Winter Carnival

Dianne Alfaro Crowned Snowflake Queen

The Snow Flake Queen of this year’s Winter Carnival held recently at Buckhill Falls is Dianne Alfaro, a Spanish major residing in Slocum Hall. Her princesses are Marie Pergsick, a resident of Slocum Hall majoring in psychology, and Lois Petski, a mathematics major from Ashby. Miss Alfaro was crowned by former queen Cathy DeAngela during the intermission of the evening dance held at the Buckhill Falls Inn. She was presented with a dozen long-stemmed roses and a gold pin engraved with her initials. The princesses received silver pins similar to the queen’s.

Along with the scheduled activities, the cold, sunny weather attracted a record crowd of almost 300 students and guests. The snow-covered ground was glazed with ice until the evening, when a fresh snow blanket the area. During the day, the weather, which was perfect for skating, drew a large crowd on the rink. The skaters and sledders were not so fortunate, however; they had to be careful to avoid the steeper slopes because of the hazards involved with the icy conditions. In spite of the potential danger, however, only one major accident, a broken ankle, was reported.

After dinner in the main dining room of the Inn, the students watched television in the lounge, played pool or parlor games, or danced to the music of the College Band.

Miss Alfaro’s activities include chairmain of the Student Activities Committee, junior counselor for Associated Women Students, president of Slocum Hall, and the President’s Student Advisory Committee. Miss Pergsick is president of Slocum Hall, junior counselor for AWS, a member of the Assembly Committee, the President’s Student Advisory Committee, and the girls’ hockey team. Miss Petski is treasurer of the junior class, a member of the Education Club, served on the Homecoming and Junior-Senior Dinner Dance Committees, and was on the Dean’s List three times.

Law in Morals Debate Topic

Four members of the College faculty debated on the controversial topic of "The Enforcement of Morals A Concern Of The Law." This debate took place during yesterday’s assembly and was moderated by Ephraim Frankel, president of the Debating Society, which sponsored the program. The debate was won by Miss Petski. William Bliss and Mrs. Ann Kish for the affirmative, and Dr. Harold Cox and Mr. Joseph Kanner for the negative. The Society’s purpose in sponsoring the assembly was to generate more student interest in debating itself. A vocal and ballot vote was taken at the general assembly of the student body at the top of the stairs.

Hosts T.D.R. Formal; Hebbie Green Plays

There Delta Rho will hold its annual Valentine semi-formal Friday, February 12, at the Hotel Genetti Ballroom from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. Music will be provided by Hebbie Green and his orchestra. Tickets, which are $3.50 per couple, may be purchased in the Commons or from any T.D.R. member.

A scene of South Seas islanders projected on the walls will lend the proper atmosphere for the theme, “Polynesian Paradise." The profuse use of orchids will further depict the lavish and exotic. A primitive bridge extended over a pool of orchids will be placed in the center of the ballroom. Orchid centerpieces will decorate each table. As favors, each couple will receive brandy snifters filled with orchids. Refreshments will consist of cookies and punch.

Lois Kithish, chairman of the affair, stressed that the dance is an all-campus event and not restricted to T.D.R. members.

Assistant Miss Kithish are: Nancy Czubek, publicity; Elena Mendel, forces; Eileen Gardner, decorations; Jo Ann Dragonchuk, programs; Gretchen Hohn, refreshments; Barbara Wilsheonwski, tickets; Irene Norkis, invitations; and JoAnn Pregg, arrangements.

Government By The Minority

by Sam Baccarani

According to the traditional conception of democracy, governmental policies are enacted into law after a majority of the public has made known its interests and desires by the pure voting process, wherein people, having the power of ultimate control over government officials whom they elect, have the right to remove from office at periodic and free elections in numerous districts.

But majority rule is an idealized notion of democracy, and its mechanical operation rarely occurs in actual practice. For the most part, the makers of laws and policies are determined by the American public. Governmental decision-making is not the simple Congressional process whereby public representatives to governments should stand uncomproemisingly by the policies of the American congressional system, via majority rule, which is one in many cases, just the political parties, or government officials, or, government officials, or, government officials, or, government officials, or, government Tiny Allen reveals a movement toward shocked despair in Broadway theater?

Not at all. I am saying that when Edward Albee can subordinate the Peeta and the posture of the Crucifction, we, as an audience, have become too jaded. As a television au-example of insensitivity.

