ICG Maps Its Plans For The Future; Meetings Oriented To Student Body; Bake Sale On Organization's Agenda

According to Karen Volgamore, Regional Secretary of ICG, the next two meetings of the organization will be oriented to the interests of the whole student body under the direction of Student Body President Gail Roberts, Program Committee chairman.

On Friday, Feb. 21, ICG is sponsoring the annual bake sale which will be supervised by Joseph Grohowski in conjunction with class elections. Miss Volgamore stated the purpose is to see which candidates the student body would nominate for President and Vice-President of the Democratic Student Government (president Volgamore stated that if this trend continues he will take the presidential nomination). We also want to find out what the students feel would be the ideal ticket if they could nominate across parties.

SG To Hold Elections To Fill Vacated Posts

Student Government will conduct elections for two offices recently vacated. The office of Treasurer of the Freshman Class is being sought by Jo Anne Shuttlecock, Judy Rock, Judy Addington and Alan Sudman.

Roger Squier, Mary Field, Bob Eunrich, Al Bayo, Bob Ungemah and Ed Comstock are seeking the vacant Student Government post from the Junior Class. Elections will be conducted in the Caf Lounge between 9 and 4.

Chop, Chop, Chop

Pie-eating and log sawing contests between the faculty and the Lettermen will be featured tonight at the annual Letterman's Cherry Tree Chop at the gym. According to Gary Ebright and Frank Wallach, the matron, Dean Ralston will represent the faculty and Bill Milford will represent the Lettermen. There will be dancing and free cherry pie from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. Admission is fifty cents.

Miss Rachael Phillips Reigns At TDR's Valentine Semi-Formal

Miss Rachael Phillips, Vice President of TDR, reigned over this year's Valentine Semi-Formal. She was crowned and presented with a bouquet of roses by Rosemary Hagel, Hagel of TDR.

The candlelight and red and white checked tablecloths created the 'Cafe d'Amour' atmosphere. The Parisian theme was emphasized by the French Flag Tower. Throughout the dance, caméras flashed in this artistic scene of Paris. In keeping with the date, couples were given personalized hearts. This affectation was easily produced by those couples who kept their puddles together during the ball, and the college ushered in gold engraving. Herbie Green provided the music.

The couples were greeted at the door by the receiving line, consisting of Patricia Van Alstyne, Helen Smith, and Dr. and Mrs. Tracy.

Ten Coeds Vie For Title Of "Miss Best Dressed"

At the Feb. 25 meeting the organization hopes to have a member of CORE visit them to explain the purpose of their organizing on the Wilkes campus. They hope to clarify CORE's past accomplishments and future plans. Miss Volgamore stated that a large attendance and stimulating discussions are expected. The following week a debate will be given on the topic of the popular election of the Student Government officers.

Joyce Turner and Rosemary Rizzuto, representatives of Wilkes ICG, will participate in a seminar at Lafayette College on Feb. 27, with students from three other colleges, Professor Shannon, an expert on the racial problem from La State University, will lead the discussion.

The North East Regional Convention will take place at Wilkes on March 15. Miss Volgamore is in charge of arrangements on campus. She said, 'This year the theme is Presidential convention. By the time we leave the convention we will have not only nominated a Presidential candidate but we will have written a complete platform.'

Another project in the offering is a bake sale to be held in the cafeteria.

 WANTED **

DONKEY BASKETBALL RIDERS

Return this form to the S.G. mailbox

Name __________

Class __________

 NOTICE **

The Peace Corps examination will be given Saturday, February 22 at Stark Hall 109 at 9 a.m. The test which is for placement and is non-competitive consists of a General Aptitude and Modern Language Aptitude. Students do not place themselves under any obligation by taking the test, but records will be made available for reference. Anyone interested in taking this test should contact Mr. Hoover's secretary today.

Glamor and excitement will fill the gymnasium tomorrow evening when one of these lovely co-eds gains the title of Wilkes "Miss Best Dressed." Staged to start at 8 p.m., the combination fashion show-contest will provide a campus entry for Glamour Magazine's annual contest which reveals the ten most stylish women on the American college scene.

Since second semester began, wardrobe watchers have been submitting names of their favorite dresses into containers placed in the cafeteria and bookstore. After much deliberation, Associated Women's Students announced the ten finalists. These "best chic" co-eds are Pam D'Harven, Jane Edwards, Ruth Friedlander, Barbara Gallagher, Bonnie Hyatt, Jean McGuire, Ann Marie Micklo, Marie Pease, Joan Smith, and Regina Watkins.

Ten Winners

The winners will receive a gift from AWS and a bouquet of roses from the Letterman's Association. Photographs of the lucky co-eds, modeling the three different outfits, will be submitted to Glamour magazine's national competition.

