REVENGEFUL WILKES-ELEVEN DEFEATS HIGHLY FAVORRED BLOOMSBURG SQUAD

EARL JONES

The Colonels of Wilkes College established themselves as a team to be reckoned with among the small colleges of the east, when they scored a stunning 29 to 7 victory over Bloomsburg State Teachers College at Haver Stadium, Plymouth, last Saturday. Although this may be considered as an upset in some quarters—frm on this corner the Franklin, all line-up, the indication of the difference, in the two teams is obvious. So far as the Colonels journalists have travelled, the Colonels’ loss to Loretto, Pa., to show St. Francis their new pace was a massacre. Last year the Colonels lost the Colonels dizzy and all sense of victory and I wish, despite a minus yardage total on the ground.

We won’t jinx the boys by predicting a win, but your reporter feels certain that this year the score won’t be 31 to 0 in favor of Bloomsburg.

Since the Colonels won’t be home tomorrow, why not turn out and watch Mr. Patridge’s proteges in aggregate soccer at Wilkes? The Colonels boast their season’s opening with the Huskies from Bloomsburg, (that name sounds familiar), and they hope to get off to a good start. Mr. Patridge doesn’t promise anything spectacular this season, but he does say that his boys will be trying all the way. Next week the Colonels will be last to the Colonels for Colonels Carvan. This one will be guarded by the people of Plymouth, to take the Wilkes-Upsala game. Be a Colonels Booster. Join the Colonels Carvan.

FRESHMAN TRIBUNAL SESSIONS OPEN;
JURY, JUDGES, ATTORNEY APPOINTED

The most high, dignified, and anachronistic court of no appeals, better known as the Freshmen Tribunal, has been opened. Three new officers, Ed Bogucki, Frank Razuscowski and Frank Zappalorti are ready to do their job. The freshmen are quite well in their first game for Wilkes. Each freshman showed great promise, and the backfield talent among the freshmen although none of them saw action in the Colonial’s loss. The Colonial’s casualty was freshman guard, Zappalorti who left the game with an ankle bone fracture. He will return another day. Some one suggested that at least 500 people in the large crowd were relatives of the Colonels.

MR. ROBERT MORAN BEGINS DUTIES

“I will continue to remain in Wilkes College as long as the music situation grows.” These were the words of Mr. Robert Moran, the new instructor on the Wilkes College music staff, during an interview with a representative of The Beacon.

Originally from Detroit, Mr. Moran toured the country as trumpeter with Harry James before entering the Navy to play in the Naval Dance Band, which played at hospitals, camps and war bond drives throughout the country. After being discharged, he attended the Eastern School of Music from which he graduated last June. During the summer he went to Northwestern University for work toward his master’s degree in music education.

Mr. Moran’s duties at Wilkes are many. They include teaching music appreciation and composition, giving music lessons and directing the band. In his classes he includes both symphonic and modern music in order to give a more complete understanding and appreciation of all music.

Mr. Moran enjoys having classes in the converted private homes at Wilkes and is impressed by the friendly spirit which prevails.

ADMIRAL HAROLD R. STARK (RET.) JOINS WILKES BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Admiral Harold R. Stark (ret.), former chief of States naval operations and Commander of United States Naval Forces during World War II, and one of the first to donate property to Wilkes College, has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of the College, according to a recent announcement by Gilbert S. McClintock, chairman of the board.

In 1937, when it was decided that permanent property should be obtained by the school, Stark generously donated the present administration building, named Stark Hall, to Bucknell University Junior College. The Admiral retired from naval service in April, 1946, following 47 years of duty. He entered the service through the Naval Academy in 1890 and during the last war was rated as one of the skilled forces top military officials.

Stark, who makes his permanent home at Lake Carey, now joins the ranks of many other former top military leaders who have entered the education field. He met with the other members of the board for the first time last Wednesday, at the initial meeting of that body for the 1946-47 year, which took place.