Television pander's to the dominant and unthinking. It can be caught in a reverse condition better left unstated. But the medium has found a level on which it can feed for an indefinite future, for it has become a diversion of the masses with their depredation of taste. But if one with authority prescribes laws for television, we have allowed it to meet the level of our depravity.

Since television's raison d'etre is to sell products, their primary desire is to please. It functions to prattle about or divert, but never to challenge or stir the people. It is made on the side of a poverty-stricken home, which cannot completly fill its spare time. The television set is one of the great-

NEW LIBRARIAN JOINS STAFF; FINDS CAMPUSS, JOB PLEASANT

Mrs. Mary K. Bohan is the new circulation and reference librarian at the College library. Mrs. Bohan received her Bachelor of Arts from her Master's Degree in Library Science at Marywood College in Scranton. She has been employed at the College since January 4.

Before becoming a librarian, Mrs. Bohan taught English at Piatt High School for seven years. She first entered the field in 1952 at branch and young pupils in the Pittsburgh Public Schools. About Libray. She has worked as such a Clayton High School, Clayton, New Jersey, at West Scranton High School, and at Randolph High School in Doxford.

Mrs. Bohan now resides at 104 Washington Road in Scranton. She has a daughter who teaches and a son, also. She traveled through the University of Maryland and completed her grade work in London in the field of English history.

Mrs. Bohan was impressed by the atmosphere in the library when she first visited the College. She feels that the College is a money-spending pleasant place. She was age-surely persuad- ing to find that the students have a responsibility for completing their work. However, she recognizes that it is necessary for her to put them in the proper order of their responsibility toward the College but for the most part they treat it with a manner hefting a library situation.

Through the short experience she has had in the past month, Mrs. Bohan feels that the library is "very active, alive, and well-equipped." She enjoys working with the students and professors who come in, and has found the student assistants very helpful and intelligent, as is the regular staff.

Soap Ads, arrows, legs, bats, suggested nude forms, youth drinks, youth snacks, dazzling faces of smiling youth, the perpetually young—these dominate the commercials. The young deserve a better break.

The variety and quit shows have revealed the essential greed and grab of our times. The insatiable scramble for plug spots may devour television. Such shows have become a celebrity question, a private preserve for the temporarily unemployed.

Sonchenge. CBS in a rare service to mind and spirit can justly proud. Sixty continuous minutes of absorbing drama: the argument over the 400-year-old megaliths on Salisbury Plain (England). Fodder and childishness and stubbornness rooted by demonstration made indelible; the pillars and lintels were an observatory of the sacred antics of son and moon, year after year. Goal: prediction of the periodic eclipses Effect on the viewer: astonishment and awe: pride in brawn; huzza to spectacular achievement of ancient human brothers clocking God and Goddness, knowing when the absorption of the one in the other would occur, bring along, the multitudes as they watch the magnificent re-emergence from out of the black goddess-site. Michelini Heads NSF - Sponsored 7 Week Seminar

A Summer Institute in Biology for Secondary School Teachers will be held at the College this year according to President Eugene Farley. This program, the first of its kind to be conducted in northeastern Pennsylvania, has been made possible by a $1,480 grant from the National Science Foundation.

The purpose of the Institute is to strengthen the teacher's background in Biology by exposing him to the most modern concepts in Biology. The teacher will then be better able to prepare his students to meet the demands of college programs in biology. In addition, it is hoped that the program will encourage the teacher to continue his studies and to participate at a higher degree, and that it will enable him to gather and exchange information concerning curriculum and demonstration, teaching aids, and science projects. The institute will consist of lectures, discussion-recitation, laboratory work, and field trips. From 800 to 1000 persons are expected to apply; a special committee will select approximately 40 participants.

Dr. Francis Michelini, professor of biology and dean of academic affairs, will direct the seminar. Dr. Charles Reif, chairman of the College department of biology, will serve as the Institute's director. The instructors will be Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, professor of biology, and Dr. Grace Kimball, assistant professor of biology. Miss Mary Williams, a member of the biology department at Highland Park High School, New Jersey, will supervise the laboratory work.

Love For The Past

I am touched with the nostalgia which people have for the generation immediately preceding their own. But the old men are reduced to cameo size, receding wavy into that distance of history. We are old. It is old. It is certainly no Twelve O’Clock High.

Religion has become only Mass for Shannon. For the first time I have a New York reporting The Christophers. Elsewhere, there is as much nosiness in television as in a poodle jar.