Marcelino Pan y Vino Esta' Aqui

by Andrea Templar

The modern Foreign Language Department cordially invites the whole student body to attend a Spanish motion picture on Tuesday, February 25 and Thursday, February 27. The film, Marcelino Pan y Vino, featuring Pablito Calvo and directed by Ladislao Vajda, is the story of a foundling abandoned at the gates of a Franciscan monastery. He is taken in by the Brothers who fail to find a suitable home for him. Their only solution is to raise him themselves within the monastery walls, thus turning the twelve Brothers into awkward fathers who must agree among themselves on their own proper, but inexperienced version of child psychology. Marcelino learns quickly and well. He is a curious child full of life, adventure, and courage. For such a child temptation is a command, and once more the story of the "Forbidden Fruit" is retold but this time in a somewhat different light. Marcelino is forbidden to climb the stairs which leads to the attic. A Brother explains that in the attic is a gigantic man who taunts Marcelino away forever if disturbed by him. The story retold on this date, a word Marcelino's adventurous character cannot tolerate. Finally, not being able to restrain himself any longer, he climbs the stairs and enters the room. The tall man is right there, and Marcelino is stunned with amazement. But his childish compassion crosses the wonderment, for the man is obviously tormented by exhaustion, thirst, and hunger. Now Marcelino is faced with a series of puzzles. Who is the tall man? If Marcelino takes him bread and wine he will be considered stealing! Why does he feel an inner assurance and joy when he does take the plate and cup to his suffering friend? Marcelino's character and personality are played against both earthy types and divine. There are scraps with death and plots against him and the Brothers by the play's anti-hero, Pacual. There is humor and pathos combined with stark realism of life in a small Spanish town.

The film itself employs a landscape setting, theme, and actors, all generally Spanish. Its sound track is clear, the dialogue is well-enunciated and distinct, and the language consists of no colloquialisms of any dialect. This is a film worthwhile to both Spanish students and those interested in foreign language films.
MORAL SPOTLIGHT

A few weeks ago, a great furor was raised over the hiring of an engineer for the county mapping department. There was no question of the man's ability, rather than his residence, which is the main qualification for employment.

That public officials are appointed on criteria other than their qualifications is nothing new, either to Luzerne County or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Many public employees are chosen on the basis of their connections, political service, residence, or other similar factors. This type of arrangement is unsatisfactory, because it does not have as its primary object getting the most qualified people to work for the government.

Under our spoils system, we often get public officials who are not qualified for the jobs they hold. This is due to the poor method of appointment and the large turnover of employees. Each term of office means a wholesale change of personnel. This discourages many qualified people from going into public service and leaves the field open to political hacks. Another objection to this is that jobs are often filled by political leaders on the basis of party loyalty rather than ability.

The alternative to the spoils system is the civil service or merit system. This system is used by the federal government and more than half of the state governments. Under this type of program, employees are chosen on the basis of their ability rather than their connections. Competitive examinations take the place of political service as the main qualification for employment. The mechanics of this type of program are first explained in Article V, section 6 of the New York State Constitution. The examinations and promotions in the civil service of the state and all of the civil divisions thereof, including cities and villages, shall be made according to merit and fitness to be ascertained, as far as practicable, by examination, which as far as practicable, shall be competitive . . .

A civil service system leads to a career service of professional employees. These people are trained for and experienced in the job that they hold.

A civil service system gives all citizens an equal opportunity to work for the government regardless of race, creed, religion, or political affiliations.

A civil service system has been proven to be cheaper, more efficient, and less corrupt than a spoils system.

The victorious candidates for both the statehouse and the courthouse have pledged to run the government in a business-like manner. Certainly a business oriented system. Now it is the job for them to make good on their promises. Pennsylvania needs a comprehensive civil service system; Luzerne County needs a comprehensive civil service system, and they need it now.

What When Where

AFRICANS DAYS PROGRAM — King’s — Tonight, 8 p.m.
LETTERMAN’S CLUB “CHERRY TREE CHOP” — Gym — Tonight, 9-12 p.m.
BASKETBALL — Men vs. North East — Tonight, 8 p.m.
WRESTLING — Gettysburg — Away — Saturday, 3:30 p.m.
SWIMMING — Drexel — Home (YMCA) — Saturday, 2 p.m.
AWS GLOMOUR CONTEST — Gym — Saturday, 8 p.m.
INTER-CAMPUS TRACK MEET — Away — Thursday, 4 p.m.
SCHOLARSHIP EXHIBIT — Con. Annex — Feb. 17 to Mar. 1, 12 to 9 p.m.
GIRLS BASKETBALL — Misericordia — Away — Tuesday, 7 p.m.
BASKETBALL — East Stroudsburg — Home — Wednesday, 8:15 p.m.
DEBATE — Wilkes vs. Lehigh — Assembly — Thursday, 11 a.m.

