Brubeck to Appear on Campus in Early April Jazz Extravaganza

King's Visit Meeting of Student Government; Discuss Sports Events

Cooperation Planned in Areas of Interest

This Student government was host to King's Student Council on Monday night. The joint meeting was held to discuss areas of mutual interest and areas where cooperation between the two colleges could be improved.

It was emphasized that the colleges cooperate in various areas at the present time, these areas including the debating tournaments, the chemical societies, the L.G.C., and the library exchange programs.

The main topic of discussion during the evening centered around the resumption of King's/Wilkes athletic competition. Neil George of King's gave a short history of the existing controversy as he understood it. It was decided that policy is at the heart of the problem of athletic relationships between the colleges. It was decided that the problem would be resolved on the fact that King's did not then belong to the Middle Atlantic Conference and was not governed by the same rules to which Wilkes adhered.

It was then pointed out that King's has since become a member of the Middle Atlantic Conference and is governed by the same rules that were mentioned previously. This, in itself, is a problem of the double standard is thereby alleviated.

The decision of damages caused by overzealous students was raised. The consensus of the King's students seemed to be that damages did not create a serious problem; Wilkes students were reminded of this on this issue. It was suggested that, should competition be resumed, the students of both schools be reminded of their role in maintaining the same standard.

Bill Davis moved a mutual recommendation to be presented to both administrations suggesting that athletic competition be resumed. Bill Davis then seconded the motion. The program was adjourned.

Wilkes' Student Government will travel to King's for a second joint meeting some time during the month of May.

IGC to Attend Model Legislature; Bianco Tries for Speakership

The main topic of discussion at the meeting of the Intercollegiate Conference on Government and Politics this week was the club's trip to Harrisburg to attend the model State Legislature.

About 25 members of the club are planning to attend the legislature which will be held on April 13-14. Delegates to the legislature will gain experience in participating in the legislative process from a bill in committee to its passage on the floor of the legislature. Each delegate has been assigned to a committee, and he must submit a bill to his committee for its consideration.

Michael Bianco, junior political science major, is regional director for the Northeastern region of the I.G.C. At the regional convention, which was held at Wilkes earlier in the month, he was nominated as the region's candidate for the position of state speaker. Members of the I.G.C. chapters from all over the state will elect one of several nominees for this office at the Harrisburg conference. The club will take an active part in Mr. Bianco's campaign for the state speakership.

In order to raise funds for the trip to Harrisburg, the I.G.C. is selling Easter candy. Anyone who wishes to buy candy may purchase it at the Bookstore or place orders with any club member.

The Sophomore Sponsor Association of World-Renowned Musical Group

Of World-Renowned Musical Group

by Mary Frances Barone

The famed Dave Brubeck Quartet, leading contemporary jazz group, will make its first appearance in the Valley on Saturday evening, April 8. The Jazz concert will consist of two full hours of some of the most familiar jazz recordings of original compositions and "old time" favorites.

Brent O'Connell, president of the Sophomore Class which is sponsoring the affair, has announced that it will begin at 8:30 p.m.

The Dave Brubeck Quartet consists of Paul Desmond, Joe Morello, and Gene Wright, in addition to Brubeck. The group has appeared at City College, University of New Haven, Newport Jazz Festival, New York Jazz Workshop, and the Newport Jazz Festival. The group has also played at such famous night clubs as Birdland, Blue Note, Navy Yard, and Mr. Kelly's.

The repertoire of the group includes numerous contemporary jazz selections and musical numbers, including "Indigo Blues," "Strange Visions," "Old Man River," "Three to Get Ready," "Lonesome River," "Campground Races," and "Old Man River." The group has made tours in Turkey, India, Pakistan, Canada, and has performed on television in various foreign countries. They played two sold-out concerts at the college and university campuses throughout the nation.

Brubeck, the originator of the group, began as a concert pianist. However, the main product of his talent has been that of the jazz stars chosen to salute Duke Ellington at the 1962 New York Jazz Festival in 1966. One of his achievements is his ability to blend three different instruments—piano, saxophone, and trumpet—into the formalism of classical western music, freedom of jazz improvisation, and the complex pulse of American folk music. He has been described as a "completely original" pianist who has affected the history of the group.

In his background as a concert pianist has affected the harmony of the group. However, it has been said by some critics that some of Brubeck's piano solos seem so far removed from melody and harmony that it is doubtful whether any return is possible.

Brubeck started with a trio, but when Paul Desmond, and his alto sax to the group, it became known as the Dave Brubeck Quartet. Desmond and Brubeck first met while they were in the army. After the war they met again in San Francisco and worked together, their musical ideas became so well that they have been generally recognized as one of the finest jazz artists in the use of counterpoint.