The comic book has become the an- imated cartoon. The situation comedy shows should also be considered in what you are doing. The result can be seen clearly belong to the fam- ily of Darrin and Barbie and Jiggs and Maggie. Then there are the quasi-cartoons, such as VOYAGE TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA and the OUTER LIMITS, which employ some creature from his imagination in each agnation would in every episode. In reverse we have some cartoons be- cause of the ADDAMS FAMILY and the MUNSTERS.

That Was The Week That Was is an American power. I prefer Johnny Quest which makes no claims on the audience's judgment.

The Wilkes College basketball team has hit the win column by narrowly defeating the Madison Campus of Fairleigh-Dickinson University 61-60. However, the Colonels have added three losses to their record since the last edition of the Beacon.

Preceding final examinations, the Colonals were defeated by the Barkston Royals and Delaware Valley 75-55 and 84-69, respectively. In the Scranton game the Royals got off to a good start in the first half and had a comfortable lead at the half. The Colonels failed to improve their standing in the second half as Scranton's Jim Dooley led the Royals to an easy victory. Dale Nicholson matched Dooley's high mark for Wilkes, while Jim Smith totaled 17 counters. The Royals have their sights on the MAC championship.

Delaware Valley was leading 38-28 at halftime, and once more the Colonals were无需 comment, so overcame the deficit. Smith was high for Wilkes with 20 points, aided by Dale Nicholson and Jim Antoni with 16 and 15 points, respectively.

With final examinations over, the Colonals gathered momentum and squeezed their first victory out of ten games. Nicholson was decimated in the last moments of the game as the ball was lost with a minute and a half remaining. Joe Chancek, of Wilkes, fouled and subsequently sank two free throws, placing the Colonals in the lead. With 0.9 seconds remaining, the Colonals regrouped the lead on a goal, Wilkes countered with a two-point foul conversion by Dale Nicholson with 15 seconds and Wilkes' spirits rose as they were dampened once again as Madison's Bill Wickles scored from the outside. Swiftly putting back the ball into play, Wilkes drove down the court with Nicholson taking a pass at the foul line and laying up the winning goal. Mike Sharrow was high for Wilkes with 15 points, while Nicholson and Chancek also hit double figures. Wilkes was high for the game with 18 points.

In more recent action, the Colonels lost to East Stroudsburg State College in a one sided game 114-88. This is the 11th loss for the Colonels in 12 encounters. The game produced high individual scorers as East Stroudsburg had 6 men reaching double figures, with Ed Machalos high with 24 points. Nicholson was over all high man with 28 and Mike Sharrow hit for 22 count.

Cagers Schedule Lists 3 Contests

The Wilkes cagers will have two home games this weekend, meeting Harpur tonight and Rutgers of South Jersey tomorrow night. Both games are scheduled for 8:15 p.m. On Wednesday the Colonels travel to Lycoming where they will vie with the Warriors.

Harpur is sure to feel the loss of high scorer Barry Schneider, but the Colonels will stop returners Mike Freedus, Steve Davis, and Bill Matos.

Subsequent to the Rutgers game, Wilkes will find a much improved Lycoming squad, led by co-captains Irv Oert and Ron Travis and coached by "Dutch" Burch.

Lycoming is a young squad without a senior on the team. Two freshmen of note are George Young and Dave Pearson. Young typifies the Warriors' lack of height at only 5'9", but has tremendous ability. Pearson is tallest man on the squad at 6'4" and moves his 205 pound frame quite well.

BEACON Chooses Heesch for "Athlete of the Week" Honors

Stepping into the spotlight as "Athlete of the Week" in this issue is Harry Heesch, a native of Lycoming, Pa. Heesch was selected from the swimming team. Heesch is a native of Lycoming Falls, New York, where he began his swimming career at Lewiston-Porter High School as a four-year varsity swimmer. In competition with swimmers from his area, he won first place in the 400-yard freestyle event, while managing to find time for other extracurricular activities such as serving as president of his junior class.

Horsch is a liberal arts major, holds a badge in Senior Life Saving and enjoys playing tennis. He has remarked that his success as a swimmer is due to surrounding his strong flutter kick and smooth arm stroke. As a freshman swimmer, Heesch gained praise from both Ken Young, team coach, and Jack Barnes, the squad's captain.