Gallen REPLIES

Last week on this page we were privileged to print a column by Miss Octavia Caesar. While I disagree with much of what she said, I respect her views and legitimate political philosophy legitimately presented.

Now, in a recent letter to the editor from a so-called conservative, I am encouraged to see his convictions to sign his name. Mr. A. Conservative’s letter reads like a catalog of fallacies.

He has a total of eight fallacies in three paragraphs (argumentum ad hominem, ad vacuum, ad verba, ad baculum, ad fictum, ad fontem, and poisoning the well). And just to set the record straight Mr. A. Conservative, let me remind you that I am not a man with one-hundred fallacies. I respect the conservative philosophy and Senator Barry Goldwater. The fact is that out of eighteen of my views which I have written for the Wilkes-Barras, Goldwater or conservatism. Moreover, these columns were separated by a span of ten weeks (Nov. 22 and Feb. 7).

Conservative uses every trick in the book to avoid discussing the real issues. First he attacks me in fulsome terms of my political philosophy. Then he tries an emotional appeal. He tells us that the ideals of millions of Americans have been insulted, but at no time does he explain exactly what he means by ideals. If he can’t be blamed for stealing ideas, he gives the false argument that he is not an altogether all others who oppose his ideas (whatever they may be) are Communists. He has in his paranoid mind a complete list of 20 reds.

I suggest that Mr. Conservative is not a thinker but simply a parrot. This time I propose that he forget the personal attacks, the emotionalism, and the lucid fallacious logic and write on the issues.

Jeff Gallen

ARE THE WRESTLERS NEXT?

Dear Editors:

We extend our congratulations to the Administration concerning the decision of the Wilkes College Athletic Department in its timely removal of certain "obscene" paintings from the present Senior Exhibit. If these works had been allowed to remain, Heaven knows how many innocent minds might have been "warped" by the young artists.

It is our feeling that we must now all join in combating immorality in all of our departments: Dr. Reif’s blatant and unpatriotic "List," Dr. Riley’s dispensing of political jobs, Dr. Michael’s maniacal, Dr. Freud, Dr. Barras’ too frank elaboration of Tantric amatory revulsion, and the "Manuscript’s" infantile prohibition of the art of understanding.

We feel that our new, efficient, and attractive student government is able to handle this matter and we therefore ask you to remove the so-called "obscene" art on campus. The art students will have their say on this matter when the time comes.

Josephine J. H. McHenry

THE BALLOT BOX

THE DEFECTOR AND THE COLD WAR

by l. H. G.

"I like treason but not traitors!"

Octavious Caesar

Dennis Lee Kirby, a Gulf coast dancer, has made an examination of defects to Cobin in a stolen shrimp boat.

Larry L. Nosenko, a member of the Soviet delegation at the Geneva Disarmament Conference, quietly asked for political asylum in the United States. Secretary Rus, or Ambassador Stevenos is guilty of one of these acts.

I suggest that Mr. Conservative is not a thinker but simply a parrot. This time I propose that he forget the personal attacks, the emotionalism, and the lucid fallacious logic and write on the issues.

Jeff Gallen

The Western policy, especially that of the United States, toward defectors is fraught with contradictions. In Washington, defection from East to West is met with a playing for the escapee to freedom; an excellent solution for the enslaved peoples of the Soviet Union and her satellite countries. But American officials abroad, especially in West Germany, have gained first-hand knowledge of the defector’s dilemma, held an objective view. They point out that defections are harmful to the West for many reasons.

Defector’s Lot Unhappy

First, not all defectors and escapees can provide the West with valuable intelligence information as Mr. Nos- enko has purported to do. Not all must be relocated and processed. What about the lot of the average defector? It is not a very happy one.

The majority of defections from behind the Iron Curtain today are made from Poland and Czechoslovakia into West Germany. Unless they are im- mediately restored to their country, they are detained in a high class "concentration camp," the Federal Collection Point for Potsdam, near Nuremberg.

While in the camp, defectors have no legal status to speak. East German officials, acting under orders from West German officials, may do with them as they please.

The defectors are forced to sign a declaration to the effect that they have no objection to a return to East Germany. The statement is then back-dated in order to make it agree with the original statement of defection. The defector is not permitted to use the telephone or any means of communication to his friends and families.

The West German government has no legal basis for detaining East German defectors.

Second, not all defectors and escapees are a threat to the West. Some may prove useful to the West. The defection of S. S. Sokash, Barbra Simms, and others have proved useful to the West.

Third, defections are always an embarrassment to the West. The defection of F. Gallet, left the West with no one to make the argument with him and the West has no one to make the argument with him.

Fourth, defections are harmful to the West. The defection of F. Gallet, left the West with no one to make the argument with him and the West has no one to make the argument with him.

Fifth, defections are harmful to the West. The defection of F. Gallet, left the West with no one to make the argument with him and the West has no one to make the argument with him.

