Mock Air-Raid Drill At Wilkes Wed.; Statewide Preparations Being Made

There will be a mock air-raid drill on our campus on Wednesday, October 15, 1:45 P.M. This will be in conjunction with a statewide exercise which will be held throughout the state at 1:45 P.M. with the air-raid warning signals (5 rings on the classroom bells) will sound five minutes before those elsewhere in the state.

All faculty, students, and personnel, and students are asked to familiarize themselves with the location of the air-raid shelter nearest to where they happen to be at the time the signal sounds. A short fire-fighting, rescue, and first aid teams will evacuate the wounded. A Georgia counter-crusade will also be present to demonstrate the superiority in the vicinity.

The first aid station will be in Ashley Hall.

All students, faculty members, and personnel are asked to report to the nearest shelter and familiarize themselves with the location of bomb shelters.

Colonels will be ready to assist themselves thoroughly with the air-raid instructions posted on the bulletin boards in each building. Please cooperate in this effort!

3 ONE-ACTS FOR COMING WEEK, 13th - 15th; CHASE THEATER'S FIRST CURTAIN CALL

Peggy Williams

Every year, along the middle of October, three days are set aside by the inhabitants of Ye Olde Chase Theatre for their opening presentation. This year, on October 13, 14, and 15, the booths in mask and costume, their voices sonorous and melo-dious, and sensitive one-act.

The various weird sounds emit-ted from Ye Olde Chase Theatre for the last few weeks have been the result of the language, topics, and dialogue of Wilters' own Theatre. True, the masters and mistresses of the put-on, the presenters of the cannon, the sound-effects men, and the bel-lowers, will, during the run of the show, produce the melodious voices of the actors to mere background music; but, in the course of the three days of the conflict voices melt together and the three-day operation is a mustering of the co-operation so necessary to Theater.

Onward, onward, the eminent English playwright, is again before us. All the patrons of Ye Olde Chase will be glad to learn that Miss Ann Anst. is back in her favorite role. Miss Ann Anst., former president of Ye Olde Chase, Miss Anst. is perhaps one of the most experienced actors, are expected to put on a thoroughly enjoyable show. Ye Olde Chase will give their best to be a one's Curtin. Favor-ite? "Red Peppers" is a show that is not one Miss Ann Anst. is attending with Miss Ann Anst. THE SILENT GENERATION SPEAKS

Not too long ago a national magazine examined the young Americans, ages eighteen to twenty-six, of today. The magazine, in a superbly written article, took a good broad look at the kids of the U. S. and came up with the moniker, "The Silent Generation," which is something in contrast to the Lost Generation of the Twenties.

The "Silent Generation" is a pretty good tag. Loud-mouthed radicals and tightly-knit advocates are rare in colleges today, especially in Wilkes. Complaints are made by parents that their kids are "do-gooders" anything from their sons and daughters. Old-timers say that today's kids can't get worked up over anything. College activity groups are finding it difficult to get leaders, especially here in Wilkes. Stormy characters with convictions and the nerve to "speak-up" to their professors, the president of the college, and other power-laden parties aren't to be found. And, as the magazine states, today's generation prefers to moan or assume a "don't-give-a-damn" attitude about people and situations instead of acting or at least speaking up about it. So the "Silent Generation" is a fitting title.

We of the BEACON were afraid of that silence. We wrote in an editorial that we desired Letters to the Editor, but we didn't expect to get any. But somehow the Silent Generation of Wilkes has spoken. We've gotten numerous letters, printing as many as possible. We're hopeful that the situation will continue and we'll do all that is possible to maintain the flood of remarks.

But—it looks as though we must change a policy. We have long operated on the stand that we would print only signed letters. It seems that the Silent Generation is willing to speak, but it prefers to remain anonymous. So—if an anonymous letter is constructive, intelligent, and respectable, we'll print it.

We do not want to be charged, as many American adults have, of not listening when the Silent Generation speaks.

IRE OR ADLAI

The pulse of young intellectual America can often be found in college newspapers. We hope that the BEACON vibrates with the pulse of Wilkes, the student pulse that is. Attention must be paid to the stands and doings of the various college rags all over the U. S.