Joe Morello, drummer for the Quartet, began his career with the Johnny Smith Quintet. Later he worked with the Stan Kenton Orchestra, one of the largest bands in the world, until October of 1955. He is considered a "know how" by the group since he is a star in the band and his attitude is one of the consistencies of the group.

Brubeck has played the following songs:

The Quartet will be at the Harrisburg gymnasium, Saturday, April 8, 1961. The concert will begin at 9:00 p.m. at the gymnasium. Associated Women Students Group To Provide Community Leadership

The women of Wilkes have voted to organize an Associated Women Students Group. This move was made at the special women's assembly held last Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Clubhouse.

Associated Women Students has as its objective uniting the women of the college through self-government and the enrolling of their general education. This would be accomplished through various boards whose members would be selected by the women themselves. The organization also hopes to further the interests of the women of the local communities, and provide women students with the benefits of community work.

Several women became interested in the project last fall when Mrs. Henrietta Benich, Mother of Miss Beryl Cole, dean of the college. After the panelists had spoken, questions were called for from the floor and the vote was taken. Nominees for chairman of the organization, for a constitution committee, and for the position of temporary chairman of A.W.S., were chosen.

Those named to the constitution committee were Anita Symmons, Judy Powell, Alice Cole, Cynthia Hagley, Renee Lewins, Lorraine Duyn, and Joyce Cavallini. Nominations for temporary chairman were made for Mrs. Benich, Elizabeth Manos, Barbara Stev- ens, Cynthia Hagley, Merle Besich, and Vivian Lashin. The latter won.

The constitution committee will continue to meet on Tuesday, in Pickering 201, and at that time they will examine constitutions from other similar organizations and draft a constitution to Wilkes. They will then begin work on the constitution for A.W.S.

Miss Cole addressed the girls at this time, explaining the procedure and closing remarks. She stated that the women students would continue to be received with the amount of encouragement they had met during this period formation.

A panel of women, representing all the classes, addressed the students and each gave a statement. They were: Jane Bronson, Jane Wootz, Judy Powell, Carol Thomas, Jane Chisarick, and Mary Alice Atha- vila, Myrna Fishman, and Merle Sylvania Hall, 5:30 p.m.

Colonel Netmen Strong; Anticipate Best Season, List Twelve Meets

The 1961 edition of the Wilkes tennis team has begun its drills in Kirby Park with a promising turn-out of freshmen and other new comers to bolster the returning lettermen. The squad looks to improve on its 1960 record of six wins and two losses and has even gone so far as to predict an undefeated season.

Having lost only one man, Ian Hiamel, through graduation, the squad is bolstered by returning lettermen Dick Denkar, Ron Bloomkowski, Steve Klein, Mark Halpe- rin, Bill Kline, Owen Francis, and Dave Kline. Other men being groomed for court berths are Al Gobanick, Dick Morgan, Tom Hiestand, Ron Ciccone, Bill Hunt, Len Andrus, Mike Samberg, and George Garavale.

Home meets will be played on the azucut not quite completed courts in Kirby Park. The schedule is listed below.

Tornadoes Trounce Screwballs; Gutterdusters Stop Playboys

In intramural bowling competition last Sunday evening the Tor- nadoes defeated the Screwballs, 3-1. Ask the Screwballs and jumped from fifth place to the third place slot in the standings. The Screwballs were thus bumped into fifth place from their tied position for second with the Gutterdusters, who split with the Playboys to gain second place.

In the Tornadoes’ whitewashing of the Screwballs, Bob Howitt and Jerry Chisnock led the Tornado attack with near identical scores as they posted 200-406 and 190-495 respectively. Ed Clause was high man for the losing Screwballs with 190-450.

In another competition the Boozers defeated the Boozers, 2-1. Even though the Boozers managed to win three points they dropped from third place into fourth. Howie Williams bowled a big 190-450, but was assisted by Butch Kaplan with 189-450. Dave Sohier had 190-502 for the defeated Ebonites.

In the Pinbustes’ loss to the Alley Cats, 1-2, Dave Bankovich with a 185 and 183 in the second and third games, finished with a 530 series as his team came from behind to down the Pinbustes. Emil Petrades had the high man for the losing team with a 195-535, the highest total of the night.

Decidedly not. In fact most executive jobs are on the ground. Of course, all officers may apply for pilot and navigator training if they meet the eligibility requirements. There will always be a need for piloted aircraft. And it is foreseeable that in your working lifetime, there will be piloted spacecraft—piloted and navigated by Air Force officers.

