Blue and Gold Seeks First Win After Losing Tough Battle To St. Francis

By HANK NOVAK

Tomorrow night at 8 in Kingston Stadium, the Wilkes Colonels usher in the first home game on their 1951 grid schedule when they play host to the invading Purple Knights of the University of Bridgeport.

The Colonels, still smarting from the 12 to 7 defeat handed them last week by St. Francis, will be out to break into the win-ners' column and consequently help clear up their first defeat of the season.

For further incentive, the Colonels can just call to mind last year's fray when Bridgeport ran roughshod over the Blue and Gold 27 to 0 in the first half. The last time the Knights tasted defeat at the hands of Wilkes was in the first game in 1944.

The solid offensive team looks something like this: Ends, John Strejlo and Co-captain Mc-Donald; Half backs, Chuck Gloman and Fred Radoszki; guards, Dan Novak and Gene Shear; center, Joe Yanovitch; wingback Bill Strojny; fullback Eddie Davis; and fullback Al Nicholas.

The Wilkes College International Association is planning a full line-up of events for the 13-15-16 season on the second floor of the Cafeteria.

On Saturday night they are: Chuck Gloman, exteriorback; Bob Evans, center; Steve Merolli, left end; Al Nicholas and Eddie Davis, fullbacks; George Kabusk, outside; Bob Evans, interior; Jack Novak, guard and with a change in the Educational Club of Wilkes College.

The Colonels are scheduled to play three games on the road this year: at Princeton, November 23, 1952, in Bridgeport, Manhattan, December 19, 1952, and Notre Dame University.

Their home schedule will include: Western Michigan University, October 13th; University of Scranton, October 20th; Allegheny College, October 27th; and the University of Buffalo on November 3rd.

Sunday's meeting will be held at Dr. Kruger's home, 570 Warren Ave., Kingston. Anyone desiring veteran attending classes will not receive subsistence checks until October 31 or November 1.
The Sophomore Class

Possibly the poorest showing of school spirit in the history of Wilkes College was the manner and spirit in which the sophomore class conducted freshman initiations. Had it not been for the efforts of Miss Lewis, the Sophomore Wall and a few (very few, to be sure), other upperclassmen, freshman regulations would have been ignored completely.

Better initiations were conducted when the Letterman's Club was in charge. But it was alleged that the Letterman's Club' was not the proper outfit to enforce freshman regulations, the responsibility was passed on to the sophomore class, which does seem to be the logical place. It is obvious that there will have to be more strict enforcing of freshman regulations because they were a group held together with a strong bond of friendship. And by the same token, if the junior class is to be successful, it is a disinterested, capricious group that is related only by a common graduation year.

By some regulations may be removed, but if not, "Sophomores, unite! You have nothing to lose but shame!"

Second Session of Wilkes Tribunal Finds Entire Freshman Class Guilty

The Second Session of that right equitable court of justice, The Wilkes Tribunal, got under way Tuesday, October 2, 1951. His right honorable significance, Judge Wallace, smartly rapped his law-laden gavel and the trials were under way.

The second trial session was conducted as the first, but the agenda was that of the State of Strange, an event as uneventful as they come. The Freshmen and Sophomore classes had been involved in some controversy before and an all-school meeting was called last Thursday. Needless to say, the Freshman class did not regard the Sophomore class with much favor. After the rally, it was reported that the Freshman class had resolved a conflict against the Soph class. Dick Watmough had been accused of a heinous act in the Freshman class discussing the matter of mixing barley carbo in the Sophomore chocolate milk to jeopardize the Sophomore chances of winning the cheering fray. The class could not deny the accusation for Mr. Watmough's word is not to be questioned. Hack Mitchell's word was issued and the Freshman class found themselves in a quandary. They are to march in full Freshman regalia in the Commencement parade on Tuesday, October 7.

