Miss Leona Baiera Will Reign As Fourteenth Homecoming Queen

Rachel Altavilla and Carol Thomas Serve as Queen's Princesses

This year's Homecoming Court is more beautiful than ever. Sharing the spotlight with our gracious Queen are the Royal Highnesses Rachel Altavilla and Carol Thomas.

The Princesses will reign with Queen Leona Baiera throughout Homecoming.

Princess Rachel

Her Royal Highness, Princess Rachel is a senior secondary education major now doing her student teaching in biology at Meyer High School. She has black hair, brown eyes and is five feet, two inches tall. Presently, she is co-captain of the cheerleading squad.

Beside being a Cheerleader for three years, she has been in the Biology and Education Clubs, on the class executive council, and a member of the planning committee for Associated Women Students.

Princess Rachel combines beauty with brains. She is a Dean's List student, and has worked as a waitress at Pocono Manor Inn for several summers.

Last year Princess Rachel attended the science conference at Syracuse University. She also took part in the Theta Delta Rho - Letherman's Club Fashion Show.

A graduate of Hanover Township High School, Princess Rachel is a member of Holy Rosary Church, Park Avenue. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Altavilla, 57 East Liberty Street, Ashford, Pa.

Her future will be in either public school teaching or graduate study.

Princess Carol

Her Royal Highness, the Princess Carol Thomas qualifies as a member of the Royal Court because of her beauty, personality, and contributions to campus life.

Princess Carol is 5 feet, 4 inches, statuesque beauty, whose doe-brown eyes and shoulder-length brown tresses combine to give her a look of soft femininity.

Her taste in clothes is attested to by the fact that she has appeared in several Lettermen's Club fashion shows, and was one of the ten Best Dressed Coeds on campus last year.

In her four years at Wilkes, Princess Carol has been a perennial leader. As a sophomore, and again as a junior, her Royal Highness was a Student Government representative.

She counts on her list of activities participation in the Women's Chorus, the water ballet, T.D.R. (past president), the girls' basketball team (co-captain), and the Education Club.

In addition, last year, she was chairman of the All-College Christmas Dance and is presently a cheerleader.

Off campus, Princess Carol is active in church organizations; she teaches Sunday School, is a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and is a former choir member of the Firewood Methodist Church.

Bountiful, by her active life, Princess Carol worked for three years at the Nanticoke Employment Office, and for a year at the Wilkes-Barre Employment Office.

Princess Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas of 39 Lawrence Street, Wilkes-Barre.

The Coronation

Princess Rachel and Princess Carol will formally attend her Royal Majesty, the queen, Leona Baiera, at coronation ceremonies at the Wilkes-Lycoming football game at the new athletic field tomorrow afternoon.

During halftime representatives of the alumni, the Student Government, and the Beacon will present the members of the Royal Court with gifts and flowers, tokens of their respect for their subjects for the Queen and Princesses of Homecoming 1961.

Car Caravan, Bonfire, Queen's Coronation Lead Homecoming Festivities

A torchlight parade, a bonfire, and a car caravan are being planned by the School Spirit Committee in conjunction with Homecoming Weekend. The torch parade will leave Stark Hall tonight at 7 p.m. and will proceed to Kirby Park, site of the bonfire. The bonfire is also scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Jerry Shilanski, chairman of School Spirit, will act as master of ceremonies at the Bonfire. In this capacity, he will introduce the Homecoming Queen and her attendants, the football and soccer teams, the cheerleaders, Kickline Majorettes, the Collegians, and the Wilkes Colonel, Don Ungarsch. Shilanski has announced that a surprise will be unveiled at the bonfire.

A sound unit, courtesy of Nardo's and lighting from the 16th Field Artillery unit will also be in use at the bonfire.

The car caravan to the Lycoming game will leave from the chase field parking lot at Saturday at 1 p.m. The Homecoming queen and her attendants and Dr. Eugene S. Parry will be the honored guests of the caravan. The honor court will have a military escort.

An added feature to this year's car caravan, the Kickline will be transported to the game in a veritable bus donated by the Wilkes-Barre Transit Corporation.

The School Spirit Committee will award a trophy to the best decorated car in the caravan.

