters clash with the Molecules, and Team No. 1 battles the 8-Balls.

The Standings:

Team No. 1 Team No. 2 Team No. 3
Molecules 3 0 0
Pinbusters 2 1 3
8-Balls 1 2 3

Take to Road in Effort to Score First Victory of Season; PMC to Field Veteran Team

The football team hits the road tomorrow for the first away contest, facing Penn State Military College at Chester, Pa., at 1:30 p.m.

PMC boasts a record of 1 win and 1 loss at this stage of the gridiron campaign, having beaten Knox College 14-12, and losing to Western Maryland, 14-7.

The Cadets have 12 returners from last year's squad which edged the Colonels, 20-14, in the closing game of the season. Veterans will be at position except the right halfback slot where sophomore --- will get the nod.

Coach George Hansell expects to get lots of service from senior co-captains Jack Kirlin, at guard, and Jack Martinis, at fullback, and has a speedy halfback in sophomore Walt Crute.

Colonel Coach Hansell's chant captured the Middle Atlantic Conference Southern Division, with 7-2-0 record.

Moravian 28, Wilkes 6

Last Saturday the Colonels suffered their second loss of the season when the Moravian Greyshounds came through with a 28-6 victory.

John Williams, freshman forward who is trying to find a cross country niche, was the sole show as he ran and passed within the final 20 yards to the win.

Wilkes put the damper on the Moravian "satellite" offense in the game when the Colonels were rolled to two TD's in the second half in just 10 minutes and ensuing periods.

The Colonel offense was spotty throughout the first three quarters, with fullback Marv Antinnes doing the most damage on the running. (See Athlete of the Week). Antinnes drove relentlessly over the tackle and up to the middle to pace the Wilkes ground attack throughout the game.

Wilkes caught fire at the start of the last quarter and after an interception on the next drive, the Colonels registered a TD on two passes, a run by Teddy Gordon to the 6, and a final aerial to Gordon from the 1.

Wilkes continued to move the ball well after this outburst, but could not build it into a big lead.

The Colonels garnered 11 first downs to an equal number by Moravian, showing that the Blue and Gold were not outplayed by any margin.

End Frank Spudis played an aggressive passing game as he constantly raked Moravian ball-carriers who attempted to sweep his end wrong. "His idea was to run as he frequently penetrated into the backfield," quipped Coach Nork.

Big Fred "El Boss" Williams, co-captain for the contest was another stalwart on the forward wall. Williams played bone - crushing tackle all over the field before he was forced to the sidelines with an ankle injury.

Coach Pinkowski expressed praise over the performance of halfback Tony Amato whose runs and quick kicking were exceptional. The freshman specialist is a key member of the future Wilkes backfield.

Halfback Rich Ross, who was moved to that slot from his regular tackle position, was another stand-out with his fine defensive tackling and grabbining and a pass to lead a Wilkes drive downfield.

Soccer Team Opens Against Wagner

Coach Ferris Counts on Vets To Carry Bulk of Work Load; Havira, Morgan, Davis Return

At 2 p.m. tomorrow, October 10, the Wilkes College soccer team takes on Wagner College, the first of the three home games. The Colonels have had only one pre-season contest with Wagner, having defeated them in last year's contest at Staten Island, 2 to 1.

The bulk of the work falls on the returning lettermen, of which there are Coaches Joe Morgan and Carl Havira, and backfieldman Lou Davis, to name the three. Carl Havira, Coach of the Degree, has a team that will be counted on for the most of the work load.

Stevens Tech of Hoboken, N. J., banded the Colonels' initial intramural league goals in the third quarter. Final score was 3 to 0.

Stevens led at halftime, 1-0, but Lou Zerbel tied the match in the second half. However, the two winning tallies for the Enfringemen came in the second half. The Stevens defense then staved off a Wilkes rally to preserve the win.

The returning players have been adjusted for the most of the work load.

When eighty-five American girls and boys boomed the S/S Republic on September 28, they brought to more than 1,000 the number of college undergraduates who have participated in the University of Vienna's Institute of European Studies since its inaugural beginnings in 1950. The eighty-five students plus seven students who are already in Europe, include a two-generation family, a Finn who enrolls in the course of studies at the University of Vienna and will continue his studies in his second year, and one who has spent travel-study in nine European countries.

The entire European Year school year, which includes transportation, meals, and living, will cost them $210,000.

The Kirby Park Classics have begun. Once again, breathless and enthusiastic crowds witnessed those stellar stragglers for the championship of intramural football. Every Monday through Thursday, at 4:15 the mounds and gullies of Kirby Park resound with the thunderous thud of their pugilistic paws, not their brains or brown, in a struggle to emerge as victors.

A spectator may never see players reminiscent of the "Four Horsemen," as those of Otto Graham, or a defensive team reminiscent of Louisianna's "Chinese Bandits," but he will enjoy himself. The ability to outplay one's opponent does not necessarily determine the winner in these contests. Lady Luck may be in attendance too. This fact can soon be discovered by even the most casual observer.

The first encounter scheduled was the Honeymooners vs. Ashley.

Plan Hallowe'en on Party For Needy Children

by Sandy Biber

The Wilkes, who voted at its last meeting to sell tickets for the dance, The Diary of Anne Frank, which will be held at the Jewish Community Center, October 27-28, 6:45 p.m., are selling tickets at 50 cents.

The sorority's first project for the 1959 season is a Hallowe'en party for needy children, which is being held at the Salvation Army headquarters on October 31 from 6-8 p.m.

It was also announced that the club is planning a competition for Homecoming and will take an extra part in the other events. At the conclusion of the meeting, a special initiation for the freshmen and transfer student was held.

The Wilkes Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. John D. Cooney, will be at work rehearsing a full program for the Christmas season as soon as the Sorority begins.

Although most of the music majors on campus sing in the choral membership is by no means confined to these musically oriented students. People from various other curricular fields who are interested in vocal music are also faithful members of the mixed chorus.

The group—about fifty strong—meets in Glen Hall on Tuesdays and Thursdays at four o'clock, and on Wednesdays at noon.

Should any student hear, while passing Glen Hall, what sounds like Herr Drescher teaching his German class—dismiss the thought. It's only Mr. Detrey trying to get mixed chorus to pronounce correctly the words to part of the cantata, "Was Mir Bethol." It's written by Bach, and the group will sing in German, the part called "Happy Flocks in Safety and Union". The program will also include "Jene, Priceless Treasure," a motet by J. S. Bach, and some material from Mozart's "An Excel- lent Oratorio," "Elijah." Accompanying the mixed chorus is Miss Jan Cornell, a senior music education major.

Mr. Chester Colson Hospitalized, Recovering

Mr. Chester E. Colson, an instructor in Art Education, was admitted to the Wilkes Hospital earlier this week. He had not been feeling well and entered the hospital to undergo observation.

Mr. Colson is reported to be in very good condition. He personal- ly stated that he is nothing wrong with him and discounted any rumors that he might be seriously ill. After a brief weekend visit, he will return to his teaching duties on Monday.

NOTICE! CHEERLEADERS PLAN DANCE

The Wilkes College cheerleaders plan a special dance for Saturday, November 14. Although plans for this dance are not as yet finalized, plans are being made for decoration and music and have been suggested. This will be an excel- lent opportunity for all to show off their dancing skills and make new friends.