The appointees of the former naval officer to the Board of Trustees brings the total number of that group to 18. Other members are: Chairman Gilbert S. McClintock, attorney, miner, L. B. Carr, Mrs. Charles E. Cif, Mrs. Frank G. Darby, Dr. Samuel M. Davenport, Miss Annice Evans, Edward Griffith, George W. Guckelsberger, James P. Harris, Mrs. Edward H. Kent, Dr. Joseph J. W. Wilkens.

CHORAL CLUB MEETS TUESDAY, SEPT. 21

A reorganization meeting of the Wilkes Choral Club will be held on Tuesday, September 21, at 11 A.M. in Gies Hall, Mr. Colebeigh, director, has announced.

The Choral Club performs several times during the year at school functions, and also, for various civic organizations in this area. In order that Wilkes College may be well represented at these appearances, all students possessing any ability in the vocal field are requested to see Mr. Colebeigh at the Tuesday meeting as soon as possible thereafter. All old members as well as new members should attend the Tuesday meeting.

Philharmonic Phases

It has been brought to my attention or, more appropriately, I have realized the fact that the BEACON has always carried a column on modern "hit" tunes, jazz, and the like, written by competent reporters on that subject. But I have also noticed that this paper has never catered to the symphonic, operatic, or more profound repertory of music. Knowing that there are ardent enthusiasts of the many works of music on this campus, I feel that there is a definite need for a column of this nature to be inserted in this medium of information of school affairs. The BEACON. The writer wants all readers to know that this column will always be open to criticism.

Presently, the most important event on the agenda in Wyoming Valley is a double-bill performance of Massenet's "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Leoncavallo's "I Pagliacci." This will take place on September 9th at the Wyoming Area High School Auditorium, Kingston, at 8:30 p.m. The opera-goer should take advantage of seeing and hearing these two "old favorites" of Italian operatic repertoire.

The college music department, under the leadership of Asst. Prof. Caserini, has only added the number of courses offered. The number of students attending these courses has increased. I would strongly recommend the course in music欣赏. Records are used throughout the course to familiarize the students with every type and form, from Beethoven and Schumann to such composers as Shostakovich, Hindemith, and Stravinsky.

The most interesting course that has been added to the schedule is the art and science of orchestration given by Mr. Robert Moran, our new music instructor, who is now immersed in this phase of music. He has been a member of the Scranton Philharmonic under the baton of Dr. Frieder and for several years in symphony orchestras. He has received an offer to play with the Scranton Philharmonic under the baton of Dr. Frieder. He is also the RCA Victor, Mr. Moran also teaches pipes instruments.

As being as we experimented, this column would like to see other columns written by the editors, or through personal channels.

With the happy summer events rapidly becoming nothing more than a distant memory, the campus looks toward the fall season and what chaotic scenes this week will bring. The current freshman class, en masse, will walk through it and you will be proud of them. The new freshmen, those of us who have been here for some time, seem to be doing a much better job this year. That wonderful game and the excitement of attending a football game on Saturday night.... that nice feeling that comes over you seeing the colors your school has represented for the first time since June... Sweating the bookstore line.

Professor Deemer continued rapidly through the roll-call, summing up the findings of the past week, as well as possible outcomes for this week. As he reached for the last card with his left hand, his face suddenly froze. The book was still open to the textbook page. He wasn't going to waste time on a roll-call, nor, not Professor Deemer. Too much time had been spent already. He would have to finish the card, blinked, and looked again. Right! High up away from the textbook to the pile of cards. He quickly shuffled them through, picked them up again, and studied the words. The words were not to be taken lightly. He could easily see that the names were identical for the first letter. "Shyamy!" he shouted. "Z-e-y-m-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-a-
SOCCER TEAM PLAYS SATURDAY

Tomorrow at 2:00 o'clock in Kirbey Park, the Wilkes College soccer team will open their season when they meet the "Rusticks" from Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Mr. Partridge has been working with the candidates since last fall. Coach Partridge has been dropped by the lack of experienced men on the squad. In fact none of his men have played the game before, and he has had to spend valuable time teaching the players the fundamentals of the game. The team that will face Bloomsburg tomorrow will be green, but willing. Mr. Partridge feels that as the season progresses Wilkes may pull a surprise along the way.