Recently, the student newspapers of Columbia and Yale came out for Adlai, whom the Democrats for the presidency. No doubt many college papers have taken their stand on the country's political goings-on, but we have not been informed of them.

Unfortunately, it seems, the BEACON must remain mute on the political subject. When a newspaper comes out for a candidate, it ought to be the editor himself. As the editor of the voice, the BEACON staff differs. The editorial staff members—the big shots—of the BEACON are as far apart from each other as the two Portlands. The reporters are just as individualistic.

So, in all fairness, the BEACON prefers to judge, while the other college rags stand up and holler. More power to them, we say.

WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED "WOMAN"?

Mankind today calls communism and the atomic bomb its biggest worry. But far above communism and the atomic bomb is the simple thing of "woman." Mankind has been fighting her ever since Adam was formed, and the only hope for a male victory is if the male can get to understand the female. But so far, all these billions and billions of years, the woman has remained a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma. Maybe some of the world's best writers—and some of the worst—can enlighten the beaten-down males of Wilkes.

VIEWS BOTH HUMOROUS AND SERIOUS

No woman objects to being called intelligent, provided she is assured that it has done no harm to her looks.

A wife is perfect only twice: when she is carried into the house and when she's carried out.

Adam never fell till God made fooled—Thomas Nashe.

No man is ever too old to look at a woman, and no woman is ever too fat to hope that he will look.

The difference between a good woman and a bad one is that a bad woman raises hell with a good many men, while a good woman raises hell with only one—Ed Howe.

They lie to God, to men, to themselves. They are not caught in life; they toy with life, they lose it before life as a mirror, and they make faces and change their expressions to give themselves the sensation of existing. While permanence is for men the proof of their reality, woman exerts her existence through change. Men wants to be one, woman wants to be multiplicity—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Being a woman is a terribly difficult trade, since it consists principally of dealings with men—Joseph Conrad.

The strongest propensity in woman's nature is to want to know what is going on—the next strongest is to boss the job—Josh Billings.

Never forget to assure a woman that she is unlike any other woman in the world, which she will believe, after which you may proceed to deal with her as any other woman in the world—B. Lewis.

Nothing so stirs a man's conscience or excites his curiosity as a woman's dead silence.

She's always in a triangle—like Napoleon's hat—Dixie Beer.

You are not permitted to kill a woman who has injured you, but nothing forbids you to reflect that she is growing older every minute—Ambrose Bierce.

What no writer of a reader can ever understand, no matter if she lives with him for twenty years, is that a writer is working when he's staring out the window.

But what is woman? Only one of nature's agreeable blunders—Cowley. Women need to work on the same principle: Keep them busy or they lose interest.

If a woman attracts men, she has sex appeal; if she attracts women, style; if she attracts everybody, charm—Balzac (1809).

A woman may be wicked as she likes, but if she isn't pretty it won't do her much good—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

My woman is just like an umpire—she never thinks I'm safe when I'm out.

She knows her Darwin backwards—She can make a monkey out of any man.

A woman is a person who will spend $20 on a beautiful slip and then be annoyed if it shows.

Not all wives suspect their husbands. Some have the goods on them. She leaves me with a feeling that when we buy the hatchet she marks the spot.

COLUMBIA UNIV. TO DEBATE WILKES

E. Stroudsburg Rallies to Take Booters, 3-1

Wilkes Ahead At Half-time, 1-0; Moss Magnificent With 35 Saves

CAPTAIN FLIP JONES SCORES COLONELS' TONE TALLY

By PAUL B. BEERS

Here was a real storybook ending. Never having tasted victory in 22 games—three straight seasons—the Wilkes Collegiate soccer team came within seconds of a tie at E. Stroudsburg State College. This time, however, the Colonels fell just short of their goal when a Wilkes player fouled the ball near the goal line.

Parker Petrik, back from Korea, stood on the sidelines while his teammates made 38 saves and watched untold numbers of balls fly over and beyond the goal. It took one of the hardest hitting lines in the soccer world three quarters to dent the Wilkes net. And two years ago Parker played the same goal against E. Stroudsburg as a likable, if not especiallyShutdownably, stopping the record 36 shots. But Petrik was never quite as magnificent as Mr. Moss was Wednes-

The Colonels, which last year lost to East Stroudsburg 6-0, led at half-time, 1-0. The lone tally was scored by Captain Flip Jones, one of the five forwards and goalie on the Wilkes team.