Elaine Kozemchak is in charge of decorating the football field. Anyone interested in assisting this committee is asked to report to Kirby Park on Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

Senior Gift Committee Requests Suggestions

A senior class gift committee under the chairmanship of Mary Ann Foley was selected at a recent meeting of the class executive council. The committee is requesting that all suggestions for a class memorial gift be placed in one of the suggestion boxes which will be located at the snackstands at game campus starting Monday.

The class memorial fund will contain the answer to the question of the academic year and students are asked to keep this in mind. Deadline for suggestions is Dec. 1. Checks should be made payable to Miss Foley are Dave Edwards, Mimi VasKorlis, Louise Gatto, Marion Ripple, and Wayne Thomas.

Personable Education Major Will Attend All Weekend Activities

The following statement will put an end to the weeks of anticipation and the uncertain rumors that circulate about the campus every year at this time.

THE 1961 HOME COMING QUEEN IS LEONA A. BAIERA.

She has a charming personality, an effervescent spirit and a preoccupation with the success of others that characterize our attractive Homecoming Queen.

She is an elementary education major who loves children and plans to spend her life teaching English as her career. Her long-range plans are indefinite but graduate study and marriage are her aims.

Queen Leona, who came to Wilkes as a freshman in 1958, has been an active participant in various extra-curricular activities. She is presently serving as a Student Government representative for the class of '62.

She is a Beacon reporter, a member of the Education Club, the National Education Association, the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and she serves as public relations chairman of the Eastern Pocono Alumnae Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma.

She is also an active member of the Innsbruck Conception Church in West Pittston.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Baiera of 103 Montgomery Avenue, West Pittston, Pa., was graduated from West Pittston High School where she was treasurer of the band, a member of the glee club, the organ club, the yearbook staff, and a member of the girls' varsity basketball team. During her senior year she was chosen Valentine Queen.

Most of her summers have been spent working at various jobs. She has worked as a waitress at Atlantic City, N.J., as salesgirl in a local women's apparel shop, and last summer she obtained an emergency teaching certificate to work as a thousand-dollar instructor for the Wilkes Junior College.

Queen Leona and her court will reign over all the activities planned for the Fourteenth Annual Homecoming. Her royal role begins with the participation of this article. We hope you will visit the answer to this query: Is the Homecoming Queen a Royal Highness?"
The Changing Campus Scene

The alumni returning to campus this weekend are seeing two new additions in the form of recently acquired buildings. Howarth Hall, a women's dormitory on South Franklin Street and home to many of the college's evening classes, was opened to students at the beginning of this semester.

Many changes have altered the appearance of the college since its founding. Many of the college's classrooms were added in the last several years and have been occurring at a rapid pace.

The expansion by the college is seen not only in the construction of new buildings, but may be seen also in the enlargement of its staff, the addition of new courses, and the many intangible things which help to make a college great.

A Job Well Done

After weeks of waiting and preparation, Homecoming Weekend is at last upon us. The identity of this year's Homecoming Queen has been revealed, the decorations are in their final stages of construction, and the best part of the entire program lies just around the corner.

Homecoming provides all of us with an excellent opportunity to greet old friends and to enjoy the social side of college life. Surely at this time you will be extended to all of us who have helped to bring about this weekend of activities. The many hours of planning and preparation put into the Homecoming program will not go unnoticed. Community volunteers alike typifies the spirit felt by these people for the college. To all of these goes our thanks for a job well done.

A Reminder

A reminder that the campus United Fund Drive is now under way and your support is needed is in order at this time. With one week behind us and one week remaining in which to reach the goal, all those who have not done so yet are urged to make their contributions as soon as possible.

Remember, the efforts of the campus chimney and volunteer workers will all be in vain if each and every one of us do not do his share to help out. Help the college to reach its goal of $1200 in the coming week.

STUDENT SKETCH

Senior Accounting Major Active In College and Community Affairs

by Jerome Kranz

An old college holds that to have a job well done, you should give it to a busy man. This is certainly true of Clyde Roberts, who in his years at Wilkes has been active in both college and community affairs.

It is not easy to see why Clyde, a remarkable personality and a sharp wit, has been able to successfully combine college work with the many extracurricular activities in which he participates. He seems to have found ways to determine to get a job done once he starts it.