The oldtimers of the valley will welcome soccer back to the scenes. Years ago the newcomers in the area, who played the game in high schools then, have had the sport well received. Eventually the sport was allowed to die, but now Wilkes is out to revive the game.

Coach Partridge played both high school and college soccer. While at the high school, he was chosen All-American... so the boys have a lot to live up to.

As yet no starting eleven has been chosen. Since all but two are returners the coaches have a difficult task in the selection of his starting eleven. The team to start include: Charley Jackson, Lem Lamarelli, Zip Jones, Cy Kovalchik, George Coughlin, Dick Wiese, Ed Wettle and Don Tosh.

League championship with eight wins and only a loss to Army. Only men have a chance to be the Red for this season and they were won from the offensive unit. The whole team will rise in morale when Frosch are coming up to give the boys a chance to lettermen any help they may need.

This year's Cornell team seems to have the ability and power to go long toward the top of the Ivy League.

Down South the big word will be Fumble. Experience is the word that follows odds-on choice to trump the rest of the Southern Conference. Only Ernie O'Brian, a wingman, is lost from the first two teams. At every position the unit is stout and deep with experience. Coach Fink himself is perfecting his plays. The two-man Fosch are coming up to give the boys a chance to lettermen any help they may need.

Again S.M. U. will be the team to beat in the Southwestern Conference. With names like Walker, Rote, Johnson, Payne and McKissack you have a backed-for title one of the strongest in Conference history. Coaches Bell and Russell haven't a chance in the west. Every department is capable and filled long in reserves. And above all S.M. U. will have another clutch team that can't be beat until the final whistle.

A hurried jump out to the Pacific Coast shows us that it will be California all the way.

This is not to say that California stakes it's hope of bouncing back to the top on a handful of brilliant sophomores, who in their working out coats made Coach Cravath forget about the loss of such stars as Don Dool, George Murphy and Bob Bastian. Probably it would be better to write this information after Southern Cal's opener, because in back they face their toughest opponent, Navy. But the new talent is sure to break into the picture and the veteran quality will be able to cheer them right into the Rose Bowl.

With the Pros no one is willing to determine the Philadelphia Eagles of that rightful recognition as the Champs of both Conferences. Un-

SOCCER RULES ARE REVIEWED

by JAMES TINSLEY

With the inauguration of soccer as a fall sport at Wilkes College, the local sports spotlight turns to Kirby Park. Although this sport enjoys a great deal of popularity in other sections of the country, it has only recently been revived in Wyoming Valley. Because of this fact, it might be well to present a brief summary of the rules of the game.

This is a game which employs pedal rather than manual dexterity. The use of hands is prohibited. The players designated in the diagram as linemen are primarily offensive men, while the backfield's purpose is defense. The only man who is able to use his hands is the goalie. The penalty for illegal use of the hands is a free kick at the goal from the point of the infraction. If a penalty occurs within the fifteen foot zone, the free kick is given from a point twelve feet away from the goal. Body contact is allowed only on the opponent in control of the ball, but any body contact is penalized with a free kick.

There is one other rule infractions which might concern the spectator. This is invoked if an offensive backfield player gets ahead of the ball and runs with it, or talks to players on the ground. This penalty is precisely the same as for soccer. Yes, it is possible to have a free kick at the goal with ten men on the field.

The Wilkes-Bloomsburg game is the ideal place to begin, for Bloomsburg will field a team with a better-than-average record (5 wins, 1 tie, 2 lost), and is slated to give Wilkes plenty of trouble.

JOE'S CORNER

by JOE GREEN

What is going to happen in the Collegiate football world this year? What will happen to the old-time teams? What players will stand out above all the others? These are the types of questions that are difficult to answer in its introduction to the 1944 Collegiate Football season.