Sixth, defections are harmful to the West. The defection of F. Gallet, left the West with no one to make the argument with him and the West has no one to make the argument with him.

Seventh, defections are harmful to the West. The defection of F. Gallet, left the West with no one to make the argument with him and the West has no one to make the argument with him.

Sixth, defections are harmful to the West. The defection of F. Gallet, left the West with no one to make the argument with him and the West has no one to make the argument with him.
Tobias Accepted By Peace Corps; Shows Preference For Far East

Harris Tobias, a senior English major, has been accepted by the Peace Corps. Tobias had applied to be a member of the Corps earlier this spring.

Tobias is a native of California and was a member of the University's track and field team.

Along with language training, Tobias must study hygiene, customs, and history in order to be accepted into the Peace Corps.

The Corps will provide all necessary training and support to help Tobias succeed in his new role.

JUNIOR SELECTED "MISS JANUARY"

Tobias should be able to make a new friend there. He is a good person and will be a valuable asset to the Corps.

JUNIOR SELECTED "MISS JANUARY"

Tobias will be living with the local people and learning their culture.

MMLE MAG College Board Mem

TRESC CHIC
Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

This week's guest writer at TRESC CHIC is Mrs. Elsa Smith, who has been Director of Advertising at Isaac's for twenty-one years.

Hi, girls! There's a career in retail advertising.

And, of course, if you have a flair for words and a well-rounded education, you may want to consider other careers.

The retailer's most important advertisements are those that

And the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress will make your lives happier ones.

Gratifying Work

Advertising has been described as a profession that combines art and science.

It's glamorous, but it's just plain down to earth work.

Your ultimate goal will be that of Advertising Manager, and this job being largely undefined, is as big or as little as the person who has the title.

If this is true, your colleagues have not been paid. Women especially find these jobs most rewarding, for the independence they provide.

Your work will be varied, but it will always be challenging.

You must be flexible enough to change your thinking or ad approach on short notice. A store's job is to compete for the consumer dollar.

The salaried worker who enters the peace with these consumer dollars into your store.

Your sales strategy will have to change with the times and the business climate.

Your flexibility is appealing to all ages and types and is a necessity.

You must get just as excited about writing an ad for a contest as you do over the latest Paris fashion.

As you can see, advertising presents a constant challenge, the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress, that fill your store with a large return on gross that will make all the difference in the world.

TRESC CHIC Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

MMLE MAG College Board Mem

TRESC CHIC
Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

This week's guest writer at TRESC CHIC is Mrs. Elsa Smith, who has been Director of Advertising at Isaac's for twenty-one years.

Hi, girls! There's a career in retail advertising.

And, of course, if you have a flair for words and a well-rounded education, you may want to consider other careers.

The retailer's most important advertisements are those that

And the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress will make your lives happier ones.

Gratifying Work

Advertising has been described as a profession that combines art and science.

It's glamorous, but it's just plain down to earth work.

Your ultimate goal will be that of Advertising Manager, and this job being largely undefined, is as big or as little as the person who has the title.

If this is true, your colleagues have not been paid. Women especially find these jobs most rewarding, for the independence they provide.

Your work will be varied, but it will always be challenging.

You must be flexible enough to change your thinking or ad approach on short notice. A store's job is to compete for the consumer dollar.

The salaried worker who enters the peace with these consumer dollars into your store.

Your sales strategy will have to change with the times and the business climate.

Your flexibility is appealing to all ages and types and is a necessity.

You must get just as excited about writing an ad for a contest as you do over the latest Paris fashion.

As you can see, advertising presents a constant challenge, the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress, that fill your store with a large return on gross that will make all the difference in the world.

TRESC CHIC Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

MMLE MAG College Board Mem

TRESC CHIC
Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

This week's guest writer at TRESC CHIC is Mrs. Elsa Smith, who has been Director of Advertising at Isaac's for twenty-one years.

Hi, girls! There's a career in retail advertising.

And, of course, if you have a flair for words and a well-rounded education, you may want to consider other careers.

The retailer's most important advertisements are those that

And the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress will make your lives happier ones.

Gratifying Work

Advertising has been described as a profession that combines art and science.

It's glamorous, but it's just plain down to earth work.

Your ultimate goal will be that of Advertising Manager, and this job being largely undefined, is as big or as little as the person who has the title.

If this is true, your colleagues have not been paid. Women especially find these jobs most rewarding, for the independence they provide.

Your work will be varied, but it will always be challenging.

You must be flexible enough to change your thinking or ad approach on short notice. A store's job is to compete for the consumer dollar.

The salaried worker who enters the peace with these consumer dollars into your store.

Your sales strategy will have to change with the times and the business climate.

Your flexibility is appealing to all ages and types and is a necessity.

