Norman Thomas to Visit Valley

As Guest Lecturer of SANE

by Jerry Shalansky

The newly formed Wilkes College Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy in cooperation with the Wyoming Valley Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy and the Jewish Community Center of Wyoming Valley will sponsor a lecture by Norman Thomas, whose topic will be "Arms and the Cold War". Thomas will speak in the Weiss Auditorium of the Jewish South River Street Community Center, located on April 20, beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Norman Thomas, a well-known and controversial political and literary figure has for many years fought for and expressed his views of freedom and liberty.

Born in 1864, Thomas attended Bucknell University and later went on to Princeton University where he was graduated in 1896 as valedictorian of his class.

During his long life he has consistently opposed war and injustice, Thomas, an ordained minister, took a definite anti-war stand during World War I and later joined the Socialist Party because he believed it was the only organization realistically facing the problems of war and the need for economic change.

Since then Thomas has been an active in the Socialist Party and has campaigned for the Presidency of the United States six times on the Socialist ticket.

He has taken part in many free speech fights, and in many other struggles in support of the rights of workers to organize. In this connection he has won several important victories in the courts for civil liberties.

In World War II, Norman Thomas actively fought for a peace based on the cooperation of free peoples and rejection of both capitalism and militarism. Since then he has campaigned for world disarmament, with international control and inspection and against both get-rich-quick imperialism and appeasement of Bismarck.

Thomas is also the author of numerous books and pamphlets, some of which are: Prerequisites for Peace, The Test of Freedom, Appeal to the Nations, A Socialist's Faith, and a host of others.

Admission to the lecture will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students.

LOST AND FOUND

Have you lost anything lately? If so, check this list and then rush right over to the Bookstore, where you will find faithful Millie Gillette guarding your belongings.

Among the items in Millie's custody are: 16 pairs of eye glasses, 21 pairs of gloves, two class rings, hearing the inscriptions KHS 1960 NRP and "NHS 1964 MHS", two rosaries, one set of picture possilly from KHS, one tie clip, 13 sets of keys, one composition book belonging to Jane Edwards, one Introduction to Music book belonging to Diane Williams, and the item which will probably create the greatest rush -- a 1961 Pennsylvania license plate sticker.

Millie asks that you at least bring a twenty cent piece when you come to claim your stuff.

Mixed Choruses to Appear Free for First Time in Sunday Concert

The Mixed Choruses of Wilkes College will present its first solo performance at the Town and Gown concert to be held Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

Mr. Richard Chapline, director of the group, stated that this will be the first program that the Mixed Choruses will perform without any of the other choirs.

Consisting of four major parts, the program will begin with "Nanie" (Riley) by Brahms. The second portion will consist of seven unaccompanied choruses from Ned Rorem's "From An Unknown Part." The chorus will then sing four folk songs of Brahms.

During the final portion of the program, eight members of the group will render excerpts from Offenbach's "La Belle Helene." Vocalists and their parts are: Mary Jean Sukowski, Helen; Merritt Wheeler, Ajax I and Parlor; Raymond Natale, Ajax II; Harry Owens, Achilles; Robert Elke, Mene; Walter Ulma, Agamenon; Richard Probert, Calchas; and Thomas Kanas, Orestes.

Thomas Hrynkiew will accompany the chorus.

Admission to the concert is free and everyone is invited to attend.

I.C.G. Chapter Travels To State Capital For Model Convention

The I.C.G. (Intercollegiate Council on Government) is holding its annual State convention this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Harrisburg. The twenty-five delegates representing Wilkes who left yesterday will stay at the Penn-Harris Hotel in Harrisburg.

Michael Bianco, junior political science major and regional speaker of the I.C.G., will run for the State delegates at this convention. All colleges that have State chapters will be represented at this convention.

The purpose of this mock assembly is to institute legislation, bills concerning social security, education, welfare, state and local government, and taxation and finance will be discussed.

Membership Drive To End

Pennsylvania's candidate for long membership of the campus chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will officially come to a close today. All male students of the sophomore and junior classes are eligible for membership.

Maury James, membership chairman for the drive, has announced that students who want to become members of the organization at the registration tables set up in the cafeteria and at Parvish Hall at 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. may also be purchased in the lobby of the Gas Company building beginning at 3:00 a.m.

PLAN TO PERAMBULATE AT THE PALAEOCHRISTIEN

by Estelle Masso

Een-e-en! Alice? Have you heard about pre-historic life? You want to find out? Well, have you ever lived? You'll get your chance this Saturday night at the Palaeochristien.

Weiss and Butler Halls have comandoed for the last two weeks for the "good old days" in an unforgettable fifty-cent night of carrying on. The fine trio of Bill, Ed, and Joe of the Butler Quartet will provide the music in the converted Butler Hall Cave.