Let's start in the Midwest and see what is in store for the Big Ten giants. A pair of football big shots have dominated the national gridiron scene. Minnesota and Ohio State. Both, one grade greater than the Mid-West's headline, for the last five years. At Columbus, Ohio State is defending Western Conference and mythical national champions, and the Buckeye power plays them.

First let's look at Michigan. Of course Michigan is the old-time team in Michigan. Michigan team goes into the 1944 campaign with some problems, but once coach Knight gets things together, the quality and quantity of talent to overcome these problems.

From the offensive forward wall that helped Michigan roll up an enormous score in Saturday's game, Michigan lost All-American end John Kellogg, tackle Herb Kiefer and guard Tom Tomei and Stu Willnina. But for the most part veterans are returning, and the Wolverines will be faster. The defense will be a big plus.

Ex-Sportsmen Studios had Paul Toumis lipping the ball for a score on Jack Feeney (65) comes in to take a potntal tackle.

Michigan's great strength lies in its backfield, the duo of fullback Hank Johnson and halfback Jack Feeney are two men deep in every position behind them, John Kellogg, Bob Oertli, Chuck Ortman, Leo Koecsko, and the versatile Wally Tenning will give the Wolverines an ideal backfield combination that will be hard to beat.

Fullback Hank Johnson is "out-cornful" taming, seeing nothing but giving three hundred feet a game. John is in his standard set and nobody takes his walts seriously. Everyone is the fact of Johnson being a tough self and a contender for all-American.

The Irish go into the 1930 season working on a 28 game victory streak.

Leahy devotes considerable time to curving given the losses by graduation of such outstanding backs as Terry Parce, John Donovan, Jimmy Finchay, Marty Wendell and Tom-Frank Tripucka. But, Mr. Leahy sees a strong backfield still, promising turning lettermen and the sophomore, E. C. E. Meyers.

Bob Williams, the lanky youngster from Baltimore who under-studied the playing back while a quarterback. He is a fine field general, with a right foot that can fling the ball-handier, Plymouth's Scholastic great Johnny Marxey will be right back next season. But the Irish backfield to have deception, speed, and contain a defense will characterize a Leahy backfield.

Let's skip over the chalk lines to the schedule, and we see a road trip away above all the others in that section.

As far as the independents are concerned, we will have Army and Penn State on the top. The Ivy League members will have to be put in the upper spot on the top. First we choose Army as the best for the Ivy League. It is no secret that because of a heavier schedule, the team is only equalled by Bobby Jack Stuart, Winfield Scott, Bill Yeoman, Phil Feir and David Lindsley. The Pitts lack any main conditions that three of last year's outstanding men. As a team they are Dan Folsberg, Arnold Galliff and Gill Shippenhorn. These men just return from the big loss of the Piebes squad make Army a team that will be hard to beat.

Why Cornell you ask—that is a good question and here is the answer. As Coach Lefty James put it on the radio. "We are optimistic." And why, like the team itself, the Blue and White squad believes that 1944 will give all of that.

Important Beacon Meeting Monday!
HOH-CHUENG MUI  TO TEACH HISTORY

Mr. Arthur Silverblatt, assistant district attorney of Luzerne County, addressed the students last Tuesday in the Baptist Church, Wilkes Barre, on the theme of "Freedom of Fear." He stated that Freedom is in the traditional and democratic sense of the word, being the opposite of slavishness. This concept has been applied to the present generation of American men, who are living in a world of fear. Mr. Silverblatt offered seven points to consider:

1. Keep faith with our State department.
2. Give increased power to our State department.
3. Have we to make people in foreign countries love America and its ideals?
4. How many to control the "boat people"? (The "boat people" refers to the Vietnamese refugees arriving in American ports.)
5. To keep faith with our State department.
6. Have we to educate the American public regarding their freedom of assembly? If we try to emphasize this point, we will return to the Democratic way of life.
7. Need more democracy. Mr. Silverblatt concluded that fear is a common enemy.