You must get just as excited about writing an ad for a contest as you do over the latest Paris fashion.

As you can see, advertising presents a constant challenge, the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress, that fill your store with a large return on gross that will make all the difference in the world.

TRESC CHIC Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

MMLE MAG College Board Mem

TRESC CHIC
Advertising Qualifications Presented by MMi Wilson

This week's guest writer at TRESC CHIC is Mrs. Elsa Smith, who has been Director of Advertising at Isaac's for twenty-one years.

Hi, girls! There's a career in retail advertising.

And, of course, if you have a flair for words and a well-rounded education, you may want to consider other careers.

The retailer's most important advertisements are those that

And the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress will make your lives happier ones.

Gratifying Work

Advertising has been described as a profession that combines art and science.

It's glamorous, but it's just plain down to earth work.

Your ultimate goal will be that of Advertising Manager, and this job being largely undefined, is as big or as little as the person who has the title.

If this is true, your colleagues have not been paid. Women especially find these jobs most rewarding, for the independence they provide.

Your work will be varied, but it will always be challenging.

You must be flexible enough to change your thinking or ad approach on short notice. A store's job is to compete for the consumer dollar.

The salaried worker who enters the peace with these consumer dollars into your store.

Your sales strategy will have to change with the times and the business climate.

Your flexibility is appealing to all ages and types and is a necessity.

You must get just as excited about writing an ad for a contest as you do over the latest Paris fashion.

As you can see, advertising presents a constant challenge, the challenge of writing ads that sell and impress, that fill your store with a large return on gross that will make all the difference in the world.
Tuffy Chosen Winner Of Speak-Up Contest; Senior Art Exhibit Continues

"Government Should Be Of Laws, Not Of Men"

by Charlotte Wetzel

Mr. Philip Tuffy, educational and research associate of Dr. Hugo V. Mailey of the Political Science Department, was recently chosen as winner of the Speak-Up contest, which is an annual event of the Jaycees. The participants use one of the six lines of the ICC Creed as a basis for their speeches. There were seven contestants in this year’s contest.

Mr. Tuffy selected the following line as the theme of his oratorical presentation: "We believe the government should be of laws rather than of men.
For continued to say, "Even though we disagree with the law, we cannot change it into our own hands." Furthermore, he cited the events which occurred in Dallas on November 22, the assassination of President Kennedy, and on November 24, the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, to illustrate the effects of the action when "one man assumes the position of judge, jury, and executioner." He therefore came to the conclusion that if conditions need to be changed, we should proceed through legal methods.

Mr. Tuffy currently holds the position of executive vice-president of the Wilkes-Barre Jaycees. He has served on numerous committees, he brought such offices as secretory, external vice-president, and internal vice-president. Last year he served as state
Vice-President.

Mr. Philip Tuffy

Earning Money in Europe

JOBS IN EUROPE

Every registered student can get a job in Europe and receive a travel grant. Among thousands of jobs available are resort, sal-des, lifeguard, and job application returned air-mail. Send $1.00 to Dept. J, American Student Information Service, 22 Ave. de la Liberte, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

Student prepares display board of three exhibiting senior art majors at Coynaghian annex. Exhibit open every day from 12 p.m. until March 1.

BALLOT BOX (Continued from page 2)

thought to be moving from one part of Germany to another. But the rest of the refugees cannot work, marry, or travel until their case is disposed of. It has been remarked that bureaucractic abstractions forbid even that they die before their case is processed.

Approximately 25 per cent of the population of West Germany is made up of refugees. This has strongly irritated the West Germans officials, for it has presented a difficult problem in absorbing them into the economy. In addition, East Germany is becoming a regime of "yes men" as the protest elements are defecting to the West. The hopes for a united Germany fade with the arrival of each new refugee.

To sum up, the hard fact of defection is that it creates more problems than it solves, both for the defector and the country to which he defector. No doubt as long as the Cold War rages on, and the battle of ideologies ensures, the defector will become a familiar figure to both sides.

Chick Robbins
Sporting Goods
Ready to Serve You
With a Complete Line of Sweaters, Jackets, Emblems, Sporting Goods
28 North Main Street

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

IS BUILDING
THE MOST EXCITING CITY
OF THE 20TH CENTURY
JOIN US
THERE'S A REWARDING ROLE FOR YOU!

GRADUATES IN
ARTS AND SCIENCES
BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
ENGINEERING
NATURAL & PHYSICAL SCIENCES

May obtain further information and register for interviews to be held at the College Placement Office on February 25

IF INTERVIEW IS INCONVENIENT, SEND RESUME TO

COLLEGE RELATIONS OFFICER
CITY OF PHILADELPHIA
792 CITY HALL
Philadelphia, Pa. 19107

C.O.R.E.
Meeting Tuesday
FEBRUARY 25
11 A.M.
Picking 101

RAZOR HAIRCUTTING

REX CATALDO
STERLING BARBER SERVICE
Haircuts for Men — Wigs for Women
Colognes — Perfumes — Cosmetics
STERLING HOTEL
and
9 E. NORTHAMPTON ST.
WILKES-BARRE, PA.