One sign of the drive that makes Clyde seek perfection is his present position as President of the Wilkes College Alumni Association. In addition, he is the treasurer and a charter member of the Accounting Club.

A lover of sports, Clyde is playing soccer for the fourth year at Wilkes, presently at the center forward position. He is wonted that he had never played soccer before coming to Wilkes and that he found that he was very good at it.

Active in community affairs, he is a board member of the First Presbyterian School in Wilkes-Barre. Clyde of sports also carries over into his activities in the community. For the past two years he has been a member of the Wyoming Valley Bankers' Benefit Committee. He was also bowled with the team from the First National Bank which won the league championship last year. In addition, he has served as the Wilkes alumni representative to the League playoffs.

Clyde attended high school at Girard College in Philadelphia and has a BA from Girard with a major in business. He is studying business economics at the University of Pennsylvania this fall.

Clyde attended high school at Girard College in Philadelphia and has a BA from Girard with a major in business. He is studying business economics at the University of Pennsylvania this fall.

For the past two summers, he has been employed at Baskin's Hill. Demonstrating that he can put his knowledge to use, he is also at times a present lab instructor in the Accounting Department. He has admitted that the Accounting Department at Wilkes is very good.

In talking about Wilkes in general, Clyde pointed out that the college was a great service to, not only him and his fellow students, but the community as a whole. "Wilkes is right for the community," he added. "A student can get interested in community affairs or the college and become an integral part of community" (continued on page 5)

Student Support Lacking in Campus United Fund Effort

by Mary Alice Ingalls

In its 18th year, the United Fund is preparing to be compiled on Tuesday morning, student contributions to the Wyoming Valley United Fund campaign totaled approximately $250. The profit realized from the freshman-sponsored raffle to benefit the fund, sponsored by Lou Cooppee, head of the student drive, states that he has received only a little over $100 from the students.

Though figures support for the drive seems to be lacking among students. The $120 student goal may still be easily achieved if will support one dollar or more, that will be collected from fifty-two health and wellness organizers throughout the Valley.

Dr. Charles Roif, campus chair- man of the United Fund, reported that as of Tuesday morning approximately $50 was already contributed. Student contributions are selected from faculty members, the administration, and the maintenance crew.

In the week ahead representatives of each class will contact by phone those who have not already contributed. Chairmen of the freshman, sophomore, junior, Kraas, senior class; Jeanette Bucholtz, junior class; and Mike Mostoller, senior class.

In the dormitory students are being handled by Peter Greenberg, president of the Inter-Dormitory Council and the respective dorm president.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK
Tackle Brunza's Jarring Defense Earns Him "Beacon" Laurels

This issue's Athlete of the Week award goes to James "Jingle Jim" Brunza, senior Secondary Education major. Jim gained approval for this accolade by virtue of his outstanding play in last Saturday's loss to Ursinus College at Collegeville, Pa.

From his right tackle position, the 311-, 202 pound Kingdon High School graduate played a steady both offensively and defensively. On defense, he seemed always on hand to bring down any Ursinus ball-carrier who tried to breach the Wilkes line. His offensive play was equally proficient as he constantly aided in opening gaps in the big Bear line.

Jim's week to week performances may not be termed spectacular, but he plays steady, aggressive football, while not attracting particular attention as a star. However, we on the Beacon staff feel that Jim is deserving of such attention as do the writers who follow the small college college concert. In their recognition, Jim was selected to the current ECAC Team of the Week.

We extend congratulations to Jim Brunza for his vital contribution to Wilkes College football.

SWIMMING TEAM NOTICE
Coach Ken Young will hold a meeting of the swimming team and its candidates on Thursday at the gymnasium, immediately following assembly.

Lettermen's Club Raffle Drawing Tomorrow;
Queen Leona to Choose Winners at Halftime

Tomorrow at the halftime of the Homecoming football game the winners of the Lettermen's Club Raffle will be announced. Dan Eller, Club president, has announced the Homecoming Queen will choose the lucky stubs.

A large crowd is expected to attend the game, as many are eager to hear the names of the winners. The sale of raffle tickets has been going on for several weeks and many people hold stubs. Five of these tickets are offered this year.

