LABOR MANAGEMENT FORUM
MONDAY IN LECTURE HALL

On Monday, May 7, the Economics Department of Wilkes College will present a Labor Management forum in the Lecture Hall. The Forum will begin at 8 P.M. and there will be no admission charge. Wilkes students are invited to attend.

The Forum will be held on the question "Labor Relations are Human Relations." Mr. Webster, Director of Labor Relations for the Southern Employers will represent Management, and Mr. Sabol, a Union Representative of the Textile Workers of America, will present the Union viewpoint.

SPEAKER AT FORUM

Laughter and the tears of the audience could be heard as Mr. Webster and Mr. Sabol related stories that brought to life their points of view.

While the discussion may have been of a serious nature, it is hoped that it will stimulate Wilkes students to become more interested in the problems of labor relations.

The forum was well attended and the two speakers did an excellent job of presenting their points of view.

No Corsages Rule To Prevail

For Cinderella Ball, May 18th

By popular student vote, the “no corsages” rule will prevail at the coming highspot of the social calendar—the Cinderella Ball, Friday, May 18th.

General Chairman Wade Hayhurst announced this week that the Student Council has completed arrangements for the appearance of Elliott Lawrence and his orchestra. Tickets, priced at $1.00, may be secured from any member of the Council, the Letterman, Tuck’s Drug Store, the special cafeteria booth, the bookstore, or at the door of the dance.

Bob Ellus and Joe Reynolds have tabulated the Cinderella candidates ballots sent in from every organization on the campus. Chosen to compete for the Cinderella crown are Joanne Smith, Louise Brennan, Isabel Ederer, Ann Belle French, Irene Wong, Nancy Fox, Joan Likewise, Toni Menegus, Lois Shaw, Rosemary Turissini and Roberta Swa.

The identity of Cinderella, however, will not be revealed until after the colorful pageant highlights the evening of May 8th.

Alumni Association To Hold Square Dance
Dear Bert,

Your opposition to my action regarding two matters is most gratifying. Before I go to Hollywood Landmark tomorrow one demanding the signing of a non-communist affidavit, to then set up a state investigating commission for the determination of student indoctrination into communism raises one of the very great problems of our time.

At the outset, permit me to state that these views are my own and I am presented as such, and they may or may not coincide with those of the other members of the council who voted for my resolution.

I named these bills for two very basic reasons. One, the very concept is a direct blow to academic freedom and uniformity. The mechanics of the proposals are wholly impractical.

Let me dwell for a moment on my first point. Your assumption, Bert, is that the signing of a non-communist affidavit guarantees the loyalty of that individual. However, the important consideration here is—loyalty to what? The obvious and logical corollary would be—in loyalty to our country and to what America apparently can do with our lives, they have left the party of their own free will. So we see that membership in the Communist Party or may not mean a man is loyal, at least in the eyes of the members who have left the party of their free will. In fact, so we see that membership in the Republican or Democratic Party does not preclude loyalty. That loyalty oath might eliminate some, but it will not eliminate those really dangerous who are quite willing to use the oaths if it is in their advantage to do so. If loyalty oaths are not enough in themselves we must have some other means of enforcing those oaths in the situation of the first point and the second bill, that is, our existing state investigating committees.

The function of loyalty oaths has been nothing more than an attempt at establishing political conformity and uniformity. The McCutcheons and McCarran, the Carvelle and Washington Committees brought this to the point where any attempt at Senate legislation or overt criticism of the conservative elements has been labeled as communist. As you know, the University of Columbia in last week's New York Times Magazine Section stated, "If the Senate Select Committee is to be trusted, we are faced with the possibility of a Blacklist in this country. We must invite and encourage free speech. We must create an atmosphere which encourages originality, independent criticism and expression." The signing of loyalty oaths was the destruction of our academic freedom which is the right to investigate and teach objective and philosophical whether they be Yogi or Communist or without fear of intimidation or coercion. The oath would subvert political affiliation for a different kind of qualifications. An instructor, not a member of the Committee, who refuses to sign for Constitutional reasons would be subject to dismissal regardless of his qualifications. It was truly a sad day.

Yours very sincerely,

Frank J. D. Davies
EAST STROUDSBURG FALLS BEFORE
WILKES QUALITY BASEBALL, 5 TO 1

Wilkes defeated East Stroudsburg State Teachers College 5-1 Saturday afternoon. 5-1. John Milliman pitched an impressive five hitter in allowing the future teachers but one unearned run.

The first three innings developed into a pitchers duel as Milliman and Talgo teamed up to prevent any scoring. Wilkes scored one run in the fourth when Davis singled, Kropiwinski walked, and Manarz singled. Talgo was relieved by Mollman who finished the inning without allowing any more scores. In the fifth inning, Stroudsburg scored their lone run when Fitchard walked, advanced to second on a fielder's choice and scored when Trosko failed to handle a difficult chance at first base. Milliman struck out Siaco to end the inning. Wilkes scored two runs in the fifth on four bases on balls, a hit, and three singles. Blackenbush's single. In the sixth Wilkes scored another run on two singles.

In the top of the seventh, Wilkes led 4-1. Milliman was to trouble when Fitchard walked, Krall singled, and Braun sliced a ball into short center that seemed to be in for a Texas League single, Blackenbush charged from deep center and made a diving catch of the drive; he rolled over twice and made the throw to Gavlick at short who relayed it to Trosko to complete a double play which ended the inning. Davis put the game on ice in the bottom half of the seventh when he slammed the first pitch to deep center field for his first home run of the season.

WILKES BLASTS WYOMING SEMINARY
AS BATTERSON PITCHES 7-HIT SHUTOUT

The Wilkes baseball team avenged its lone lost last Tuesday when they swamped the Wyoming Seminary team with ten hits and seven runs while Batterson held them scoreless, five seven scattered hits. Wilkes jumped to a quick lead in the first inning when they collected two runs on singles by Blackenbush and Barottony and Eddie Davis' double.

Kendig pitched the entire game for the Seminary and was credited with the loss. In the third inning, Davis scored a run when he drew a base on balls, which was followed by Davis' home run. In the seventh, Kropiwinski walked and scored on Manarz's triple, Kropiwinski scored again in the ninth inning when he tripled and scored on Manarz's single.

The Seminary club did not reach Batterson for anything stronger than singles and only two men reached base in getting as far as second. Notes from the Coliseum Camp - After a slow start, Eddie Davis has begun to hit with authority. In the last two games he has gone five for ten at the plate and has two home runs and a double. His present batting average is .375 as compared to the .385 he was sporting before his hitting streak.

When Batterson pitched his shut-out against Wyoming Seminary he presented Coach Partridge with a problem which most coaches would be too happy to have. Both Milliman and Zigmund are well rested for Saturday's game with Harpur. Kelley and Silborn haven't pitched since April 21, and they are both available for relief assignments, so the pitching staff seems to be in good shape as the team enters a tough week with games scheduled with King's, Scranton U, and Harpur.

NEWS BRIEF --

One 'C' Certain Club, which was scheduled to close its season's activities after the last presentation of three one-act plays (April 18 and 19), has announced that three more plays are to be presented. Tentative dates for this presentation are the 16th and 17 of May. Complete information will be given in next week's BEACON.
