Campus Singers Offer Holiday of Music To Community Groups
by Mary DiLauro

The Madrigal Singers, Collegians, and Women's Chorus, performing a variety of concerts in the upcoming weeks, will provide a holiday of music for many clubs and organizations throughout the area.

The Collegians will sing at the Boston Store on December 14, at 7:30 p.m. Also on December 15, the chorus will perform at 8 p.m. at St. Joseph's Church in Wilkes-Barre. The Women's Chorus, directed by Nancy Thomas, will present its annual program on December 14 at the Boston Store, and will perform the mixed chorus on the 15th.

Both groups will perform a variety of concerts, from classical to contemporary. The Madrigal Singers will present a program of both classical and contemporary pieces, with special emphasis on American composers. The Women's Chorus will perform a program of classical works, including selections from Handel's Messiah.

The collegiate choir, under the direction of Dr. Robert A. Laver, will present a program of choral music, including works by Bach, Mendelssohn, and Elgar. The Madrigal Singers will perform a variety of Renaissance and early Baroque pieces, as well as contemporary works by modern composers.

The Women's Chorus, under the direction of Nancy Thomas, will present a program of both classical and contemporary pieces, including works by Handel, Mozart, and Verdi. The choir will also perform selections from traditional Christmas carols.

The Madrigal Singers will perform at several other locations throughout the area, including the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre, the Wilkes-Barre Central Library, and the Renaissance Inn.

The Women's Chorus will perform at the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre, the Renaissance Inn, and the Holiday Inn.

The Collegians will perform at the Boston Store, St. Joseph's Church, and the Women's Chorus will perform at the Boston Store, All Saints Church, and the Renaissance Inn.

Letter to the Editor...

Dear Mr. Editor:

Mr. Siegel's letter of last week was definitely over the top. I wholeheartedly agree with Mr. Siegel that "a liberal arts student is mainly interested in receiving a broad education." There should be obvious, even to Mr. Siegel, why the students of Wilkes are offered at Westminster, the liberal arts student might have to carry 135 week nights at Wilkes to acquire this "broad" education. If Mr. Siegel had taken the time to read the Student Bulletin, he might have saved us from the absurdities of his opinions.

The truth is that "the liberal arts program is primarily concerned with the cultivation of an understanding of our civilization and of the men who have created it and lived in it. Its studies are designed to give a student knowledge, thoughts and institutions, art and science, which are applied per se as opposed to narrow skills."

The purpose of the Bachelor of Science degree is not, as Mr. Siegel says, to see that "the students who graduate in college are adequately trained for a job." As far as I know, the purpose of the Bachelor of Science degree is the same as that of the Bachelor of Arts Degree--to teach most of the students I know work.

My brother, a senior, I have decided what would have to be to make it in before they were because of my scholarship. This does not mean that students working for the Bachelor of Science degree are a narrow education, for they are interested in a wide variety of their country. It's just that Bachelor of Science students are carrying a greater concentration in their major subject. That is what they want to do, Wilkes.

Mr. Siegel is right when he says, "Social science education is not a massive thing and not quantity," but may I further remind my friend that it is quality, not quantity, that is of worth, for there is a lack of quantity, both of which can be had at Wilkes.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Landesman Class of 1965

National Contest Will Honor All-Round Coed as Outstanding College Girl

Who will be the next National College Queen? Just think, girls, it may be one of you. The National Queen's position is to select and honor "the nation's most outstanding college girl." All undergraduate girls, from freshmen through and including seniors, are eligible for the National College Queen award.

The National College Queen is not just a "beauty queen" with a talent. She is also an important role model in the academic, social, physical, and community service. She is a typical American college girl brought up in a family that understands the importance of education and community service. She is a typical American college girl brought up in a family that understands the importance of education and community service.

There is a fabulous list of prizes at stake for the Queen. Her father will spend an afternoon weekend in Minneapolis, touring City Hall and the Minnesota State Capitol. She will tour the Mayo Clinic, meet celebrities, and appear at the Bon Jovi concert. She will tour the Palace Theater, receive a diamond ring, and a $100.00 award. She must, of course, apply for an entry blank for the contest. The deadline is January 31st.

So, girls, apply for an entry blank, show your support, and have a chance to win it all.