Hessler Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co.

PROVIDES SERVICES FOR:
Student Linen
Student Personal Laundry
Student Dry Cleaning
Linen and Industrial Rental

SAME DAY SERVICE AT PLANT STORE
Phone: 822-1121

MARY MacINTOSH SERVICES
165 North Main St.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Student persues display board of three exhibiting senior art majors at Cownaghian annex. Exhibit open every day from 12 - 9 p.m. until March 1.

CHESTNUT STREET BEACON

WILKES COLLEGE BEACON
Friday, February 21, 1964

Page 4
Wilkes Wrestlers
Lycoming Team In
Bow To Tough
Last Home Meet
Yeager Out As Colonels
Travel To Gettysburg
In Mat Finale Tomorrow

Brooke Yeager
Coach John Reese’s grapplers dropped their second meet of the season at the hands of a tough Lycoming mat squad last weekend. The Warriors sent an extremely strong and fast team to the mats in securing the 17-5 victory. However, the Wilkes team has been rebuilding in an attempt to regain MAC supremacy, after they were dethroned by Lycoming two years ago. Evidence of the growing strength of the young Colonel squad is found in the fact that Wilkes has been going with three freshmen on the varsity this year, they stand a good chance of bettering last season’s log.

The newcomers have gained valuable experience this year and comparison shows that the veteran members are also growing stronger. In Adams’ case, it is obvious that ‘Im was out for revenge.

Among the new additions to the Colonel squad is freshmen Dave Hall. Hall has wrestled in all the meets, posting four wins, three by pins, one tie and two losses. He has shown his ability to handle himself significantly in higher weight classes since on numerous occasions he has had to wrestle in classes above his normal weight. Usually holding down the 157-pound bracket, Hall has also gained valuable experience in the 177 and 177-pound class.

Hall’s efforts have played an important role in the somewhat victorious season which the Colonels have been in. As can be seen in his being awarded the ‘Athlete of the Week’ award in last week’s Beacon, Saturday’s meet started off with Ned McGinley being penalized for stalling late in the 120-pound match (referee Homer Bartz wasted no time in giving points for stalling) and having to settle for a draw with Lycoming’s Souley.

Yeager Injured
Following the match, Brooke Yeager tallied the only points Wilkes was able to muster by decisioning Mitchell 7-4. In the course of his victory, however, Yeager suffered a chest injury which will cause him to miss the Gettysburg meet and possibly the MAC tournament, but he is still looking forward to the small college nationals.

The Warriors drew even in the Atlantic meet and after that it was all Lycoming.

Tomorrow the Colonels travel to Gettysburg, where they will close out the regular season. Last year Wilkes out-classed the Bulldogs 23-3, but the meet featured some close matches. Should Gettysburg fashion a win tomorrow, the Colonels will end the year with a record identical to last season. The season is scheduled to end on March 6 and 7.

Barons Still Lodged In Sixth Position
by Don DeFranco
As the season draws to a close, the Wilkes-Barre Barons are fighting valiantly for a berth in the championship playoffs. Only the top four teams in the league are eligible to play in the post-season tournament.

Last Saturday, the Barons saw their hopes sink as they dropped a 112-108 decision to the cellar-dwelling Wilming- ton Blue Bombers. The Barons have proven to be a nemesis for the Barons as they have beaten the Delaw- are cagers only once this season.

The Barons didn’t score a bucket for the first eight minutes of Saturday’s contest, but they came back to score 39 points in the second period to mount a one-point halftime lead. The Bombers, however, wrapped up the game in the fourth period as they scored 53 points to Wilkes-Barre’s 21.

Tom Stith continued to pace the locals with 39 points on 11 goals and 11 fouls. Stith’s torrid scoring pace in the past five games for a phenomenal 40.6 average. Bob Kel ler was runner-up for scoring honors with 30 points.

Sunday night, the Barons had to rally in the last minute of play to pull out a 115-113 decision over the Sunbury Merchants. Leading at halftime, 53-47, the locals saw their lead diminish and were trailing the Merchants at the end of the third period by five points.

Wilkes-Barre came back to knot the score in the fourth period at 100 all with one minute left to play. Keller got two quick goals and Stilling came up with two fouls, while Sunbury could only collect two baskets.

Keller was high scorer for W-B. as he netted 39 points, while Stith’s 19, West’s 18, and Mosier’s 15 added in the win.

