Students Join McCarthy

by Tom Engle

Reggie McCarthy for President of the United States. Reggie McCarthy has become the most talked about, most widely published action candidate, the voice of the disaffected. Millions of college students, volunteering their time and vacations, are gathering under the Eugene McCarthy banner. Nearly 2,000 them devoted long, weekend days working in the new Hampshire primary, meeting the voters face to face, explaining McCarthy and his opinions, and successfully developing a highly sophisticated and well-financed campaign of the Johnson supporters. Students for McCarthy helped their candidate gain 42 percent of the Democratic vote in that state.

Students for McCarthy has come to Pennsylvania. Twenty thousand college students will be spending the next several weeks campaigning in this state to help bring stability in the Democratic Party, to help bring peace to America. They will sleep on church floors, eat box lunches, and spend long hours speaking to Pennsylvanians, talking about McCarthy's Vietnam views, explaining what the debate on the war is all about. Twenty-thousand of them, taking time from their studies, restricting their social activities, enduring the excitements of hard, cold floors and quick lunches and Sticks breaks, for a cause they believe in, for a man who had the courage to stand up.

Young Tom McCarthy has come to Wyoming Valley. Beginning today. Students for McCarthy will launch a well-organized campaign for the man who desires peace in Vietnam. College students, as many as 1,000, will work with local students in meeting people, answering questions, enlisting support, and helping to defeat the Johnson campaign. The response has been tremendous. In one day, with no advance notice fifty students from local colleges have volunteered to work for Gene Mc-Carthy. Contacts with schools in neighboring towns have been equally buoyant. Students in Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton, Bloomsburg, Scranton, etc. are combining forces behind the man they believe has the answers for peace and stability. It's happening now; it's happening last; and it's going to work.

With the Pennsylvania primary set for April 23, Students for McCarthy is going to help its candidate achieve a better showing than he realized in New Hampshire.

Two classes cavort in Strawberry Fields

Strawberry Fields is coming tomorrow, March 29. at 8:30 p.m. - 11 p.m. the event is the Freshman-Sophomore Dance. Tickets are only $1 and may be purchased at the Bookstore. After the dance, there will be a social event which will be a well-organized gathering for the man who desires peace in Vietnam. The band has played some of the most im-popular prophylactic morals in New York from the Village to the Upper East Side. This first Atlantic record "Kiss Her One" was issued in July, 1967. Other groups such as the Vanilla Fudge and the Young Rascals also record for Atlantic.

General chairman of the dance is Jerry Bowens. Other committee chairs-are: band, Mike Kennedy and Joe Thunell; refreshments, Chris Hochser; decorations; Mary Beth George and Reba Heidel; tickets, Pat Sittner and published by R. Williams. (See picture page three)

SAC presents original play

by Ronnie Gellis

An original three-act play written and directed by Cella Rosen, entitled The Muddled(1) Mind of Art Wes-Del, will be performed tonight at 8 p.m. in the CPA.

Mce Rosen, a senior English major from Scranton was responsible for the play for English 296. It is patterned after the theater of the absurd. It utilizes two stage levels. The play is a tragedy with comic relief.

The play is dedicated "To Art, I met him in my childhood, I have not seen him since." The action revolves around Artie, played by Jerry Bowners, who is in the army and is faced with the decision whether to fight or die in a war. In essence the play deals with whether we wear rose-colored glasses and sees them smashed before we turn to the United States." Students for McCarthy feel that "truth is what you want to believe."

How about Barry De Haven who plays Blickes, the dog, and Vahnt mar-

bears that is he a dog?"

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

VOL. XXVII. No. 22

Friday, March 22, 1968

The above group, composed of juniors and seniors, departed Wed-dnesday for the initial phase of the Hampton Exchange, to be completed

April 26 when visitors from Hampton Institute will visit our campus.

Exchange in Virginia

by Pat Hill

Hampton Institute is playing host this weekend to six students from the College for the first part of the thirteenth annual exchange program between Wilkes and the Virginia col-

ges. The students, Ann Alumach, Roxie Desko, Bill Downs, Inge Gerbe, Mike Gryszkowiec, Doris Tyson, Sharon Tennyson, Lucille Merino, Bill Szygiel, Bill Singer, Dave Rosenthal, Hugh Ritter, and Basil Roman, were accompanied by Miss Milliken, Cotter, and Mr. and Mrs. Denom.