The people responsible for this blast from the past are these: Charles Brod, Tom Pugh, and Herb Perlman; refreshments, Sandra Sidi and Dee Winkle; tickets, Maury James and Tom Pugh; decorations, the Weiss Commons, and Jim Winkle.

Annual Biology Convention On Agenda for Science Majors
by Leon A. Baiers

The fifteenth annual Eastern Colleges Science Conference will be held at the College of Forestry, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York on the weekend of May 4, 5, and 6. College men and women majoring in science at eighty colleges and universities east of the Mississippi will be attending.

The theme of the year is "The Inter-Relation Between the Physiological and Biological Sciences". The purpose of the conference is to encourage student undergraduate research, especially in areas such as (1) a forum for the presentation of research papers by college students, (2) an opportunity for undergraduates to meet well-known research scientists and hear them present their papers, (3) programming educational field trips to places of scientific interest. The fields of specialization to be represented at the meeting will include botany, zoology, physics, psychology, physics, mathematics, and the behavioral sciences.

The highlight of the day program will be the presentation of undergraduate research papers. About one hundred papers are expected to be delivered by college men and women at the conference.

Junior Music Majors Featured In Thursday Night Recital
Edward Yozdinski and Raymond Nautitis, two junior music education majors, will present a recital on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium.

Yozdinski will be featured on the saxophone and will play "Concertino da Camera" by Ibert and Hambert's "Violin Sonata No. 3". Accompanied by an ensemble consisting of Don Jones, clinician, on piano, and Jerry Sobel on bass tuba, Yozdinski will play the second movement of the program and will be accompanied by three trombones and tuba by Arvady Dabek. In this number, the students will be accompanied by two clarinets: David Jones, William Jakocewicz, and Larry Weid.

Nautitis and Yadzinski are members of the concert band, the choral music orchestra, the chamber choir, the madrigal singers, the Wind Ensemble, and the Collegians. In addition, Yadzinski is president of the local chapter of the Music Educators National Conference and Nautitis is a member of the brass ensemble.

Bankovich Rolls 222; Regina Ritzie Sets New High Series for Women

The standings of the intramural bowling league have undergone considerable change since March 24, the only team remaining in the same positions places they had on that date being the Ebonites and the Playboys, the cellar-dwellers and the league leaders. In the first and eighth place spots, helium has been going on. The best performance has been turned in by the Pin- busters, who have won seven points while dropping only one and have taken over the second place position in a spectacular rise from seventh.

Other teams which showed improvement in the standings were the Boozers who held down third place after having been in fourth, and the Screwballs, who are now tied for fourth place with the Gutterdusters. The Screwballs before had a firm grip on the fifth place slot.

On the negative side, the Gutterdusters are tied for fifth after having dropped from second, the Tor- ranoes are in sixth, dumped down from third, and the Alley Cats dropped from sixth to seventh.

League play on March 26 was highlighted by two shutouts, the Ebonites blanked the Tornadoes, 4-0, while the Playboys won four over the Pin- busters who failed to a man to show for the evening’s competition. In the other bowling, the Boozers defeated the Screw- balls, 3-4, while the Pin- busters won out over the Gutterdusters by the same score.

Ebonites, Tornadoes 0
Bob Scherler led the Ebonites with 299-501 in a match which was marked by relatively low scoring. Jerry Glibert had 275-444 for the losing Tornadoes.

Playboys, Alley Cats 4
Because this match was forfeited by the Alley Cats, the bowling af- fected the Ebonites’ averages. Playboys: Bill Williams 210-500, Joe Skorski 195-406, Jim Teno- loni 197-475, Tom Dinyak 195- 485, Jim Pace 157-411, and Mary Fox 115.

Boozers, Screwballs 3
Howie Williams’ newly purchased bowling ball tore up the pins as he recorded 203-539 to load the Boozers in their victory over the Screw- balls. Barry Sheehey was high man for the Screwballs with 186- 476.

Pin- busters 3, Gutterdusters 0
Jack Turner proved to be the hero of his team as he bowled 192- 191-188 for a total of 571. The nine display of bowing skill proved to be the deciding margin as the Pin- busters defeated a strong Gutter- duster squad which had two men over the 500 mark. Paul Bankovich had 222-333 and Dave Jones 190-380 for the losing Gutter- dusters.

In competition on April 9, the Pin- busters turned in the only shut- out as they downed the Ebonites, 4-0. The Playboys defeated the Tornadoes, 3-3, and the Alley Cats defeated the Boozers and the Screw- balls won out over the Gutterdusters by identical 5-3 scores.

Pin- busters 4, Ebonites 0
Led by John Turner’s 220-546 and Emil Petrukas’ 195-545, the Pin- busters moved into second place by virtue of their win over the last place Ebonites. Bob Scherler was high man for the Ebonites with 174-486.