Beacon Returns To Swim Team In Selecting "Athlete Of The Week"
by Ivor Smith
The Beacon returns to the swimming team this issue for its selection of the Athlete of the Week. The team’s captain, Jack Barnes, has been chosen for his swimming talents. A product of Wyoming Seminary, Jack is a junior, majoring in Commerce and Finance, and upon graduating plans to enter the field of selling. Jack wins in the 50-yard and 100- yard freestyle events, boasting records in both. He is also a member of the four-man, 400-yard free relay team, which holds the Wilkes record in that event. In a recent meet with J.M.C., Jack gained first place in the 100-yard freestyle event, and in a meet with Philadephia Tactile he produced a first in the 50-yard free event.

Jack feels the most exciting meet that he has participated in was against Millersville State, where both teams remained equal throughout the meet until the final event made Wilkes the victor. The team has lost a few meets but Jack says they were by slim margins and next year will prove different.

When Jack attended Wyoming Seminary, he earned his letter in swimming and was captain of the team. His other interests include the Circle K Club and the Accounting Club.

"What’s In A Brand Name?" by John McCarthy
It is your assurance of quality. Years ago a brand was simply for identification – that’s still true but today it is also a symbol of quality. Look for the brand name, and you’ll see the difference. You will know that the quality that is traditional. Reputation must be protected. It makes sense, doesn’t it, that The Boston Store features the finest brand names? In our University Shop you will find the finest for your college wardrobe such as: Brooks, Gant, Princeton, Mr. Squire and University V.I.L.

FOWLER, DICK
AND WALKER
The Boston Store
Swimmers Drop Close Meet - Cagers Lose

Wilkes Mermen Edged Out By P.M.C.; Seek Team's Best Record

The Cadets of P.M.C. edged out the Wilkes Mermen last Monday in a heartbreaking 45-46 contest at the Chester Y M.C.A. pool. Superior placement by the Cadets was the key to their victory. The high point of the meet was the smashing of the pool record in the 200-yard freestyle event by freshman Harry Heesch. Heesch bettered the old record of 2:14 by turning in a new time of 2:07.8. Heesch also took first place in the 500-yard freestyle with a time of 5:23.5.

Also producing firsts in the meet were Ron Daggett in the 200-yard butterfly and Jack Barnes in the 100-yard freestyle. The Wilkemen also captured the 200-yard, 400-yard free relay event in 4:11.8. The members of the winning team were Jack Barnes, Mike Scholey, Harry Heesch and Ron Daggett, who had the Wilkes record in that event.

Coach Ken Young

The Wilkes divers, Al Gilbert and Pete Gartlein, newcomers to the team, have been doing a fine job picking up valuable 2nd and 3rd place points for the Mermen. Both are newcomers to the team this year and the team is looking forward to their assistance in the future.

The heartbreak point in the contest came in the 200-yard breaststroke event when a foul was called on Ron Daggett and he was subsequently disqualified. The foul occurred when Daggett made an illegal turn, however, it was not called until the end of the event. Daggett's first place was not recognized giving P.M.C. the win and the contest.

The next and last meet for the Colonelettes is slated for tomorrow, when they will take on the Drexel Dragons in what promises to be another close contest. The Wilkemen will be up for this meet and it is hoped that a victory will be the result. The swimming team now stands at 2:0:5 and a win on Saturday will result in the best season to date since the swimming team was established here at Wilkes.

Results of P.M.C. Meet

400-yard medley relay (P.M.C.): Shaw, Greenough, Wood, Walker 5:08.3
200-yard freestyle (Hess); Sandrik, P.M.C. 2:03.7
200-yard individual medley (P.M.C.): Shaw, Greenough, Wood, Walker 2:31.3
Diving: Richard Lee, P.M.C.; Gilbert, W.G. Carman; Zangemeister, W.G. Carman 1:08.5
200-yard butterfly (Daggett, W.G. Carman; W.G. Carman; Zangemeister, W.G. Carman 2:03.1
200-yard breaststroke (Daggett, W.G. Carman; W.G. Carman; Zangemeister, W.G. Carman 2:03.1
200-yard backstroke (Daggett, W.G. Carman; W.G. Carman; Zangemeister, W.G. Carman 2:03.1
200-yard individual medley (Daggett, W.G. Carman; W.G. Carman; Zangemeister, W.G. Carman 2:03.1
200-yard breaststroke (Daggett, W.G. Carman; W.G. Carman; Zangemeister, W.G. Carman 2:03.1

Wilkemen on the victors'

Patronize Our Advertisers

Barre Engraving Co.
20 North Street
Wilkes-Barre, Penna.