The group left from the Bookstore at 4 p.m. on Wednesday. After spending the night in Harrisburg, Maryland, they reached Hampton on Thursday, where they will remain until Sunday. The program includes attending classes today, a visit to Williamsburg, a pool party, and a dinner.

The exchange program will be completed the 26th. On April 26 when Hampton will send several of its students to Wilkes. They will be shown around the campus and extra-curricular affairs, much the same program as our students are participating in at Hampton.

The purpose of the exchange is to promote understanding of the various types of problems which is considered by both colleges to be essential to a well-rounded education: the trip also provides a notable experience for the participating students, an experience which cannot be obtained through studies alone.

SAC polls faculty opinion

by Ronnie Gellis

A tally of the number of freshmen and sophomore votes cast in the last election was compiled and presented at the last SAC meeting by Zig Pizz. Pizz stated that of the 281 votes cast, 161 were for Barry Dehaven, 70 for Joe Bowers, 42 percent of the class that voted, 42 percent day and 55 percent were done. Since the gap between the percentages of day and dorm students was not significant it was decided that a relaxation of the polling place was not warranted.

In his SAC report, Pizz stated that he had sent out a letter to the faculty to poll their opinion on a revision of the grading system, credit-only courses, detu class elimination, and the sale of daily newspapers and weekly magazines on campus. Pizz stated that of the 30 faculty members who replied, 60 percent reacted favorably to the suggestions. He requested that these topics be taken up in the SAC-member meetings.

Pauls Gilbert and Bezo Lodzaki re-pected on the action of the SAC parking committee. Through further investigation they found out that the sug-ggested lot on the corner of South StreeF and Pennsylvania Avenue is out of the question because the lot is a part of the Hazel Street redevelopment area and the city is obliged, under contract, to sell the land to St. NichoUo Church. The committee has no alternative lot; however the city is refusing Pennsylvania and is refusing to sell a lot on the corner.

CPA presents original play

by Ronnie Gellis

An original three-act play written and directed by Cella Rosen, entitled The Muddled(1) Mind of Art Wes-Del, will be performed tonight at 8 p.m. in the CPA.

Mce Rosen, a senior English major from Scranton was responsible for the play for English 296. It is patterned after the theater of the absurd. It utilizes two stage levels. The play is a tragedy with comic relief.

The play is dedicated "To Art, I met him in my childhood, I have not seen him since." The action revolves around Artie, played by Jerry Bow-

ners, who is in the army and is faced with the decision whether to fight or die in a war. In essence the play deals with whether we wear rose-colored glasses and sees them smashed before we turn to the United States." Students for McCarthy feel that "truth is what you want to believe."

How about Barry De Haven who plays Blickes, the dog, and Vahnt mar-

bears that is he a dog?"

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Carnage as a Student Workshop Production. The group welcomes the opportunity to present original dra-

This play was presented by Cot and Car-Having read Tom Engle's opinion of the decision on American intervention in South Vietnam, I have some questions—sort of an "Engle hearing." Mr. Engle writes that "whatever action he deems necessary, this policy is true, but Mr. Engle, what is your creed? Oppotion to war and foreign intervention? Senator Fulbright believes we should leave Vietnam because of the American dollar support for, or France, that stands on De Gaulle for such a thing. On the other hand, are countries like Thailand, South Korea, Australia, and New-Zealand forces that are linked with Communism or ours? Mr. Engle, you have not agreed with this. Mr. Engle who are, therefore, the dollar is not the American dollar for support, but the French support for war.

If we interfer our enemy through public statements of the United States, soldiers and weapons that are to be sent are not be sent, and for what purpose, the French command to France, they are to go there, and I have written to these soldiers and weapons as to give these sol-dlors a very "warm" welcome. I ask you to have the opinion that these hearings nothing at all. The hearings turned into a stage of "set" questionings, expecting "set" answers, and drawing "set" conclusions. The conclusions given by the congressmen were drawn up prior to the hearings.