The club will sponsor the dance that will take place on January 31st at the Dance Hall, 220 South Penn Street, Wilkes-Barre. The dance will feature a band and a disc jockey. The dress code for the party are Lorraine Moore and Gloria Silverman.

New Stock Plan Offered

At a recent meeting of the Economic Club, Eddie Shockey was appointed secretary-treasurer of the club. The club will sponsor the dance that will take place on January 31st at the Dance Hall, 220 South Penn Street, Wilkes-Barre. The dance will feature a band and a disc jockey. The dress code for the party are Lorraine Moore and Gloria Silverman.

Notice

A 1959 blue stone Nautico High School class ring has been found with the initial LRE. The owner of the ring is currently unknown. If you claim the ring, please contact the Wilkes-Barre police department.
Colonels Play At Ithaca Tomorrow

I-M Basketball Action Begins; Faculty-Five, Gore are Favored

Action in the intramural basketball league will get under way on Monday evening, December 8, after the opening games are canceled by previous commitment. Opening games will pit the dormitory teams battling it out at seven o'clock and the independent squads starting play at 9:00.

Coach Mike Dydo has eighteen teams listed for play and the teams seem very evenly matched. Gore Hall will be the favorite among the dormitory teams and five are expected to qualify among the independent units. Butler Hall will have Ron Musselman, Ted Travis-By, Ed Rogalski, and Joe Kruczek heading them.

The Faculty Five is considered by many as the most powerful team in the league with such stand-outs as Coach Mike Dydo, Coach Beene, Marvin Antinmes, Jim Ferris, and Coach Pinkowski playing on the team. The Shawnees are "the dark horses" with Don Mathey, Stan Kershlof, Frank Miklanske, Barry Bryant, and Frank Lepore as part of their team.

The rules for intramural play will be the same as regulation play with the exception being that only six persons on one team will be allowed each player before fouling out. All playing in fast break time-steps and a player must participate in one only league. Teams must have five players and the favorite to have a full team on the floor fifteen minutes after scheduled time will feel the game.

Rosters may be changed up until playing time of the second scheduled contest, there can be no changes after this time. Persons excluded from the fast break bring considerable reasons are not eligible to play unless they bring permission from their doctor.

Bombers Featuring Fast Break

As Davismen End Road Openers; Open Home Tuesday with Royals

The basketball team continues on the road tomorrow night when it goes to Ithaca to meet the Bombers of Ithaca College. Although the Ithaca College five are not members of the MASCAC Coach Davis considers them to be formidable opponents of the season.

Last season the Ithaca men took an 89-67 win from the Colonels as the Blue and Gold were hampered by an overflow of personal fouls. An effective fast break bombarded this flow of events and ended up to try to stop the high-stepping Bombers before they outran them. This year's Ithaca squad is a carbon-copy of last year's with the run and -tune technique of ball played.

This year the Davismen will be out to out-lout and out-drive their opponents in order to repeat the Bombers' victory at home last season.

Home Opener

Eddie Davis' charges will give the Ithaca Colonels the Ithaca basketball season when they host the University of Scranton leopard. The first meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Saturday's Results

The Colonels opened their basketball season against one of the small college basketball teams in the region and fell prey to the Lehigh Gymnasium, 95-55. Outplayed before the game, the Colonels tried valiantly to overcome a defi-tate team; however, this final year saw them far behind in both offense and defense.

Harvey Rosen played a key role in the defensive ball by holding the Lions to a 71-3-3 average score through the first two quarters.

Tom Pugh and John Moore were successful in battling their larger oppo-nents before wakening from the swoon attack by men who towered over them by eight and nine inches.

Wednesday's Results

Ithaca's men defeated the roll of Wilkes' cage victims on Wednesday night at Williamsport as the Warhawks lost to the Thunderbolt victorious over the Colonels for their first loss of the season. The Ithaca hardwoods in the history of meetings between the two colleges.

The Colonels are up and furious with the two squads trading shots, passes, and dunks. Despite well-timed goals by Bob Fleing, help kept the Colonels in the contest between 4:30 and 5:00 at halftime.

Harvey Rosen took over the scoring punch for the Colonels in the second half by tossing in twelve points. Two free throws were the closing moments and the smaller Wilkesmen couldn't gain their points without help. Rosen also went for a substantial lead for the first time.