And the fourth lead item. Playing against five other boys, East Stroudsburg's lone Gironval, Tom Foyle, scored the first goal, during the Wilkes goal winning quarter in the fourth overtime. A real storybook thriller, not to mention that the clock unexpectantly was stopped and the thriller went 105 minutes instead of 90.

COLONELS

The players, having scored four goals in the first quarter, couldn't do a thing in the first period. Wilkes were down 4-0 to East Stroudsburg and so it

Jones, Berns, Eckberg, Merger and Moss, who played the full 105 minutes, got a break because of a free kick that was charged against the Wilkes team.

The Colonels made a big break. The Wilkes' goalie stepped out of bounds on a kick and a free kick in front of the goal. The Wilkes team was kept in the lead in the last minute of the first period. The Colonels had a chance to score in the last minutes of the first half.

Next week, Thursday, the Colonels tangle with Lock Haven, an Intercollegiate Conference opponent. At 4:30, Saturday, they open up at the record stadium at Lock Haven. Partridge is looking forward to a most interesting season.

Things were rough for the Colonels in the first half. Wilkes, their defense, was allowed to effectively thigh 182 pounds and defensively only 17 pounds. Wilkes was able to hold the Colonels against the opposition's 105. Even though the Colonels were down 7-0, they scored 17 points.

The Colonels, who have been standing for four years, made all-American team, and two of them were turned back, often by Moss's hairbreadth saves in the net. He looked like an All-American at last.

Colonels Lock Bridgeport On Passes; 21-13 Victory, Team's First of Year

By JERRY ELIAS

The Wilkes Colonels, traveling to Bridgeport, came up with their first taste of victory. Playing at home, the Colonels were defeated by 13 points. Everyone thought it was only a matter of time before the Colonels won a game, as they always had a goal and Wilkes was forced to kick. Wilkes, equally strong on defense, was never able to score a pass by a Bridgeport punt which was downed by Colleens in the second. After two successive first downs, Wilkes had to kick with tackle Bob Little and a very successful kicking over fifty yards. The punt was a surprise as the next play, while attempting to punt the ball out of danger, was blocked by the Colonels. This was one of the few errors made by the Colonels.

The kick for the extra point was good and Bridgeport went ahead 7 to 2 over the Colonels as the Colonels coasted.

In the second half, on the second play, Platon attempted a pass and Taylor was intercepted on the twenty-yard line and ran for the Colonels. The Colonels, however, were 13 to 2 in favor of Bridgeport.

Late in the third quarter Wilkins started to move. Davis moved to Kropiewnicki for a first down. Vernon plunged the ball to the end zone for another first down. Russian push led to a touchdown and the Colonels went ahead 19 to 8 in favor of Bridgeport.

In the third quarter Platon slipped a pass to Kropiewnicki, who went for forty yards and was brought down on Bridgeport's forty-five yard line. Vernon moved the ball to the goal line and was stopped.

A series of backs and off tackle plays by the Colonels moved the ball over the one yard. The kick for the extra point was blocked and Wilkes took the lead 15 to 13. From then on, there was no stopping the Colonels. A few minutes unit weighing only 115 lbs., but the offensive line did their job and the Colonels won.

The Colonels were able to take the lead down Bridgeport 21 to 15.

The 1950 Colonial football team was a light team, the offensive line having only a total of 435 lbs., but the defensive unit weighed 575 lbs., and the Colonels were able to take the lead down Bridgeport 21 to 15.
Nose, Throat, and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields — 10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: “It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided.”

Last year with much heat the freshmen, the present sophomores, out-tugged their opponents for a victory.

Len Batman, the boxing forward of the Colonel basketball team, had a record breaking year in 1911. Bart scored an all-time high 439 points, set the most field goals at 148, and the most fouls at 143. His average of 19.09 was just a nose-dropper away from Phil Sokorok's high of 19.61.