Let us not deceive ourselves: if we have learned from the experience of the last war, we learned how to handle our minds to fit the proc-

Snyder's loss-no one's gain

Dear Editor:

With reference to your statement that Mr. Snyder, the Wilkes College Music Department, has recently been released to the rank of a tenured professor at the request of the College. Dr. Snyder, by attempting to add a

"Renewal" falsely criticized

Dear Editor:

Last week's article on renewal in Wilkes-Barre, "Thru Plague Renewal," which your paper carried was an excellent article. There is no room for criticism in such programs, but that criticism must be based on accurate facts and the statements at least 18 factual errors. For example, the article claimed that two sewage disposal plants were constructed on the Riverview Drive. While the true fact is that one sewage disposal plant is to be constructed in Hawser Twp. (There will be two pumping stations on the Riverview Drive.) The article also claimed that the city's parking garage was a result of the city's own action. The true fact is that the garage was a result of a parking authority independent of the city government. The errors are too numerous to list in toto, but the point should be clear. Conclusions drawn from fallacies incorrect conclusions. Accordingly, the article's suggestions that the city is not concerned with the plight of those who have been relocated because of the retirement of a substantial number of affluent families are not only unfair, but sufficient not to be informed. We do not pretend that all is perfect with the city's redevelopment program, but it does not appear that the committee concerning these programs does consider any considerable harm, that criticism of itself

Having contacted five real estate interests in Wilkes-Barre, there are no lessors of four of the five firms that this writer made contact with, and the matter for construction has been not necessarily desirable, but must be based on accurate information to be constructive, and that criticism that attacks these questions is unfair, illogical and ir-sponsible.

Send your comments to:

Joe Elias

April 25, 1969

Wilkes-Barre. This reproductions of the 1968-69 Beacon will be filled

ED of SC CC Boo Boos—

The Executive Division of SC Constitutional Convention released a preliminary recommendation for the revision of the Executive Branch of the Student Government. The report is both incomplete and vague.

It empowers the SG president to appoint certain committees, but does not specify what those committees are for in definite or indefinite periods, if the president may dissolve those committees, or if the recommendations of the committees are binding, and if not who has the power to decide on whether or not the recommendations are to be accepted. It establishes the vice-presidency as a powerless and essentially functionless office. It does not set a deadline for the treasurer's budget report, and gives the treasurer power to appoint assistants, but does not specify if the assistants are to be chosen from the SG or from the student body, or if this permits the treasurer to conduct certain investigations, but does not even specify if these investigations are to be limited to financial matters. It lists the purpose of the Intercollegiate Fund under the treasurer's duties (for undefinable reasons), but does not establish the treasurer's relationship to the fund. It sets up the secretary as an executive officer, but grants him exclusively secretarial duties, thus establishing the position as one that should be appointive, but nevertheless makes it elective.

But by far the most recommendation contained in the report is tenuous: the president may "assume responsibilities and take whatever actions he deems necessary and proper," without setting specific limits on such responsibilities and actions which excludes any other individual or group from checking possible abuses by the president. It permits a strong-personality president to become a virtual dictator of SG.

We urge SG to reject these recommendations and to return them to the Executive Division of the Constitutional Convention for reconsideration and revision.

For just spring

No, said his roommate;

ditto,

the dean

and out came the rulebook:

Thou shalt not tread upon the seal nor walk across the grass. Thou shalt not lie upon the hill nor talk aloud in class. Thou shalt not always seek the core nor piet to demonstrate. Thou shalt not hear truth any more nor smell oranges.

Positively,

Pegasus protested —

his zeal for oranges was greater than for rules.

— A. G. Jildzen

Snyder's loss-no one's gain

Dear Editor:

It has come to my attention that Mr. Snyder, of the Wilkes College Music Department, has suddenly been released a renewal of his contract for the comming fall semester. I am personally well aware of the surrounding circumstances but find myself in a position of maintaining silence since the reasons for this disaster have not yet been made public.

I should like to add the administration if they are aware of what consequences such an action might bring. It usually follows that the dismissal of one member of a family forces this member to leave the family. In so doing, the wife of Mr. Snyder, Dr. Snyder, now chairman of our Modern Language Department, will be forced to seek employment elsewhere in an attempt to maintain the family unity. Perhaps those of you who are aware of the circumstances.

Dr. Snyder has incorporated into the be informed about these.

As you may or may not know, our foreign language department is not accredited by the state for teaching. Dr. Snyder, by attempting to add an improved new course, which would be valuable in bringing our language department up to the standards of other institutions, he was endangering his position. I wonder if Wilkes College is fully cognizant of the dangers involved with the insufficiency of the language department.