Not To Be Tolerated

Joan Mahaffey was fibrillating over the fact that her@name was not on the guest list for the Freshmen-Sophomore banquette. She is a major in the Art Department and told them a vagabond was trying to pull one of the pranks that were tried in the next case. His was the highest trick, higher than the supreme, which actually had not been achieved on the campus.

The Sophomore Wall is filled with the history of the law that this villain was pardoned about the campus and that he is about to become a football hero. Girls are not to be victimized in such manner since this time of year they are especially susceptible. Mr. Sute asserted vigorously that the next time you don't do as the Sophomore Wall tells you to, you are in a world of trouble.

New Haven, Conn. (U.P.)-Since so many college football games have been played both at the home field and at other schools, students have now compiled a handbook to help the young man when he returns home for the holidays. The col-occupation of the colleges is not the same. The editors have created a non-existent woman's name that they have given to all the girls on the four colleges, but their names are not given. The whole idea is to show that the girls are not all alike and that the editors are hoping that the 19 other colleges may follow suit.

Big Third Period

The first half ended 4-1 in favor of F and M. In the second half, neither team scored, but the Diplomats, tallied four more times, putting the final score out of the Colonels' reach. The game was a bit rougher in the second half, but the Colonels played better than they did in the first half. In the second half, the Colonels were not able to score again.

From the Sidelines

by Bos Sanders

The Colonels emerged from a losing game with a winning attitude and a new spirit. The Colonels, led by their new star, Johnstone, played a better game this week than they did last week. The Colonels played well, and the result was that the game ended in a tie.

How many times in your life have you seen a back run the ball back 74 yards on a kickoff and then score on a play or two later? How many times have you seen a punt blocked that was returned for a touchdown? These are real football! Chalk up the Frankie game as a win and a loss because the win for St. Francis was only due to the courtesies of Lady Langley.

The Colonels and their coach are not the ones to gripe about losses because of losing to a better team. The point remains that St. Francis didn't have anything to talk about an ability to play better than the Colonels. The Colonels are good football players, and the game was a real exciting one.

Results of the Game

Al Nicholas suffered a broken bone in his right hand in the first half of the game. This injury was not serious, and he will be able to play in the next game. The Colonels lost their leading scorer, Al Nicholas, in the second quarter of the game. They were unable to score after his departure.

Coming Attractions

Saturday—Bridgeport University! Nicholas will play despite his Saturday injuries and will probably be feared by the opponents. After last year's game, the Bridgeport coach gave the Colonels football with the comment that he deserved it for the game he played against the New England squad. Bridgeport is looking forward to this game, and the Colonels are looking forward to a good game.

From Around:

From all corners it seems that the Wilkes line is in fairly good shape except at the middle positions. St. Francis scored both of their goals against the Wilkes defense, and the Colonels have a place to fill in a position that is crucial to their defense. They should be able to take all of their opponents' chances and be able to score themselves.

In the event that Nicholas is pulled out of a game, Wilkes has a replacement here. When the Wilkes defense unit was playing against the Colonels, Len Babrow was on the lookout for a way to get the ball down the middle of the field. Babrow is a valuable member of the team, and his presence gives Wilkes an edge in the offensive game.

Flip Jones pulled a muscle in the F and M game, but looks good for this week. Captain Too-Long Wallison has a sore foot. Peter Wurm is suffering from a sprained ankle, and he's out for the season.

The sports columnist is always supposed to have something to say. If he's winning he can ramble on pages. If his team is losing he can talk about good sportsmanship, honesty, and the team spirit—all for pages. He can write as many as he wants, and I don't believe he should be censored.

Colonels Lose Opener to St. Francis; Lady Plays LARGE ROLE IN LOSS

At the Wilkes gridiron dropped a heartbreaker Saturday night when St. Francis beat the Colonels 3-1. The game itself was highlighted by flying-fists and knocking-knees.

The thorne of the Colonels was a bomb from the crowd that kicked off when St. Francis back Bob Masion took the end-over-end kick on his own 10 yard line and raced 74 yards to the Wilkes 16 where he was finally stopped by the Colonels' defense. From that point, Masion went through the Wilkes line and dropped a short pass into the hands of Wilt Reisch, who ran draw first blood. The try for the extra point failed and Wilkes led 3-0 at the half.