Rosen led the Wilkes scorers with 33 points, fifteen coming from the free throw line.

Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers
To Present Rare Performance

Wilkes students will have an opportunity to observe world-renowned Russian musical talent on Sunday, at that time, the Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers will appear at Irene Temple on North Main Street.

The performance will begin at 8:15 p.m.; proceeds from the affair will go to the Scholarship Fund for local colleges created by the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce. Students may purchase tickets for the performance from members of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Jaycees or from the Central Ticket Agency in Wilkes-Barre.

The Don Cossack Group was organized in Pre-Revolutionary Russia. Members of the chorus possess what is internationally considered the finest of vocal and dancing talent obtainable among the White Russian emigres who escaped from Communist Russia.

Their program in Wilkes-Barre will consist of 14 acts, each one including a liturgical music, folk songs, love songs, ballads, barcarolles, and a group of English songs. In addition they will present the authentic costumes of the cossack regiments, national dances, and the thrilling Cossack Sword Dance, "Lesenkha".

"Manuscript" Announces Deadline for Material; Sets Film Dates

by Gloria Zolek

Because the Manuscript has received a grant from the administration, the college literary magazine will show a series of five foreign films in Starr 116 free to the student body.

"Lucky Jim," an English satire on post World War II colleges, will be run January 6 at 7 p.m. The film, released in 1960, stars Terry Thomas and Ian Carmichael.

An Indian epic and winner of five international film prizes, "Pathas Paschali" is a 1956 release to be shown February 23. Other films which may be run next semesters are "Spartacus," "Les Misérables," "Manix," 1961; "Rashomon," Japanese; "Left, Right, and Centre," English; "Pino and the Payoff" and an Ingmar Bergman film.

The Manuscript has made tentative plans to hold student-faculty seminars next semester. These seminars will allow students to discuss current problems freely with faculty members.

Deadline for literary contributions is February 1. Students may submit poetry, short stories, and serious or humorous essays by placing them in the Manuscript box in the library. Art work should be submitted to art editor, Mr. Andres.

Freshman Coed Brings Extensive Background to Presidential Post

by Cynthia Harper

Voters in the freshman class recently demonstrated modern sociological trends when they elected Cathy DaAngeli to preside over the Student Senate. Cathy is a 16-year-old, 4'-9" woman with the history of Wilkes that a woman student was chosen head of her class.

Mrs. DaAngeli brings to her post an extensive background in administrative duties. She was president of her class for her junior and senior years at Old Forge High School and president of her class through three years at Wilkes.

German Students Meet

An informal group of German students is conducting its meeting every Tuesday at noon in Cyngham Hall. Though membership is free, interested students interested in German, it is not necessary to be taking German to attend the present time. Florence Gallagher is chairman of the group.

The presentations planning to sing Christmas carols at the homes of members of the group on Friday, December 22. They are also planning to have a German lunch table at the cafeteria at which German will be spoken almost exclusively.

At their last meeting, Mr. Fred Krohle showed slides which he had taken on his recent tour of Europe.

An informal group of the students took a trip to Philadelphia last spring and Fred, a student of the first and only son of Schiller's Mary Stuart. They were accompanied by Mr. Dnieg, Miss Dowski, and Mr. Richa.

Science Foundation to Aid Undergraduate Studies

To make undergraduate studies in science, engineering, educational institutions, particularly smaller colleges, for modern scientific instructional equipment, the National Science Foundation recently announced that it will provide funds, on a carefully selected and approved basis, for the purchase of scientific equipment for undergraduate instruction.

Collages and secondary institutions granting bachelor degrees in science may apply for these grants. Proposals to purchase scientific equipment to be used in the laboratory or in lecture demonstrations must be submitted by a person or group of persons in good standing, who will be identified as proponent of the specific proposal of equipment of interest to the college, or group of colleges, or who is in the interested in the specific proposal. The equipment must be new and should have been available through industrial channels, scientific suppliers, manufacturers, test equipment, and similar scientific agencies.

Proposals may not exceed 15% of total cost of equipment. There is no match with other sources of funds. Each institution will be limited to the purchase of equipment with the scientific equipment of interest to them. Those institutions not already receiving equipment of will be assisted to the extent that equipment is available.