This season has proven no different for Heesch as far as his swimming capabilities are concerned. Heesch took first in the 50-yard and 100- yard against Philadelphia Textile but was bested by Westernott's Mike Sharrow in the 100-yard freestyle event in both games against Stroudsburg in the same two events.

The basis for Heesch's "Athlete of the Week" is the team's besting of two new Wilkes records in the 50-

Wilkes Downs Textile; Lose 48 - 47 Thriller To East Stroudsburg

On Wednesday, January 13, the Wilkes swimmers traveled to the newly-built Roosevelt YMCA and defeated the Philadelphia Textile mercenaries 55-40. This was the first win this season for the Colonels swimmers and was highlighted by the performance of Harry Hendrickson, sophomore lettermen, who set two new school records of 25 seconds in the 50-yard freestyle and 56 seconds in the 100-yard freestyle.

The swimmers’ win over Textile can be attributed to a fine display of teamwork. In the nine individual events, the Wilkes swimmers secured six first places, two each by Joe Carsman and Hendrickson, and one apiece by Pete Geishler and Chuck Petrocelli. In four events the swimmers garnered both first and second places.

Following the Textile match, Wilkes bowed to East Stroudsburg 48-47 in the most exciting swimming contest so far this season. Last season Wilkes had lost to the Warriors 61-31.

The meet began with a fiery start as the Wilkes 400-yard medley team of Petrello, Roger Rolfe, Bill Webb and Ken Wiswall won their event with a new school record time of 4:56.3.

For the next six events, the Stroudsburg swimmers secured the first place closely followed by the Wilkes swimmers who captured the second and third place honors. Thus, the Wilkes swimmers broke into the first place column when Petrello and Carman won their respective events. In the next to the last event, Wilkes again took second and third places in the 200-yard backstroke, but in all other events the Colonels’ efforts were not enough to overtake the Stroudsburg team.

For the last event, the head-to-head duel between Wilkes and Stroudsburg, the Colonels were able to win the 400-yard freestyle relay, thereby winning the meet.

Freshman Aid

Although the swimmers retain their perennial pool and schedule handicaps, compounded by personnel problems this year, they are expected to at least equal last year’s 3-5 record. While the team’s seven returning lettermen are the main pillars, freshmen such as Vern Rolfe, Rich Herring, Jim Lally, Ed Edman, Norm Macciochi, Jim Penino and Wayne Watley have been a continuing source of strength and needed depth and are expected to provide the resources for the swim team’s future growth.

The Colonels will be up against some tough competitors in the next couple of weeks as they travel to Millersville State College on February 6 and 10. The meet will be February 6 at 4:30 p.m. with Penn State.

Colonels Promise Wealth of Mat Action

Captain Ned McGinley will lead the Wilkes grapplers on to the mats tomorrow night when the Colonels meet Millersville squad in an away meet. McGinley, is currently undefeated in the 123-pound weight class and has thus been consistent in getting the Wilkes a grab started. McGinley is a former Kingman High School wrestling star and is the only senior on the team.

In the last meet between the teams, Wilkes came out as top 15-9. Despite the score, however, the Colonels had to come from behind to win. In past, the Millersville-Wilkes pairing has always provided plenty of wrestling excitement. Wilkes was forced to settle for a tie in the event (then upset) by the Colonels before finding the winning combination last season.

Coach Rees has emphasized that this season is one of rebuilding and that he is looking to next year for the return of the MAC crown. With a wealth of underclassmen, Rees should have enough time to see his hopes realized.

After losing the initial meet to Thacca, the Wilkes grapplers have come on strong winning their last three meets in a row, two of which were shutouts, and bringing their season standing to three wins and one loss (the Holstra meet, which was cancelled and the Mannfeld meet held on Wednesday away, of course, not included in this tally).

A particularly bright spot in the Wilkes wrestling picture will be the addition of John Carr, former state champion who has become eligible for the squad this season following his transfer from the University of Pittsburgh. Carr will be wrestling against Millersville tomorrow and should finish the rest of the season with the Colonels.

Coach Rees commented that Carr, due to his flexibility, will be moved back and forth in the 177- and 190-pound classes. Rees hopes that his belligerent tactics will add even greater strength to the team.

Following tomorrow’s meet, Wilkes will be away at Lycoming and then return home to vie with East Stroudsburg in what should be two of the toughest meets of the season. At present, Wilkes is well on its way to improving on last season’s 5-2-1 record. Coach Rees has asked that more spirit and interest be shown on the part of the student body.