Playboys, Tornadoes 2
Bill Watkins rolled 210-537 and Jon Dyson 196-525 as the Playboys defeated the Tornadoes and extended their league lead to ten and a half games. Bob Broosman recorded 188-494 for the Tornadoes.

Alley Cats, Boozers 3
His hitting from Frank DiGennari teamed up with Len Glassberg to burden the Boozers a 3-1 beating. DiGennari hit 212-560 and Glassberg 199-551. Regina Ritzie es- tablished another new high series of 521 for the women with games of 180, 103, and 172.

Screwballs, Gutterdusters 1
In a relatively low scoring match the Screwballs defeated the slumping Gutterdusters. The ‘dusters Dave Gusse was the only bowler of the two teams to break the 500 mark that night.

SOFTHAULT NOTICE
A director and an umpire are wanted for the Intramural Softball League. Entries will be paid $1.00 per game. All those interested should contact Matt Himlin in the gymnasium. Schedules for the league will be distributed to team captains next week.

Colonels to Host Ursinus Tuesday; Lose to Dickinson in Opener, 5-0
Coach Dydo’s baseball team dropped its season opener at Kingston High School stadium Saturday afternoon as it was shut out by Dickinson, 5-0. The Colonels lost in a doubleheader but the poor weather conditions cut the action to a single game.

Two Rod Devil pitchers tossed through the first two innings and were backed up by a nine-hit at- tack which, coupled with Wilkes errors, scored five runs. In the first inning poor Colonol shortstop, Dave Miller, committed a base error on first and third to set the stage for a three-run single through the box into center field to score the first run of the game.

In the second frame the Rod Devils put up an unearned run on a Wilkes error on a bunt down the third base line with a man on second who scampered across the plate when Lou Zampetti failed the ball. The visitors added an- other run in the fifth on a pair of walks and a sacrifice fly and ended their scoring in the eighth inning as pitcher Joe Smedley, Ditler, and Shaver.

The Colonels threatened three times in the third when Himlin singled with one out and got to third on two wild pitches but did die there as Wall and Jerry Lawrence both fanned. In the fifth frame they again failed to score and was sent to third on Sam Cooper’s sharp single to left but the rally was slayed in the sixth as Ditler and Lou Scatena both struck out.

The Wilkesmen’s last opportunity to score came in the eighth inning when Himlin collected his second hit of the day and went on second on throwing errors. The next two men hit straight to the pitcher and then Bob Ontko connected for a single which Elsa Kraynanski hit in by the 340 foot marker in deep left field and was stranded there. Had it not been for the strong wind coming in from left, Ontko’s blast would have scored the Colonels two runs.

Campus Students Boycott Session
At Recent Model General Assembly

In a move similar to that frequently seen at the United Nations Headquarters in New York, the twelve Wilkes students who represented the views of the Union of South Africa at the Annual Model General Assembly, stemmed out of a half session of the annual general assembly on Tuesday night, March 24, 25, and 26. The meeting took place at the Hotel Commodore and the United Nations Headquarters in New York.

The first meeting of the assembly took place at the southern headquarters itself and was diagnosed by an address given by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who is now serving as a delegate to the United Nations from the United States.

Chopyak, headed by Gary DeHope, was invited to participate in the assembly and discussed the effectiveness of the organization and the delegation to the JGA was divided among the eight states for the forthcoming year would be held.

LUST AND FOUND NOTICE

An irresistible raid was taken by mistake from the Brubeck Quartet Well Received At Contemporary Jazz Concert
by Joel P. J. Harrison

An almost completely full Wilkes gym enthusiastically vib-ut to the music of the Bruebeck Quartet on Saturday evening. The Internationally acclaimed group took between one and two thousand jazz aficionados on a trip that took them from Port Chester to the Pocono Mountains and across the Turkish desert. Turbulent applause echoed through the hall after each tune that was played during the two hour long performance, sung in an unexpectedly and newly acquainted jazz style, that left the audience completely mesmerized by the four members who are masters in impor-

After being introduced by disc jockey Bill Fisher, the Bruebeck Quartet, perennial winner of jazz polls, started the evening with a deft version of "Gone With The Wind." This was followed by selections from the Bruebeck "Jazz Impress-ings of Eurasia" album. "Bram-

After an intermission the group ran through a rearranged version of the "W. C. Handy Blues," ("St. Louis Blues"). A Desmond written by A. Desmond and Mr. Desmond, the relative first half of the concert as卓越 remains aside.

The music is absolutely precise, it's almost unmis-sung, he says, "We all feel lucky to be working with the great people who are here and we are grateful to the students who have been with us from the beginning."

A gallery of photos and floats decorated with the names of the students who have been involved in the project is displayed on the walls of the Colonnade building. The students are all members of the Colonnade Singers, a group of about 40 students, and are helped by a number of faculty members.

The evening ends with a farewell to the students and the group, who are off to other projects, as they say. The students are all looking forward to the next concert and are ready to do it all again.