I remain doubtful about the outcome of all this. I am a senior and will soon be leaving this thought with the rest of you now.

Sincerely,

Davey Sobe

Editor's note: Until 1965 all matters pertaining to

Snyder's loss-no one's gain

Dear Editor:

In a recent column which appeared in the Beacon, you wrote about the necessity of some kind of renewal in this institution. I don't know if it was a "moving on" column, a "let's make a bold face, but a defeat!" I bellieve, will have long-range effects, not only on the students in the class, but on the mind and moral fiber of America. Will our children accuse us of "selling" Southeast Asia?

Perhaps there will be no repercussions, but what do you think is the effect on the rest of America? Do you hope you may never have to fight, but don't you fear there will be that little "let's go to the war" impressions? Will the next generation fight again against another "war of liberation" in Asia? Will we be united as a re-fight in Vietnam, the next in Burma, and the next in Indonesia? Where, Mr. Engle, will the next war come?

When and where will we stop running from the Communists if we leave Vietnam now?

Joe Elias

Editorial positions on the 1968-69 Beacon will be filled

Previous Beacon experience will not be a prerequisite of appointent; instead candidates will be assigned a particular story and will be judged on their handling of it.

Candidates should notify the Beacon of their interest immediately by addressing a note to the editor in-chief.
RFK—Man on the run
by Martin J. Neupert

Robert Kennedy's decision last week to seek the Presidential nomination may have been prompted by any number of factors. First, by running in 1968 he can project an image of himself in 1964 as a man who had the courage to oppose an incumbent President on what a large number of Mr. Kennedy's supporters see as a moral issue. This assumes, probably fallacious, that he will not forget by 1972 that he was a Bob- by-come-lately on the political-moral scene. Second, and perhaps more certain, he decided not to seek renomination, which is admittedly highly unlikely, Mr. Ken- nedy is as much as anyone else the man who will assume the party leadership with the least difficulty. Third, it may very well be that he never had the districts that came from the Kennedy campaigns by himself and Mr. Mc- Carthy will widen the anti-administra- tions. Kennedy has increased the possi- bility of one of the two obtaining the nomination. It seems that this will be the case, of course, one of the two will have to strip aside some time before the sec- ond. Moreover, the Kennedy campaign in five months. On the first ballot they can combine their delegations strength and that is not enough to obtain the nomination, but on the first ballot all administrators must vote. Mr. Kennedy may thus assume at suc- cess. Fourth, Mr. Kennedy used his campaign to some extent to liberalism to liberal leadership that could have been his for the last five years, but he has not been willing to assume until seven days ago either because of a lack of leadership or his realization that Johnson's usurpation of part of that leadership, such as in civil rights. When he was going to campaign in the race, Mr. Kennedy is now in, and it is fair to expect his party to support him and also to allow him to outline his own political

Ostriches or Hawks
Dear Editor:

Now is the time as in every election year that candidates begin proclaiming themselves, and we are prepared to take a look at the promises to the problems that face the world or the United States. Well, is there any? The up-coming elections seem to have many old and familiar songs to it. There is a need for security, poverty and war entirely new to be dealt with for the first time. But have there ever been any humanitarians willing to help the world or their state country? Haven't there ever been such people as Prime Minister Chamberlain's new war? How about real time, or have the history books been lying?

Haven't Chamberlain's problem-sol-ving techniques been proven bad in the past? America is also belying its loyalty like the ostrich, while its enemies

Bolon offers tactility

"Hangover" is the title of an exhhibit in Conephyum Annex this week by Ann Bolan, a known vaer. A formal line drawing always include that this exhibit is not the usual flat, two-dimensional affair but rather the usual flat, two-dimensional affair. As one enters the gallery, light reflects off the books, poetry, the glass, and the paintings, filling the eyes. The different hangings, single and in series, perforated and left in their own way, create different angles which give a quasi-price tag, and offer one of the most

Shown above is The New York Rock and Roll Ensemble, soon to appear in the Strawberry Fields of Wilkes College.

A Republican could pick up 500 200 or more of these from one on the Bay of Pigs.