In the second quarter, Pullback Eddie Davis scored for St. Francis when he ran up the middle for a touchdown and added three points. The rest of the game was played on the Colonels side of the Wilkes backfield, making constant gains but never able to push the ball over the goal line.

Finally, toward the closing minutes of the contest, Wheeler, a St. Francis guard, broke through the line to block a punt attempt by the Colonels' kicker. The ball rolled to the 5 before it was finally stopped from further gain.

Wilkes Band, Students To Take Part In Community Chest Parade Sunday

By Margaret Williams

The Community Chest Kick-Off for 1952 is set to come with a bang! A giant-sized parade, organized by Frank G. Ernest, is scheduled to take place in Wilkes-Barre on Sunday, October 7. The Wilkes College Band and a portion of the student body will participate.

The Community Chest quota for 1952 is set at $977,000. Thirty charitable organizations in Wyoming Valley are fully or partially dependent upon the Community Chest for financial support. This year, because of increased costs, there are two less Red Feather agencies than last year, but the thirty active agencies need all the help we can possibly give them.

Besides financial donations many people contribute their time to Red Feather agencies, for all community chest workers are volunteers, none are paid, and all pay their own expenses.

Last year the Community Chest received 90 per cent of its donation quota. The quota for this year has increased, but the need has also increased. To many people, the idea of donating to such a large organization may seem futile, but when one considers the individual cases aided by the Chest, the value of the donation is easily realized.

Of special interest to Wilkes students are the “Come and See” tours sponsored by the Community Chest. These tours, which can be arranged for groups of less than ten, are open from nine to five, Monday through Friday, at all thirty agencies.

A list of the Red Feather agencies will be posted in the Beacon office for the convenience of interested students.

LITERARY SOCIETY PLANS BIG YEAR

The Wilkes Literary Society held a reorganization meeting in Chase Leong's last week, to discuss plans for the coming year with Mr. Donnelly, faculty advisor, president. Present also were veteran members Wendell Clark, Dale Warmouth and Mike Lewis.

Although hampered by the fact that a majority of its members graduated in June, the society hopes to carry on its program in the same successful manner as did last year's group. It was decided that meetings would be held on a bi-monthly basis. At these meetings manuscripts may be submitted by members for group criticism and discussion. Each member will have the opportunity to be chairman of one meeting. It is customary for the evening's chairman to supply refreshments.

The society also intends to continue its practice of inviting from time to time a guest speaker for the evening. This idea worked well last year with such guests as Pulitzer citation-winner Ed Donahue of the Scranton Times and Mrs. Gertrude Marvin Williams of the College.

Welcome into the society at the meeting were new members,
Charles Thomas and Gerald Smith.

The next meeting will be announced in the bulletin early next week.
Anyone interested should contact Mr. Donnelly or any member of the society.

TWO PRO REPORTERS THUMBED OUT OF CITY

Those two syndicated reporters from Public Relations, Dale "Penelope" Warmouth and Jack "Scrap" Curtis, found themselves in a spot Saturday night following the St.
Francis game. While the team was changing at the Creson High School gymnasium, the dynamic duo went upstairs to the principal's office to telephone the results of the game to be Sunday independent.

When they completed their call they discovered that they and the janitor were all alone in the building. Unknown to them, the team had taken off to the hotel in Altoona, 26 miles away.

It was midnight. They were strangers, but nothing could stop those two unpubished scribblers. Without even a frown, "What to do?"

they broke out their personal chum and thumbed.

The bus had at least ten minutes
head start on their heroes, but by driving at the speed limit, they arrived at the hole in simultaneous with the lead of players.

The feat is doubly astounding as they walked the 50 blocks to the Penn-Alto, losing the means and supply at the fair city of Altoona. They were still healthy.