First prize is two tickets to the Army-Navy football game. The second prize is a ticket to the world's most colorful gridiron divison is included to make the top prize even more popular.

As second prize the Lettermen's Club is offering two tickets to the Broadway musical, "Sound of Music". This production has been the most successful musical of the season and the Club was very fortunate in securing tickets.

The third, fourth, and fifth prizes will be three ten-pound turkeys, so come one and all you hungry souls, here's a chance to win some real food.

With the exception of Shoe Shine Day, the raffle is the only money-making project taken on by the Lettermen during the year. Out of the profits of the raffle they sponsor their annual scholarship to a freshman athlete. The recipients of the award have been Marvin Amstanes, Al Dobrowolski, and Lou Zampetti. Also through the raffle the Lettermen hope to raise enough funds to finance the other activities they undertake during the college year.

Two of these are the Christmas Formal and the April Showers Ball. Two affairs on which they usually lose money. Everyone enjoys these dances, but to run them takes money. Since the Lettermen depend on the raffle to raise the money, it is up to everyone to support them.

Only hours remain; but any Lettermen will be glad to sell as many tickets as one is willing to buy. Chances are ten cents for one, three for a quarter, or twelve for "one hundred pennies".

Hockey Colonelettes
Open Season Tuesday

The thunder of footballs and soccer balls has been filling the air of the Athletic Field with the feeling of Fall sports but recently the cracking of hockey sticks has been added to the sports clamor as the Colonelettes prepare for their first field hockey game.

This year the coed will add a new chapter to the sports history of Wilkes College by fielding a field hockey squad. In past years the girls have been hampered by the lack of a sufficient playing field, but this year the hockey field has been added to the athletic plant because of a reality a hockey field was set up.

For the past three weeks the girls have been working out under the direction of their coach, Mrs. Doris Barton. The team has been actively developing individual techniques and skills while improving team play.

An away clash with College Misericordia on Tuesday night opens the season for the Coloneeds. Additional matches with N.A. and Misericordia will be staged throughout October.

Colonels Meet Lycoming Tomorrow; Try for Initial Season Victory

by Dale Jones

Lycoming College will provide the competition in football for the Bearcats in the 4th annual Homecoming program tomorrow afternoon. Kickoff time is listed for 2:30 at the Wilkes College Athletic Field.

The Colonels have their first win of the season in an effort to turn around a 2-4 record last week against the Northern Division of the MidAtlantic Conference. Last weekend the Wilkesmen dropped their third consecutive one-touchdown game when the Ursinus Bears bounced back to win last quarter scores for a 12-6 decision.

On the other hand, the Warriors of Lycoming flied a tinged Drexel Tech squad, 6-0, and showed in crashing forward play that the Bears will be the strong favorite of the afternoon. With the Colonels entering a rock-like line, a great game of line play is expected.

Of particular interest will be the duel between the Kingstoners and the Blue and Gold feature three former Huskies at the wing posts with Richard Rees, Larry Tuck, and Roger MacLaughlin, while the Warriors have Bill Ainsworth, working from the right end slot. Ainsworth is a junior at the Williamsport collegiate and has started as a wingman for the last three seasons. Both local product playing for the Lycomingmen is Wes Evans, a freshman from Dallas, who will spell Ainsworth from time to time.

Ursinus 12, Wilkes 6

Last Saturday the Colonels seemed on their way in ending the victory drought that has hung over them when a second-quarter touchdown back named Ray Emmet unleashed an aerial barrage that sank the Colonels hopes.

Both teams were scoreless until the Bears broke the deadlock by a field goal for their own five. Emmet was hit by a vicious tackle in the end zone and fumbled. Colonel guard Jerry Martin recovered the loose pigskin in the end zone and put the Bears in the lead.

With time running out and a Parent Day crowd screaming for a touchdown, Emmet ran with the ball and, after a 10-yard scoring pass to Dave Khor, the Bears were victorious.

After the kickoff the Colonels fumbled the slippery ball and the Bears took possession on their own forty-five. Emmet went into action again, and once more Emmet sent the Bears into scoring land with a pass. In the two drives Emmet hit on nine passes for a total of 90 yards.