At President Kennedy's request he headed an investigation to review U.S. in-terests and capabilities after the

Dr. Stanley Kay will give a brief introduction to Ex-

Walter's entry, and thus increase

I will assume the party leadership the strange oil of its ideals: Are American ideals, images and in-

A thought that is for sure:

a few (6) of the most intriguing things to draw (for some do allow for some) and does not allow for some) or motives or both. The deegressions of our political-moral provision of its prosecution.

Yours,

Roman Tychyshyn, Fine Arts.

P.S.: I must say that the Beacon is beginning to read like a decent college the paper. Thus it appears that the the distinctiveness of a young president, and thus increase awareness of the Exhibit: The Beacon is

Re the pseudonymous (Beacon) question on the sophiel gallery draw-this I(3/B) that would appear (6) the strangest of the 5010 "drawings" for some do allow for some) do a few (6) draw (for some do allow for some) or motives or both. The deegresions of our political-moral provision of its prosecution.

Yours,

Roman Tychyshyn, Fine Arts.
by Chuck Lengle

The Middle Atlantic Conference has recently released its all-conference selections and as one surveys the list, the name of Herb Kemp is sorely missing.

The confident comment to the news that Kemp had just completed a fabulous season in which he did everything except coach the team and yet, he is completely ignored as a first-team selection is, of course, the integral reason why Kemp had not been given an honorable mention.

Kemp's statistics reveal the following: first in rebounds (both the Northern and Southern Conferences) with a total of 287 — 36 more than his nearest competitor; eighth in scoring in the Northern Conference with a 9.1 average — tenth in both conferences; fourth in assists; first in defensive blocking; and second in total电工. Yet, Kemp possesses all the credentials to warrant more than just an honorable mention.

A look at the Northern Conference reveals one guard, three forwards, and a center. Mike Eckenroth of Al- bright mans the guard position. Don Sechler of Delaware Valley holds the pivot position, with Terry Buchanan of Lycoming, Russ Selger of Wagner, and Epshenier as forwards.

Conference selections are justified by the selection of Buchanan by placing him at the center position. He is the only ball player my three conferences, having scored a 521 clip from the floor. On top of all this, the sophomore was chosen to the seasonal ECAC All-East Team — a distinction shared only by Rick Epshenier of Susquehanna and Jack Linderman of Drexel. It seems Kemp possesses all the credentials to warrant more than just an honorable mention.

It is interesting to note that Chuck Sample and George Young were the Warren guards this season while Buchanan operated from a corner position. Why couldn't Epshenier also be moved to a guard position? Kemp then holding down the vacated forward position?

This is no inference that the members of the squad are not excellent ball players. I just feel a line-up composed of Epshenier and Buchanan in the back court, Sechler in the post, and Kemp and Selger in the front court would have given us a stronger and defin- itely superior to the team as it now exists.

Joe Frazier is now the world heavyweight boxing champion in Pennsylvania — finally. This ruling was handed down by the State Athletic Commission earlier this month. After the undefeated Frazier scored an eleventh-round knockout over Buster Mathis on March 4 in New York, he was recognized as the world champion. Massachusetts, Illinois, and Maine. As a member of the World Boxing Association, Pennsylvania did not recognize the Philadelphia champion as a new world champion until the decision was made.

The Pennsylvania move was definitely "bush" as it seems they recognized Frazier only because he is a native. This legislation reversal makes one wonder if the commission would have recognized Mathis — definitely a cheap move on the commission's part.

Congratulations are in order for Coach John Reese upon his election as president of the NCAA Small College Coaches Association for the coming year.

It has been reported that Dick Coba has accepted the head wrestling coach's position at Springfield High School, Springfield, New Jersey. We would like to offer Dick the best of luck — with his knowledge of the sport success will be inevitable.

Two Off Campus Bookstores...

- Barnes & Noble College Outline Series
- Full Line of School Supplies
- Cards and Gifts for All Occasions

Student Accounts Available

DEEMER'S
231 WYOMING AVENUE, PINESTOWN — 5 MUSEUM MARKET STREET, MILKES BARRE

Strictly Speaking

Wiendl, Matviak enter NCAA mat tournament

The College will be represented at the 36th Annual National Collegiate Athletic Association Wrestling Tournament this weekend at Penn State by Joe Wiendl and Andy Matviak. The duo is one of only six back-to-back first and fourth, respectively and the Small College Tournament at Mansfield. Wiendl capped his second-place finish of 1966 by taking first place at 160 pounds. Matviak finished fourth at 115, losing to the eventual winner, Andrew Season of North Carolina. Matviak will be an uphill battle for both against the tough competition of the larger colleges. But Wiendl, who surprised everyone by taking sixth place last year in the national, placed second in the inaugural Pennsylvania State Tournament in 1969. The Scorpion assistant coach will be able to draw the tournament favorites as the best small college athletes.