But right now, there is also a big future for college-trained Air Force officers on the ground. New and exciting technical jobs are opening up. Important administrative positions must be filled as World War II officers move into retirement.

Air Force officers do not need wings to move up. There’s plenty doing on the ground. Perhaps you could be one of those young executives in line. Ask your local Air Force Recruiter. Or write, Officer Career Information, Dept. SC13, Box 7608, Washington 4, D.C., if you want further information about the training officer or Officer Training School programs.

Guard Leads Nation in Foul-Shooting With 91.3 Percentage

Rosen, who at Wilkes got another pat on the back this week as Harvey Rosen was crowned King of the Foul Line. The scrappy sophomore guard gained national prominence as he was named leader in both the NCAA and NAIA ratings for his foul shooting percentage.

Harvey made 105 free throws of 116 attempts to end the season with a remarkable 91.3 percent from the foul line. This feat is further bolstered by the news release of the National Basketball Association which named Bill Shermann of the Boston Celtics as the Free Throw's winner with an 89.4 percent.

The best game of the 71” guard registered from the foul line was in the season’s finale against Rider when he dropped in twelve of 13 attempts to give the Colonels their necessaries margin for victory. In 14 games Rosen had a spotless record from the foul line and in eight contests he missed only one. All this is in the line of “ Charity shots”.

Foul shooting isn’t Harvey’s only claim to fame as he led the Colonels backcourt in scoring with a 17.2 average. If he had 44.9 percent of his field goal attempts and gathered in five rebounds a game for the Davians.

His best all-around performance of the season was in the 73-70 vic- tory over Lycoming College. Harvey hit 13 of 24 goal attempts and had a spotless record from the foul line while amassing 21 points.

Perhaps the greatest tribute to Harvey’s foul shooting was re- duced by a Rider College fan when he commented, “If Will the Stilt could shoot like Rosen, he’d be even better than he is now.”
Controversial Works Head
Library's List of New Books
by Gloria Zareles
Among the new books which the library has added to its collection, a reading of this year's Reading and Enjoyment" is one which will receive the approval of many of our readers. There is no question that the work of the Vance Packard.
In this exciting start, the auth- shows how waste has become a virtue, and questions the morality and economic validity of a system that practices "plundered obscures-" as well as its contribution to the useful life of products. On the more practical aspect of money, there is a book entitled Hand Weaving for Pleasure and Profit, Harriett E. Brown. Written clearly and sim- ply, this book introduces the reader to the open-ended aspect of two- handles-weaving, enabling an in- dividual weaver to earn money and enjoy a hobby.
An undoubtedly controversial book concerned with one of the leading writers of our time, William. Vance, is Quest for Failure by Walter J. Jaff. The author con- tends that Vance is fascinated by a certain kind of relationship, one involving unresolved conflict and extreme tension. The delib- erate ambiguity added to his writing in Vance's artistic intentions and temperament engage him in a quixotic quest for failure.
The Life of Hillsare Bello, the sailor and the navy, the violent individualist, who made his way to the decline of all good things, the versatile genius (poet, satirist, historian) - here is the authenticated biography of Bello by one who knew him, Robert Speaight.
This is the story of a crook - a characteristic series which characterizes the reader on his guard against specious acquaint- ances.
Mr. Spong's Sporting Tour, R. B. Surtose, a writer who fears no one and rolls no logs, leads a reader into an atmosphere as brisk as one of his hunting mornings, and Surtose's book is highly unfaltering to everything in sight - faces, trees, grey rough - but it is indeed a thoroughly bracing experience to the reader who takes a masterpiece quite different from ordinary fare.
Debaters to Try for Regional Honors in Baltimore Tournament
Lyrae Dente and Jerry Kraus will represent the Wilkes College society at the District 2 Regional Debate Championships in Baltimore, Maryland.
The due long for the forensic competition yesterday; they will compete in eight debates today and tomorrow.
The District 2 competition matches the best teams from Pennsylva- ny, New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia. The debates are turned in unity but the Xavier, the participants must adequately de- serve the affirmative negative sides of the debate proposition.
This year's proposition is, re- solved: "The United States Should Adopt a Program of Com- prehensive Health Insurance. Debaters are free to use all pertin- ent material on the national topic. They should, however, be able to substantiate the accuracy and au- tenicity of the evidence they pro- duce. The debates will begin on October and end early in May, has been decided. Regional eliminations for the na- tional forensic championships at the end of April will determine a master- piece quite different from ordinary fare.