Once again the Colonels outclassed their opponents, 127 yards to 101, but the Colonels could only collect seven yards on passes. Penally-wise the Colonels collected a whopping 83 yards as compared to 15 against the home club. Tom Kremelius was the top ground winner for Wilkes, picking up 48 yards.

Shawneeites Continue to Win;
Ashley, Butler Rule Dorms
by Judy Barger

The Shawneeites made it two in a row in their quest for a fourth consecutive intramural football title on Wednesday by downing a fighting, but outmanned Bandit squad, 54-0. The high-scoring game wasn’t a question of when the Indians would score but whose turn it was to score. Each of the tall, strong Shawnee from Plymouth got in the scoring column with Josh Karmilovich crossing into pay dirt three times and Johnny Tenna scoring twice.

The Bandits had only one scoring opportunity in the contest but an intercepted pass by Phil Russo cut their chance short. The interception took place in the end zone so the gallant Shawnee from the ball in play ten yards deep in the zone and rattled off the play of the year. Don Matley took the snap from center and after faking a pass intercepted by Tom Pugh. Pugh unleashed a sixty-yard missile to John Tenna who took the pass over his shoulder, crossed the field, and lateraled to Karmilovich who scored the TD. The play covered 110 yards.

In the Rockets-Mau Max action, the Rockets spotted their opponents a nineteen-point lead in the opening period before thundering back with twenty points in the second half to win a 20-19 thriller. Bill Root was a standout for the Rockets and rolled in the second extra-point for the margin of victory.

CUE N’ CURTAIN NOTICE

Ferrismen Out to Avenge Last Year’s Defeat to Dutchmen

Tomorrow, as part of the Homecoming Weekend festivities, the Wilkes Rosenmen will meet the Flying Dutchmen of Hofstra College at the new Athletic Field in a game commencing at 10 a.m. The Colonels will be seeking to reverse a 2-6 defeat by the Dutchmen last season. The Hofstra team appears to have the same fine offense it displayed last year. The only common opponent of the Ferrismen and Hofstra thus far has been Wagner College, who lost to Hofstra, 6-0, and to the Colonels, 3-0.

Last Saturday the soccer team journeyed to Gettysburg, only to drop a hard-played 5-2 match to the Burgs in the rain and cold wind. The home team’s offense was spearheaded by the combination of Taylor and Johnson. Taylor collected four assists and a score, as Johnson accounted for three tallies.

The goal of the day, however, was a scorching 40-yard blast by Colonel lionsman Walt Franekowski. The amazing distance of the shot came from the left sideline, caught the Gettysburg team totally unaware. Halfback Ted Toloba also hammered home a penalty shot from 30 yards out for the other Wilkes score.

Again in this game, the Wilkes offense failed to materialize to any great extent, as difficulties arose in moving the ball past the eighteen yard line. The defensive secondary, with a few notable exceptions, played its usual strong game.

Rider, 2, Wilkes 0
This past Wednesday, the soccer team lost to a fast, strong Rider eleven, 3-0, in a well-played game. Rider goals were scored by Sam Farrantie, in the first period, and Henry Glover, in the second. Farrantie, a center halfback, played an excellent match against Coach Ferris’ forwards. He was nominated to the All-American squad last year and should repeat this season.

The game, which was played in favorable weather conditions for a change, saw the Wilkes eleven put forth a determined effort against their highly regarded Rider team. Fine play by the entire squad prevented the visitors from running up the score as they had in last year’s contest. That game was a 14-0 humiliation of the Colonials.

Frank Lopre, Chuck Weiss, and Tom Tomalis gained nominations to the NCAA East team as a result of their play in the Rider match.

'Alumni Swing' Follows Bonfire; Baird Plays Chem Club Affair

by Leon A. Bales

Welcome alumni! The Chemistry Club will welcome the alumni at the "Alumni Swing", which will be held tonight in the gymnasium from 9 to 12 p.m. Admission is fifty cents. Bob Hal and his orchestra will provide the music for the affair. Appropriate blue and gold decorations, combined with displays made by the Chemistry Club, will add color to the Homecoming weekend.

Joseph Stretanski, junior chemistry major, is general chairman of the affair. The following are committee chairmen: Don Mattey, tickets; Irene Smulinska, decorations; and Joseph Stretanski, refreshments.