Commercial Artists - Photo-Engravings For Newspapers - Catalogs - Letterheads - Year Books - Offset Negatives

PHONE 823-8094

Graham's
96 South Main Street

For Your School Supplies

White's Department Store

For Your School Supplies

Wilkes College

BOOKSTORE

Millee Gittins, Manager

ACE HOFFMAN

Studios and Camera Shop
PORTRAT, COMMERCIAL AND
AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY
CAMERAS AND PHOTO SUPPLIES

36 W. Market St. Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
TOLL 823-6177

BOOK AND CARD MART

10 S. Main St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Greeting Cards
Contemporary Cards
PHONE: 825-4767

LEWIS-DUNCAN

Headquarters for Lettered
WILKES JACKETS

1 E. Market St. - Wilkes-Barre
and
Norwoc Shopping Center
Kingston - Edwardsville

Intramural Sports

DORM LEAGUE

BUTLER 1
GORE 2
BARRE 3
WARNER 4
HOLLENBACK 5
MINE 6
ASHLEY 7
SLOCUM 8

No Games This Week

Consult Schedule

AMERICAN LEAGUE

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

TROJANS 1
SPARTANS 2
ASTRONAUTS 3
GLOBE ROTTERS 4
COLEGIANS 5

Elizabethtown Hits Century Mark To Hand Wilkes 13th Defeat

The Wilkes cagers dropped their 13th contest to strong Elizabethtown quintet last Tuesday as the E-towners broke the century mark in tanking the outclassed Colonels 109-63.

Elizabethtown gained the early lead and widened the margin excessively as the game progressed, taking a 28 point advantage to the dressing room at half.

The Elizabethtown center, 6’7” Dan Retnicker, held the Colonels pivot Joe Stankus to 7 points in the first half as he and three stalwarts in the vanilla stance, while claiming high point honors for himself with 23 counters. Retnicker notched 19 points in the first half and led the game early. He played against the Colonels’ captain, Dick Morgan, in high school. Larry Evans backed up Retnicker with 18 points on the evening, before coach Don Smith gave his regular a rest. Smith used his reserves for much of the game, and the second team showed no mercy for the Colonels as they upped the margin to 46 by the end of the game.

Jim Schlicter came off the Elizabethtown bench to drop in 15 points.

Chanecka Honored

High man for the Colonels was Joe Chanecka with 18. Chanecka, who qualified for and widened the committee of the Lettermen’s Club from a list of eligible athletes. The award, given for sports participation grades and merit, was originally given to a freshman, but could not be decided to present the award to a sophomore since many of the freshman recipients lost the scholarship due to academic difficulties.

Coach Jim Ferris also emoted his bench late in the game and all but one of the team hit the scoring column. Only Joe Stankus and Joe Chanecka were able to hit double figures for Wilkes. The Colonels’ bench dropped in ten or better. Wilkes travels to Moravian tomorrow.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The Wilkes College Bulletin states, “a program of intramural sports stresses physical standards and co-operative team spirit and recreation.” The Wilkes Administration should also provide the incentive for those students who are not able to participate in varsity sports. Superficially it appears that there should be no conflict between intercollegiate and intramural athletics at Wilkes.

We feel that it is not in accord with the athletic policy of this college that a person who has gone out for a varsity team and decided to quit should not be allowed to play in the intramural league. Does it not seem extreme that a person who has been out for basketball approximately two weeks and only competed in what amounted to junior varsity games is ineligible to play intramural basketball?

We would like to know why a student should be penalized for dropping a varsity sport for which he does not have time. Could the answer be that ineligibility is a pressure tactic to keep athletes in varsity sports?

Very truly yours,

The Men of Scoum Hall

201 Record in Gain Recognition

Women’s Basketball Team Sports

The least recognized sport here at Wilkes is women's basketball. These girls practice diligently, but the majority of the student body is ignorant of the fact that a team exists. Despite lack of recognition, the team has thus far fared well with its record of two wins and one defeat.

This year's squad consists of several veteran players: Jo Ann Kearney, Tony Tissue, Molly Boyle, Pat Sonnenschein, Rose Halett, and Jo Signorelli. The new varsity members of the line-up are Pat Davis, Sherry Mutter, Elaine Barbini, and Ellen Gallagher.

The opening game found a much improved varsity team opposing Mullensburg on the home court. The Colonelettes” came from behind in the second half, led in the scoring column by Jo Ann Kearney to defeat Mullensburg by a shaky one point margin.

The “Colonelettes” lost at the hands of Moravian at the latter’s home court. Elaine Barbini led the scoring though Moravian managed to hold their three point lead defeating Wilkes 30-27.

The “Colonelettes” found themselves trailing at the end of the second quarter in their next contest against Marywood. A determined team, with the scoring efforts of Sherry Mutter, dropped ahead and led throughout the remainder of the game defeating Marywood 25-18.

We may not be making money, but business is good.

Wilkes College

Credit: 10.2.8

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Dr. WILKES COLLEGE BEACON

Page 6

824-3567

STEAKS - CHOPS - SEAFOOD

PIZZA TAKE-OUTS (ALL SIZES)

SANDWICHES of all Kinds

Piss TISSUE

824-3567