Matviak, a sophomore from the University of Illinois, is expected to make his 100-pound weight class. Oklahoma and Oklahoma State are expected to stage their annual for the national tournament. Oklahoma State has won the national championships twice while Oklahoma is second with six. Michigan State, the defending champion, is expected to finish right behind them. The Spartans have several returning champions but overall have been hurt by injuries. In a possible return to the championship finals, Wiendl defeated a champion to take the 145-pound title.

Michigan State won the Big Ten crown last year in preparation for the nationals.

Two defending champions, a 1966 winner and season runner-up last year, will be among the top competitors in this year's tournament.

The 111-pounder from the University of Delaware and Port- land State at 115 pounds; David Miro- of Oklahoma at 130; Anderson of Michigan State at 177; Don Hen- derson of Air Force at 145; and For- ry and Sechler of Oklahoma at 177. McGuire lost an 8-2 decision to Dan Kemp given honorable mention

Four returning champions, plus Joe Wiendl and Andy Matviak of Wagner, are expected to make their mark in the 101-pound division. Joe Wiendl last placed fifth at 115 pounds, losing to the eventual winner, Andrew Season of North Carolina. Matviak will be able to draw the tournament favorites as the best small college athletes.

Epshenier has led the conference in scoring for the last three seasons, placing among the top five scorers in the nation (college) this year. He is expected to lead the field of 25.

In the 191-pound class, the .303-pounder, Tech, and Teri- ty Buchanan of Lycoming. Her- Viendl was given added recognition as the liberal to seniors in the group. As a freshman, the .67-pounder defeated boves and determination that have been in a league of her own.

Lindeke, one of the top scorers and rebounders in the Southern Conference, anchors a team composed of Red Rahol of the University of Marsh, To- mor Saad of Drexel Tech, and Ted Juke of Dickinson. Bob Coopman of Ur- sinus, and Ned Russell of Franklin and Gable of Iowa State in this year's Big Eight Tournament.

Sandra Linden, the outstanding wrestler in last year's tournament, will be shooting for his third straight NCAA title this year. He won at 123 pounds in this year's NCAA small college championships and probably will remain at 123.

Dave Porter of Michigan will at- tempt to reclaim the lightweight crown he won two years ago but lost in last year's semi-final round. This year he was defeated by Smith of Michigan State — by a fall in a dual meet and by a 3-2 score in the Big Ten Tournament.

Returning runners-up include Massa- ri Totabole of Portland State at 137 pounds, Wells of Oklahoma at 132, McCrory of Oklahoma at 160, Mike Gallo of Penn State at 167, Bradel- ley of Michigan State at 177, Do- buzzard of Iowa State at 191, and Nick Carolia of Adidas State, runner-up at heavyweight in 1967, but now a 191-pounder.

Tournament schedule: Thursday; preliminaries were at 1 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. each day, quarter-finals at 1 p.m. and semifinals at bouts at 7 p.m. Saturday, consolation finals at 3 p.m. and championship finals at 7 p.m.

INTRAMURALS

The IBA-round robin finals got un- derway this week with three games. F-Wing, 8-3, and the Nehus, 92, 21, Priapus Hall then dropped F- Wing, 13-6, to advance to the game's high of 24 points. Joe Koterba is the leading scorer in the playoffs with a 21:5 game high of 24 points. The playoffs continue this week with F- Troupe highly favored. After the playoffs, an IBA all-star team will be named.

CORRECTED AND FOR SALE

'63 Rambler Station Wagon 6 cyl. — one owner $600
Call 824-3839

Chuck Robbins
SPORTING GOODS
Ready to serve you with complete line of Sneakers, Jackets, Emblems, Sporting Goods.
28 NORTH STREET

CHUCK ROBBINS

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE

all styles for boys and girls

LOOK for the golden arches . . .

McDONALD'S

THE HAYLOFT

A complete Sportswear Department including

VILLAGER

THE TEEN SHOPPE