The Chemistry Club held a freshman initiation party last Wednesday night in Stark Hall. A buffet luncheon was served and faculty members were present. Marilyn Kränkel, senior chemistry major, was general chairman of the affair.

Chemistry Club members recently attended the Intercollegiate Society meeting at King's College in which all area colleges participated. Tentative plans for field trips and films are being prepared for the year.

Psych-Soc Plans 'Bop'; Club to Hear Krasno; Hospital Tour Tuesday
by Mary Frances Barone

The Psychology-Sociology Club held its meeting on Tuesday. Plans were made for the annual "Beatnik Bop" to be held at Stokely Hall Hospital, and a talk by Dr. Krasno. Dr. Isadore Krasno, instructor of Wilkes College and head of the clinical psychologist at the V.A. Hospital, will speak on Tuesday, October 24 at 11 a.m. in Polkseeing 232. He will consider one of the following topics: psychopathic personality, nonreductive therapy, or alcoholism.

On Thursday, October 26, members of the club will make a trip to Retreat State Hospital. The trip will take the members of the hospital, a discussion with the doctors on the staff, and interviews with some patients.

Among the other plans which were discussed at the meeting was the preparation of the Beatnik Bop. Barry Shevchik was appointed chairman of the dance. Other chairmen for the various committees are Jeannette Bocchi, intermission; Mike Windom, band; Circe Gratkowski, refreshments; Pete Hummel, and Francis Machmacher, tickets; Mary Frances Barone, publicity; Joe Allez, decorations; Hal Budis, chaperones; and Ken Na- persteck, clean-up.

Haxton Addresses Next Assembly: UN Week Sponsored by CCUN

by Barbara A. Lori

Shades of the United Nations! That's what it's going to look like around Wilkes College during the next week — United Nations Week — due to the efforts of the Wilkes chapter of the Collegiate United Nations. Not only will the UN flag be flown over the campus building, but an informative display of the UN's accomplishments will be set up in the library throughout the entire week.

To accentuate observance of this week, the CCUN will present an assembly program on October 26 featuring a speech by P. H. Hartman, chairman of the field representative of UNICEF, while the United Nations Emergency Fund of the UN and provides supplies, equipment, and technical training for the care of millions of children and mothers around the world. While he is in this area, Mr. Haxton is also scheduled to speak on Wednesday evening at the College Commons to the American Association of the United Nations, parent group of the CCUN, and on Thursday at a luncheon meeting of the Kiwanian Club, where he will be presented by Dr. Farley.

Coordinating the local celebration of United Nations Week are the officers of Wilkes CCUN, Garry DeHope, Jerry Shialinski, John Moore, and Elaine Adams and community representatives of the AUAU, Atty. Herbert Winkel and Atty. Joseph Sarvitz. In conjunction with the community observance of UN Week, Gala O'Tool, well known local artist, will present an exhibition of paintings, featuring the UN, in the lobby of the Miner National Bank Building.

BOWLING GETS IN SWING: Two Teams Tie for Lead

The newly organized intercollegiate bowling league toppled pins for the second week on Sunday at Jimmy's Lanes with the Gutterdusters laming the Alley Cats by capturing three points. In other action, the M and M Slammers captured three points from the Rebels and the Final Lines took three from the Care.

In the Gutterduster match Dave Gunn fired a 191-479 to lead the undermanned pinners to a first place tie with the Stompers. Jerry Zeller recorded a 188-483 for the Alley Cats. Barry Shevchik, 156-441, and Mary Fox, 122-397, aided in the Stompers win while Ralph Nelson, 140-386, and Mike Trosko, 153-399, scored for the Cats. Jerry Walters rolled a 213-497 as he paced the Slammers to a 2-1 victory over the Rebels in a close encounter.

Vito Fortino gave bowled two 173s and a 106 series for the Final Lines as they defeated the Facult, 3-1. Frank DeGennaro, 151-436, Frank Petrini, 153-427, and Bill Buco, 115-335, were helpful in the Final Lines victory. Joe Troilo, 185-464, Jan Troilo, 101-279, and Mike Dyda, 153-434, bowled for the Faculty.
